MAYOR CURLEY CALLS FOR THOROUGH REVISION OF SYSTEM OF TAX DISTRIBUTIONS AND SUBSIDIES AND A REDEFINITION OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF STATE, COUNTY AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS—SPEAKS OVER RADIO ON SUBJECT OF "TAX RATES AND TAXATION"—POINTS TO FACT BOSTON NOT ONLY MUNICIPALITY IN STATE WITH HIGH RATE AND ITS RATE IS LOWER THIS YEAR WITH HIGHER COST THAN LAST YEAR—BLAMES LEGISLATURE FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE MEANS OF MEETING COSTS FOISTED UPON CITIES AND TOWNS TO MEET STATE DEMANDS.

His Honor the Mayor spoke on July 1, over Station WMEX, on tax rates and taxation, as follows:

Tax Rates and Taxation.

The tax rate for the City of Boston for the year 1946 has been announced as $42 per $1,000 of valuation. This rate is a reduction of 50 cents per $1,000 from that of last year, notwithstanding the fact that the budget appropriations for city and county purposes for this year, which are included in the tax rate, are $6,021,652 greater than the total budgets of last year.

At the present time 269 of 351 cities and towns have declared their tax rates for this year showing an average increase of $3.05 per $1,000. Included in the 269 are the tax rates of 28 of the 39 cities, which show an average increase of $2.33 per $1,000. In 7 of these cities there is no change in the rate; in one city, Cambridge, there was a reduction of 10 cents in the rate, while in Boston there was a reduction of 50 cents in the rate. Nineteen cities of the 28 reporting had an average increase of $3.47 per $1,000, the largest increase being that of the City of Pittsfield, which had an increase of $7.20, or 21.69 per cent increase over the rate of last year.

Most of the tax rates for towns show very substantial increases over those of 1945, the town of Dunstable having an increase of \$20, equalling 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ per cent increase over the 1945 rate, while some other towns show increases approximating 40 per cent over those of the previous year. The highest rates thus far reported are for the towns of Dudley and Hampden, which are both set at \$54 per \$1,000 for the year 1946. Many others reporting are in excess of \$50 per \$1,000.

Increases Make Problems.

Increases in tax rates generally reflect the problems affecting mayors of cities and selectmen of towns. Not only are cities and towns confronted with postwar problems, which, in some cases, appear to be almost insurmountable, but they are also faced with permissive and mandatory legislation forced upon them by acts of the Legislature. It is a notable fact that such legislation frequently means greatly increased costs, while at the same time the State Legislature has failed to provide any new sources of revenue applicable to these costs, with the result that overburdened real estate must suffer through increased tax rates.

The citizens and taxpayers of Boston are aware of my efforts to secure legislation which would permit the City of Boston to borrow not exceeding $10,000,000 for the purpose of relieving the tax situation. The failure of the Legislature to grant relief still leaves Boston with a confiscatory tax rate, whereas, if the legislation sought by me had been granted, I had hoped to announce a tax rate of $35 per $1,000, which would have been a substantial inducement to business and industrial organizations desiring to locate in our city. It should not be forgotten that during the last twelve years the City of Boston was authorized, under state authority, to borrow approximately $80,000,000 for current purposes, and, notwithstanding this great relief, the tax rate advanced from $32.80 per $1,000 in 1933, the last year of my previous administration, to the excessive rate of $42.50 per $1,000 in 1945. The reasons for refusing any relief to the taxpayers and home owners of Boston for the year 1946 have not yet been made public by the Legislature.

Under the system of taxation in effect in Massachusetts, cities and towns, apart from shared taxes and grants-in-aid distributed by the Commonwealth, must rely on real property taxation or borrowing to finance the cost of municipal services. Unfortunately, while the distributions made by the Commonwealth have brought more money to local treasuries, the basis on which the distributions have been made has been, in the main, unstable and inequitable. Many of the formulas used in the distribution of state-collected taxes tend to remove money from the urban centers where the revenue needs are the greatest. Because the amount of shared taxes received by Massachusetts municipalities is measured, in many cases, neither by the needs of the individual municipalities nor by the nature or quantity of service provided, some localities derive disproportionately large revenues.

STATE ASSISTANCE.

In prosperous times, the distributions tend to increase in amount, but in depression periods, when local needs are the greatest, there is an abrupt falling off in the amount of state assistance. The greatest need in Massachusetts today, from the viewpoint of local finance, is that total state aid to local governments be stabilized. As stated by the Special Commission on Intergovernmental Relations in its report to the Legislature on February 19, 1943, "existing arrangements, while in general designed to accomplish desirable ends, have been haphazard in their development when considered as a whole, and in practice fall short of achieving an equitable allocation of governmental costs and administrative responsibility. What is necessary is a thorough revision of the systems of tax distributions and subsidies, and a redefinition of the financial responsibilities of the state, county and local governments."

Within the past six months, at least seven states in the Union have taken definite action along this line. These states are New York, Michigan, California, Nebraska, Oregon, Pennsylvania and Virginia. In the case of the first two states, following the receipt of reports of special commissions, definite action has been taken to stabilize state distributions. In the case of the other five states, special commissions have been created for the purpose of surveying the local revenue problem and to determine upon appropriate courses of action.

Prior to the current year, similar commissions were appointed in Alabama, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Oklahoma and Vermont, and these groups are still at work on the problem. It is evident, therefore, that the proposal to stabilize state distributions to local communities is not novel or revolutionary in character.

The outstanding accomplishment in this movement has undoubtedly occurred in the neighboring state of New York. Early in 1944, a special commission of 15 members, headed by the Hon. Frank C. Moore, State Comptroller, as chairman, was appointed "to study the fiscal relationship between the state and the local units of government therein, the finances of such local units and the relief of real estate from excessive taxation."

This commission studied the subject matter of its assignment for two years and early this year submitted its recommendations to the New York General Assembly, which subsequently enacted these recommendations into law. Two of these recommendations merit special consideration. The first provided that, beginning with the fiscal year commencing April 1, 1946, and annually thereafter, the state should distribute from state-collected taxes and revenues to each city, town and village, respectively, $6.75, $3.55 and $3 per capita. As stated in the report of the commission, "instead of complex hodgepodge of formulas presently controlling the distribution to cities, towns and villages of taxes shared with the state, this proposal substitutes a definite sum which each will receive during the state's fiscal year, based upon the population of the municipality."

Under this proposal, the commission estimates that approximately $12,500,000 in additional revenue will be distributed by the state to its municipalities. Of this additional amount, New York City will receive approximately $8,800,000 and all other municipalities in New York State $3,700,000.

WELFARE RELIEF.

The second recommendation provides that welfare disbursements for home relief, old age assistance, aid to dependent children and aid to the blind disbursed by local municipalities shall be reduced to and stabilized at 20 per cent of the total expenditures for each type of assistance. Under this proposal, the state will assume the difference between 80 per cent of the cost of such services and the state contribution therefor. As stated by the commission, "The advantages of this method of reimbursement are readily apparent. Our local real estate taxpayers are immediately relieved of a substantial part of the cost of these four social welfare programs. In the event of a major economic depression, the shock of rapidly pyramiding relief costs will be borne by all of the people of the state. The impact on local government budgets in times of economic stress will be materially lessened. The proposal presents a further opportunity for sound local fiscal planning, and gives assurance that well-considered plans will not be disrupted by sudden increases in expenditures for relief and welfare."

According to the estimates of the commission, this change in welfare reimbursement will reduce the local burden by approximately $21,000,000. The City of New York's welfare bill will be relieved to the extent of $15,900,000 and all other localities $5,100,000.

In my opinion, Massachusetts cannot afford to ignore the action which is taking place in many of its sister states. The trail which has been blazed by the action of its neighbor, the great Empire State, is one worth exploring and following if the future of Massachusetts cities and towns is to be safeguarded. In my opinion, the time has arrived for a special legislative consideration of this most pressing problem—the fiscal stability and soundness of local government in Massachusetts.

I therefore recommend for consideration by His Excellency, the Governor, the calling of a Special Legislative Session shortly after Labor Day to determine on policies and procedures which will assure the stabilization of local finance.

Local government is the bulwark of democracy. To preserve the fiscal stability of Massachusetts cities and towns in the uncertain times that lie ahead and thus assure the continued functioning of democratic processes in our beloved Commonwealth, it is desirable that a Special Commission similar to that which functioned so successfully in New York be appointed forthwith and granted the necessary authority and funds to develop a system of taxation which will provide in an equitable manner for the needs of all units of government within the state.

MAYOR SUBMITS $5,000,000 ORDER TO CITY COUNCIL FOR OFF-STREET PARKING.

On July 1 Mayor Curley submitted the following order to the City Council:

GENTLEMEN,—I submit herewith a loan order in the sum of $5,000,000 for public off-street parking facilities in the City of Boston. The authority for this expenditure is contained in chapter 474 of the Acts of 1945.

I also submit herewith a communication from the Chairman of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, the body designated by the Legislature to execute the provisions of the act. The communication is self-explanatory.

The proposal to build off-street parking facilities in Boston is but one of several steps which must be taken to alleviate the saturated traffic condition in our city. In and of itself, this proposal is not the cure for the situation that exists, but it will help materially, and will be the first advance measure adopted to enable our city to meet modern day traffic requirements.

With the exception of the problem of housing for veterans, the traffic problem is the most acute problem facing our city at the present time. It is my intention and purpose to attack this problem and to solve it, insofar as our means permit. In its broad aspect, the problem calls for the financial cooperation of the state government, which cooperation I shall require before proceeding to the major efforts which this problem demands.

In view of the fact that the Board of Real Estate Commissioners cannot proceed under the authority given it by the Legislature until such time as an appropriation for the purpose is provided, I respectfully request your Honorable Body to give this loan order its first reading at today's meeting. It is imperative that work be started on off-street parking facilities immediately, in order that we may meet, in some measure at least, the increasing requirements of motor traffic in the City of Boston.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR THANKED BY VETERANS FOR TICKETS TO FIELD DAY ENTERTAINMENT.

His Honor the Mayor was in receipt of the following communication on July 1:

DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—On behalf of the patients of the veterans hospitals, I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for making available approximately 1,500 tickets for your Charity Field Day that was held at Braves Field on Thursday evening.

The reports from the patients indicated that they enjoyed this type of entertainment, and it was very beneficial to them.

Thank you again for your thoughtfulness in considering the veterans in the hospitals in and around Greater Boston.

Sincerely yours,

MAYOR HAS HOSPITALIZED VETERANS AS GUESTS AT CHARITY FIELD NIGHT.

Mayor James M. Curley, on June 26, made the following statement:

The Mayor's Charity Field Night is serving a double purpose. It not only has helped by the sale of tickets to carry out the principal objectives, which include aid to the underprivileged of Boston, but in addition I have received sufficient contributions which have enabled me to invite 2,200 disabled veterans from the West Roxbury Veterans Administration Hospital, Bedford Veterans Administration Hospital, Cushing General Army Hospital, and Murphy General Hospital. The Red Cross has generously arranged for the transportation of these veterans from the hospitals to Braves Field.

The arrangements for the Veterans Administration are in charge of General William Blake, Director of Veterans Administration, Colonel David Sigourney, Personnel Relations Director for New England, Major Kenneth Newton, Director of Special Services, and Charles Lyons, Director of Recreation and Entertainment.

PORT STORAGE IMPORT ORDER.

The Office of Defense Transportation, in an amendment to its general order No. 16, has instituted a permit system for acceptance by railroads or truckers of shipments of domestic or import freight to specified port areas for storage for the account of a government agency in a public warehouse in such area. Growing volume of imports, due to decline in ship losses, the O. D. T. said, was putting added strain on port storage facilities thus making the institution of a permit system necessary.

The application for the port storage forwarding permit the order says, must be made by the government agency for whose account the freight is to be stored, in accordance with procedures prescribed by the director of the division of storage of the O. D. T., in an administrative order.

The following port areas were named in the order: Baltimore, Bellingham, Wash., Boston, Camden, Everett, Wash., Galveston, Houston, Jacksonville, Los Angeles, Mobile, New Orleans, Newport News, New York, Norfolk, Oakland, Cal., Olympia, Wash., Pensacola, Philadelphia, Portland Ore., Portsmouth, Va., Richmond, Cal., San Francisco, Savannah, Seattle, Tacoma, Tampa, Vancouver.

MERCHANT SHIP PRODUCTION.

Merchant vessels built in the United States in 1943 numbered 1,896 with a total deadweight tonnage of 19,239,626, according to a report by Admiral Land, chairman of the Maritime Commission and administrator of the War Shipping Administration. Of these 208, aggregating 2,044,238 deadweight tons, were completed in December. Of the 1943 production, 1,238 vessels were Liberty ships; 70 C-1 cargo ships, 53 C-2 cargo ships; 39 C-3 cargo ships; 5 C-4 cargo ships; 167 tankers; 28 coastal tankers; 57 Liberty tankers; 3 passenger-cargo vessels; 33 coastal cargo ships, including two concrete ships; 16 ore carriers; 27 concrete barges; 46 seagoing tugs; 114 military types, not transports; 53 special types and a considerable number of smaller types, including tugs, barges, etc. Late in 1943, Admiral Land said 2,900 ships were under control of the War Shipping Administration, operated by some 76 general agents of the W. S. A.

FORECAST OF EXPENDITURES IN 1945.

A total of $308,840,000 is forecast as the expenditures of the transit industry in 1945 for new equipment and maintenance of existing property and equipment. This sum is $25,000,000 more than the forecast for 1944 made at this time last year, and is $40,000,000 more than the expenditure ultimately made in 1944.

Total expenditures in 1945 for new equipment are expected to reach $101,100,000 which compares with $65,592,000 in 1944. New rolling stock will absorb most of the additional money with $61,000,000 being allocated to new buses, $12,000,000 to new cars and $5,000,000 to new trolley coaches. However, it is estimated that $20,000,000 will be spent on ways and structures, which is nearly $5,000,000 more than was spent in 1944. In the power and line departments capital expenditures are forecast at $3,100,000, which is slightly less than was spent in 1944, but is more than double the amount that was forecast for 1944 at this time last year.

Only moderate increases in maintenance expenditures are forecast for 1945. For maintenance materials the total for 1945 is put at $78,340,000, which compares with $76,561,000 spent in 1944. Maintenance labor costs are placed at $129,400,000 for 1945 compared with $126,343,000 in 1944.

FIRE DEFENSES OF FORTY-FOUR CITIES SURVEYED IN 1944, TEN CHANGE CLASS.

During the year 1944 five cities of more than 10,000 population were placed in a better fire insurance classification, and five other cities were put into a poorer class as the result of new surveys made by the National Board of Fire Underwriters or by state rating organizations.

At the end of 1944 a total of 28 cities over 25,000 population were in class 2, 104 cities in class 3, 128 in class 4, and the remaining cities in classes 5 and 6, with none in class 1.

The fire insurance classification of a city is determined through the use of the grading schedule of the National Board of Fire Underwriters in making an engineering appraisal of fire protection facilities.

MODEL FOR BLACKOUT ORDINANCES.

The National Institute of Municipal Law Officers has prepared a blackout ordinance, approved by the Office of Civilian Defense; it delegates reasonable administrative powers to the proper executive officer and contemplates both actual air raid conditions and those of practice blackouts. Several state leagues of municipalities have also prepared model ordinances.

The first city to enact a blackout ordinance was Seattle, Washington, early last year. Many others have done so more recently, the ordinances ranging in character from the type that delegates all authority to the mayor or city manager to those providing no delegation of power but outlining completely the rules for civilian conduct during blackouts. In some cases, at least, the city is declared not liable for damage to persons or property resulting from an authorized blackout.—Municipal Review.

SCHOOL LUNCHEES

On motion of the Chairman, the following communication was ordered spread upon the records:

PEOPLE'S ASSOCIATION FOR BETTER BOSTON SCHOOLS
71 MOUNTFORT STREET
BOSTON 15, MASS.

June 5, 1946.

William J. Barry, Asst. Supt.
Boston School Department
15 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.
My Dear Dr. Barry:

I wish to express our regret that Miss Marian Clark Nichols, a member of our Association, made assertions before the last meeting of the Boston School Committee which were entirely unjustified, unauthorized, and untrue.

Mr. Joseph W. Houston, and Mr. Dwight S. Strong, members of the Sub-Committee on Action of the P. A. B. B. S., join me in stating that, during an appointment with us (which Miss Nichols intruded upon without forewarning) and Miss Eleanor Upham, Director of the School Cafeterias, Miss Upham never said anything which might be construed as meaning, even, that she did not approve of labor unions. Nor did she in any way lead us to feel that she did not believe in Civil Service examinations for appointments to the Staff of the Department.

May I take this opportunity to thank you for permission to visit with Miss Upham and also to pass along to you our gratification at the courteous understanding of our intention which Miss Upham exhibited.

Sincerely yours,

(signed)

Eleanor Broadhurst Strong,
President.

A scaffold-type extra deck enables a modern tanker to carry a load of extra freight the equivalent of 10 per cent of its normal load capacity. Some tankers now carry, in addition to its load of gasoline, deck loads of ambulances, planes, jeeps and trucks.

FAITH IN AMERICAN TRADITION WILL KEEP OUR IDEALISM STEADFAST, A CONSTANT FLAME AND TORCH HELD ALOFT FOR THE GUIDANCE OF OTHER NATIONS, CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS JOHN F. KENNEDY TELLS FANEUIL HALL AUDIENCE IN HIS INDEPENDENCE DAY ORATION ON JULY 4—THIS, COUPLED WITH DEEPLY RELIGIOUS SENSE AND PATRIOTIC INSTINCT, WILL SERVE TO SAVE AMERICAN CHARACTER AND PRESERVE OUR NATION AGAINST ALL EXTERNAL INVIDIOUS AND INSIDIOUS ASSAULTS—IDEAL OF INDIVIDUALISM ALSO A BULWARK OF STRENGTH, HE TELLS AUDIENCE.

The following is the oration delivered by John F. Kennedy at Faneuil Hall on July 4 on "Some Elements of American Character":

We stand today in the shadow of history.

We gather here in the very cradle of Liberty.

It is an honor and a pleasure to be the speaker of the day — an honor because of the long and distinguished list of noted orators who have preceded me on this platform, a pleasure because one of that honored list who stood here fifty years ago, and who is with us here today, is my grandfather.

It has been the custom for the speaker of the day to link his thoughts across the years to certain classic ideals of the early American tradition. I shall do the same. I propose today to discuss certain elements of the American character which have made this nation great. It is well for us to recall them today, for this is a day of recollection and a day of hope.

A nation's character, like that of an individual, is elusive. It is produced partly by things we have done and partly by what has been done to us. It is the result of physical factors, intellectual factors, spiritual factors.

It is well for us to consider our American character, for in peace, as in war, we will survive or fail according to its measure.

Deep Religious Sense.

Our deep religious sense is the first element of the American character which I would discuss this morning. The informing spirit of the American character has always been a deep religious sense.

Throughout the years down to the present, a devotion to fundamental religious principles has characterized American thought and action.

Our government was founded on the essential religious idea of integrity of the individual. It was this religious sense which inspired the authors of the Declaration of Independence:

"We hold these truths to be self evident; that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights."

Our earliest legislation was inspired by this deep religious sense:

"Congress shall make no law prohibiting the free exercise of religion."

Our first leader, Washington, was inspired by this deep religious sense:

"Of all of the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports."

Lincoln was inspired by this deep religious sense:

"That this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

Our late, lamented President was inspired by this deep religious sense:

"We shall win this war, and in victory we shall seek not vengeance but the establishment of an international order in which the spirit of Christ shall rule the hearts of men and nations."

Thus we see that this nation has ever been inspired by essential religious ideas. The doctrine of slavery which challenged these ideas within our own country was destroyed.

Recently the philosophy of racism, which threatened to overwhelm them by attacks from abroad, was also met and destroyed.

Today these basic religious ideas are challenged by atheism and materialism — at home in the cynical philosophy of many of our intellectuals; abroad by the doctrine of collectivism, which sets up the twin pillars of atheism and materialism as the official philosophical establishment of the State.

Inspired by a deeply religious sense, this country which has ever been devoted to the dignity of man, which has ever fostered the growth of the human spirit, has always met and hurled back the challenge of those deathly philosophies of hate and despair. We have defeated them in the past; we will always defeat them.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

INDEPENDENCE DAY ORATION BY JOHN F. KENNEDY.

How well, then, has DeTocqueville said: "You may talk of the people and their majesty, but where there is no respect for God can there be much for man. You may talk of the supremacy of the ballot, respect for order, denounce riot, secession — unless religion is the first link, all is vain."

IDEALISM OF NATIVE PEOPLE.

Another element in the American character that I would bring to your attention this morning is the idealism of our native people — stemming from the strong religious beliefs of the first colonists, developed as they worked the land.

This idealism, this fixed regard for principle, has been an element of the American character from the birth of this nation to the present day.

In recent years the existence of this element in the American character has been challenged by those who seek to give an economic interpretation to American history. They seek to destroy our faith in our past so that they may guide our future. These cynics are wrong, for, while there may be some truth in their interpretation, it does remain a fact, and a most important one, that the motivating force of the American people has been their belief that they have always stood at the barricades by the side of God.

In Revolutionary times, the cry, "No taxation without representation," was not an economic complaint. Rather, it was directly traceable to the eminently fair and just principle that no sovereign power has the right to govern without the consent of the governed. Anything short of that was tyranny. It was against this tyranny that the colonists fired the shot heard 'round the world.

This belief in principle was expressed most impressively by George Washington at the Constitutional Convention in 1783. "It is probable that no plan we propose will be adopted. Perhaps another dreadful conflict is to be sustained. If, to please the people we offer what we ourselves disapprove, how can we afterwards defend our work. Let us raise a standard to which the wise and honest man can repair, the event is in the hands of God."

This idealism, this conviction that our eyes had seen the glory of the Lord — that right was right and wrong was wrong — finally led to the ultimate clash at Bull Run and the long red years of the war between the States.

ECONOMIC INTERPRETATION.

Again the cynics may apply the economic interpretation to this conflict: the industrial North against the agricultural South; the struggle of the two economies. Say what they will, it is an undeniable fact that the Northern Army of Virginia and the Army of the Potomac were inspired by devotion to principle: on the one hand the right of secession; on the other, the belief that the "Union must be preserved."

In 1917, this element of the American character was stimulated by the slogans, "War to End War" and "A War to Save Democracy," and again once more the American people had as their leader a man, Woodrow Wilson, whose idealism was the traditional idealism of America. To such a degree was this true that he was able to say, "Some people call me an idealist. Well, that is the way I know I am an American. America is the only idealist nation in the world."

It is perhaps true that the American intervention in 1917 might have been more effective if the case for American intervention had been represented on less moralistic terms. As it was, the American people eventually came to look upon themselves as giving food and guns to a general cause in which all other people had material ends and in which they alone had moral ends.

The idealism with which we had entered the battle made the subsequent disillusionment all the more bitter and revealed a dangerous facet to this element of the American character, for this bitterness, a direct result of our inflated hopes, brought a radical change in our foreign policy and a resulting withdrawal from Europe. We failed to make the adjustment between what we had hoped to win with what we actually could win. Our idealism was too strong. We would not compromise.

And thus we brought to our shoulders much of the burden of the responsibility for World War II—a burden which we would not then acknowledge but for which we have paid full price in recent years on distant shores, on faraway fields and valleys and hills, on pieces of foreign soil which will be forever ours.

It was perhaps because of this failure that the Second World War never did become a crusade as did the first.

Our idealism had become tarnished, but extraordinary efforts were made to evoke it, and it is indubitably true that the great majority of Americans had strong convictions as to which side spoke for the right before our entry into the war.

It is now in the postwar world that this idealism, this devotion to principle, this belief in the natural law, this deep religious conviction that this is truly God's country and we are truly God's people, will meet its greatest trial.

POWER POLITICS AND IDEALISM.

Our American idealism finds itself faced by the old-world doctrine of power politics. It is meeting with successive rebuffs, and all this may result in a new and even more bitter disillusionment, in another ignominious retreat from our world destiny.

But, if we remain faithful to the American tradition, our idealism will be a steadfast thing, a constant flame, a torch held aloft for the guidance of other nations.

It will take great faith.

Our idealism, the second element of the American character, is being severely tested. Now only time will tell whether this element of the American character will be true to its historic tradition.

The third element of the American character that I would bring to your attention this morning is the great patriotic instinct of our people.

From our pioneer days, perhaps because we were a people who developed from a beachhead on a tremendous continent, this American patriotism has always had as its core a strange and almost mystical love of the land.

Early in our history we acquired, as James Truslow Adams has pointed out, "a sense of unlimited energy face to face with unlimited resources."

Land, land, land, stretching with incredible richness across half a world. Its sheer vastness has made it a challenge to the American spirit. The endless land stretching to the western sun caught the imagination of men who founded this nation and awakened the patriotic spirit that has become a characteristic of the American people.

In America's poet, Walt Whitman, we note this deep sense of the land:

"Land of the pastoral plains, the grass-field of the world, land of those sweet-air'd interminable plateaus!

Land of the herd, the garden, the healthy house of adobe!

Lands where the north-west Columbia winds, and where the south-west Colorado winds!

Land of the eastern Chesapeake! Land of the Delaware!

Land of Ontario, Erie, Huron, Michigan!

Land of the Old Thirteen! Massachusetts land! Land of Vermont and Connecticut!

Land of the ocean shores; land of sierras and peaks;

Land of boatmen and sailors; fishermen's land."

This preoccupation with the land records itself in the catalogue of the colonists' grievances against George III. It has always been reflected in the highest moments of our patriotism, for throughout the years, in the early days here at home and in recent years abroad, Americans have been ever ready to defend this native land.

AMERICAN PATRIOTISM.

From the birth of the nation to the present day, from the Heights of Dorchester to the broad meadows of Virginia, from Bunker Hill to the Batteries of Saratoga, from Bergen's Neck, where Wayne and Nayland's troops achieved such martial wonders, to Yorktown, where British troops surrendered, Americans heroically embraced the soldier's alternative of victory or the grave.

American patriotism was shown at the Halls of Montezuma. It was shown with Meade at Gettysburg, with Sheridan at Winchester, with Phil Carney at Fair-oaks, with Longstreet in the Wilderness, and it was shown by the flower of the Virginia Army when Pickett charged at Gettysburg. It was shown by Captain Rowan, who plunged into the jungles of Cuba and delivered the famous message to Garcia, symbol now of tenacity and determination. It was shown by the 5th and 6th Marines at Belleau Woods, the Yankee Division at Verdun, by Captain Leahy, whose last order as he lay dying was "The Command Is Forward." And in recent years it was shown by those who stood at Bataan with Wainwright, by those who fought at Wake Island with Devereaux, by those who flew in the air with Don Gentile. It was shown by those who jumped with Gavin, by those who stormed the bloody beaches at Salerno with Commando Kelley; it was shown by the First Division at Omaha Beach, by the Second Ranger Battalion as it crossed the Purple Heart Valley, by the 101st as it stood at Bastogne; it was shown at the Bulge, at the Rhine, and at Victory.

Where freedom has been in danger Americans with a deep sense of patriotism have ever been willing to stand at Armageddon and strike a blow for liberty and the Lord.

INDIVIDUALISM A TRAIT.

The American character has been not only religious, idealistic, and patriotic, but because of these it has been essentially individual.

INDEPENDENCE DAY ORATION
BY JOHN F. KENNEDY.

The right of the individual against the State has ever been one of our most cherished political principles.

The American Constitution has set down for all men to see the essentially Christian and American principle that there are certain rights held by every man which no government and no majority, however powerful, can deny.

Conceived in Grecian thought, strengthened by Christian morality, and stamped indelibly into American political philosophy, the right of the individual against the State is the essence of our Constitution. Each man is free. He is free in thought. He is free in expression. He is free in worship.

To us, who have been reared in the American tradition, these rights have become part of our very being. They have become so much a part of our being that most of us are prone to feel that they are rights universally recognized and universally exercised. But the sad fact is that this is not true. They were dearly won for us only a few short centuries ago and they were dearly preserved for us in the days just past, and there are large sections of the world today where these rights are denied as a matter of philosophy and as a matter of government.

We cannot assume that the struggle is ended. It is never-ending.

Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. It was the price yesterday. It is the price today, and it will ever be the price.

The characteristics of the American people have ever been a deep sense of religion, a deep sense of idealism, a deep sense of patriotism, and a deep sense of individualism.

Let us not blink the fact that the days which lie ahead of us are bitter ones. May God grant that, at some distant date, on this day, and on this platform, the orator may be able to say that these are still the great qualities of the American people and that they have prevailed.

FOOD PRESERVATION WEEK
PROCLAMATION.

The week beginning July 15 has been officially set aside by the Department of Agriculture as National Home Food Preservation Week.

The City of Boston received a telegram July 9, 1946, from Paul C. Stark, who heads the National Garden Program. Mr. Stark has pointed out that not only are the demands on the current food supply heavy, but the need for large food shipments to famine areas will continue during the coming fall and winter. This being so, it is most vital that the home gardener produce in abundance during the present summer and preserve part of the summer's abundance for use in the coming winter.

The cooperation of the home gardener will not only add to the total food stores in the community but will also help to hold food prices in line this year. Individual families in meeting food budgets will find the task of meeting such budgets a lighter one as a result of the summer's work.

During this first summer following the recent war, it is most imperative that the home gardener take the utmost care in his gardening, and that the increase in home preservation of food be a greater one.

Our country has taken upon its shoulders the supplying of food to the hungry peoples of the world. However, in taking care of those stricken by famine in other parts of the world, we must still be ever mindful of our own families and neighbors at home.

And so, as Mayor of Boston, I most sincerely urge that all interested citizens not only observe National Home Food Preservation Week, beginning July 15, but carry on in the spirit of this particular week during the coming year.

LAND FOR HOUSING PROJECT SOUGHT.

At a conference held in the Mayor's office on July 8, it appeared that a large housing project in West Roxbury is being delayed by the inability to obtain title to a certain parcel of land, leaving the question as to whether or not the project would be built at all in the balance.

In view of the vital necessity of obtaining additional housing at the present time, the question of immediate procedure to obtain land under the acts providing for condemnation for housing purposes has been referred to the City Law Department.

Upon June 19 the Mayor approved a contract as indicated in the following letter:

BOSTON, June 11, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your approval is respectfully requested of the award of a contract, without public advertising, to the Oversewing Machine Company, 368 Congress street, Boston, for the purchase of one standard Oversewing Machine. Since such a machine can be obtained only from the Oversewing Machine Company, the sole manufacturer, it is not possible to obtain competitive bidding by public advertising.

This contract is for the purpose of replacing a worn-out Oversewing Machine No. 181 which was originally purchased for use in our Binding Department in 1924. The company will allow five hundred dollars ($500) for the used Oversewing Machine which is being traded in, and in addition will allow a 2 per cent discount, making a total net cost of $4,043.32 for the new machine.

Upon the advice of the director, the trustees have voted as follows:

"That there be entered into with the Oversewing Machine Company, 368 Congress street, Boston, a contract for the purchase of a standard Oversewing Machine in the amount of four thousand six hundred thirty-one dollars ($4,631), f. o. b. Los Angeles, California, less 2 per cent discount and five hundred dollars ($500) allowance for Oversewing Machine No. 181 to be traded in by the Boston Public Library."

* Contract awarded.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with contractors, commercial houses, etc., for the furnishing of supplies, labor, etc. Communications from the heads of the several departments were as follows:

CITY CLERK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 18, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your approval is respectfully requested to the purchase of a time-recording stamp from the Simplex Time Recorder Company, 809 Beacon street, Boston.

This time recorder is to replace one in need of extensive repairs. The purchase price of the new recorder is $137.80, less $20 for old recorder.

At the time of the passage of the equipment loan, it was not anticipated that a new time recorder would be needed this year. Consequently, an estimate of its cost was not included in the equipment loan.

In view of the fact, however, that this piece of equipment has an approximate life of ten years, I now request your approval to the purchase of this equipment, to be charged to the loan for departmental equipment.

Respectfully,

JOHN B. HYNES, City Clerk.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—You are respectfully requested to award a service order without publicly advertising for bids for grading and seeding and repairing benches at Winthrop square, Charlestown, to Walter Reed Corporation, 1078 Boylston street, Boston.

The reason that we recommend dispensing with the public advertising for bids is that this work cannot be definitely estimated and determined. It is intended that this company do the work on a per diem basis. On a per diem basis there is nothing that needs to be bid on, as the rate and schedules are the same for all contractors.

The amount of the service order is not to exceed eleven hundred dollars ($1,100), and as it is under $2,000 we request permission to pay this charge by service order, same to be charged to the appropriation, "Park and Playground Improvements, Etc., Revenue."

Respectfully,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 12, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—For some months the Veterans Service Centre has occupied part of the ground floor at 209 Washington street, Boston, which building for some time was owned by the city. Recently the city sold the said building to the 209 Washington Street, Inc., and it is planned to have the said department continue to occupy the said premises at a monthly rental of $750, which I consider reasonable.

Since the said department is established at the said location, I respectfully request your Honor to dispense with advertising and enter into a contract to lease the aforesaid premises on a month-to-month basis for the seven months beginning June 1, 1946, and ending December 31, 1946, at a rental of $750 a month.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES E. SULLIVAN,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

BOSTON, June 27, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—The allocation of space to the various departments on the eighth floor of City Hall Annex resulting from the moving of the Institutions Department to the eleventh floor was completed Monday, June 24.

Immediately I issued three orders: one to the Mass. Electric Construction Company, to do the necessary electrical work in the sum of $135; another order to the Falmouth Construction Company, to do carpentry partition and counter work in the sum of $400; and the third order to Joseph G. Gazzola, to do necessary painting on the eighth floor and Graves Registration room in the sum of $960.

Mr. Fox, the City Auditor, construes that these three orders should be combined and, following his reasoning in this matter, your permission is respectfully requested to award an order to the Falmouth Construction Company in the sum of $400; to award an order to the Mass. Electric Construction Company in the sum of $135; and to Joseph G. Gazzola in the sum of $960. Together these three orders aggregate $1,495.

Respectfully,

JAMES E. SULLIVAN,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 24, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—From time to time this department is required to engage contractors to repair artificial stone sidewalks, in emergencies, in various sections of the city. This procedure is necessary because of the fact that, in some cases, the individual jobs are too large for city employees to handle at the time, or the employees are engaged elsewhere and cannot be taken off the work which they are doing.

In these instances the condition of the sidewalk is such that the city might be liable for suits or claims for personal injuries or property damage, and, for this reason, in these emergencies, it is necessary for this department to see that these sidewalks are restored to proper condition as soon as possible.

In my opinion, no advantage would be gained by advertising because of the nature of the work. The cost in each instance is usually less than $1,000, although, at times, the expense of doing a repair job may exceed that amount.

I respectfully request the authority of your Honor to dispense with advertising and to issue service orders, when necessary, for making emergency repairs in artificial stone sidewalks in various sections of the city, the cost of this work to be charged to the appropriation for Sidewalks, Construction and Reconstruction of.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 25, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of April 17, your Honor approved my letter of April 15, requesting permission to award a contract in the amount of $2,520 to the American Flour Company, 334 Rutherford avenue, Charlestown, for furnishing 600 one-hundred pound bags of bread flour at a price of $4.20 per bag.

Through error, this letter stated that the contractor had offered a 2 per cent cash discount for payment in ten days. My attention has now been directed to the fact that the proposal submitted by this concern made no provision for a cash discount, and your permission is requested to revise my original letter to show the amount of the award as $2,520 with no discount.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

SUFFOLK COUNTY (Sheriff's Office).

BOSTON, May 1, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Under authority of chapter 156, Acts of 1939, amending section 30, chapter 486, Acts of 1909, section 6, chapter 1418, Acts of 1890, I respectfully request permission for the purchase of a new car.

Because of a very satisfactory turn-in allowance of $950 toward a new Ford car priced at $1,333.14, less excise tax of $58.98, the amount actually to be expended will be $324.16, which amount will be much less than keeping the old car in repairs during 1946.

In a previous letter dated April 10, addressed to the Mayor, the request for a transfer from B-14 to C-4 in the Jail appropriations was approved.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK R. SULLIVAN, Sheriff.

REALLOCATION OF BUDGET APPROPRIATIONS.

The Mayor has approved the requests of the following department heads for reallocation and amendment of budget appropriations as contained in the communications listed below:

BUDGET DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your approval is requested to amend the budget of the Superior Court, Civil Session, General Expenses, by transferring the sum of $29.50 from B-34, Jurors, to B-12, Bond and Insurance Premiums. This transfer is necessary to provide sufficient funds to pay the bond premiums on the Assistant Clerks of Court.

The reason the Budget Commissioner makes this request is due to the fact that this particular budget is compiled by the Budget Department from figures submitted by the secretary to the Justices, the Chief Deputy Sheriff, and the Auditor's Office.

This divided responsibility has, for many years, centralized the control of this budget with the Budget Commissioner.

Respectfully,

JOHN A. SULLIVAN,
Budget Commissioner.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 10, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your approval of a transfer from the appropriation B-39 (General Repairs), in the amount of $1,000, to the appropriation C-2 (Machinery) is respectfully requested.

The above transfer is needed to meet the cost of two Prosperity presses for the main hospital laundry.

The cost of installing and furnishing these machines was originally included under the B-39 estimate of the 1946 budget. It now appears that these presses are available but the company cannot install. Therefore, it will be necessary to buy these presses as machinery and have the installations made as far as possible by the hospital mechanics.

Respectfully submitted,

MARTIN J. ENGLISH, M. D.,
President of Trustees.

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 19, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Authority is requested to transfer funds as follows:

Steamer "Michael J. Perkins."

From A-1, Permanent Employees, 3 Deckhands at $33 a week, $492.55, to F-7, Pensions and Annuities, $492.55.

To provide for pension of John Londrigan, deckhand. Annual pension of $860.75, being one half of his highest regular rate of compensation, was authorized by order passed by the City Council June 3, 1946; approved by the Mayor June 4, to take effect June 5.

Respectfully,

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your approval is respectfully requested for the following reallocation of the sum of $1,386 from the allowance for the library for the General Repairs Account (B-39) to the Rent, Taxes and Water Account (B-10). The additional amount needed in the B-10 item is in connection with the necessity of moving additional items into storage space in the New England Deposit Library from the Central Library for the period beginning June 1, 1946. The items to be temporarily stored at the New England Deposit Library represent an additional number of books and other library materials which are infrequently consulted at the Central Library, and which therefore are being moved to the New England Deposit Library in order that certain reallocation of departmental space may be accomplished in the Central Library building for the purpose of improving library service to the public.

The trustees of the Public Library have approved the above-mentioned changes for improving the library services to the public and for making an addition in the amount of $1,386 to the contract covering the library's rental of space with the New England Deposit Library during the current fiscal year.

Your approval of this transfer of funds from the B-39 to the B-10 account is therefore requested.

Respectfully,

MILTON E. LORD, Director.

BOSTON, June 24, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—In the budget of the Library Department for 1946, there was allowed the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) in the Workmen's Compensation Account (F-11). At the time the budget was prepared it was assumed that this sum would be sufficient to take care of payments to employees who might possibly be injured in the performance of their duties. To date this sum of money has already been expended, and it appears that several employees will probably have to be carried on Workmen's Compensation allotments for an indefinite period of time.

It is therefore respectfully requested that the following sum be transferred from the Personnel Service Account (A), $500, to the Workmen's Compensation Account (F-11), $500.

Respectfully,

MILTON E. LORD, Director.

OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

BOSTON, June 10, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—This department respectfully requests the following transfers in the Central Office appropriation of this department:

From F-9, Dependent Aid, $1,084.39, to B-5, Express Charges, $61.38; B-6, Hire of Teams, etc., $950; B-14, Motor Vehicle Repairs, $38.01; B-35, Fees, Service of Venires, $35.

B-5, appropriation requested $200; appropriation allowed $75. This has not been sufficient to cover the cost of trucking machines.

B-6, appropriation requested $125; appropriation allowed $125. The department had stored in the Bennett School, Dighton street, Brighton, a substantial amount of equipment and furniture. During the current year, we received complaints that boys were getting into the building through the fire escape and had scattered records throughout the building which constituted a serious fire hazard. Consequently, it was necessary to move this furniture to another location. This had not been anticipated at the time the budget was submitted.

B-14, appropriation requested $100; appropriation allowed $100. Repairs to the department automobile actually cost $138.01.

B-35, appropriation requested $100; appropriation allowed $100. This has not been sufficient due to the increase in the number of records (births, deaths, marriages, etc.) which the department has found it necessary to provide funds for.

Respectfully,

DANIEL A. MURPHY,
Acting Secretary.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request that our budget for 1946 be changed so that we might be able to purchase ash barrels and water pails, which are necessary for the proper conduct of the business of this department.

Accordingly, will you kindly transfer the sum of $65 from the Item C-13, Tools, to the Item C-7, Furniture and Furnishings.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

BOSTON, June 18, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request your permission to alter our budget to allow the position of crane operator at $6 a day.

It is necessary that we have a man to operate a crane in this department, especially for the clearing away of trees and the moving of large equipment. I desire to promote John F. O'Brien, 64 Cohasset street, Roslindale, a veteran, from laborer to crane operator, with a change in salary from $5.50 to $6 a day.

Accordingly, I ask your permission to reduce the quota on laborers at $5.50 a day, by one, and to create the rating of crane operator at $6 a day.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

BOSTON, June 21, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request permission to alter our 1946 budget by transferring the sum of $2,000 from A-1, Permanent Employees, to F-11, Workmen's Compensation.

337 Laborers, Gardening Laborers, etc., at $5.50 a day, $1,600; 4 Green-keeper's Assistants, at $2,000 a year, $400.

The Budget Commissioner allowed us $2,500 on the Workmen's Compensation item for 1946. He felt at that time that he was giving us ample allowance for this is an item that is hard to anticipate our yearly expenditures. It is entirely dependent upon the number of injuries received by the employees while in the performance of their duties.

We have now expended this amount of $2,500, and it is necessary that we have this transfer at once to meet the current pay rolls. This transfer from A-1, I feel, is perfectly in order because these men who have been receiving workmen's compensation were placed in our budget for the full amount of salary for the year chargeable to A-1. The weeks they have been on the rolls collecting workmen's compensation from the F-11 item, their regular weekly salaries have been saved on the A-1 item.

I shall appreciate an early approval as it is necessary to keep up with the workmen's compensation payments.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 20, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request your approval to transfer funds from C-4, Motor Vehicles, $205, to B-14, Motor Vehicles Repair and Care, $155; B-39, General Repairs, $25; E-13, Miscellaneous Materials, $25.

In the 1946 budget this department requested $380, for B-14; $250 was allowed; $125 was spent for repairs to the department car, a Packard transferred to this department in very poor condition, unsuitable for use.

B-39, a contract for repairs to typewriters called for $36; a new contract with Joseph Harrington & Co. called for $54.

E-13, this is for emergency parts for department car (Packard).

Very truly yours,

MAXWELL B. GROSSMAN,
Penal Institutions Commissioner.

BOSTON, June 24, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request your permission to reallocate the sum of $800 from budget, Item A-1, Permanent Employees, 78 Officers at $1,600 to $2,200, to A-2, Temporary Employees, in order that we may engage the services of a temporary fireman and a temporary engineer to enable the permanent firemen and engineers to have their annual vacations.

Very truly yours,

MAXWELL B. GROSSMAN,
Penal Institutions Commissioner.

PRINTING DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 3, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested for the reallocation within our current budget of the following item:

From C-17, Miscellaneous Equipment, $15, to C-15, Tires, Tubes and Accessories, $15.

This amount will be required to cover the cost of a battery for our truck.

Very truly yours,

JOHN J. TWOMEY,
Superintendent.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Approval is respectfully requested for reallocation of Sanitary Division funds as follows:

$663.60 from C-15 to C-5.

Item C-5, Motorless Vehicles. This money is needed to pay for thirty-six (36) new pushcart frames, which are required on account of the dilapidated condition of the old ones.

$728.17 from E-13 to E-1.

Item E-1 Lumber. This money is needed to pay for lumber ordered for repairs at the Albany Street Receiving Station in order to place the structure in a safe condition.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, June 14, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Approval is respectfully requested to amend the budget of the Bridge Service of this department, as follows:

Increase item, chauffeur-laborers from (4) to (5) at $6-$5.50 a day plus $100 E. C. A.

When the 1946 budget was made up this vacancy was omitted in error. It is essential to the proper upkeep of the Bridge Service that this position be reestablished and a chauffeur-laborer appointed.

The vacancy was caused by the promotion of John J. Coffey, chauffeur-laborer to carpenter-chauffeur-laborer on June 20, 1945.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,

She was transferred to this department on April 3, 1946, and the excellent performance of her duties has been an asset to the department. This change will not cause any increase in the budget appropriation of this department.

Very truly yours,

DAVID J. BRICKLEY,
Commissioner.

MUNICIPAL OFF-STREET PARKING FOR CLEVELAND.

According to reports, free parking will be offered at municipal parking ground to be established in Cleveland, to relieve overtaxed private lots and garages in the downtown area. This announcement was made recently as Mayor Burke met with traction authorities and requested servicing of the area with adequate day-long 5-cent transportation to the central business district.

Law Director Lee C. Howley is quoted to have said: "We'll offer these parking facilities at no cost to motorists and will run them into the downtown area for a nickel."

The Mayor, meeting with General Manager Walter J. McCarter and Traction Board Chairman William C. Reed, asked that the Loop bus line be revised to extend its services into the free lake-front parking space. As soon as the area is opened, the Mayor said, it will be staffed with attendants, protection provided for cars of parkers and a shelter house constructed if use of the lot warrants.

PORT STORAGE IMPORT ORDER.

The Office of Defense Transportation, in an amendment to its general order No. 16, has instituted a permit system for acceptance by railroads or truckers of shipments of domestic or import freight to specified port areas for storage for the account of a government agency in a public warehouse in such area. Growing volume of imports, due to decline in ship losses, the O. D. T. said, was putting added strain on port storage facilities thus making the institution of a permit system necessary.

The application for the port storage forwarding permit the order says, must be made by the government agency for whose account the freight is to be stored, in accordance with procedures prescribed by the director of the division of storage of the O. D. T., in an administrative order.

The following port areas were named in the order: Baltimore, Bellingham, Wash., Boston, Camden, Everett, Wash., Galveston, Houston, Jacksonville, Los Angeles, Mobile, New Orleans, Newport News, New York, Norfolk, Oakland, Cal., Olympia, Wash., Pensacola, Philadelphia, Portland Ore., Portsmouth, Va., Richmond, Cal., San Francisco, Savannah, Seattle, Tacoma, Tampa, Vancouver.

REPORT OF DENNIS C. HALEY, ASSISTANT SUPER-INTENDENT, ON ATTENDANCE AT EASTERN COMMERCIAL TEACHERS ASSOCIATION CONVENTION, IN NEW YORK CITY, APRIL 17 TO 20, 1946, INCLUSIVE.

The following report has been received by the School Committee:

Boston, May 6, 1946.

MR. ARTHUR L. GOULD,
*Superintendent of Public Schools,
Boston, Massachusetts.*

DEAR MR. GOULD,—The 49th Annual Convention of the Eastern Commercial Teachers' Association was held in New York City on April 17, 18, 19 and 20, 1946. I wish to submit a report on my attendance at this convention.

The theme for this first postwar Eastern Commercial Teachers' convention was "Immediate Teaching Problems in Business Education." This timely and well-chosen theme was developed by speakers and teacher-demonstrators in section meeting programs.

The convention was opened by the President of the Eastern Commercial Teachers' Association, Mr. Raymond C. Goodfellow. The principal address at this meeting was delivered by Dr. Elvin S. Eyster, Director of Business Education for the City of Fort Wayne, Indiana, and Professor of Business Administration at Indiana University. The title of his talk was "New Responsibilities in Business Education."

The section meetings were devoted to several subject-matter areas and timely phases of business education. These section meetings featured typewriting, bookkeeping, distributive education, social business education, contacts with the Federal Government, secretarial training, dictation and transcription, geography, business machines and business school responsibilities.

I visited as many of these section meetings as possible and participated in the discussions that followed each speaker's presentation.

On the mezzanine and north ballroom floors of the hotel there were approximately 50 exhibits on display. These exhibits showed the latest developments in equipment and teaching materials in all commercial fields, including textbooks, machines and postwar productions.

I obtained many valuable ideas which will assist me in directing commercial education in the future. I plan to take up several problems with our Commercial Council in connection with planning the work next year.

Sincerely yours,

DENNIS C. HALEY,
Assistant Superintendent.

NAVY DEPARTMENT THANKS MAYOR FOR SERVICES RENDERED DURING RECENT SHIP FIRE IN SOUTH BOSTON.

Mayor Curley has received the following letter:

Headquarters, First Naval District, North Station Office Building, 150 Causeway Street, Boston 14, Mass.

Boston, July 15, 1946.

THE HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—I wish to express the very sincere appreciation of the Navy in the First Naval District for the prompt, efficient and most willing service rendered at the Naval Dry Dock, South Boston, last Saturday morning during the serious conflagration which endangered a great deal of valuable Government property.

I am particularly grateful to the Fire Department, which responded immediately to the call for assistance. The chief at the scene appreciated the situation immediately and issued a three alarm call. He and his men were able to run some very long hose lines down the pier at a time when the electrical power had failed, due to the fire, and deprived the ships of their normal water supply.

I would particularly commend the officer in charge and the crew of the harbor police boat "Pierce" for the praiseworthy manner in which that craft was brought under extreme difficulty, due to lines and other obstructions in its path, to the scene of the blaze and to the rescue of Navy and civilian personnel on the dock. But for the prompt and efficient action of the crew of this boat, the toll of injured might have been heavy.

Altogether, the teamwork of your Fire and Police Departments with our Naval Command was most inspiring and heartening, and you may well be proud of the part which the city played in averting what might have been a great catastrophe.

Most sincerely yours,

M. L. DEYO, Rear Admiral,
U. S. Navy, Commandant,
First Naval District.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of June 14, 1946, bids were publicly opened and read at this office on proposals for furnishing and delivering, as required, 700 tons of ice for the Public Works Department for use in drinking fountains.

Your permission is requested to award this contract to the Boston Ice Company, 268 Heath street, Jamaica Plain, the only bidder, at its price of $6 per ton. The total award will be $4,200.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with several contractors, supply houses and merchandise dispensers for furnishing labor, materials, etc. Communications from the heads of the several departments interested were as follows:

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 21, 1946.

To HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor,
City of Boston.

From G. FRANK McDONALD, Commissioner.

Subject: New Automobile, Institutions Department, Central Office.

Authority is respectfully requested to charge $1,200 to the Departmental Equipment Loan for the purchase of a six-passenger automobile to take the place of our 1942 Mercury sedan which is no longer dependable. The car is used for the transportation of patients to Tewksbury, the movement of children in wide areas, and service to the Long Island boat. We need a heavier car for this constant use which will cost approximately $1,850. The turn-in value of the Mercury is estimated at $700.

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

BOSTON, June 27, 1946.

To HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor,
City of Boston.

From G. FRANK McDONALD, Commissioner, Institutions Department.

Subject: New England Insulating Company Contract.

Your approval is respectfully requested to permit the Institutions Department to award a contract to the New England Insulating Company, 839 Albany street, Boston, for the sum of two thousand eight hundred fourteen dollars ($2,814) for continuing the waterproofing of the Nurses' Home at Long Island, Boston Harbor, with Insul-mastic compound.

The waterproofing of the north and east walls of the Nurses' Home, performed under a contract awarded by this department on June 24 to this concern, has proven very satisfactory. During the last heavy rainfall no water entered the building. Rather than delay until next year the completion of the whole building, we have decided it is necessary to complete this wall in addition to what is already done.

As this price is based on the footage already completed and will have the same specifications, no advantage can be had by publicly advertising for bids.

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

BOSTON, June 26, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—The Board of Overseers of the Public Welfare respectfully requests your permission to add to the list of undertakers now selected to do the burial work of this department for the year 1946 the name of Mr. George W. Cuddy, 670 Broadway, South Boston.

The amount of the contract will probably exceed $1,000. However, the Board feels that due to the nature of the services to be performed it is not advisable to publicly advertise for bids.

Very truly yours,

MARGARET J. GOOKIN, Chairman.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 19, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—This department has suffered considerable damage to its trees, particularly those on the city's streets, throughout the city as the result of the storm of Saturday evening, June 8, 1946.

It was necessary for us to cut down hundreds of trees and to clear them away from the highways in order that traffic could proceed in an orderly manner and that the safety of the public would be protected. In order to do this work properly, it was necessary for us to have some outside assistance. Accordingly, we found it necessary to retain the services of William J. Banfield, 50 Terminal street, Charlestown, because of the existing emergency.

Mr. Banfield started on this work June 15, and from present indications will work through July 4. He is furnishing two 5-ton trucks with drivers at the rate of $3.50 an hour and the necessary men, not to exceed four in number, at $1.15 an hour.

I request your approval of this action and also your approval to pay Mr. Banfield on a series of service orders covering this work. Your approval is requested in this instance because the work will entail the expenditure of over one thousand dollars during the period Mr. Banfield will be engaged in this work. The removal of the trees was a grave emergency and therefore it would not have been possible for us to have advertised this work.

The cost of this work is to be charged to B-39 in the Park Department budget.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

BOSTON, June 21, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—It is necessary that we make immediate repairs to the roofs of the buildings at the following locations: John J. Doherty Playground, Charlestown; Franklin Park Bird House and the Franklin Park Lion House.

I found it difficult to obtain the services of a contractor to do this work but after considerable effort I received a quotation from John J. Hourihan, 227 Heath street, Jamaica Plain. Mr. Hourihan has done a great deal of work for this department and I have found it most satisfactory.

I am asking your approval of this work because the cost of the three jobs will total $1,205, divided as follows:

John J. Doherty Playground, $290; Franklin Park Bird House, $450; Franklin Park Lion House, $465.

This work is to be charged to B-39 in our budget.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

BOSTON, June 27, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—You are respectfully requested to approve the authorization of a service order in the approximate sum of $1,213 to the Boston Edison Company, 39 Boylston street, Boston, Mass., for the installation of three (3) street lights on the cross-walk of Fallon Field, Roslindale.

The reason for this request is that this cross-walk leading from the street car line on Belgrade avenue to Walter street is very dark at night, and people using the walk have been held up.

As the plans and suggestions have been made by the Boston Edison Company, they are the logical contractors to make this installation. The cost of this work, estimated at approximately $1,213, is to be charged to the appropriation, Park and Playground Improvements, Etc., Revenue.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

BOSTON, June 15, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—This department has found it necessary to have an extra truck employed here from time to time to perform necessary supplemental work that can not be done by our regular equipment. For some time past we have had the services of R. W. Delano, of 21 Mattakeeset street, Mattapan, and we have been paying him on a series of service orders.

I respectfully request that you grant us permission to continue Mr. Delano's services as needed from time to time. During the course of the year the total cost of this service may run over $1,000 and I ask your permission to continue to employ Mr. Delano with the understanding that he be paid on service orders, all of which will be at much smaller amounts than the sum of $1,000. They will be charged to B-6 in our budget or, as occasion warrants, to the Special Appropriation, Park and Playground Improvements, Etc., Revenue.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

BOSTON, June 25, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—You are respectfully requested the authority to issue a service order in the sum of $1,200 for installing floodlights on poles at the Barry Playground, Charlestown.

Due to numerous complaints from the residents of Charlestown and a further complaint from the judge of the Municipal Court, a study has been made so as to provide additional lighting on the Barry Playground. The Boston Consolidated Gas Company, Charlestown Electric Division, has submitted a proposal to furnish and set four (4) poles with two (2) floodlights on each pole which should light up that section toward the sea wall and near the field house. The Boston Consolidated Gas Company, Charlestown Electric Division, is the public service corporation furnishing electric service to this section of Boston.

We feel that there is nothing to be gained by advertising to do this work as the recognized company furnishing electric service in this section of Boston is the Boston Consolidated Gas Company, 100 Arlington street, Boston. Under the circumstances we feel that this company should make the installation. The cost of this work is to be charged to the appropriation, Park and Playground Improvements, Etc., Revenue.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 21, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Owing to a recent law passed chapter 69, Acts of 1941, which provides "that all persons committed for any crime unless the Court otherwise orders, take or cause to be taken his name, age, height, weight, photograph and general description and copies of his fingerprints in accordance with the fingerprint system of identification of criminals. All such photographs and identifying matter shall be transmitted forthwith to the Commissioner of Public Safety." The above law took effect as of June 8, 1941, and it is compulsory that all inmates be photographed upon commitment on and after that date.

In accordance with the above law, I therefore respectfully request permission to award a contract without publicly advertising to White Photographer for the performance of taking photographs of all persons committed to the House of Correction, Deer Island, in the sum of one and seventy-five hundredths dollars

($1.75) for each set of two pictures of each person photographed. Estimated cost will exceed $1,000.

This type of work is necessarily of a very confidential nature. White Photographer has performed work for the city in the past and same was done in a highly satisfactory manner. Because this company has guarded carefully these confidences, and because confidential matter is best intrusted to one company, I feel that the city's interest will be best served by awarding the contract to White Photographer, 140 Boylston street, Boston.

Very truly yours,

MAXWELL B. GROSSMAN,
Penal Institutions Commissioner.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 19, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—At the Charlestown Municipal Building the hot water storage tank has deteriorated to such an extent as to make repairs impossible. This is a steel tank with a capacity of approximately 1,000 gallons and has been in service for over eleven years, which is about the average life of such a tank. This department sent out bids to 3 (three) reputable heating and plumbing companies, per specifications attached.

The following bids have been received: C. J. Donohue, 102 Meridian street, East Boston, $1,385; J. P. O'Hearn Company, 9 Columbia place, Dorchester, $1,420; P. J. Riley & Co., 295 Highland street, Roxbury, $1,430.

As time is of the essence and the work being of an emergency nature, nothing can be gained by the usual form of advertising. I feel that the best interests of the city will be served by awarding this contract to the low bidder, the C. J. Donohue Company, in the sum of $1,385.

Respectfully,

JAMES E. SULLIVAN,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, May 16, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of April 26, your Honor approved extensions of coal contracts with the Staples Coal Company and the Snider Fuel Company for the period from April 30, 1946, to May 31, 1946. The extension of these contracts was occasioned by the unsettled conditions in the coal industry as explained in this department's letter of April 22.

At that time your Honor was not requested to extend the contract of the Everett Fuel Corporation for furnishing anthracite coal to the various public buildings because of failure on the part of the contractor to satisfactorily comply with the terms of the contract.

The Boston Ice Company, a reputable supplier in the past and now in a position to bid on the city's requirements since the lifting of governmental regulations, has offered to furnish the city's current needs at prices somewhat lower than those charged by the previous contractor: $16.39 per ton for stove, egg and nut coal, and $12.14 per ton for buckwheat coal.

Your permission is requested, therefore, to purchase coal from the Boston Ice Company at these prices during the period from April 30, 1946, to May 31, 1946.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, June 13, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of May 31, your Honor approved my letter of May 16, requesting permission to purchase coal from the Boston Ice Company during the month of May. At that time it was believed that it would be possible to obtain bids during that month for the new coal contracts; however, because of unstable conditions in the coal industry, I believe it better to wait for a more advantageous time.

Your permission is requested, therefore, to revise my letter of May 16 and to award a contract without publicly advertising for bids to the Boston Ice Company for furnishing during the months of May and June:

100 tons buckwheat coal at $12.14 a ton, $1,214; 125 tons nut, stove and egg coal at $16.39 a ton, $2,048.75. Total award, $3,262.75.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, June 21, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is requested to award a contract without publicly advertising for bids to Remington Rand, Inc., for furnishing to the Collecting Department the following tabulating machine equipment:

One Type 212, Interpreter, No. 8-7554, $1,865; four Auto Punches, 203 Type with Verifying Attachment, No. 9-8134, at $897 each, $3,588; one Type 213, Verifying Machine, No. 11-560, $2,340; one Type 220, Sorter, No. 903855, $1,188; one Type 285, Tabulator, No. 9-1311, $8,168; two Tabulator Wiring Units, at $200 each, $400. Total, $17,549.

This equipment is now in operation in the Collecting Department on a yearly rental basis amounting to $6,264.

Until a short time ago this equipment could not be purchased outright by the city but was secured on a straight rental basis. Remington Rand, Inc., has now inaugurated a program which will allow the outright purchase of these machines and has offered the city a discount of approximately 58 per cent from the original list prices.

In my opinion, the outright purchase of these machines would represent a considerable saving to the city and for this reason I recommend your approval of the award.

Since Remington Rand, Inc., is the manufacturer, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, June 12, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of May 28, 1946, your Honor approved contracts with the International Business Machines Corporation for furnishing tabulating machines, equipment and services on a monthly rental basis to the Public Welfare and Auditing Departments. These contracts will expire on June 15.

At the present time, Remington Rand, Incorporated, is conducting a survey of these two departments for the purpose of determining the feasibility of substituting its equipment, which may be purchased outright, for the I.B.M. equipment which can be obtained only on a rental basis.

This office has been advised by Remington Rand, Incorporated, that the survey will take approximately six months and, for this reason, your permission is requested to extend the termination date of the two contracts in question until December 31, 1946.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, June 18, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is requested to purchase from the Addressograph-Multigraph Corporation, without public advertisement, for the use of the Retirement Board, the following:

1 Model 1950 Electric Addressograph, $752, with the following attachments:

Dater, $19.60; Light, $8.95; Extra Cut-off and Ribbon Guards, $14; Cover, $1.70; Shelf, $12; Numbering Device, $106; Sheet Lister for 2 Columns, $408; Counter, $14.50. Total, $584.75. Approximate delivery charges to Boston, $20. Approximate total, $1,356.75.

As the Addressograph-Multigraph Corporation is the manufacturer of this machine, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, June 21, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of June 11, 1946, bids were publicly opened and read at this office on proposals for furnishing denatured alcohol for city departments until December 31, 1946, with the privilege of purchasing on the same terms and conditions to April 1, 1947.

The two concerns quoting submitted equal bids on different brands of anti-freeze. For the past three years this contract has been filled by Automotive Distributors, Incorporated, supplying "Thermo-Royal" and "Prestone." This anti-freeze has proved highly satisfactory for city use and the contractor has promptly discharged all contractual obligations.

Automotive's bid is irregular inasmuch as the Auditing Department copy was filed one minute late. I believe it to be to the best interests of the city to accept its bid, and your permission is requested to dispense with further advertisement and award this contract to Automotive Distributors, Incorporated, 201 Brighton avenue, Allston, at the prices shown on the attached tabulation.

The total amount of the contract will be $3,982.38, less a cash discount of 2 per cent for payment in ten days.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

J. J. Hurley and Company have been granted a further extension of time for completion of contract for installation of apparatus for injecting boiler compound into boilers in Power Plant, Boston City Hospital, from April 15, 1946, to November 15, 1946.

This further extension is requested because of delays beyond his control, in delivery to the contractor, of the pump called for in the contract.

J. J. Hurley and Company have been granted a further extension of time for completion of contract for repairs, alterations and replacements to sterilizer facilities, Dowling Building, Boston City Hospital, from May 1, 1946, to July 15, 1946.

This further extension is requested because of unavoidable delay in shipment of the sterilizer.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

Dana Somes has been granted an extension of time until July 1, 1946, for the completion of the contract for architect's services, repairs and alterations to the Aquarium, South Boston.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Coffin and Richardson, Incorporated, have been granted a further extension of the time of completion of the contract for engineers' services for a proposed incinerator on Southampton street, Boston, dated May 4, 1945, from June 1, 1946 to August 1, 1946.

Because of the necessity for further conferences in connection with this work, the plans and specifications have been delayed in completion, so for that reason the extension of time requested is necessary.

REALLOCATION OF BUDGET APPROPRIATIONS.

The Mayor has approved requests for reallocation and amendment of budget appropriations as follows:

COLLECTING DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 19, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your approval is respectfully requested to amend the Collecting Department Water Budget (A-1, Permanent Employees Appropriation), in order that Robert W. Bourne, clerk-stenographer, may be granted an increase in salary from $2,200 per annum to $2,300 per annum plus $200 Emergency Compensation Allotment, effective June 5, 1946.

Mr. Bourne is a returned war veteran, and it is desired to grant him the increase he would have received had he not been serving in the U. S. Navy. Reduce quota of clerk-stenographers from two to one at $2,200 and establish quota of one clerk-stenographer at $2,300.

Respectfully yours,

DANIEL F. DONOVAN, City Collector.

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 27, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Authority is requested to reallocate funds as follows:

Long Island Hospital.

From D-3, Fuel, $800, to D-13, Chemicals and Disinfectants, $800.

On February 4, 1946, upon recommendation of the Boston Fire Department, the Long Island Hospital ordered 50 five-gallon cans of liquid foam at a cost of $800.

Inasmuch as the fire protection was subsequently taken over by the Fire Department, the Long Island Hospital had no use for the liquid and it was stored at Long Island. We have requested the Supply Department to see that it is transferred to some other department as soon as requisitions are received.

This explains present shortage on item D-13. Requisitions for disinfectants, insecticides, etc., are being held awaiting transfer.

Respectfully yours,

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

BOSTON, June 25, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Authority is requested to transfer funds as follows:

Steamer "Michael J. Perkins."

From B-39, General Repairs, $350, to D-11, Gasoline, Oils, Grease, $350.

To provide for purchase of engine and cylinder oils for the remainder of the year. Insufficient funds were requested in the budget. Annual requirements include: 12 drums engine oil; 96 gallons cylinder oil.

Respectfully yours,

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 28, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request permission to alter the budget of the Cemetery Division, Park Department, in the personnel item, by reducing the number of permanent laborers at $5.50 per day by one and increasing the number of laborer-chauffeurs at $6 per day by one.

There is now pending in the office of the Budget Commissioner an adjustment in compensation for Mr. Erwin Hainline, of 17 Iroquois street, Roxbury, of fifty cents per day, and this request is made so that Mr. Hainline's compensation will be the same as that paid other chauffeurs in this division.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

AIDS PAID TO PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS FROM INCOME OF MASSACHUSETTS SCHOOL FUND.

State participation in the financing of education began with the establishment of the Massachusetts School Fund in 1834, the income from which was to be used "for the aid and encouragement of common schools," (chapter 169, Acts of 1834). The principal of this fund is now $5,000,000. The income of the fund has been distributed in many different ways. In 1835, population and the amount raised by local taxation for school support were the determining factors. Many changes followed until the present complex provisions were enacted, mostly in 1919, with some modification in later years.

DAMAGES SUSTAINED.

The Mayor has approved the following vote of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of July 19, 1945, determining that no person sustains damages by the making of the public improvement consisting of the laying out of LaRose place, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by striking out in the first and second lines of said order the words: "that no person sustains in his estate," and by striking out in the last line of said order the word: "no." That said order be further amended by adding thereto Nora M. Harkness, $88. That the amount $88 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Nora M. Harkness for the damages sustained by the making of the said improvement.

PERMIT FOR BOAT HIRE.

The Mayor has approved the following request of the Institutions Commissioner:

Boston, July 1, 1946.

To Hon. James M. Curley, Mayor, City of Boston.

From G. Frank McDonald, Commissioner, Institutions Department.

Subject: Boat Hire.

Authority is requested to incur expenditures, not exceeding $2,000, for boat hire when the steamer "Stephen O'Meara" or "Michael J. Perkins" is incapacitated. This department has been accustomed to hire the "723" or equal at $20 per round trip, to allow the "O'Meara" crew time off, one trip on Saturday, two trips Sunday, and as required on holidays. These trips are covered by service orders and charged to Item B-10 of the steamer budget. (See Service Order No. 21 and such other orders as may be required). In addition to the regular trips, we are obliged to hire a substitute boat when either the "O'Meara" or "Perkins" is out for repairs and charge same to Item B-39. The Department usually hires the "Corkum," a larger boat, at $70 per day for this purpose, although occasionally when the "Corkum" is not available the "723" is used. The prices appear reasonable and I believe nothing could be gained by advertising.

Respectfully,

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

NO DAMAGES SUSTAINED.

The Mayor has approved the following votes of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Voted, That this Board determines that no person sustains damages by the taking of an easement for sewerage purposes and the construction of sewerage works in Greenwood avenue, Hyde Park, under the order of the Board of July 5, 1946, herewith, and awards no damages therefor.

Voted, That the order of the Street Commissioners and Mayor of February 27, 1945, as amended, determining damages caused by the making of the public improvement consisting of the laying out of Northbourne road, be, and the same hereby is, amended, by adding to said order the amount $62.80 as an award to Minnie M. Craig, trustee; that the amount $62.80 be, and the same hereby is, awarded to Minnie M. Craig, trustee, for the damages so sustained.

BOSTON'S CREDIT HIGH.

On July 18 the Mayor issued the following statement:

City Treasurer Henry F. Brennan awarded on July 18 to a Syndicate headed by Halsey, Stuart and Company, which represented 21 investment houses, an issue of $6,825,000 various purpose City of Boston bonds at a net interest cost to the City of 1.2463 per cent. Bids were received from four Syndicates representing over fifty of the largest investment houses in the country. The number of bids received for this issue of bonds reflects the high credit standing of the City of Boston and the confidence in the City held by bankers and security dealers.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—This department has awarded a contract for the reconstruction of Columbus avenue, Roxbury, from Northampton street to Station street, with a sheet asphalt pavement. This contract calls for the widening of the existing roadway, thereby reducing the width of the existing sidewalks. This narrowing of the sidewalks will necessitate the relocating of sixteen (16) Edison street lights. In accordance with our contract with the Boston Edison Company, any change in the location of a lamp, once installed, must be made only at the expense of the city. The estimated cost of the relocation of these sixteen lamps is $5,718, less salvage of $330, making a net cost to the city of $5,388. I respectfully request the authority of your Honor to issue a service order to the Boston Edison Company to relocate these lamps at a net cost of $5,388 and to have the cost of this work charged to the appropriation "Public Ways, Construction of."

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with several firms, commercial houses and contractors for furnishing supplies, labor, etc. Communications from the heads of the several departments interested were as follows:

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 8, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your approval is respectfully requested for the award of a contract without advertising to the N. L. C.

Engineering and Equipment Company, in the approximate sum of $1,650; of this amount $1,147.95 is for parts and the remainder for labor, for reconditioning No. 2 Ames Vertical Una-flow Engine in Power House, Boston City Hospital. This company is the authorized agent of the Ames Iron Works, who were the manufacturers of this engine, and is therefore the only contractor equipped to make the necessary repairs to the engine. The Trustees feel that nothing can be gained by advertising, and therefore recommend the award of the contract to the N. L. C. Engineering and Equipment Company, in the approximate sum of $1,650.

Respectfully yours,

MARTIN J. ENGLISH, M. D.,
President, Board of Trustees.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 12, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—On June 8, 1946, you approved a contract which this department made with J. A. Singarella Company for replacing artificial stone sidewalks in certain portions of the city where the Water Division had made openings for the purpose of repairing its underground structures. This contract covered the replacement of 10,000 square feet of sidewalks, at an estimated cost of $4,000.

The above-mentioned firm has practically completed the work called for by this contract and has performed it very satisfactorily. However, there is still a large amount of work to be done in the replacement of additional areas of sidewalks of this type opened by the Water Division. I consider that, under the circumstances, it will be to the city's advantage to make another contract with this firm. Under this arrangement the city can have this work done at substantial savings, and the probability of suits and claims against the city because of the defective condition of these sidewalks may be removed.

Many of the street and sidewalk areas in Districts No. 6 and 6A are at present being restored by J. A. Singarella Company, under the provisions of section 9 of chapter 27 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925, insofar as the surfaces were removed or damaged by public service corporations in the performance of work for which permits had been issued by this department. Because of this situation, the city is able to have the necessary work done by the same contractor at substantial savings to the city.

I do not consider, under these conditions, that there would be any advantage in advertising for bids, and because of that fact, I respectfully request the approval of your Honor to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to J. A. Singarella Company for replacement of 10,000 feet of artificial stone sidewalks, at an estimated cost of $4,000, in the patching district known as Districts No. 6 and 6A.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, June 18, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Baker & Company have been awarded a contract for sewerage works in Whitcomb avenue, from Centre street to Arborview road, West Roxbury, at an estimated cost of $13,040.50. Previous to awarding this contract a contract was awarded to Dooley Brothers for street construction on Whitcomb avenue, which work will start following the completion of the sewerage works contract.

Because of the short length of time that will elapse between the completion of the sewer work and the start of street construction, also, because in my opinion, the material excavated from sewer trenches is unsuitable for refilling the trenches, I have ordered Baker & Company to dispose of the unsuitable material and refill the trench with gravel, also to build more minor drain than anticipated.

The estimated cost of the work ordered is $6,325, and as this exceeds 25 per cent of the estimated contract sum, your approval is requested to amend the contract and to issue an extra work order for that part of the work ordered not provided for under the items of the contract, as follows:

Increase Item 11 for outside trench excavation at $3 per cubic yard from 25 cubic yards to 100 cubic yards; increase in cost, $225. Increase Item 13 for gravel furnished at $2 per cubic yard from 100 cubic yards to 1,950 cubic yards; increase in cost, $3,700. Increase Item 18 for minor drain at $2.25 per foot from 300 feet to 500 feet; increase in cost, $450. Extra Work Order: For the disposal of about 1,950 cubic yards of material unsuitable for backfill at an agreed price of $1 per cubic yard; increase in cost, $1,950.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 2, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of March 29, 1946, your Honor approved my letter of March 20 recommending awards on the publicly advertised drug proposals. Among the items awarded to Chester A. Baker, Inc., was Item No. 21 calling for 3,000 dextrose ampules on which this concern submitted a low bid of $28.60 per thousand. My attention has now been called to the fact that this bid was submitted in error and that the correct price should be $286 per thousand. Since it is obvious that a mistake was made in the decimal point and inasmuch as the correct price of $286 per thousand is still one of the low bids submitted on this item, your permission is requested to revise my letter of March 20 and award this item to Chester A. Baker, Inc., without further advertisement. The total of this award will be $858, less a cash discount of 2 per cent for payment in ten days.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

ADDITION TO CONTRACT.

J. J. Hurley & Co., contractor for repairs, alterations and replacements to sterilizer facilities, have been instructed to add to the contract the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) for covering new sterilizer in Dowling Building at a cost of $75, and covering small sterilizer in Doctor Munro's operating suite in the Medical Building at a cost of $25. Original contract, $3,691; now added, $100; corrected contract, $3,791; total added, $100.

FUNDING OF OVERLAY DEFICITS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 24, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—Chapter 192 of the Acts of 1946 authorizes the borrowing of an amount not exceeding in the aggregate one million dollars to be used to meet deficits arising through the granting of abatements of taxes assessed in years prior to 1938 in excess of the overlay included in the tax levies of the years of assessment. This legislation represents an extension of the authorization originally granted in chapter 235 of the Acts of 1938 and chapter 225 of the Acts of 1941.

According to the records of the auditor's office, overlay deficits totaling $290,356.08, relating to all years prior to 1938, will be reflected on the books of the city as of the close of the current month. To reimburse the city treasury for the accumulated loss of revenue and to provide a reserve for subsequent deficits as they may arise during the balance of the current year, I submit an order providing for an appropriation of five hundred thousand dollars and respectfully recommend adoption of this order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 192 of the Acts of 1946, the sum of five hundred thousand dollars be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be used for the funding of overlay deficits, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to Executive Committee.

LOAN FOR OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 1, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith a loan order in the sum of $5,000,000 for public off-street parking facilities in the City of Boston. The authority for this expenditure is contained in chapter 474 of the Acts of 1945.

I also submit herewith a communication from the Chairman of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, the body designated by the Legislature to execute the provisions of the act. The communication is self-explanatory.

The proposal to build off-street parking facilities in Boston is but one of several steps which must be taken to alleviate the saturated traffic condition in our city. In and of itself, this proposal is not the cure for the situation that exists, but it will help materially, and will be the first advance measure adopted to enable our city to meet modern day traffic requirements.

With the exception of the problem of housing for veterans, the traffic problem is the most acute problem facing our city at the present time. It is my intention and purpose to attack this problem and to solve it, insofar as our means permit. In its broad aspect, the problem calls for the financial cooperation of the state government, which cooperation I shall require before proceeding to the major efforts which this problem demands.

In view of the fact that the Board of Real Estate Commissioners cannot proceed under the authority given it by the Legislature until such time as an appropriation for the purpose is provided, I respectfully request your Honorable Body to give this loan order its first reading at today's meeting. It is imperative that work be started on off-street parking facilities immediately, in order that we may meet, in some measure at least, the increasing requirements of motor traffic in the City of Boston.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Real Estate Commission, June 26, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

My dear Mr. Mayor,—The 1946 Legislature enacted a law which permits construction of off-street parking facilities in the City of Boston, the said construction to be under the Board of Real Estate Commissioners. Authority for the spending of five million dollars is given in the act.

The provisions of the act are lengthy and complex, and I, therefore, will not attempt to set them out in this communication.

However, in the main, the salient features of the act are as follows:

1. Power to acquire land by eminent domain, purchase, gift, etc.
2. Locations to be approved by the City Planning Board, Traffic Commission, and Mayor.
3. Purchase, etc., land to be submitted to the Finance Commission ten days before final action.
4. To lease acquired property for parking purposes.
5. Leasing acquired properties by public advertisements.

It is important that a loan order be submitted to the City Council without delay because none of the work contemplated in the act can be started or accomplished until an appropriation is available for the purpose.

Consequently, and in order that this Board may proceed immediately, I respectfully suggest that your Honor, the Mayor, submit a loan order to the City Council at the next meeting of that Body.

Respectfully yours,
IRVING LEWIS,
Chairman.

Ordered, That under the provisions of chapter 474 of the Acts of 1946, the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) be, and hereby is, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners, for Public Off-Street Parking Facilities in the City of Boston, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, on request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount.

Referred to Executive Committee.

SALE OF PROPERTY AT BROOKLINE AND LONGWOOD AVENUES.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 14, 1946.
To the Honorable City Council.

Gentlemen,—The City of Boston owns a certain parcel of property situated at the corner of Brookline avenue and Longwood avenue in the Roxbury District. This parcel of property contains approximately 5,231 square feet of land together with the building thereon. This land was acquired in 1873 for Fire Department purposes, and the building erected thereon by the city was formerly used by that department. In 1933 the Fire Department no longer requiring said property for its purposes transferred the same to the Public Buildings Department. In the same year your Honorable Body authorized the leasing of said property to the Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, American Legion, for a term of years at an annual rental of one dollar ($1).

The Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, American Legion, the occupants of the said property continuously since 1933, desire to purchase the land and building from the City of Boston and have offered the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) as the purchase price.

The Superintendent of Public Buildings informs me that the said property is no longer required for any public purpose and recommends that it be sold to the Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, American Legion, for the sum of $1,000.

I am of the opinion that the sale of this parcel of property to the Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, American Legion, at the present time would be advantageous to the City of Boston. The sum offered as the purchase price of this property represents at the present rate one thousand years' rental. I recommend that this parcel of property be sold at private sale for the sum of $1,000 to the Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, American Legion, and your consideration and passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Buildings Department,
June 4, 1946.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—In reference to letter dated May 11, 1946, regarding an offer by the Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, to purchase the building and land at 352 Longwood avenue, Boston, now occupied by them for the sum of $1,000 in cash; I will say that I am in hearty accord with anything that will help a veterans' organization.

Inasmuch as the sale of the above building by the city places this property in the tax structure of Boston and consequently the city will benefit by taxes levied upon it in the future, I approve of the sale of the Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, for the proffered sum of one thousand (1,000) dollars.

I trust that the above information submitted to you is sufficient.

Respectfully,
JAMES E. SULLIVAN,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

Whereas, The City of Boston owns in fee a certain parcel of property containing approximately five thousand two hundred thirty-one (5,231) square feet of land, together with the building thereon, situated at the corner of Brookline avenue and Longwood avenue in the Roxbury district. This parcel of land was acquired for Fire Department purposes in 1873; and

Whereas, This parcel of property in 1933 being no longer required for Fire Department purposes was transferred to the Public Buildings Department; and

Whereas, By an order passed in City Council September 18, 1933, and approved by the Mayor of the City of Boston September 29, 1933, this parcel of property was leased to the Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, American Legion, at the annual rental of one dollar ($1). The Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, American Legion, has continued in continuous occupation of this property and is now desirous of purchasing this property; and

Whereas, The Superintendent of Public Buildings has declared that this property is no longer required for any public purpose and recommends the sale of said property to the Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, American Legion, for the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000); now therefore it is hereby Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of the City of Boston be, and he hereby is, authorized, in the name and behalf of the City of Boston, to sell at private sale for the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) to the Oliver Ames, Jr., Post, No. 117, American Legion, all the City of Boston's right, title, and interest in and to said parcel of property hereinafter described, and to execute and deliver a deed thereof satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston. The aforesaid parcel of property is bounded and described as follows:

Southeasterly by Brookline avenue, by two measurements, ninety-four and 3-100 (94.03) and thirteen and 98-100 (13.98) feet, respectively; southwesterly by land now or formerly of Henry M. Clark, forty-eight and 12-100 (48.12) feet; northwesterly by land now or formerly of Henry M. Clark, one hundred eight (108) feet; northeasterly by Longwood avenue, forty-eight and 21-100 (48.21) feet; containing five thousand two hundred thirty-one (5,231) square feet of land, more or less. Said parcel of land, together with the building thereon, and all of said measurements are shown on a plan marked, "City of Boston, Brookline Avenue, Longwood Avenue, Roxbury, June 10, 1946, Thomas F. McGovern, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department." The original of said plan is on file in the office of the Street Laying-Out Department, City Hall, Boston.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 1, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I transmit herewith for consideration by your Honorable Body the attached proposal by the Budget Commissioner to amend the "Compensation and Classification Plans for the Officers and Employees of Suffolk County."

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Budget Department, July 1, 1946.
To the Mayor and City Council.

Honorable dear Sirs,—Rule 4, "Amendment of Classification Plan" of the "Compensation and Classification Plans for the Officers and Employees of Suffolk County," provides that, "The Budget Commissioner shall, as he considers necessary, from time to time, propose amendments to the classification plan, together with the reasons therefor. Any such amendment may provide for the establishment of one or more classes; for changes in the specifications of one or more existing classes; or for the combination or abolition of existing classes. Any proposed amendment shall become effective upon approval by the City Council, subject to the provisions of the City Charter."

In accordance with the above rule, and in order to comply with the provisions of chapter 182 of the Acts of 1946 establishing the office of Second Assistant Clerk of Court in the Municipal Court of the South Boston District, it is the recommendation of the Budget Commissioner that the classification "Assistant Clerk of Court" be amended by adding the following:

Municipal Court, South Boston District.
Second Assistant Clerk of Court.
Annual, $2,200—$2,300—$2,400—$2,500.
Respectfully,

JOHN A. SULLIVAN,
Budget Commissioner.

Ordered, That in order to comply with the provisions of chapter 182 of the Acts of 1946, the Compensation and Classification Plans and Rules for the Officers and Employees of Suffolk County as adopted by the City Council on April 13, 1931, and approved by the Mayor on April 15, 1931, be, and the same hereby are, amended as follows: In the class "Assistant Clerk of Court," under the "Range Compensation," add the following:

Municipal Court, South Boston District.
Second Assistant Clerk of Court.
Annual, $2,200—$2,300—$2,400—$2,500.

Referred to the Committee on County Accounts.

FEE FOR PERMANENT METAL AWNINGS, ETC.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 1, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of a communication from the chairman of the Board of Street Commissioners, in which it is recommended that a fee be established for permanent metal awnings, marquees, etc., which extend over the public ways. The fee is to be the same as that now in effect for other types of marquees.

I am in accord with this recommendation, and submit to your Honorable Body an amendment to the ordinances establishing the fee as suggested by the chairman of the Board of Street Commissioners.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Board of Street Commissioners,
June 28, 1946.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—This Board is desirous of establishing, by ordinance, a new classification of fees for projections on or over the sidewalks, to cover a new kind of permanent awning of the non-retractable type, which, in effect, becomes the same as a marquee.

It is the opinion of the Board that fees for this type of awning should be the same as those now charged for marquees, namely, $10 per annum plus 10 cents per annum for each additional linear foot or fraction thereof in excess of 20 linear feet.

We respectfully request your approval in submitting this to the City Council at its next meeting, July first, due to the fact that we have been granting permits for fees at the rate which we propose to establish.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD L. CASEY,
Chairman.

An Ordinance.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

That section one, sub-section ten, of chapter 6 of the Ordinances of 1938, is hereby amended by inserting therein a new sub-division (C-1) as follows:

(C-1).—Permanent metal awnings, marquees, etc., twenty linear feet or less, $10 per annum; more than twenty linear feet $10 per annum, plus ten cents per annum for each additional linear foot or fraction thereof in excess of twenty linear feet.

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

SERVICE CHARGE, REGISTRY DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, June 20, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of a communication from the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages, in which he recommends the enactment of an ordinance for the establishment in his department of a service charge of 3 cents per name to commercial interests who desire a daily list of births, deaths or marriages.

In view of the fact that the records in question are public records, I see no objection to the proposal of the City Registrar. The fee recommended seems reasonable, and will provide a revenue to the city of at least $5,000 per year.

I recommend the adoption of the accompanying ordinance.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Registry Department, June 18, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—I am requesting your attention in the matter of establishing a fee to be charged by the City of Boston through the Registry Department for the compiling of lists of births and marriages to be used for commercial purposes, provision for which are contained in Statutes of 1931, chapter 297, section 1, as amended by Statutes of 1939, chapter 173, provisions of which are contained in a legal opinion submitted by the Law Department to me under date of April 3, 1946.

There is a demand for lists of this nature and I am of the opinion that the establishment of a fee would realize for the city a revenue of approximately $5,000 a year or more. My opinion in this regard is based upon a list of applicants for such list which I now have.

It is my understanding that other cities and towns have similar arrangements and I am suggesting for the consideration of yourself and the members of the City Council a rate of 3 cents per name for each name so listed. Favorable action on the part of yourself and the members of the City Council will permit me to initiate this service in the Registry Department.

Respectfully,
MICHAEL J. MANNING,
City Registrar.

An Ordinance.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Boston, as follows:

That under the authority contained in chapter 173 of the Acts of 1939, and chapter 2 of the Ordinances of 1939, the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages is hereby authorized to compile, for purposes of sale for commercial purposes, lists of births, deaths and marriages, or each of them; and the said Registrar is further authorized to establish a charge of three cents per name for such service.

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

NON-APPROVAL OF CONTRACT WITH WHITE FUEL CORPORATION.

Coun. KELLY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Boston School Committee not to approve contract that is now under consideration by the School Committee with the White Fuel Corporation for the purchase of bituminous coal for the Boston schools, due to the fact that this corporation in May, 1946, was indicted by the Federal Government, which charged that inferior coal not in conformity with contract was furnished the Boston schools by this corporation, and which indictment further charged that his corporation was one of a monopolistic price-fixing group that by collusion with other bidders in the same group overcharged the Boston taxpayers many thousands of dollars; and, furthermore, That his Honor the Mayor, through the Corporation Counsel or by a taxpayers' suit, institute the necessary legal action against this corporation to recover for the taxpayers of Boston all overcharges and damages resulting from monopolistic price-fixing and inferior coal furnished many Boston schools by said corporation.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SKELETON SCHEDULE OVER JULY 4th WEEK END.

Coun. CANTWELL, HANNON, BRYAN, SULLIVAN and McCORMACK offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to consider the advisability of granting a skeleton schedule to all city departments during July 4th, 5th and 6th, in view of the advertised closing of almost all Boston business places, including stores, banking institutions, etc.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MILITARY AFFAIRS.

Coun. CANTWELL, for the Committee on Military Affairs, submitted report recommending passage of order for payment of aid to soldiers and sailors and their families in City of Boston for month of June.

Report accepted; said order passed.

ADDITIONAL MATRONS FOR FIELD HOUSES.

Coun. KINSELLA offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to arrange with the Board of Park Commissioners for the calling of additional matrons from the civil service list for summertime work at all field houses in all parks and playgrounds under the Park Department jurisdiction where adequate supervision has not been achieved.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, briefly on this order it has come to my attention lately that a number of small children have burned themselves badly in attempting to manipulate the showers in the field houses where showers are installed because of the absence of matrons or any proper female attendant to help the little girls. They, of course, go in and try to help themselves. As a result, not knowing how to regulate the showers some of them have been badly burned. Now, in Charlestown, we have four field houses. One section is reserved for girls and one section for boys. The boys do not have too much trouble. The little girls are getting into difficulty. There is no matron to go in and turn the showers on and regulate them and turn them off. The Mayor might reasonably call an additional number of matrons. He might place one at each of the field houses, it seems to me where no matron now is in attendance, for the sole purpose of keeping the children from hurting themselves. I hope the rule is suspended and that the order is passed. Passed under suspension of the rule.

PLAY AREA, CLINTON PLACE, CHARLESTOWN.

Coun. KINSELLA offered the following: Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to renew the survey of the land in Clinton place, Charlestown, Ward 2, for the purpose of establishing a play area for children.

Coun. KINSELLA—Briefly, on this one, a year ago Mayor Kerrigan at the time appointed Thomas J. Turley, head of the Board of Recreation, to look into the possibilities of taking over into the Park Department some of the city-owned land located in Clinton place, Charlestown, near the Somerville line, to be merged with a purchase of private land that adjoins and abuts the city-owned land for the purpose of establishing a small tot play area. Although other councilors in the Body are not familiar with the neighborhood, I would say that the lack of facilities in that section of Charlestown makes it necessary for children to go down through teeming heavy traffic in Sullivan square to go over to the field in Sullivan square. This is an unthinkable condition because of the fact many of the smaller children do not have older children with them for the purpose of guiding and steering them properly through the traffic. I suggest the Mayor give consideration to this matter for the purpose of providing a recreational area in a densely populated section of Charlestown, near the Somerville line, primarily of course, for the little children who cannot be trusted to go through heavy traffic by themselves.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SWIMMING AND WADING POOLS AT DEWEY BEACH.

Coun. KINSELLA offered the following: Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to consult with the White Fund Trustees regarding the possibility of the construction of an adult swimming pool and a children's wading pool at Dewey Beach, Charlestown, to replace the present inadequate and unsanitary conditions existent at Dewey Beach.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, the councilors heard me state several times in the past that the degree of pollution in the Mystic river during its length and especially in the Charlestown end of the river is such that the United States Public Health Standards, although liberal, do not permit public bathing at the beach. There is an oil slick and penetration of oil in the sand of 12 inches, which militates against the possibility of bathing with any degree of safety. I read a communication about a year ago from Doctor Gately, which showed upon a survey taken by his department, the degree of pollution was forty times more than that allowed by public health standards for public bathing. In his professional opinion the water could never be purified to such an extent as would permit bathing. I have talked with the Mayor about this possibility and he seems to think that the land pollution at Dewey Beach cannot be overcome but that the beach may be utilized by the construction of a wading pool for children and a swimming pool for adults. We do have presently there a reasonably modern building with all the locker facilities. I trust this Body will grant suspension of the rule and passage of the order.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONDITION OF SAVIN HILL BEACH.

Coun. HANNON offered the following: Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to kindly visit the Savin Hill bathing beach at high tide during the warm weather to inspect the condition of the beach under these circumstances. Passed under suspension of the rule.

IMPROVEMENT OF NORTH BENNET STREET BATH HOUSE.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following: Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to remodel with tile floors and walls the existing bath house on North Bennet street and to place in first-class condition all facilities therein.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, on the first order I guess I have spoken here so many times that I do not know why no action has been taken. That bath house is really the talking point of my district at all times. The Mayor should realize that the North End, which is a thickly populated section in my ward has no bathing facilities, the people in their homes have no bathing facilities and naturally they depend upon the bath house so they can go in and take showers and a bath. It is really a disgrace to the City of Boston for anyone to go into that bath house in the condition it is in today.

I feel if they remodel that by putting on side walls with tiles and a floor with tiles it will at least eliminate the possibility of infection from the old floor that is in there.

The order was passed under suspension of the rule.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CONSTABLES AND CONFIRMATIONS.

Coun. BRYAN, for the Committee on Constables and Confirmations, submitted the following:

1. Report on appointment of Dennis Keefe and George A. Nelson (referred June 10) as constables to serve without bond and without authority to serve civil process for term ending April 30, 1947—recommending that said appointments be confirmed.

2. Report on appointment of Francis J. Kelley (referred June 10) as Weigher of Goods for term ending April 30, 1947—recommending that said appointment be confirmed.

President KELLY—The question comes on the acceptance of the report of the committee. It is a vote and the report is accepted. The question comes on confirmation of the appointments.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, a point of information. Is that constable without bond?

President KELLY—Both of them are without bond. The Chair is informed they are to fill vacancies, councilor.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I wonder if I may ask if the chairman of the committee could inform us through you how many constables there are working for the City of Boston at the present time?

President KELLY—Will the chairman of the Committee on Constables give the gentleman the information?

Coun. BRYAN—I have not got it just at the present time.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I feel we had ought to hold the confirmation up for a week at least to try to get the Budget Commissioner to give us some information in regard to how many constables we have working now for the City of Boston. I have in mind, Mr. President, at the beginning of the year his Honor the Mayor stated that only a certain amount of constables were needed. I was wondering whether or not that amount has been reached. I therefore move to lay that on the table for one week.

President KELLY—Councilor Russo moves that the appointment of the constables lay on the table one week.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to know if these so-called appointments are appointments of men for the City Council or for his Honor the Mayor. Who are the sponsors?

President KELLY—The Chair is unable to state. I will read the names. They are to fill vacancies. Dennis Keefe and George A. Nelson.

Coun. LINEHAN—I wonder, Mr. President, if any councilor here could advise the councilors as to whether or not they are submitted on behalf of his Honor the Mayor or on behalf of some councilor?

President KELLY—I imagine it is on behalf of his Honor the Mayor. The councilors do not seem to speak up on behalf of either one. I presume it is on behalf of his Honor the Mayor.

Coun. LINEHAN—What is the motion?

President KELLY—To lay on the table. Talking on the motion, Councilor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, apparently Hemenway street is in my district.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. Chairman, a point of information. Is this order to be laid on the table with no debate?

President KELLY—It is a motion to lay on the table for a week, which is a motion to assign. It is debatable.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, Hemenway street apparently is in my district. I want it distinctly understood it is through no effort of mine his name appears on that list. I do not know anything good or bad about the gentleman. I do not even know who he is. I think the Committee on Constables should thoroughly check the man and report back as to whether he is qualified, not only as to his character but as to his ability and willingness to work.

President KELLY—I think, councilor, the Committee on Constables have already checked on that. The motion is to lay the appointment on the table until the next meeting. It is not a vote. Councilor Russo doubts the vote and asks for a roll call. Enough councilors having joined him, the clerk will call the roll. The question is to lay on the table the confirmation of the two constables for one week.

The roll was called and the motion to lay on the table was lost, yeas 5, nays 12:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Chase, Linehan, Muchnick, Russo.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Carey, Coffey, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, Moriarty and Sullivan.

Coun. LINEHAN—I wish the councilors would stay in their seats when they are voting so that we can tell about them.

President KELLY—The question is on confirmation.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President.

President KELLY—You are out of order, councilor, unless you have a point of order. There is a vote being taken.

Coun. CHASE—I move the matter be referred back to the Committee on Constables.

President KELLY—The motion is out of order. The question is on confirmation and Councilors Lane and Coffey will receive, sort and count the ballots.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of information, a point of parliamentary inquiry. After the vote is taken and counted, can we ask for reconsideration?

President KELLY—You can, councilor. The vote is 13 in the affirmative and 4 in the negative and the appointments are confirmed.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I move reconsideration of the vote.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase moves reconsideration. Two other councilors must join him. It has to be by roll call.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, as I stated before, the Hemenway street man apparently resides in my district. I am not certain of it. I know other instances where his Honor the Mayor has appointed nonresidents of Boston, who supposedly resided in Ward 4 and they did not. I do not know, Mr. President, if this gentleman resides in Ward 4 actually or not. Personally, I do not know anything about the gentleman. I would like to know more about him. I hope, Mr. President, your chairman of the Committee on Constables can enlighten me as to whether or not they have checked into this man's character, as to whether or not he is qualified to act as a constable. I pause for the chairman of the Committee on Constables to give me an answer on that.

Coun. BRYAN—First of all, this committee is not an investigative body. We have no commission to investigate too deeply unless we ask through the Law Department. We called these gentlemen in. One of the gentlemen said he did reside at 30 Hemenway street and that he has no court record in the last five years. That satisfied the committee. I know the gentleman is O.K. as far as we are concerned.

President KELLY—Does that answer the gentleman?

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I would like to know whether or not this gentleman is a voter in that district.

Coun. BRYAN—I believe he is. He lives at 30 Hemenway street. He is on the city pay roll. I believe he is a voter.

Coun. CHASE—I would like to know whether or not he actually resides at 30 Hemenway street.

President KELLY—I think the question has been answered. I understood the chairman to say he did reside at 30 Hemenway street.

Coun. CHASE—He said he thought he resided there.

President KELLY—Councilor Bryan, will you clarify your remarks?

Coun. BRYAN—I asked the gentleman his address when he reported to us on the morning I held the committee meeting. He said he lived at 30 Hemenway street.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I would like to know what type of work this gentleman from Hemenway street did prior to the submission of his name here to be appointed constable.

President KELLY—Councilor Bryan, have you that information for the councilor?

Coun. BRYAN—No, I do not know what work he did do before that. The appointment came in for him.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, the chairman of the Committee on Constables said this gentleman from 30 Hemenway street did not have a court record for the past five years. I would like to know if he had a court record prior to the past five years.

President KELLY—The Chair will call a recess of thirty seconds. Councilor Chase, will you kindly come to the chair, please?

(Coun. CHASE confers with President Kelly.)

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I feel, inasmuch as it requires the confirmation of the City Council in O.K.ing these constables, that any councilor has the right to check into the background of any man appearing before our Body for our vote of confirmation.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—Does the gentleman yield for a point of information?

Coun. CHASE—I would be glad to.

Coun. MUCHNICK—I would like to be informed, Mr. President, by the councilor if he has any specific information concerning the records of either of these two men or whether he is out on a fishing expedition. If he has information available, I feel we are entitled to it. If it is a fishing expedition, the day is much too warm for that.

President KELLY—Can you inform the councilor?

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, one of the gentlemen appearing on that paper for our vote of confirmation resides in my district. I personally do not know anything about the gentleman. But I do know that not so long ago his Honor the Mayor submitted a name of a person to hold a high and responsible position in Boston. It came before us for confirmation. After checking on it, I found that the man did not even reside in the City of Boston.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, I rise to a point of order. I think the gentleman is out of order. We should be talking on reconsideration.

Coun. CHASE—The reason I brought that last point up is to remind—

Coun. MUCHNICK—I was wondering if I was going to get an answer to my point of information.

President KELLY—That is up to the councilor.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, we have on prior occasions been criticized by the press and public in general because of hasty decisions made without seeking and getting proper information on matters before we voted on them.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—For the same purpose. I have been arising because I would like to know if I am going to get an answer to a point of information.

President KELLY—Councillor Chase has the floor for a minute and ten seconds if he cares to answer.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, the chairman of the Committee on Constables brought up this subject of a court record.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—Will you yield for a point of information?

Coun. CHASE—I do not yield to anyone, sir.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Would you ask the councillor if he will answer my question?

President KELLY—Councillor Chase has the floor. He has 58 seconds more to answer and to talk on the order as he pleases. He is talking on reconsideration.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

Coun. CHASE—These are dilatory tactics.

President KELLY—Councillor Chase will not yield.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I am not asking him to yield. I am asking you if you will ask him whether he would furnish me with the information. That can be answered yes or no.

President KELLY—Can you furnish the councillor with the information, yes or no?

Coun. CHASE—I do not care to answer the gentleman from Ward 14.

President KELLY—Councillor Chase, proceed.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, the chairman of the Committee on Constables stated that—

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—Will the gentleman yield?

Coun. CHASE—I do not yield.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, a point of information from the Chair.

President KELLY—A point of order is the only point in order. Councillor Chase, proceed.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, a point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. FISH—How much longer has the councillor got to speak?

President KELLY—He has 40 seconds. Continue, Councillor Chase.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, by the statement of the chairman of the Committee on Constables this question of a court record came up. I did not ask him in the beginning whether this man had a court record. The man volunteered the statement that during the past five years this man has not had a court record. I now ask the chairman of the Committee on Constables whether this gentleman has a court record which existed prior to five years ago?

Coun. BRYAN—I believe the gentleman asked if the man had a court record. That was the reason I answered him.

President KELLY—Does that answer your question, councillor?

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, may I ask the chairman of the Committee on Constables—

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. MUCHNICK—To find out what time it is.

President KELLY—I am watching the time. He has ten seconds to go.

Coun. CHASE—May I ask the chairman through you, sir, whether or not this gentleman had a court record prior to five years ago?

Coun. BRYAN—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Just a minute. Councillor Chase's time having expired, the Chair will recognize Councillor Bryan.

Coun. BRYAN—I want to state, Mr. President, when I asked the gentleman about the court record, he said he never had a court record, he was in good standing and of good character.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I hope nobody sees fit to interrupt me during my discussion. Unless it is for a point of parliamentary inquiry, I will not recognize it. I am getting a great kick out of some of the councillors who are always resorting to dilatory tactics, particularly the gentlemen who hate to get interrupted when they are making speeches.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry.

President KELLY—Does the councillor yield?

Coun. LINEHAN—I do not yield unless I have to.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. MUCHNICK—It is my understanding on reconsideration the time limit is ten minutes total for all speakers on this question.

President KELLY—No, it is ten minutes for each councillor.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, let us not waste too much time.

President KELLY—I am ready, Councillor Linehan.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I can remember several months ago, it might be three months ago, where I filed an order which was passed unanimously by the members of the Boston City Council requesting information from his Honor the Mayor and his department heads pertaining to the number of employees placed on the pay roll and the number dropped. Lo and behold, we never got the information from his Honor the Mayor or his department heads. We finally had to get some sort of information from the Finance Commission. This is the same thing here. The reason I am talking today is that I wonder how many constables are now on the pay roll. I am honest in admitting I have one of them. I sincerely hope no other councillor here has more than one. I do not think any one councillor is better than any other one. When it comes to constables, at one time his Honor the Mayor said he did not need many constables. I think he said we needed a few in several departments. The number amounted to about nineteen constables. Since then I realize week after week as I read the City Record, one or two constables are being put on. Whether they are for vacancies or not, I do not know. I certainly would like to know. So far no member of the Committee on Confirmation or Constables, or whatever functions they perform has been able to tell any member of the City Council up to the present time how many constables are on the city pay roll. I certainly think the councillors do not have to go to the Finance Commission to find out how many people are being put to work in the city. I can remember two or three months ago, once again I filed an order requesting the number of veterans placed in jobs in the city service. I have not yet received a reply. It is like a great many other orders I file. The veterans are getting the runaround by his Honor the Mayor. They are getting the runaround in housing. I think this is apropos of reconsideration. I am just going back into past history. I am showing that if we do not get the councillors to react together on this matter, we will never get an answer to the question of how many constables are in the city service. Once we pass the order and the confirmation here, we will never be able to get the information. The Corporation Counsel ruled we were not entitled to such information. It seems to me all of the councillors that are voting for the confirmation of these two men should hesitate to permit the rest of us interested in how many men are being appointed to get that information. They should give us some consideration. I realize you give the Mayor plenty of consideration. You should give your fellow councillors some consideration. My understanding some constables were fired as I get it—I do not know how true it is—because they were sponsored by certain councillors in the City Council who were not, you might say, in accord with his Honor the Mayor on some things. My man has not been dropped. I said before, he is now a gentleman with eight children. I certainly hope his Honor the Mayor does not drop him. I think we are all entitled to one constable. I think if the gentleman from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase) has lost his constable he is certainly entitled to get one put back for him. If the fellow got fired because he was not doing a job for the city, all well and good. If the gentleman from Ward 4 has not been given a replacement, certainly he should be given a replacement. I ask the rest of the councillors here who voted for the confirmation of these men to give us a vote on reconsideration so at least we can find out by next week just how many constables are on the pay roll. I think the taxpayers of the City of Boston are entitled to know it. His Honor the Mayor said some time ago, I think as a matter of fact, it was during his inauguration, I think he belittled the work of the constables and said there were few needed. Let us find out if he has had a change of heart. The only way we can find out is to get the information now from his Honor the Mayor or through his department heads. If we confirm them today he will not give us the information. He has got what he wanted. If we do not confirm them, he might give us the information. I do not say as he will. He does what he pleases anyhow but at least he might be interested in the appointment of these two men. There is another matter I want to discuss. I am sick and tired of picking up the City Record and seeing a great many men appointed to different positions in the city. They are not veterans. They are political henchmen. It has been done through the years. His Honor the Mayor said he was going to get rid of such type of men who were not doing a good job for the city. We find a great many men appointed by his Honor the Mayor who are not doing much for the city. We see roadmen appointed to the Public Works. Another day we see inspectors, temporary inspectors in the Building Department. Mind you, they are all getting $2,500 a year. It is pretty good pay. Here are the veterans. I had a gentleman in here today, a veteran who had been overseas. He was looking for a job. He cannot get one. I told him, "I am sorry, you cannot do much in the city unless you get somebody who is friendly with Mayor Curley. Fortunately or unfortunately, I am not." I had to turn the fellow down. I did say that I had filed an order months ago asking his Honor the Mayor hereafter to submit the names for appointments or to build jobs from duly certified civil service lists. Instead he is taking them from the so-called political henchmen. I sincerely hope some day we will get an answer to that order which I filed months ago requesting his Honor the Mayor in the future to appoint men to vacancies from duly certified civil service lists, so that veterans will get appointed. I can go into housing and say how dilatory he is on that, not the councillors but his Honor the Mayor. I will save that for a later time. I sincerely hope the councillors even though they might be in with Mayor Curley would at least give their fellow councillors, whether they like them or not, whether it is myself or the gentlemen from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase) or Ward 5 (Coun. Bayley) or whomever it might be, at least give us a week's postponement so we might get the information which the taxpayers would like to know, how many constables are now on the city pay roll. I sincerely hope the councillors will be fair to the so-called small minority. See if we cannot get an answer to the question before confirmation. We will never get it after confirmation. I sincerely hope reconsideration prevails so that we can have this matter postponed for one week.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, I do not like to take the stand that I do on this matter. I intend to take it week after week. In other words, I, for one, am not going to sit here every week that we have a meeting until eight o'clock at night where there is no necessity for it. If there is necessity for it I will stay here. The motion I am making now I will make every week when I feel the opportunity arises. I am moving now that this motion to reconsider lay on the table.

President KELLY—Councillor Fish makes a motion that reconsideration lay on the table. There is no debate.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of information. Just where will we stand if that motion prevails?

President KELLY—The motion will be defeated.

Coun. LINEHAN—Will the vote go on for confirmation?

President KELLY—Confirmation is already voted. The confirmation will stand.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a further point of information.

President KELLY—The only thing in order now is a point of order. There is no debate on a motion to lay on the table.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of order.

President KELLY—State your point of order.

Coun. LINEHAN—It does not seem to me that a motion such as one for reconsideration can be laid on the table, which means that the Body can never consider that motion for reconsideration.

President KELLY—I shall read it to you, councillor. Rule 20. "A motion to reconsider may be laid on the table or postponed indefinitely, and the effect of such action in either case shall be to defeat the motion to reconsider." The motion is to lay on the table. It is a vote and so ordered. Councillor Chase doubts the vote and a sufficient number of councillors having joined him, the clerk will call the roll.

Coun. LINEHAN—The motion was defeated on a voice vote.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—There is no debate.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, a point of order. Am I correct in stating that now that the motion to lay on the table has passed that the original vote taken for the confirmation still stands.

President KELLY—That is right. The only thing that is defeated is the motion to reconsider. The clerk will call the roll, to lay on the table the motion for reconsideration.

The roll was called and the motion to lay on the table reconsideration was carried, yeas 10 and nays 6:

Yeas—Coun. Bryan, Carey, Coffey, Fish, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, Moriarity, Sullivan. Nays—Coun. Bayley, Cantwell, Chase, Linehan, Muchnick, Russo.

MODE OF EMPLOYMENT OF CONSTABLES.

Coun. CHASE offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Finance Commission advise the Boston City Council as to whether or not the mode of employment of constables is contrary to section 8 of the City Charter.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, it is my personal opinion that there has been a violation of the City Charter for a number of years, inasmuch as each member of the City Council is given an opportunity of employing labor. We directly and indirectly are responsible and have been responsible for the employment of most of the constables on the city pay roll. In my opinion that is illegal. I believe that when his Honor the Mayor extended these generous terms to the Council, if you appoint fifteen men for me for constables I, in turn, will give each of you one man, that is a sort of bribe on the members of the City Council. Section 8 of the City Charter is quite specific. "Neither the City Council, nor any member or committee, officers, or employee thereof shall, except as otherwise provided in this act, directly or indirectly on behalf of the city or of the County of Suffolk take part in the employment of labor, the making of contracts, the purchase of materials, supplies, or real estate; nor in the construction, alteration, or repair of any public works buildings or other property; nor in the care, custody, and management of the same; nor in the conduct of the executive or administrative business of the city or county; nor in the appointment or removal of any municipal or county employees; nor in the expenditure of public money except such as may be necessary for the contingent and incidental expenses of the City Council." I maintain, Mr. President, his Honor the Mayor in order to give fifteen political henchmen—

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, will the gentleman yield?

Coun. CHASE—I do not yield.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I have a point of information which I wish answered by the Chair.

Coun. CHASE—I do not care to yield.

President KELLY—I am sorry, Councilor Chase will not yield.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I maintain his Honor the Mayor in order to give fifteen political henchmen of his a place on the pay roll, men who probably are not qualified to hold the office of constable, if he gives each one a constable in order to secure his vote, that, sir, is bribery.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a point of order.

President KELLY—Just a minute. The Chair will declare a recess. I want to check on it myself. (Short recess.)

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a point of order. I do not believe in the first place that a discussion of the Mayor's proclivity for or against bribery has anything to do with this order nor do I believe that the councilor has the right to impugn the motives of fellow members of the Council. The inference I gather is that such motives are being impugned.

President KELLY—The Chair has been very generous. That is why I called a recess for thirty seconds. The Chair will ask Councilor Chase to confine his remarks to the order he has introduced.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, if his Honor the Mayor thinks he can silence me by taking away a constable which he apparently so generously tendered to me, he is mightily mistaken. He could not silence me if he gave me fifteen constables. I do not want any of his appointments. He can keep them. I would not accept them under any conditions. I prefer to be a free lance in this body. I prefer to vote the way my intelligence tells me to vote.

Coun. BRYAN—Mr. President, will the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. CHASE—I do not yield.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a point of order. I do not believe that the gentleman is speaking on the order. His personal desires about fifteen constables has nothing to do with an investigation by the Finance Commission.

President KELLY—The clerk will kindly read the order. Once again I will ask Councilor Chase to confine his remarks to the order or the Chair will have to rule him out of order.

(The clerk read the order.)

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I believe I have been leading up to the reasons why I am asking the Council to adopt this order. I have read off to the members of the Council a section which specifically provides we, as members of the City Council, shall not directly or indirectly employ labor or take any part in any way in the appointment of city officials. Can any member of the City Council here say he has not appointed or has been responsible in the appointment of a constable?

Coun. RUSSO—I have not.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. HANNON—To answer him, Mr. President.

Coun. CHASE—I do not yield at this time.

President KELLY—I am sorry.

Coun. HANNON—I wish he would not ask questions then.

Coun. CHASE—Section 8 of the City Charter is quite specific. The members of the Legislature in drawing this charter wisely made these provisions having in mind that the members of the City Council may be acting for purposes other than the welfare of the city if they were permitted—

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a point of order. I do not think that the motive of the City Council as a body should be impugned, both the Council of this year and of the last eight years, with which the councilor was associated. I think the gentleman should be ruled out of order for doing so.

President KELLY—Your point of order is well taken. If the gentleman strays once more the Chair will definitely rule him out of order.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, the members of the Legislature some years ago in framing the City Charter, in section 8, had in mind that if any member of the City Council were given the opportunity to take part in the employment of municipal officers or take part in the awarding of contracts that it would not be conducive to good government. Having that in mind they so drew section 8 the way it is today. I maintain, sir, that much wisdom was used by the Legislature in so providing because they realized that if the members of the City Council were given the opportunity to take part in the awarding of contracts and in the employment of labor and help, that only too often through collusion between the members of the Council and the Mayor, that bad business would be performed by the city.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I think it is fair to state that the gentleman is straying.

Coun. KINSELLA—Will the gentleman from Ward 4 answer one question?

Coun. CHASE—I do not care to yield at this time.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, it was you who stated a few minutes ago if the gentleman strayed again you would rule him out of order. I think it is fair to state the gentleman has strayed and should be ruled out of order.

President KELLY—He is confining his remarks now to talking about section 8 of the City Charter. I think that is what he is talking about. I am going to rule as long as he confines his remarks to section 8 of the charter, I am going to rule him in order.

Coun. CHASE—Now, Mr. President, there is no question as to how his Honor the Mayor and I get along. I reiterate, sir, that I am not interested in any form of patronage or in any form of generosity which may be extended to me by his Honor the Mayor. I prefer being able to use my own intelligence and to vote the way my conscience dictates. I feel that it would be better for the City of Boston if all the privileges which his Honor the Mayor extended to the City Council, especially those rights which he has given us to select a constable, if they were taken away then I feel that the members of this body would act the way they should act and vote on matters intelligently and without any fear from his Honor the Mayor.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I am wondering if the gentleman is trying to infer that we here are not acting the way we should act and with fear of reprisal from the Mayor. If he is, I suggest you rule him out of order.

President KELLY—If he is, I am going to rule him out of order.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Can you make any other interpretation of that?

President KELLY—I am waiting for a few more sentences.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I feel that it is within my proper province to carry on the discussion the way I have, in view of the fact that his Honor the Mayor in his wrath towards the Council which has opposed him, especially the gentlemen from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo), Ward 4 (Coun. Chase), and Ward 5 (Coun. Bayley), apparently in order to intimidate us and to secure our votes on matters coming before you has taken away these constables. Well, I do not want them given back to me so far as I am concerned nor do I want anything to do with the Mayor's office. I reiterate, that I feel if these privileges were taken away from the Council which I believe would be a proper legal thing to do, we would be better off. For us to appoint men is a direct violation of section 8. I feel that no councilor should be given an opportunity no matter how friendly he is with the administration either to participate in the awarding of contracts or in city business or in the employment of help.

Coun. SCANNELL—Will the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. CHASE—I do not care to yield.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I move that the order be laid on the table.

President KELLY—Will the gentleman yield for the motion?

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I will not yield.

President KELLY—The motion is out of order.

Coun. CHASE—Now, Mr. President, the members of this Council saw fit over my protest to vote confirmation of a gentleman from Ward 4. Apparently they base their vote on the recommendation of the Committee on Constables. It is rather an unusual thing for the members of the Council not to heed the opinion in the words of the councilor in whose district a man has been plucked from and given an appointment. With that thought in mind I have no other alternative but to believe that the members of this Council live thoroughly in fear of the Mayor's office and that the reason why they would not heed my cries was because they fear the Mayor.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, a point of order. I think the last sentence delivered by the councilor clearly impugns the motives of this Council in passing orders and voting on confirmations.

President KELLY—The Chair will so rule. Councilor Chase is ruled out of order.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, while the spirit of the order Councilor Chase has introduced is one with which I happen to be in accord, it seems to me it is not proper for us to get legal opinions from the Boston Finance Commission. It is not the province of the Commission to attempt to interpret the law or the City Charter. It would seem to me more proper that the matter be referred to the Law Department for an opinion. I move that the order be amended by striking out "Boston Finance Commission" and substituting in its place the Law Department of the city.

President KELLY—The question is on the amendment.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella, not having spoken.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I do not know what the amendment is. I do not think I am interested in it. I did not hear it.

Coun. CHASE—I am willing to repeat it.

Coun. KINSELLA—No, thanks. For several weeks past, barring the time in which we were in adjournment, I have sat in this body, Monday after Monday. I have heard Mayor Curley, who was almost the unanimous choice of the electorate of Boston, castigated and maligned on everything he wanted to do. I was not with Curley last November nor was I ever with him. That is something perhaps I should not say at this late date. Now he is successfully ensconced as Mayor. I suppose I should say I have been a lifelong Curley advocate. I am on public record in the past as having said I was not. I am a cooperative member of the Boston City Council. In the interest of the people of Charlestown, I am exercising any ability I may possess to win them favors over and above every other ward in the city. That is primarily the function of every member of the Body. I have personal regard for Councilor Chase, although I must confess in his presence I question his political acumen. It seems to me in the last couple of months he has been delighting in hammering at everything that Curley does. I suppose he could ask the councilors to get up and declare and assert their complete independence of Mr. Curley as I do. I have received nothing from Mr. Curley. The things I will ask Mr. Curley for, I will ask him in the presence of the electorate of Boston at the Parkman Bandstand. I have nothing to conceal. It is a little slanderous to say about the members of the Boston City Council that they act as fifteen henchmen. He may reasonably say he did not mean fifteen councilors. But that figure fifteen is significant. In the first place, he must have fifteen for bond issues and loan orders. So the assumption is that Mr. Chase believes that fifteen of us have sold our immortal souls and political votes to James M. Curley for no other purpose than to get in return $33 a week for some person in our district. If it be true that Mr. Chase lost a constable and Mr. Chase will not accept a point in concession, it is safe to assume the constable was one who never should have had the job. I have heard councilors here, notably Councilor Linehan, have the decency and foresight to say, "I hope he does not take my man; he has eight children." Councilor Linehan admittedly has been a thorn in his side. But he has had the decency to say, "I hope he does not take my constable; the man has eight children." My remarks could be predicated on the theory that the constable Councilor Chase apparently lost not only did not need the work today but never did need it even upon his appointment. In so far as section 8 is concerned, which I have not read and to parts of which I have listened, the only ones about whom we are concerned are either low paid employees or those who hold jobs for which there is no salary. Some years ago we helped John Breen, chairman of the Boston Housing Authority. For weeks a wilful and malicious councilor had his way. We examined wholeheartedly and at great depth the character and qualifications of John Coleman. Those positions pay no salary. We sit here in cool indifference when the Mayor reads off that he has appointed somebody to a $7,000 or $8,000 job as a department head. Because we have no power to hold up the appointment we say nothing about the lack of character on the part of many of them, many that Tobin, Kerrigan or Curley appointed. We can take a defenseless constable, many of whom are living on the money they get from the City of Boston as constable, and we put them over the hurdles. We examine into their character, which is beyond the scope of our jurisdiction. For my part let it go on the record, in the blackest possible ink, I would not care what kind of record any man had for $33 a week. I do not care what he has done. Until I can be better than that man, I will not inquire into his character. If I thought I were better, I would try to raise him to my standard. Since I am probably not as good, I am not going to drag him over the coals in public to satisfy a political antipathy I may have for the appointing power. It is Curley this and Curley that. We had the explosion of the atom bomb yesterday. I suppose it could be compared to what Mr. Curley was going to do to the city when he was elected last November. As a matter of plain common decency, if for no other reason, let us lay off the man for once. I will fight with Curley tomorrow if I have to. But there is no earthly reason for sniping and ambushing him for the last seven months of his incumbency as Mayor. He has not done one blessed thing in the opinion of Councilor Chase and a few others that was meritorious and that had any public good attached to it in Councilor Chase's opinion. What kind of man is he? Last year twelve of us made John Kerrigan President of the Council. John Kerrigan closed the door on the faces of most of us who made him Mayor, but not Mr. Chase. There was nothing that John Kerrigan did a year ago that ever came under the official scrutiny of Councilor Chase as councilor. It is true, as Councilor Coffey and the others have said, he came into the chamber to vote yes and left and went downstairs and took up his position as guard of honor at John Kerrigan's desk. It was as though he cast the twelve votes for John Kerrigan. I was criticized for some remarks I made about John Kerrigan. Now is as good a time as any to clarify my position. Mr. Kerrigan did not think at all of giving me a holiday on January 1, 1945, when he came to my home in the evening, the night before we made him Mayor, by making him President, and begged me to vote for him. I told him I would not say a word about it until two o'clock the next day. Right there, within five minutes of two, I said, "John, I will vote all the way for you." It cost him nothing. No promises were made. There were no intimations or any sort of trade or hint. I then went to the Legislature and gave an explanation, a fine opinion of him, to the Representatives and Senators with whom I was friendly. The morning after the Traveler story broke, "Where is Kerrigan?" I was asked, "Is that the man you recommended to us?" I had to make apologies for him. I am within my rights in criticizing him. I do wish him well. I mean that sincerely. I am not talking about today but his incumbency as Mayor a year ago and the close, prominent part Councilor Chase played in the Kerrigan fortunes. No one questions any selfish motive of Councilor Chase. Least of all do I. The point of my talking here today is, why is everything that Curley does or wants to do stigmatized? Is there anything redeeming about the gentleman? Is there anything that the Body as a whole for once could applaud? I have never wanted to conflict with the gentleman's right of criticism. I have searched my mind for valid reasons which he might give. Invariably he winds up with some sort of castigation of everyone who dares support Mr. Curley's views. There is one constable I have, the one whom they carried over from last year. Others in my district have been appointed and I have not been consulted. I have not reached a stage yet where I think that everything that is done in Charlestown should pass through my little fingers. He can appoint a hundred men if he wants to and I will vote yes on all of them. That goes for black characters, if they need the job. I will vote for them and I will not question that or other things that the Mayor has done or wants to do. Councilor Chase has been here around seven or eight years. In all seriousness and in all sincerity I might pose this question for him. He may answer if he pleases. Did you at any time, Mr. Chase, ask Mayor Tobin or Mayor Kerrigan—we will leave Mayor Curley out of it—for a position for anybody in any capacity in any place in the city or county?

President KELLY—Councilor Chase, do you care to answer the question?

Coun. KINSELLA—Yes or no will do me.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, the gentleman is talking out of order.

President KELLY—That is up to the Chair. I have been lenient with you. Do you care to answer the question?

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, the gentleman is out of order.

President KELLY—Councilor Kinsella, continue.

Coun. KINSELLA—For a gentleman who has threatened a dozen times, that is rather a momentous dodge.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of order. During the discussion by the councilor from Charlestown (Coun. Kinsella), he referred not only to Councilor Chase, which I think is improper, but to other councilors. I firmly believe I am one of the councilors referred to. I sincerely hope in the future in his speeches that he does not slap the other councilors because he is trying to get back at Councilor Chase. During all this year I have openly opposed Mayor Curley when I thought he was wrong. Nobody in this Body can show me otherwise. I will do that throughout my two years. Just because Councilor Chase got away with something, I certainly do not think I am going to let the councilor from Charlestown get away with anything. As far as I am concerned, I ask the President of the Body to rule him out of order when he resorts to tactics of saying "Councilor Chase and other councilors" who constantly oppose his Honor the Mayor. That goes to a privilege which I am going to exercise on every occasion when I think his Honor the Mayor is wrong. I have found plenty of things, housing, appointing people who are non-veterans to vacancies, and many other things. I will continue to get up. I hope you will rule him out of order.

President KELLY—I might, in answer to Councilor Linehan, say that the Chair will from now on rule everybody out of order who talks off the subject. The Chair will see that the rules of the Council are adhered to.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, with reference to the gentleman who just spoke, I think his principal concern is that his name was mentioned. Well, the gentleman will find the City Record studded with references by name to the various individual councilors as they came up in debate. We know the legislative rule should be more strictly applied. No gentleman should be mentioned by name. We do not follow the legislative rules altogether.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, will the gentleman yield for a question?

Coun. KINSELLA—No.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—Do you yield for a point of information?

Coun. KINSELLA—No.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of personal privilege.

President KELLY—There is no point of personal privilege involved. The Chair will so rule.

Coun. LINEHAN—Councilor Linehan has never referred to any councilor.

President KELLY—The Council will be in order.

Coun. KINSELLA—I suppose that is one way of accomplishing your purpose. Mr. President, there is no point in prolonging this debate which had its inception in the quality and character of the people under consideration. I doubt very much that we are privileged to do that unless we do it for all department heads, even though we do not have confirmation of department heads as one of our duties. However, I want to reiterate that the reasons for the opposition of some of the councilors to the Mayor is their own business. That is a concession to something. I must say it is a matter of absolute fairness. I do say this, that it is strange intelligent men can find something every time his name is mentioned here. They can accept my statement. I am under no compliment to them. I would be as quick to defend them and they know it, if they were being constantly sniped at because they did not hit the mark every time they sent an order here or made an utterance in public which became part of a public record. I am only trying to say that there are not fifteen men who have sold themselves body and soul and become henchmen of Mayor Curley here. There are men in this chamber as recently as today who took issue with him on matters concerning their own wards. Undoubtedly that will reflect itself up here. It is not a week after week occurrence. The man cannot reasonably be wrong all the time. He must have some good thing he has done or is planning to do. Even in some of the material he has sent here today there must be merit. Why drag him and others over the coals every week? It is inconceivable that he can be right or wrong all the time any more than we can. We can streamline the proceedings here by offering objections valid or otherwise but not pressing a point for hours on end and in the end be no further than we were at the start. There is nothing wrong in defending a man. There is nothing wrong with this man attacking him if he has reason. I am prepared to say many of the councilors are thinking of their wards first or probably of the whole city in general first. That is to their credit. I do question that they can find something terribly wrong every week so that these proceedings must be carried out for hours until seven and eight o'clock in the night, when we could be out of here at five o'clock and still keep faith with the people of the city.

Coun. HURLEY—So therefore, Mr. President, to shorten the proceedings so we can get home to our evening meal tonight I move that this matter be laid on the table.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President.

President KELLY—Councilor Hurley moves the order be laid on the table. There is no debate. It is a vote and so ordered. The order is laid on the table.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I ask reconsideration.

President KELLY—A motion to reconsider is out of order.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, will you give me the rule?

President KELLY—I will be glad to.

Coun. RUSSO—I would like to draw your attention to the fact I have been trying to get your permission to speak on two orders.

President KELLY—Rule 20. "Nor shall reconsideration be had upon the following motions: To adjourn, the previous question, to lay on the table."

The order was laid on the table.

VOTING MACHINES IN ALL POLLING PLACES.

Coun. SCANNELL and BAYLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to provide for the installation of voting machines in all polling places throughout the city.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, in presenting this order today I realize there will be a great expense to the City of Boston in having voting machines through the city, but you are going to correct many evils rampant in the city during an election. There are certain sections in my district which have ballot boxes which are broken and antiquated. Some of them are probably sixty years old. If there is a question which arises in regard to elections in this city, it really smells. They have people working in these polls that I have questioned on many an occasion. Talk about people's records, about constables which you should never talk about, I question some of these people who are counting ballots in this city. You would like to look into it and find out what they do in some of these polling places. It certainly does not give the voters of the city an opportunity to exercise their franchise in the right way. In the South Boston section I found out at the last primary election there were at least fourteen or fifteen ballot boxes that were not recording. What is the result? Some of the powers to be who have plenty of money to go out and buy an election, it is in their favor. The result is that the people of the city are not getting a fair deal in an election. I think we had ought to put voting machines in every precinct in the city. There has been talk in the Ward 3 section of Boston where people worked until six o'clock in the morning and the Election Commissioner had to go down and pick up the ballots and bring in to get them straightened out. That is a sad situation. I realize this is an old city. I also realize the method of handling elections in the city is as old as the city itself. I think we had ought to modernize the elections and give the people an opportunity when they vote to have their vote recorded for the right man. I think voting machines would be a real benefit in the elections in this city. At least it would keep them straightened out. I talked with a few people in regard to the last primary election. I walked into a precinct and a man told me that the checkers in that precinct counting the ballots had pencils in their hand and were doing a job in the contest. I was not in that contest. It was for the House of Representatives. This is a bad situation. I think we had ought to clear it up. The only way we can clear it up is to put voting machines in the precincts of the City of Boston.

Coun. BAYLEY—I am very happy to join with the distinguished councillor from Ward 6 (Coun. Scannell) in this matter. I agree with everything he has said with the possible exception of stating that in the long run this will not be an expensive procedure. It is true it will cost a large sum of money to put voting machines in all the precincts of Boston. On the other hand, year by year we will save money without any question. In the first place we will do away with the necessity of recounts which are long and cumbersome and require the attention of a great many people at extra expense. I understand the city of New York has voting machines which have proved satisfactory there. One of the two precincts in Boston which have voting machines is located in Precinct 4 of my ward. It has been most satisfactory. Everybody has been well contented with it. After the first vote they have learned how to vote so that now the voters hardly ever ask for an explanation. It is not difficult to understand. By a process of instruction you can teach people how to vote very quickly. You get your results very soon. In most elections they are through at 8.45. You know the results. There is a method of checking up on the back of the machine, adding the totals. You get your election officials home early. At the present time it is difficult to get good election officials. Many people are working at other jobs and do not like it. There is a possibility you might be able to get by with less officials with the use of voting machines. In the big elections we have six officials and two checkers, a total of eight. In some precincts I believe a maximum of four officials would be satisfactory to handle it or six at the most. There will be less expense in the matter of the election officials. You need not have election officials going home at seven o'clock in the morning. As the councillor from Ward 6 said, in the last presidential election some of the men did not get home until eleven o'clock the next morning. They were so tired they could not count the ballots and make a good report. The voting machine will eliminate in large measure the possibility of fraud or unintentional mistakes because it does not leave things up to the human element. You make mistakes when you are tired and heated. It is a worthwhile expense. I hope the order passes. I would like to see a loan order or a bond issue made so that the machine may be put into effect for the November election. I shall take great pleasure and consider it a privilege to speak for any such loan at that time I will vote for it.

Coun. COFFEY—I am very much in favor of the order for two reasons. One is that in the last presidential election Precinct 5 of my ward did not come in until six o'clock the following day after the election. In this last primary day contest about four precincts of my ward did not arrive at City Hall until five o'clock in the morning. I think that this would be a good thing for the entire city. It would speed up counting and it would eliminate any false count that might be taken. Now I know that over the years a pretty fairly accurate count has been made throughout the entire city in every contest. I will call your attention to a contest that took place in my ward about eight years ago in a House fight. There was a recount called for. It is a matter of record. It can be looked up. You can find it out. After the count had been taken and a recount had been held one candidate lost 552 votes in two precincts. Mind you, there were twenty-four precincts in the ward. The leading candidate had lost 550 votes in two precincts. For that reason alone we should have voting machines. Those precincts would have been taken care of. Somebody in there was more than careless and not only with the pencils. They do not mean a thing. The people are inside a rail, 10 feet away. You cannot see what they are doing from the outside. If you call "Coffey" there is nothing to stop the man from marking it down to Russo. All he has to do is give Russo a hundred of Coffey's votes and he changes the complexion of the precinct. I know business has been done in the past. There is no doubt as long as we have five or six precinct workers in every one of the precincts throughout the entire City of Boston, somebody with five or six children might find that a $50 bill would look pretty good. A fellow who can spend money and wants to make sure he is elected by such a plurality that there will not be a recount can go into a place and have business done. We know it can be done. Each one of us knows it can be done. Take, for example, the House fight in Tom Hannon's ward. There were three men fighting for second place. One man was in second place one day. He was in fourth place the next day. He finally wound up in second place again. If we have voting machines we eliminate that. It could be an honest mistake. I doubt it. In any precinct we could save time. A fellow waiting to have his vote counted, a fellow aspiring for the House, in his opinion and in his friend's opinion he is just as important as the Governor. If the Governor wants a contest counted first like the Governor did in the last nomination where there was not any contest, it is 11 o'clock before they dispose of the contest for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor. Then they start down the line. The house candidates do not know how they will come out until three o'clock in the morning. The voting machine just counts them all. Every candidate for office throughout the entire city knows how they come out. It would eliminate the expense of recounts for the entire district.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, talking on the order, first of all I want to say to Councillor Coffey, you do not give me any extra votes. As a matter of fact, last year on the recount I gained 267. There must be something wrong. However, I feel we have a committee appointed from this Body. I hope that this order will be referred to that committee.

Coun. KINSELLA—I must confess I would like to hear what Councillor Russo moved.

President KELLY—He moved with reference to the order that it be referred to the Committee on Voting Machines.

Coun. KINSELLA—Well, I was just discussing with the councillor from Ward 7 (Coun. Linehan) that the committee has not functioned in the last two years. The Legislature changed the laws in 1943 and 1944, chapter 411, saying that the Board of Election Commissioners have no authority to float a bond issue for the purpose of purchasing voting machines.

President KELLY—You are right, councillor.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, a point of information.

President KELLY—Do you yield?

Coun. KINSELLA—Yes.

Coun. RUSSO—My point of information is, isn't there an existing committee now for voting machines?

President KELLY—There is a committee. I appointed the committee.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, where this order is presented through this Body and you have a standing committee it should be referred to that committee.

President KELLY—The Chair sees no objection if the Body sees fit.

Coun. KINSELLA—I have no objection. I want to know that the Council knows what the situation is.

President KELLY—That is right.

Coun. KINSELLA—This is a good order. I, myself, witnessed a hundred ballots terribly disfigured in Precinct 13 where I voted. On going around to several other precincts the people at the polling places complained to me that something should be done about buying or fixing the machines. Two years ago after the governorship election I had occasion to file an order asking that the Board of Election Commissioners see to it that all proper repairs were made on the boxes. Up to now the repairs have not been made. This is one of the best orders in here in a long time. It will preserve the sanctity of the voter. The count will be accurate and speedy. The cost to the city would be a negligible question. In making payment to defray the cost we will be protecting the first democratic right which we have, the right to vote.

The order was referred to the Committee on Voting Machines.

MOTION TO GO INTO EXECUTIVE.

Coun. HANNON—It is still pretty warm. We have been here quite a while. It is customary of course to go into executive session. I think there are two matters in executive session we have already considered, the first of which is the matter of veterans' housing. We were called in on a special session a couple of weeks ago to take action. Because the matter had not been enacted at that time at the Legislature, we could not properly adopt it. I feel that we gain nothing by going into executive session to hash over this matter. It has been thoroughly thrashed out already.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. COFFEY—May I interrupt to ask for a point of information?

President KELLY—Do you yield?

Coun. HANNON—Yes.

Coun. COFFEY—The East Boston Tunnel, isn't that laid on the table in executive?

President KELLY—That is still on the table.

Coun. COFFEY—I want it removed from the table if possible.

Coun. HANNON—I have moved that we go into executive session. I will withdraw it.

PAYMENT TO HELEN R. O'BRIEN.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:

Ordered, That chapter 558 of the Acts of 1946, entitled "An Act authorizing the City of Boston to pay a Sum of Money to Helen R. O'Brien," be, and hereby is, accepted, and that under the provisions of said act the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) be paid said Helen R. O'Brien.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

WEARING OF COATS AND TIES AT MEETINGS BY COUNCILORS.

Coun. BAYLEY offered the following:

Ordered, That members of the Boston City Council be requested to wear coats and ties at all City Council meetings.

Coun. BAYLEY—We are at a meeting of the Boston City Council on a warm day. I realize it is a warm day. I probably suffer as much as anybody from the heat. We do represent the City of Boston and the people of Boston. We should have decorum not only in our discussion but in our dress. I want to compliment the councillors wearing ties and coats. The city clerks are doing it. I hope when we come back from executive session we will be dressed in ties and coats so the spectators and the people of Boston will know we are preserving decorum in our discussions and giving a better representation of the City of Boston.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

Coun. BRYAN, for the Committee on County Accounts, submitted the following:

Report on petition of Daniel E. Donahue, employee of Penal Institutions Department, to be retired under provisions of chapter 678 of Acts of 1945—recommending passage of the following order, viz.:

Whereas, Daniel E. Donahue, employed in the service of the County of Suffolk, as assistant engineer in the House of Correction, Penal Institutions Department, has made application to be retired under the provisions of chapter 678 of the Acts of 1945; and

Whereas, The said Daniel E. Donahue has submitted to the City Council satisfactory evidence that he is a veteran as defined in section 56 of chapter 32 of the General Laws, that he has been certified for retirement for disability by the duly authorized medical panel; that he has been in the service of the county at least ten years and has reached the age of fifty; that he is incapacitated for active service; and that his total income from all sources, exclusive of his retirement allowance and of any sum received from the government of the United States as a pension for war service, does not exceed five hundred dollars;

Ordered, That under the provisions of section 56 of chapter 32 of the General Laws, as amended by chapter 514 of the Acts of 1943, Daniel E. Donahue, employed in the County of Suffolk as assistant engineer in the House of Correction, Penal Institutions Department, be, and hereby is, retired by the Mayor and City Council, acting as county commissioners, at an annual pension of eleven hundred and seventy-three dollars and seventy-five cents, being one half of his highest regular rate of compensation.

Report accepted; said order passed.

WIDENING OF DARLING STREET.

Coun. CAREY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to widen Darling street, at the Calumet street end, by filling in and surfacing the vacant lot at the corner of Darling and Calumet streets.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

USE OF SIRENS AT NIGHT.

Coun. CAREY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Fire Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to ask those in charge of fire apparatus responding to an alarm, to refrain from unnecessary use of sirens attached to the fire wagons during the hours between 11 p. m. and 7 a. m.

Coun. CAREY—The second order is not intended to interfere with the members of the Fire Department riding on the apparatus responding to an alarm. Within the last few months I have had several people ask me if it was not possible to have something done to restrict the constant use of sounding the sirens between the hours of 11 p. m. at night and 7 a. m. in the morning. I think that if it is possible to limit the use of the siren during those hours it will be for the health and general welfare of those who want to sleep. The men on the fire wagons should do something about it. There might be at times unnecessary use of the sirens. I have very recently seen many instances where false alarms were sounded in certain sections of my district. It is a pity that the senders of the false alarms cannot be caught and made to pay the penalty. I sincerely hope that the Fire Commissioner will have some success with the men who ride these wagons and that the use of the sirens will be restricted between the hours stipulated in the order. I move suspension of the rule and passage of the order.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

ICING OF DRINKING FOUNTAINS.

Coun. KEENAN and FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to see that all drinking fountains are iced during the summer months.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CONSTRUCTION OF METROPOLITAN AVENUE.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to do all possible to speed up the completion of street construction on Metropolitan avenue and thereby relieve the traffic problem existing because of the impassibility of the street.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

On motion of Coun. COFFEY the Council voted at 4.30 p. m. to take a recess, subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by President KELLY at 5.30 p. m.

THE NEXT MEETING.

Coun. CHASE—I move that when the Council adjourn it be for three weeks, to meet on Monday, July 22.

The motion was carried.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred August 13, 1945) accepting chapter 692 of Acts of 1945 for extension of rapid transit facilities in East Boston district of City of Boston—recommending that same ought to pass.

President KELLY—The question comes on the acceptance of the report of the committee. It is a vote and so ordered. The question comes on the passage of the order.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I move at this time that this order be referred to the Committee on Finance. It has been the policy of this Body here to refer all loan orders to this committee because of the large sums of money involved. At our executive meeting three weeks ago, it was put off at that time because the hour was getting late. I, as well as the other councilors, had additional questions to ask the Transit Commissioners. At that time it was agreed to lay the matter on the table to a later date until they were able to come back again. I firmly believe that this order here should go to the Committee on Finance so as to allow them to hold a committee meeting and extend an invitation not only to the Transit Commissioners but to the City Planning Board, the Metropolitan District Commission Planning Board and the State Planning Board. Also, the chairman of the committee before he calls the meeting can find out who was responsible for this legislation. There is something definitely funny about this piece of legislation because the councilor from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey) admitted that he did not know anything about this at all until it came into this Body for approval. Also, we should notify the various presidents of the board of trades throughout the city and the Chamber of Commerce and the Boston Retail Trade Board. I hope, Mr. President, this order will be referred to the Committee on Finance.

President KELLY—The question is on referring the order to the Committee on Finance. It is a vote and the order is referred to the Committee on Finance.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I doubt the vote and ask for a roll call.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I am not standing on the roll call but on a point of information. You already announced a vote and referred this to the Committee on Finance. It is now before that committee.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—You are doubting the decision. Three members are standing. The gentleman has a right to doubt the vote and ask for a roll call. You cannot deny him that.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, a point of information. A point of order. You announced a vote. Is that right? You referred the order and you said, "Now the order is referred to the Committee on Finance." Am I right or wrong?

President KELLY—That is right.

Coun. SULLIVAN—If that is so, how can the gentleman doubt the vote, after it has been referred to the committee?

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President.

President KELLY—The vote was to refer it to the Committee on Finance. I am going to rule the gentleman in order. The clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called and the motion to refer the matter to the Committee on Finance was lost, yeas 6, nays 11:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Cantwell, Chase, Cook, Moriarty and Sullivan.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Coffey, Fish, Hurley, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Muchnick, Russo and Scannell.

Coun. SCANNELL—I move the passage of the order and its acceptance.

Coun. HANNON—Well, Mr. President, I am going to vote for the adoption of this order. But while I am doing so I think it should be noted in the record that I, in conjunction with many other councilors here, feel that there is a primary obligation on the Boston Elevated Railway Company, the Massachusetts Legislature, and the City of Boston to remove the Elevated structure that encumbers Washington street and the highways of this city from Sullivan square to Forest Hills. For years the Elevated has been tossing this in our face, having a study made of it, having it looked into and saying that they are going to do it. I wish this Body had power enough to take some definite and positive action so that we could ourselves institute or initiate some legislation that would demand, not merely call for but really demand the abolition of this structure. It is really a curse upon the City of Boston. The way I look upon this act, I do not think it is going to be of much benefit to the City of Boston. I do believe, however, that it will provide employment for thousands of veterans, for thousands of men and boys who need employment. For those reasons I will vote for it. But I do think that we should record our opposition to the continued carrying out of all that the Elevated wants and a refusal to comply with what the people of the city and the taxpayers of Boston want. What we want primarily is to restore Boston. The way to restore it is first to remove the old and unsightly Elevated structure that is a burden and a curse to the City of Boston. We will not gain anything by defeating this piece of legislation. But I do hope that in raising our voices here we will call attention to the fact that as a matter of fair play to the City of Boston and to the citizenry, the Boston Elevated Railway Company should proceed forthwith to make plans to remove the Elevated structure from Sullivan square to Forest Hills.

Coun. CANTWELL—Mr. President, I am not jealous of other cities and towns getting better service than the City of Boston. But let us look at this. Here we have Washington street which is miles long and which could be a beautiful boulevard with low assessed property building up to higher assessed property through apartment houses built all along out to Jamaica Plain. It would bring a bigger revenue into the City of Boston. Of course I can always look ahead and see when I am licked. Naturally, I will have to vote for this. I would not begrudge anyone the benefits that this will bring. But my prime interest is in the big portion of Boston which is on this side of the city. It would develop homes and big apartment houses with higher assessed property values. It is about time the people of Boston got a break on some of these things instead of paying out a big loan order which is going into this subway. I want to go on record that is the reason why I voted against it at the Executive Council. I probably will vote for it knowing I cannot get anywhere the other way.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, the purpose of my vote against it in the Executive Committee was the same as Councilor Cantwell's and Councilor Hannon's reasons. The Boston Elevated Railway Company is going to have the benefit of this to serve the people of Lynn, Chelsea, Winthrop and Revere. The people of Boston are entitled to better car service. I know in Dorchester they are not getting it. Time in and out the councilors from the various districts of Dorchester have petitioned and introduced orders for better service. We have never had the cooperation of the Boston Elevated Railway Company. That was my purpose in opposing it in the executive meeting.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, I voted to send it to the Finance Committee because I think the City of Boston should know how the loan order is going to be paid, how it is going to be amortized and where the revenue is coming from. What is the effect if the Boston Elevated Railway Company shows a deficit? I am in favor of the passage of the main order. I would like to have information on it more than we have so far. After all, the Legislature gave us this thing. I hope it is on record that anything that the City of Boston can do to improve conditions not only for the city but for the outlying districts as well is all right with us. But I would like to have those members of the Legislature that did pass it realize if it turns out to be a white elephant, it was not something the City of Boston asked for. What the City of Boston has been asking for to benefit the city has been overlooked by the Legislature. I am in favor of using this money through a loan that the Legislature has given us because without their consent we cannot have such a loan order. It would seem to me in our own defense and for our own information we should know more about the workings of it. Since the Council does not seem to feel that way and takes the thing for granted on the advice of the Legislature in their action and that of the Boston Elevated Railway Company or the Transit Commissioners we might as well pass it now. We might let them know in the future if it turns out not to be so good, it was not our fault.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, as far as this subway being a white elephant, the money that is going to be derived from the subway, in the course of forty years, the Elevated will have to pay back to the City of Boston the money that was spent on a rental basis. In other words, it cannot be a white elephant. It is part of the rapid transit system. When it is built the Elevated will turn back the money and give the city a rental fee for this. In case it is a white elephant the Transit Department will make up the fees for the subway which will be paid back to the city. In the course of forty to fifty years we will get the money back which we spent for the subway.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I have been against this since it came in. I am not going to offer any apology because I am still going to vote against it. The gentleman on my left who has just spoken relative to its being paid off in forty or fifty years; at the rate the Legislature is going in criticizing the City of Boston we will not be here in fifty years. Another gentleman in the executive meeting mentioned the fact that in the payoff of this loan that the Elevated will not pay when they show a deficit. Who are we going to believe? All you gentlemen heard the Councilor from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey) this afternoon. He did not know a thing about this until it came here before this Body. The councilors who came from Wards 2, 3, 8, 9 and 11 in past years into this Body have consistently placed orders in here asking that the Legislature do something about the removal of the El structure from Sullivan square to Forest Hills. What do we get? A $8,500,000 loan for East Boston. They do not want to help Boston. They want to help the adjoining cities and towns. They want to take residents away from the City of Boston and out of the City of Boston. You are not going to help Boston one bit by passing this piece of legislation. Let us say to the Legislature, Help Boston, build Boston and we will go along with you and along with the other cities and towns. As long as you gentlemen are going to pass this $8,500,000 not knowing what it is all about, not knowing how it is going to be paid off, not knowing who is going to be the man who is going to have the jobs, you will be acting without information. At the last committee meeting three weeks ago it was agreed upon that those gentlemen from the Transit Department were to come back before you at our next meeting. They were not here today. The next thing you know you are going to have another bill down here to take over the spare tracks of the New Haven Railroad, sending the Boston residents out through Norwood and other points to Providence, making it easier for them to come in and out of Boston. Do not let us kid ourselves as far as the occupational tax is concerned. Gentlemen, if any one of you were living out in the small towns and were a Representative of those towns, would you vote to put an occupational tax on your residents? We are slowly driving business from Boston. The only way we can reduce the tax rate and save Boston is to build Boston. One thing is the removal of the El structure on Atlantic avenue. There has been no need of delay on the removal of that structure and putting in its place a subway. The bill has been up in the Legislature for the past fifteen or twenty years. I can remember when I was a youngster a delegation went into the State House each year asking approval of bills to remove that structure. From one year to another it has been going from committee to committee. Don't you gentlemen honestly think that if the Elevated wanted to help Boston out they would have done so before now? This is just the beginning. It is to give something not to the residents of East Boston and not to the residents of Boston itself but to the residents of the North Shore. As one councilor in the Executive Committee so well put it, it is to take care of the Republican towns. They are going to have other rapid transit lines coming in here for approval. They are going to be extended down through the South Shore. The white elephant that takes in my district and runs through into Forest Hills. Now the majority of you gentlemen in the parade in Charlestown on the 17th of June marched along Main street, if that was not enough to convince you that the structure should be removed, I do not know that any of my words will convince you. If you gentlemen had this El structure in your district and the complaints continually coming not only from the residents but from the business men, you would want its removal. This is the main artery connecting Boston with Providence. The result has been that the property along Washington street is deteriorating. It has gone back several hundred yards from Washington street and is taking in the adjoining streets. Mr. President, I am going to move at this time reconsideration of the vote taken in reference to the Finance Committee. I hope that reconsideration will prevail and that this order will go back to the Committee on Finance.

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan moves reconsideration of the vote taken to refer this matter to the Committee on Finance.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I will be as brief as possible in my comments. If I remember correctly we had a similar loan order before the Council last year. I believe it was around five million dollars. The chairman of the Committee on Finance last year held a public hearing on it. As chairman I invited all the airplane company officials from the airport, the Transcontinental, the Western, the American Air Lines, the Eastern Air Lines, and other officials including the airport officials. These gentlemen were very much in favor of better transportation facilities for the people using the airport. They presented some very logical argument. In arguing in favor of this system but upon examining the plans, Mr. President, much to my surprise all the airplane company officials said that the plans before them would not benefit the airport as far as they were concerned. They could not see how it could possibly benefit the airport. They admitted that the subway should be extended closer to the airport in order to really give them the benefit. The Committee on Finance held the matter in committee and it died in committee. The Legislature saw fit to boost this authorization to $8,000,000. While I believe that they have acted because of compelling and logical reasons I believe in view of what the airport officials said last year about this property and the proposed subway that we should ascertain a little more closely whether or not it is going to be of great benefit to the airport. I believe, sir, that the East Boston airport some day in the near future will be bearing passengers equal to the number entering the North Station and the South Station. I believe that we in municipal government should do everything within our power to encourage large expenditures of money by these air transportation companies to improve the airport and to give us good facilities in order that we may have one of the leading airports of the country. I believe that this matter should be referred to your Committee on Finance. I do not believe in hasty action. I believe that the public should be given a chance to voice its opinion on a matter as gigantic as this. This is a $8,000,000 expenditure. I can tell you I probably will favor the $8,000,000 proposition but I believe that these loan orders should go through proper channels. It is unusual not to refer a loan order to your Committee on Finance. I see no reason why we should at this time rush this matter through without having it go through proper channels. I hope that you Council members will see fit to reconsider the matter and refer it to the Committee on Finance in order that the public at large, your airport officials and others concerned with adequate transportation in East Boston would be given an opportunity to present their views.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. President, may I start off by saying I am not concerned about the airport officials. They have never done anything or offered a penny toward the contribution for better service from the airport to Boston, not one penny. They are making a profit at the airport. We, in East Boston, suffered the loss of our bathing beaches and our only playground through the influence of the airport has been replaced. It so happens that the airport officials are going to benefit more than anybody else in the district. They are going to get rapid transit direct from Boston to within two blocks of the administration building. I am sure they cannot ask for more. They now have a street car line that runs within a block of the airport with a 10-cent fare from Maverick Station. They have bus service on a seven-minute schedule during the busy hours and a twenty-minute schedule after the busy hours. It is direct to the Administration Building. On top of that they have buses that run from the hotels in Boston direct to the Administration Building. If I am not mistaken now they have a big bus run by some outside company. There are now four types of service besides their taxicabs. On top of that, this will be the best service they can get if a person wants to go to the airport. The most convenient way to go will be by rapid transit. A rapid transit train will leave them off within two blocks of the Administration Building. As Councilor Sullivan said it was news. The old plan they sent down showed a rapid transit line to Day square. Last year we had several meetings on it. The airport officials were represented by Mr. Bunk. He wanted this rapid transit direct to the Administration Building. If that had been built last year to the Administration Building he would be as badly off today as he was last year without it because the Administration Building has already been built and the new building has been built down there within the past three or four months. They would be just as far away now if they did have rapid transit running to the old Administration Building. We want this to relieve traffic in our district. We have had five people killed this year on Chelsea street alone. If the rapid transit takes one car off the road going to Suffolk Downs or the Dog Track or any of the beaches, I mean the outside beaches, we have none of them in East Boston because the airport has the only one left, the $8,500,000 is well worth spending. We can put some G.I.s to work. We have been hollering about them. We have not been able to do anything about them because the Legislature was caught asleep and did not appropriate any money whatsoever for the returning G.I.s. Let them go on the 9-20 Club as far as the Legislature is concerned on any action they took in the past two years waiting for the boys to come home. We need this in East Boston. We want it. It is going to feed a line to the Orient Heights section and relieve a bottle-neck that is bad at Maverick square at the present time. Let us pass this. It is something the Legislature gave us. Let us take advantage of it, they give us so little.

Coun. BAYLEY—Mr. President, I hope reconsideration will prevail. Before we authorize or make recommendations on the spending of $8,500,000 it is important that we look into the matter. Last year when the sum was $5,000,000 the Finance Commission looked into the matter. They held open hearings and turned down the proposition unanimously, I believe. We heard this matter three weeks ago. We had certain officials there. I would like to have heard from the air lines. There were officials there after the Executive Committee voted to table it. Now we gentlemen are getting ready to pay $8,500,000 of the taxpayers' money. It may be of small benefit to the City of Boston. We should be sure it is worth $8,500,000. Think of what you can do with $8,500,000. You can take down the Elevated structure. You can improve road conditions. Before we authorize it we should refer it to the Finance Commission so we can tell the people of Boston we have looked into the matter carefully before we acted. Let us exercise caution before throwing the taxpayers' money around.

Coun. RUSSO—I sympathize with some of the councilors who are opposed on general principles so far as this loan is concerned. If they have an elevated structure, it should be taken down. However, being informed by the councilor from East Boston that the people of East Boston want the thing, I could be selfish and vote against it and say that in order to build Boston I feel we had ought to eliminate the cow paths we have here for streets, particularly in my section and in my ward. We have many of these narrow streets built back in the days of Christopher Columbus. However, I also realize we are going to benefit the outside more than we will the City of Boston. But we must realize people from outside come into the City of Boston and spend their money here. In order to keep these large business houses in our city we must have ways and means to bring the business into the City of Boston. By having surface cars in this particular area there have been accidents. The councilor from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey) stated that five lives have been taken away. As a general rule perhaps I would be against it but I realize this is something the State Legislature has given to the City of Boston for us to accept. There is no other alternative. If it meant that we could eliminate the elevated structure in our city by voting against this loan I would say Yes. But we have no other alternative but to accept this and act on this particular loan. There will be some improvement for the citizens of East Boston. They will have rapid transit service extended to Orient Heights. Therefore I feel we should pass on this today.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President and gentlemen of the Council, the councilor from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon) brought to my attention the second paragraph in the letter with reference to this matter. I would like to read it to show why reconsideration should prevail. "These acts become effective when approved by the Mayor and City Council but no construction can begin until a plan and estimates of cost indicating that the project can be completed at a cost not exceeding $8,500,000 is approved by the Department of Public Utilities and a contract entered into by the Boston Elevated Railway Company and the City of Boston." It seems to me the Finance Committee should have an opportunity to examine at length the officials of the Department of Public Utilities and the Boston Elevated railway officials. With the lifting of the OPA restrictions it is my guess that the cost will exceed $8,500,000 very easily. I hope reconsideration prevails and the Finance Committee has an opportunity to go into this very thoroughly.

President KELLY—The question comes on reconsideration. The Chair is in doubt and asks for a standing vote. Those in favor of reconsideration in the Finance Committee will please stand. Six are in favor and nine against reconsideration. Reconsideration does not prevail.

The question came on the passage of the order. It was a vote and the order passed.

2. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred June 13) that chapter 494 of Acts of 1946, entitled "An Act relative to the Extension of Rapid Transit Facilities in the East Boston District of the City of Boston" be, and hereby is accepted—recommending that same ought to pass.

President KELLY—The question is on the acceptance of the report of the committee. It is a vote and the report is accepted. The question is on the passage of the order.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, is this the other half of the $8,500,000 bill?

President KELLY—That is right.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I move that it be referred to the Committee on Finance.

President KELLY—Councilor Sullivan moves that it be referred to the Committee on Finance. It is not a vote. Councilor Sullivan doubts the vote and asks for a roll call. A sufficient number of councilors having joined him, the clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called and the motion to refer to the Committee on Finance was defeated, yeas 7, nays 11:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Cantwell, Chase, Cook, Moriarty, Muchnick, Sullivan.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Coffey, Fish, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Russo, Scannell.

The question came on the passage of the order. It was a vote and the order passed.

3. Report on message of Mayor and order (referred today) that $500,000 be appropriated, to be used for funding of overlay deficits, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness of the city to said amount—that same ought to pass.

President KELLY—The question comes on the acceptance of the report of the committee. It is a vote and so ordered. The question comes on the passage of the order, giving the order its first reading.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, what is this all about?

President KELLY—It is what we passed on in the executive session.

Coun. SULLIVAN—I was not there.

President KELLY—The clerk will read the order. (The clerk reads the order.)

President KELLY—It is to pay off the overlay deficit of former years. It is a customary procedure.

Coun. SULLIVAN—What are the deficits?

President KELLY—The deficits of the years when there was not enough money provided in the budget.

Coun. SULLIVAN—What years?

President KELLY—1939 to 1945.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Is it something that comes in every year?

President KELLY—It comes in every four or five years. We have to catch up in the deficit by this means.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Has it anything to do with tax abatements?

President KELLY—Naturally there are abatements granted that were not provided for in the budget. There is a deficit. It accumulates since 1939, every year.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Do they let it ride that far?

President KELLY—That is right. Now we have to catch up.

Coun. SULLIVAN—What is the other order that comes in the first of every year relative to abatements?

President KELLY—I do not know of any order that comes in. The question is on the passage of the order and the clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called and the order was passed and given its first reading, yeas 18, nays none:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Chase, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Scannell.

4. Report on message of the Mayor and order (referred June 19) for loan of $500,000 to provide housing for veterans of World War II—that same ought to pass.

President KELLY—The question comes on the acceptance of the report of the committee. It is a vote and the report is accepted. The question comes on the passage of the order for a second reading.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, I submit an order in connection with the order we are talking about. It is an amendment. Thank you, sir.

The clerk read the following amendment:

that the words "and chapter 568" be inserted after the words . . . chapter 372 . . .

Coun. FISH—Mr. President, a brief explanation of this is that it places this order in order, you may say, for the attorney who may accept it and act upon the bonds that may be issued so that there will be no question. It is a recommendation sent down by the legal department.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, where this changes the loan order after its first reading, must this loan order in order to be legal be given a second reading?

President KELLY—I am informed this does not change the loan order. It gives it greater weight so that there will be no difficulty about it. The question comes on Councilor Fish's amendment. It is a vote. The question comes on giving the loan order a second reading, as amended. The clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called and the order given its second reading, yeas 19, nays none:

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Cantwell, Chase, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Hurley, Keenan, Kelly, Kinsella, Lane, McCormack, Moriarty, Muchnick, Russo, Scannell, Sullivan.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, I would like to take off the table No. 1 for the reason that we have just passed a $500,000 loan order. The thing to do is to take it off the calendar and we will not have it before us any longer. I make a motion now that we take it off the table and defeat it without prejudice.

President KELLY—Councilor Russo moves we take No. 1 and reject it without prejudice. It is a vote.

Adjourned at 6.15 p. m., on motion of Coun. MUCHNICK, to meet on Monday, July 22, 1946, at 2 p. m.

CREATES ARBITRATION BOARD TO SETTLE INDUSTRIAL LABOR DISPUTES.

The city council of Toledo, Ohio, recently approved an "industrial relations charter" which creates a labor-management citizens' committee of 18 appointed by the Mayor. The charter is recommended by the Toledo City Council for adoption by representatives of industry and labor in the city. The preamble states: "Industrial harmony means more than the elimination of strikes, slow-downs and lock-outs. It means a practical, common-sense recognition of the rights of both employers and employees, the mutuality of their interests, and the importance of their joint responsibility to the citizens as a whole, whose interests transcend the presumed rights of any group."

SCHOOL LUNCHES

On motion of the chairman, the following communications were ordered spread upon the records:

57 Mount Vernon Street,
Boston, Massachusetts,
June 13, 1946.

To the School Committee of the
City of Boston

15 Beacon Street, Boston

Dear Sirs:

Since your committee has incorporated in your records a letter which implies that I spoke at a recent meeting of your committee as a representative of an association, I am sure that you will agree with me that I spoke only as a private citizen and taxpayer of the City of Boston.

As to the accusation that my presence at an interview with Miss Upham was an intrusion I answer in part with the following challenge as to Mrs. Strong's accuracy:

June 9, 1946.

Mrs. Eleanor B. Strong, President
People's Association for Better
Boston Schools

71 Mountfort Street, Boston 15.

In your letter to William J. Barry, Assistant Superintendent, Boston School Department, which is published in the "Daily Record" of June 8, 1946 as incorporated in the proceedings of the School Committee held on June 5, you make the statement:

"Mr. Joseph W. Houston, and Mr. Strong, members of the Sub-Committee on Action of the P. A. B. B. S., join me in stating that during an appointment with us (which Miss Nichols intruded upon without forewarning) and Miss Eleanor Upham, Director of the School Cafeterias, * * *"

Since my presence at this interview was by request of Mr. Houston, Chairman of the Committee on Action, I hereby demand that you make public retraction of your unwarranted assertion that my presence was an unwarranted intrusion with an accompanying explanation that at the time of the interview I was a member of this Committee.

My notice of resignation given at the meeting of the Committee held on May 25 was intended to include withdrawal likewise from your Association.

I trust that your regard for truth will lead to your making public admission of mistake on your part and thus avoid the possibilities of Court action.

(Signed) Marian Clarke Nichols

I may add that though summoned to the Boston Young Men's Christian Union—for a purpose unknown to me—by the Committee Chairman, Mr. Houston, I was driven from this meeting-place to the conference with Miss Upham by Mr. Strong in his car and accompanied by Mrs. Strong who thus made themselves active participants in my intrusion.

Proof of my then membership of the Sub-Committee is herewith furnished by the appended photostat copy of two communications addressed to me by Mrs. Strong.

I am in accord with Mrs. Strong that Miss Upham did not "in any way lead us to feel that she did not believe in Civil Service examinations for appointments to the Staff of the Department." Her criticisms were directed to the handicap for securing an efficient staff through the restrictions in the Civil Service Law as to obligatory educational requirements.

The differences between the Director and certain of the cafeteria managers and the fact that the open criticisms came largely from the members of the Union are matters not only of common knowledge but of public record. The situation is in no way affected by any interpretations on my part as to Miss Upham's attitude. If friction was not recognized, why did Miss Upham offer to furnish Mrs. Strong with names of employees who signed a statement endorsing Miss Upham's administration?

Far from being unauthorized my right to presentation of grounds for investigation and grievance was derived from the highest authority, the Constitution of Massachusetts, which makes public officers and their agents at all times accountable to the people under Article V of our far-famed Declaration of Rights.

Respectfully yours,
(Signed) Marian Clarke Nichols.

71 Mountfort St.

Boston 15, Mass.

May 12, 1946

Dear Miss Nichols:

In order to carry out investigation of school cafeterias the next step further, our Sub-Committee on Action must visit those school lunchrooms which are operated as concessions.

Will you please visit the ROBERT GOULD SHAW SCHOOL in West Roxbury next week?

We particularly want information on (1) HOW MANY LUNCHES SERVED PER DAY & COST; (2) MENUS — NOT JUST FOR ONE DAY; (3) CLEANLINESS CONDITIONS; (4) WHERE IS FOOD PREPARED? (5) NAME OF MANAGER.

If for any reason this assignment is impossible or if you can cover one more school, please let me hear from you on Tuesday morning between 9-9:30.

Gratefully,

ELEANOR B. STRONG.

Com:6497

To the members of the SUB-COMMITTEE ON ACTION:

Miss Marion Clark Nichols, Mr. Richard Yorke, Mr. Dwight S. Strong, and Mr. Joseph W. Houston, Chairman.

Our Sub-Committee will meet at my home (71 Mountfort Street, corner of Buswell Street and turning off Beacon Street at No. 800) at 7:30 p. m. on Saturday evening, May 25th, for the following:

7:30-8:30 p. m. Build up a report of the majority opinions to be given as helpful suggestions to Mrs. Caverly's group of lunchroom managers.

8:30-9 p. m. Plan a panel discussion on the topic "Is Feeding Children Part of Public School Education." This is to be given as part of a program on that subject for our next general meeting of the PEOPLE'S ASSOCIATION FOR BETTER BOSTON SCHOOLS on Wednesday, May 29th, at the BYMC UNION. The rest of the program will contain movies related to the subject and already booked.

9 p. m. Mr. J. W. Houston, who has acted as chairman for this Survey, will give the majority report to Mrs. Caverly and her group (who are invited to be at my home at 9 p. m.)

Most grateful for your help, I am,

Sincerely yours,
Eleanor Broadhurst Strong,
President.

P. S.—If you took notes during any part of this survey, please bring them with you. E. B. S.

Pierce," are commended and each is granted three days additional vacation for meritorious police duty performed on Saturday, July 13, about 10 a. m., in connection with a serious fire which occurred on Pier 3, United States Naval Base, South Boston.

The prompt and courageous action rendered by the members of the Police Boat "Pierce" in the rescue of 18 men who were trapped on the pier is highly praiseworthy and reflects credit on the department as a whole.

These men were assisted on board the police boat and transported to Pier 2, United States Naval Base, South Boston. Those affected by smoke were treated at the Naval Dispensary, Naval Base.

This excellent police duty occasioned a letter of commendation from Commodore A. R. Marron, U. S. Navy, expressing appreciation for the invaluable service rendered.

AIDS PAID TO PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS FROM INCOME OF MASSACHUSETTS SCHOOL FUND.

State participation in the financing of education began with the establishment of the Massachusetts School Fund in 1834, the income from which was to be used "for the aid and encouragement of common schools," (chapter 169, Acts of 1834). The principal of this fund is now $5,000,000. The income of the fund has been distributed in many different ways. In 1835, population and the amount raised by local taxation for school support were the determining factors. Many changes followed until the present complex provisions were enacted, mostly in 1919, with some modification in later years.

AIRCRAFT MATERIAL PRODUCTION 41 PER CENT OF TOTAL AUTOMOTIVE WAR JOB.

Behind current attempts to knock Germany out of the war by means of airpower, stands the teamwork of the automotive industry, which has done much to get bombers in the air over Hitler's domain.

The motor industry, starting as a scrub team in the aircraft field a year before Pearl Harbor has since attained major league stature.

In the two years since December 7, 1941, the industry's output of bombers and fighters has constantly soared. Measured in dollar volume, it rose from $400,000,000 annual rate of production on the day of the Jap's assault to $4,300,000,000 on the second anniversary of that "day of infamy."

The same upward spiral took place in deliveries of all forms of war materials by automotive plants. When Pearl Harbor news struck, they had reached an annual production rate of $1,777,000,000 for all forms of military requirements: aircraft, military vehicles, tanks, guns, ammunition, marine engines and other equipment. Today the annual production rate tops the $10,000,000,000 mark.

HIGHWAY AID.

The Federal Works Agency has apportioned to the states the $500,000,000 made available for this year under the Federal Highway Aid Act of 1944. This appropriation recognizes that the major traffic problems are in and adjacent to urban centers and is therefore to be spent in large part ($125,000,000) for removing traffic bottlenecks and connecting principal cities with express highways. A total of $100,000,000 is being made immediately available for planning, surveying, engineering, acquiring rights-of-way, and for construction.

TANKERS DO DOUBLE DUTY.

American shipyards are now making it possible for our tankers to carry extra loads. A scaffold-type extra deck enables a modern tanker to carry a load of extra freight the equivalent of 10 per cent of its normal load capacity. Some tankers now carry, in addition to its load of gasoline, deck loads of ambulances, planes, jeeps and trucks.

MAYOR THANKED BY CATHOLIC GUILD FOR THE BLIND.

The following was received by his Honor the Mayor on July 31, from Rev. John J. Connolly, Director, The Catholic Guild for the Blind.

BOSTON, July 30, 1946.

THE HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. CURLEY,—I am writing to tell you how deeply grateful I am for the most generous gift of one thousand dollars from the Mayor's Charitable Field Day which you so kindly sent to me for our blind. I appreciate not only the gift but also the kindly spirit which prompted it.

In the Archdiocese of Boston there are approximately seventeen hundred Catholic blind persons whom we serve. Our service however, is not restricted to Catholic people alone. It is extended to all blind persons without distinction who call upon us. Our achievements are made possible through the charity and courtesy of thoughtful friends such as you.

With this word of deep gratitude, may I send to you my best wishes for God's choicest blessings.

Very sincerely yours,

REV. JOHN J. CONNOLLY, Director.

Mayor Curley's letter announcing the gift reads as follows:

BOSTON, July 30, 1946.

On behalf of the Committee I am very happy to notify you that the allotment designated for the Catholic Guild for the Blind is $1,000. A check in that sum is enclosed herewith.

With best personal regards, I remain,

Yours sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MAYOR CURLEY MOVES TO ADOPT SUGGESTION OF JUDGE CARR RELATIVE TO FREE SPEECH ON COMMON.

The following is a letter sent to Joseph A. Scolponneti, Corporation Counsel:

DEAR SIR,—The decision rendered by Judge Carr with reference to public speaking on the Common and permits for the same is in my judgment a very sound one. A boiler never explodes when it has a safety valve, and if we allow those who want to let off their steam on the Common on any subject I believe this is a safeguard. You are accordingly directed to draft the necessary amendment to existing ordinance in order that this question may be dealt with more sanely in the future than it has been in the past.

Sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

TUNNEL CLOSING.

Because of the necessity of doing some additional work in the roadway of the Sumner Tunnel, Public Works Commissioner Robert P. Curley announced that it was again necessary to close the tunnel to all traffic for a brief period. In order that this work may be done while vehicles are excluded from the tunnel, the tunnel was closed to all use, Wednesday, July 31, from 1 o'clock to 5 o'clock, a. m.

TRANSFERS OF APPROPRIATIONS AND BUDGET REALLOCATIONS.

The Mayor has approved the requests of the heads of the various departments for transfers and reallocations of budget appropriations according to the following letters:

CITY MESSENGER DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 26, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your approval is requested for the following reallocation in the 1946 City Council appropriation:

From D-1, Office Supplies, $15, to D-16, Miscellaneous, $15.

This reallocation is necessary to cover printing order No. 4589. This order is for one reel of rope used for tying bundles.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM J. O'CONNELL,
City Messenger.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON July 5, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request your approval of a reallocation of funds in the Health Department budget:

From B-17, Care of Persons, $500, to B-13, Chemicals and Disinfectants, $500.

The amount estimated in the 1946 budget was reduced and this amount is to supplement for the following reason: Last summer, this department initiated the use of DDT in various forms for the control of diseases spread through insects. Through the use of this insecticide, it has been possible to have a 100 per cent control of cockroaches, bedbugs, flies, mosquitoes and lice. Pediculosis has been eliminated in our institutions. Likewise, in lodging houses, body and head lice have been eliminated. Twelve hundred public schools and other institutions have been sprayed for the total destruction of vermin. As a result of this intensive and successful study, the imperative need for a marked increase in requisition for this essential is very obvious.

Yours respectfully,

FREDERICK J. BAILEY, M. D.,
Health Commissioner.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 15, 1946.

To: HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor, City of Boston.

From: MILTON E. LORD, Director, Library Department.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your approval is respectfully requested for the following transfer of the sum of $685.25, from the allowance for the Library for the Personal Service Account, A, to the Pensions and Annuities Account, F-7. This amount is needed in the F-7 Account in connection with the retirement of Edward J. Moore, engineer, under the provisions of General Laws, chapter 32, section 56, effective at the close of the business day, Tuesday, July 9, 1946. Mr. Edward J. Moore will retire at the weekly rate of $27.41. The sum of $685.25 is therefore needed to carry Mr. Moore on the pension roll for the period July 10, 1946, through December 31, 1946.

Respectfully,

MILTON E. LORD, Director.

BOSTON, July 15, 1946.

To: HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor, City of Boston.

From: MILTON E. LORD, Director, Library Department.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—In the budget of the Library Department for 1946 there was allowed the sum of fifty dollars ($50) in the Advertising and Posting Account, B-3. This sum was to take care of advertisements in the City Record required before the awarding of contracts. A rise in the cost of advertising in the City Record from $2 an inch to $4 an inch has made the original appropriation of $50 inadequate to take care of bills contracted in this account. It is therefore respectfully requested that the following sum be transferred, from the Cleaning Account, B-18, $99, to the Advertising and Posting Account, B-3, $99.

Respectfully,

MILTON E. LORD, Director.

OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

BOSTON, July 6, 1946.

To: HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor, City of Boston.

From: WILLIAM G. O'HARE, Secretary, Public Welfare Department.

Subject: Transfer of Funds, Temporary Home.

This department respectfully requests the following transfer in the Temporary Home appropriation of this department:

From A-1, Permanent Employees, $195, to A-2, Temporary Employees, $195.

To provide for the employment of a temporary matron during vacation periods. Sufficient funds are available in the item, 1 Day Matron at $1,060.

WILLIAM G. O'HARE, Secretary.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 8, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request permission to alter our budget by transferring the sum of $15, from B-43, item, "Miscellaneous," to B-16 item, "Care of Animals." This transfer is needed in order that we might pay for medicine that is necessary for the animals at the Franklin Park Zoo.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

PARK DEPARTMENT (Cemetery Division).

Boston, June 26, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your permission is respectfully requested to make the following transfer of funds in the budget of the Cemetery Division, Park Department:

From B-42, Miscellaneous Services, to C-17, Miscellaneous Equipment, $600. This transfer is requested to provide money for the purchase of concrete liners to be used in connection with burials in our cemeteries. These liners are paid for by the owners of the burial plots at time of interment and receipts are deposited in our General Cemetery Fund. A profit is made by the city on each liner sold. We have sections in our cemeteries, recently developed, where burials cannot be made without the use of liners, and we have had more burials in these sections than anticipated. The use of liners saves labor at time of burial, and their use prevents later sinking of the graves, from collapse of wooden boxes, and here again labor is saved by avoiding the necessity of filling in sunken graves. Summarizing, we find that we will need more liners than originally anticipated, and the use of these liners is financially and physically advantageous to our cemeteries. The money is available in the B-42 item and is now needed in the C-17 item of our budget.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG,
Chairman.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

Boston, July 8, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request your permission to reallocate the sum of $235, from C-14, Live Stock, to C-4, Motor Vehicles, to purchase a second-hand beach wagon for use at the House of Correction, Deer Island. This order has been placed with the Bowers Ford Agency. Reallocation from C-14 is requested because we find that we will not require even one half of the C-14 appropriation for live stock this year as we expected to purchase new stock but find the price much too high.

Very truly yours,

MAXWELL B. GROSSMAN,
Penal Institutions Commissioner.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Boston, May 28, 1946.

To: HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor, City of Boston.

From: ROBERT P. CURLEY, Commissioner, Public Works Department.

Subject: Reallocations in Sewer Division Budget.

From *A-1, Permanent Employees, $1,000, *Laborers, 39 at $5.50 per day; B-39, General Repairs, $60, to A-3, Overtime, $1,000; B-3, Advertising, $60.

Explanation: Overtime payments for the first five months of the year 1946 have amounted to $3,770.39, leaving an unexpended balance in the A-3 item of $229.61. The budget allowance was $3,000, as compared to department estimate of $9,000. About 50 per cent of this overtime is for men employed at the Calf Pasture, Union Park Street Station, and at Moon Island.

Money is also needed to meet City Record charges for advertising, repairs at Calf Pasture Pumping Station and Union

Park Street Pumping Station. No budget allowance was granted for this item against a department estimate of $50. Due to curtailing of expenditures, money is available out of A-1 and B-39.

Respectfully,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Boston, April 9, 1946.

To: HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor, City of Boston.

From: ROBERT P. CURLEY, Commissioner, Public Works Department.

Subject: Budget Amendment.

I respectfully request an amendment to the Bridge Service Budget for 1946, by transferring a portion of item B-39 to item B-10. This request is necessary inasmuch as the bill from the City of Chelsea for water furnished at Meridian Street Bridge for the first quarter was more than anticipated in the 1946 budget. This was due to an underground leak, not discovered until there was a complete failure. Therefore, I respectfully request your approval of the following transfer:

From B-39, General Repairs, $40, to B-10, Rent, Water, Taxes, $40.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Boston, July 3, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your approval of the following transfer within the budget of this office is respectfully requested:

From A-1, $600, to A-2, $600. This transfer to A-2 is to cover the services of two temporary appointments of clerks for a period of three months at a salary of $1,200 per year plus $200 E. C. A. These temporary appointments will be necessary to efficiently carry on the work of the Supply Department during the vacation periods of regular employees. In former years this office was able to absorb this work within the department but at the present time there are four employees on leaves of absence or sick leave for extended periods.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

Boston, July 3, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your approval of the following transfer within the budget of the Supply Department is respectfully requested:

From D-16, $10, to B-13, $10. This transfer is necessary to cover payment of bills incurred in telegraph service at times when quicker communication than the regular mail is imperative.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON JUVENILE COURT.

Boston, July 15, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—This Court respectfully requests that it be allowed to amend its budget of the year 1946 by transferring from Item B-17, Custody, $100, to B-35, Witness Fees, $100.

The reason we have the additional $100 in B-17 is that private organizations have assisted us in caring for the children being temporarily held by this court. The reason we need an additional $100 in B-35 is that we made our estimate of Witness Fees as small as possible, whereas it is absolutely impossible to determine the number of persons who will be summonsed during any one year to testify either for or against defendants in this court. Therefore, will you kindly allow this court to make the transfer?

Sincerely yours,

JOHN T. LANE,
Clerk, Boston Juvenile Court.

MEDICAL EXAMINER, SUFFOLK COUNTY.

Boston, July 5, 1946.

To: JOHN SULLIVAN, Esquire, Budget Commissioner, Suffolk County, Mass.

From: WILLIAM J. BRICKLEY, M. D., Medical Examiner, Suffolk County, North.

Subject: Reallocation of Funds.

DEAR SIR,—The following reallocation of funds is respectfully requested:

From B-18, Cleaning, to B-14, Motor Vehicles, Repair and Care, $20.

This is needed owing to unforeseen expense in connection with the Mortuary Service Ambulance.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM J. BRICKLEY,
Medical Examiner, Suffolk County.

AIDS PAID TO PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS FROM INCOME OF MASSACHUSETTS SCHOOL FUND.

State participation in the financing of education began with the establishment of the Massachusetts School Fund in 1834, the income from which was to be used "for the aid and encouragement of common schools," (chapter 169, Acts of 1834). The principal of this fund is now $5,000,000. The income of the fund has been distributed in many different ways. In 1835, population and the amount raised by local taxation for school support were the determining factors. Many changes followed until the present complex provisions were enacted, mostly in 1919, with some modification in later years.

PROPOSED APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION MANAGER

Chairman: I am interested in having someone appointed as the representative of this Committee, as an executive to manage certain matters for us.

Mr. Ward: What kind of a manager?

Chairman: An administration manager.

That has to do with Mr. William E. O'Connor.

In order to do that you would have to amend the regulations as follows:

"Section 2, paragraph 1, on line 3, after the words 'Treasurer of the Corporation' add 'Administration Manager', so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

'The officers of the School Committee shall consist of a Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer of the Corporation, Administration Manager, Business Manager, Schoolhouse Custodian, Superintendent, and not more than six Assistant Superintendents.'

Mr. Ward: Who is the administration manager now? Have you one?

Chairman: No. You need four votes to put this in.

Business Manager: I think under the new law that is effective September 10, the Superintendent of Schools is the administrative manager.

Mr. Ward: He is the Superintendent of Schools.

Chairman: "Section 4, paragraph 1, line 1, after the words 'the Secretary,' add the words 'Administration Manager,' so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

'The Secretary, Administration Manager and Schoolhouse Custodian, when duly elected by the School Committee, shall have a tenure of office during good behavior and efficiency.'

Mr. Ward: Do you want to suspend the rule and appoint an administration manager?

Dr. Foley: I move that we comply with the request of the Chairman and appoint an administration manager.

Chairman: This is the School Committee I am talking about. I am talking about our own appointment.

Mr. White: I don't know what we want an administration manager for. I wonder if I could find out what the purpose is? What will be the duties of an administration manager with the School Committee?

Chairman: For the School Committee.

Dr. Foley: To compile reports and keep the Committee posted, work on the budget and see that the Board of Superintendents perform the duties of education.

Chairman: I personally think this gentleman is an outstanding man. He has the looks; he has the background; he has the personality. He is the type of man I would like to see up here.

Dr. Foley: I think he would save the system a great deal of money. We need such a person here. We are paying hundreds of thousands of dollars for compiling reports and budgets and other paraphernalia that is needed in long-range planning.

I move that Mr. O'Connor be appointed.

Mr. White: Just a moment. You are naming someone to a job that is not even created.

Dr. Foley: We are going to create it.

Mr. White: Is this by agreement? It looks as if it had been decided.

It does not seem to me that this is under any regulation. You are changing a rule and I have not heard of this change that is contemplated being discussed or anything else.

Mr. Ward: I have never heard it discussed.

Mr. White: This is a pretty important position. I do not even know that we need somebody like this.

Mr. Ward: I knew that we needed somebody but I didn't know there was a rule that would give us the opportunity to put somebody in there.

Mr. White: It was never suggested at a School Committee meeting that anybody like this was necessary.

Dr. Foley: We can discuss it now.

I never knew of any such rule or regulation that governed it but I think it is a good thing.

Mr. White: There seems to be some difference of opinion.

Chairman: Mr. Ward has been sick.

Mr. Ward: I discussed something here a short time ago that I thought was of vital importance. With the appointment of additional guidance counselors I felt there should be an assistant director down there. I thought that was of vital importance.

Dr. Foley: I move to abide by your recommendation.

Mr. Ward: The question comes on whether or not we shall appoint an administration manager. That would have to be by a vote of four to one.

I would insist, if an appointment is made, that it come from somebody within the school system.

Mr. White: All I can see is that this is an idea to create a position and take it out from under the jurisdiction of the Superintendent so he would have no jurisdiction over it, and you could name the individual yourself.

Naming somebody who is a member of the school system might sound pretty good, but you are only picking a guy that you want to create a job for. You all know the name of the guy now.

Chairman: I think he is the outstanding man for the job in the system. I never met him until I came here.

Mr. White: I think there are hundreds of outstanding men who should be given an opportunity if such a position were necessary.

Mr. Ward: I think that could be said on the appointment of the vocational guidance counselors. Hundreds of men should have been given an opportunity for one of those positions and that opportunity was not given. The Superintendent made twenty-two appointments.

Mr. White: That is one of the votes that I regretted. I felt that there should be a rated list. That was not my fault. The whole Committee voted for that on the recommendation of the Board of Superintendents.

Chairman: As a member of the Committee I think I have a right to suggest an administration manager for the Committee, not for the school system.

Mr. Ward: The question is whether this position should be established by the School Committee.

Chairman: The suggestion is made that the rule be suspended and this man appointed.

Mr. White: I move that this matter be sent to the Board of Superintendents for report.

Business Manager: I am not trying to interfere with what you are trying to do. My opinion is that it is a Civil Service job.

Chairman: I understand it is not.

Mr. White: The other officers of the Board are Civil Service jobs—Mr. Sullivan and Miss Kane.

Mr. Ward: You are going to vote on this, or are you going to procrastinate?

Mr. White: It looks to me that you are going to railroad it through.

Chairman: There is going to be no railroading through.

This is an outstanding man, as far as I am concerned, to be appointed as representative of this Committee to do certain work that I feel should be done.

I have half a dozen requests which may require a lot of research and a lot of work. This man has the background; he has the appearance and he has the experience. He has the respect of everybody who knows him. This is the first job of its kind that I have suggested in the six years I have been on this Committee.

Mr. White: No. I would dispute that.

Chairman: This is the first job of its kind where the Committee itself intends to vote in a man from the school system, with no list and without a recommendation from the Superintendent.

Are you ready to vote on Mr. White's motion that this be turned over to the Board of Superintendents for study?

Dr. Foley: I do not think it needs to be studied by the Board of Superintendents.

Chairman: All in favor?

Mr. White: Poll the committee.

Secretary: On referring to the Board of Superintendents?

Dr. Foley: I vote no.

Mr. McDevitt: No.

Chairman: No.

Mr. Ward: No.

Mr. White: I vote to send it to the Board of Superintendents for their consideration.

My idea in voting to send it to the Board of Superintendents for their consideration is to see if the Board of Superintendents are in favor of any such change in our rules and in the set-up in this Committee. I do not think they are because nobody has ever suggested anything like this before—not even the Board of Superintendents—as something that was necessary here. So far today I have heard nobody come here and give any argument as to why this job is necessary. All I know is that you are trying to create a job for some favorite individual, regardless of everything that has been said around the table here for the last two months. This is another case of patronage, nepotism and favoritism. He is in the family group.

Mr. Ward: He is not related to any member.

Mr. White: Perhaps he is not a blood relation but he is related in certain ways. To say that he is not related is quibbling on a fine interpretation. He is extremely friendly, as you know and I know.

This is just one of those things that has been wrecking the morale of the school system since these things have been advocated. This is another one.

I heard Mr. Norton say, as seriously as I ever heard him say anything, that he was not for anything like that. Only last week he said that. Now he comes in and creates a new job, evidently by agreement, and I do not doubt that there will be four votes for this. But there will be one voice crying in the wilderness to stop these hypocritical statements that they want all these jobs to be open, for everybody to have a chance for a rating. Now he comes in and avoids the necessity of the Superintendent's nomination by changing the rules and creating a job so that the School Committee can elect. That is exactly the situation here.

Mr. Ward: I would like to say this: I have sat on this Board for five years and I have been responsible for the creation of no jobs whatever as far as this Committee is concerned. But all I have to do is to take that budget and look it over, as I have, and over a period of years—as many of you know who have served longer than I have—and you will find job after job unnecessarily created.

In that budget over a period of 25 years you will find job after job that is as unnecessary as 25 pencils would be to one member.

Mr. White: I have tried to stop that.

Mr. Ward: That has existed even before your time and since your time. You had an opportunity to stop it when those jobs were created. Some of them were created 20 years ago. They were created and created and created, and they were built up into an integral part of the system.

First I want to bring out one definite point. This man that Mr. Norton has mentioned I know only casually. He is certainly not in any way associated or connected with me, but if he were my friend I would certainly vote and fight and battle for him. There is no question about that.

I will say this, that from my experience this Committee is less informed on what goes on within this system than any group that controls the executive management of any governmental body or any corporation.

We have heard discussed here today the filthy condition existing in one of our schools, a condition that the Board of Superintendents had knowledge of, not only for a period of two or three months but over a period of years, and it had to be a kid from Dorchester who brought it to the attention of a member of this Committee, and when the fact was brought in here it was corroborated by members of the Board of Superintendents.

I am in need of advice in regard to this school system. I would like to know what goes on in this system that I could help to remedy. If the appointment of this man is going to help us do the things we should do I am for it without a knowledge of whom the man is.

Mr. White: If I followed your remedy I would abolish the Board of Superintendents and put this fellow in to run the schools.

Mr. Ward: Your idea to abolish the Board of Superintendents is probably not a bad suggestion.

Chairman: Is there anything further to be said?

Mr. White: I want to say one more thing. I want to reiterate that this is not a necessary position. There is not money in the budget for it. You have cut the budget and you are laying off temporary teachers. You are building up the administrative costs in this building at the expense of the teachers and the youngsters, regardless of the fact that you cut your budget and you do not know whether you can operate under your present budget. Now you are railroading this thing through without the least semblance of a sound argument that this man is necessary, without giving any other teacher, or any other master, or any director who knows the system inside out, to report to you as to who is best qualified for this job.

You are just creating a job for one individual so that you can elect him.

You can go ahead with your vote. I am ready to vote.

Mr. Ward: Is it unanimous?

Mr. White: It is not unanimous.

Chairman: I feel that we need here at 15 Beacon Street a man of the type of this gentleman. I have been up here for six years and this is the first time I have taken the liberty of making a suggestion of this nature. It has to do not with the school system but with the Committee itself. It is not interfering with any rated list and it is not interfering with any of the school teachers.

Mr. Ward: It is an excess teacher.

Chairman: It has to do with the appointment of somebody who is going to assist this Committee in our activities, and as such I do not think I am asking for anything that is not fair.

Mr. White: I think it is extremely unfair that you can add to the budget a position of this kind, particularly when you tell me that he will be an officer of the Board, and every single officer of the Board gets over $6,000 a year. At the same time you are laying off temporary teachers; you are curtailing playground work and you are taking every single vital dollar in the budget in order to pay salaries. And here you are creating a job that is strictly patronage, a thing which is bad for the morale of the school system. That is the last word I have to say about it—it may not be the last word, either.

Chairman: This is not patronage and this is not interfering with any rated list or examined list. This is appointing somebody to represent the Committee here. If the money is not in the budget this year nobody is going to ask that it be put there.

Mr. Ward: What is his salary now? He is in the system. He is still working. It is a question of whether he works here or works in an empty class room.

Mr. White: This change in the rule is just a subterfuge.

Mr. Ward: I am for changing all these rules.

Mr. White: This is a breakdown of a rule and before you get through you will have 15 assistants up here as well as the Board of Superintendents.

Mr. Ward: I think we have been cowardly in not changing those antiquated rules that somebody put in fifty years ago.

Mr. White: Those rules were made by men who may be old but they had a lot of vision and foresight.

Mr. Ward: Some of those men came to 15 Beacon street in a horse and buggy.

Mr. White: Does the Legislature give us the power to increase the officers of this Board by changing the rules?

Asst. Supt. Downey: There is a law which says that the school committee may create additional officers. I think the assumption is that they must be Civil Service employees.

Mr. Ward: We will determine that later.

Chairman: I assume this man may continue on with his teaching.

Mr. White: As a matter of fact, I think it is just loading us up with additional people that we do not need. It is an imposition on the taxpayers.

Mr. Ward: What is the motion?

Chairman: That the rules be suspended.

Secretary: To suspend or amend?

Chairman: We are amending the rules.

Secretary: That the rules be amended to provide for an Administration Manager, Section 2, paragraph 1, on line 3, and Section 4, paragraph 1, line 1.

Chairman: Call the roll.

Secretary: The motion is that the rules be amended in Sections 2 and 4 to provide for an Administration Manager.

Mr. White: I would like first of all to have defined what an Administration Manager is, before you do this.

If this is just a supernumerary who is going to do nothing but interfere with the administration of every other department, I think it is the beginning of the end of this School Committee. You are causing the dwindling school population year after year, because the public recognizes today that you are not giving the youngsters what they should have. That is why they are leaving our schools and going to private schools, and you are doing it with this business of patronage. It is an injustice. It is not necessary.

(The roll was called and the members voted as follows):

Mr. Ward: Yes.

Dr. Foley: Yes.

Mr. McDewitt: Yes.

Chairman: Yes.

Mr. White: No.

Do I understand that this motion to amend the rules has to be laid over for a week?

Asst. Supt. Downey: Till the next meeting.

Secretary: Till the next meeting.

Mr. White: I bet you that the public will be up in arms when they find out what you are doing.

Secretary: It has to lie over under your rules.

Dr. Foley: We can suspend that rule. We suspend it in the case of teachers.

Mr. White: I would like to know where this meeting has taken place, where this was agreed to. There was no discussion of it around this table.

Dr. Foley: We can suspend the rules. We do not have to lay anything over.

Asst. Supt. Downey: The motion was to amend.

Chairman: We can move now to suspend the rules.

Dr. Foley: Suspend your rules means just what the words indicate, suspension of the rules.

Mr. White: This is the most flagrant violation of the merit system that I have seen in ten years. It is the most flagrant violation of anything that is decent in public administration. It looks as though it had been agreed to and I as one individual never even heard about it before this meeting, and the name was all agreed on.

You cannot tell me that your public meetings are not a travesty, because the business is not done at the public meetings. The business is done in collusion outside the door, or you wouldn't have four votes on this thing.

Chairman: That statement that you have made is your own personal opinion.

Mr. White: Isn't it remarkable that you can change a rule and have a man's name all agreed to without having a meeting some place else? I never heard of it and I think it is a surprise to everybody in this room.

Chairman: That is your opinion and only your opinion.

Mr. White: That is positively telling the public, "Run a house party for me; work for me in a rally, and I will take care of you with the best job in the school system."

Mr. Ward: You have done it. It has been done for 30 years. Everybody has done it. You have had 15 men.

Mr. White: When have I ever had a man appointed?

Mr. Ward: Do you want me to name the man? How many assistant custodians have you put on?

Mr. White: I imagine that I put on six or seven before they were under Civil Service. They were made only when Mr. Nagle came to each member of the School Committee in turn, and the only reason I got more than you is because I have been up here longer than you.

Mr. Ward: I am entitled to three more.

Mr. White: No, you are not. That was only when Mr. Nagle came to each member of the Committee and told us he wanted to put men to work. And those were $30 or $35 a week jobs and it was hard to get anybody for them. They were not teachers. They were unskilled. These men that I speak of were assistant custodians, unskilled positions, where it was Mr. Nagle's custom to approach you when a man was needed. I have not tried to create jobs in the school system and lay off a lot of people.

Mr. Ward: How many times have you, or Dr. Foley, or Mr. McDevitt, or Mr. Norton, or I—how many times have we gone to the Superintendent and said, "Will you recommend this man as a good man for the job?" We have all done that.

Mr. White: I have done that and he has turned me down more than anybody else.

Mr. Ward: You will walk into the Superintendent and say, "Will you recommend this man?" I will say to Alex Sullivan, "I have a good man." On directors you have done it.

The Committee adjourned.

Attest:

LOUISE KANE,
Secretary.

June 24, 1946.

A meeting of the School Committee of the City of Boston was held in the Administration Building, 15 Beacon Street, at 11:30 A. M., the Chairman presiding.

Present: Messrs. Foley, McDevitt, Norton, Ward, and White.

PROPOSED APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION MANAGER

The Committee took up the following order amending the rules which was laid over at the meeting of June 19, 1946.

ORDERED, That the rules are hereby amended as follows:

Section 2, paragraph 1. In the third line, after the words "treasurer of the corporation" add "administration manager," so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

Sect. 2. 1. The officers of the School Committee shall consist of a chairman, secretary, treasurer of the corporation, administration manager, business manager, schoolhouse custodian, superintendent, and not more than six assistant superintendents.

Section 4, paragraph 1. In the first line, after the words "the secretary" add the words "administration manager," so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

Sect. 4. 1. The secretary, administration manager, business manager, and schoolhouse custodian, when duly elected by the School Committee, shall have a tenure of office during good behavior and efficiency.

Chairman: I would like to make a statement in reference to this matter.

This has to do with a suggestion to make Mr. O'Connor an executive of the School Committee. This is so that everybody will be clear.

The motion that was made and voted on last week is one which most of the folks who are here are interested in. In regard to that motion I wish to make this statement:

If there is any blame attached to the nomination of Mr. William O'Connor for executive to the school committee, blame me. I take full responsibility. He is an outstanding man for this position. If there is anything wrong I, Clem Norton am to blame. If there is anything that is out of order, blame me and no other member of this Committee. If there is anything that has not been above board, blame Clem Norton and no other member of the Committee.

I have served in the public life of this city for many long years, and I challenge anybody who will question my integrity on any public issue that I have been involved in. I have made mistakes; I make errors; I am not infallible. But I do claim that I am sincerely interested in and motivated by the highest instincts in these problems having to do with the children of Boston.

In all of my years of public service I have always relied upon and consulted with the experts of the Civic Bureau of the Boston Chamber of Commerce and the Boston Municipal Research Bureau and the secretary of the Boston Finance Commission, individuals who are familiar with this situation and who know what is going on in governmental matters in Boston.

These officials, who are familiar with the present school controversy in all its details, advise that there are other and perhaps better ways for a school committee to attain its objectives.

Why do I wish such an appointment? Because every survey of our schools, including the so-called Strayer Report—and, by the way, I consider the Strayer Report one of the finest reports that has been made on the schools—advises that there are other and perhaps better ways for the School Committee to attain its objective.

Every survey objects to the fact that the Secretary of the School Committee is also Secretary to the Superintendent and other boards. Every survey states that the Committee is entitled to its own representative, its own executive.

In an effort to bridge that gap I suggested, after looking over various matters, that Mr. O'Connor be named as an executive to the Committee. Four votes to put this appointment through last week were available, but this Committee—the first, by the way, in the history of the schools never to hold a private session except where a teacher in a personal difficulty was involved—never has appointed one single teacher in six years unless that teacher headed a list or was named by the Superintendent as his personal nominee.

At the last meeting a week ago, when we had four votes to put the thing through, it was suggested to hold this for a week. As a matter of fact it was suggested that it would be perfectly possible and legal by men known in this room, high officials connected with the school system, that it would be perfectly possible to vote it through last week with four votes.

But that is not the custom of this Committee. The custom is to allow these things to be given to the public and, before anything is done, an opportunity is given to the public to be heard.

Some folks think this is an attempt to "beat the gun" because under the law which becomes effective in July—not September—the Superintendent becomes the most powerful superintendent of any school system in the land.

One suggestion that I am going to make this morning is that we are fully cognizant of the public interest in this whole business. That is why the delay of a week was taken, and I am going to ask this morning, since in some quarters it was felt that I was attempting to "beat the gun" and put this appointment through, the only one of its kind that we ever suggested, for our own Committee's executive, that this whole matter be laid over until the Superintendent is supreme and submit it for his consideration. That is one of my suggestions this morning.

Why did I ask last week for the appointment of Mr. O'Connor? Because, among other things, I found that I had recently voted, as a member of this Committee, for instance, to sell a piece of school land for $1,000 that was later valued by our own expert as being worth $26,000. In other words, I come here for an hour or two hours a week, forty weeks in the year, and the problem is so tremendous that you cannot intelligently understand all the details. There is an illustration of something I did that was wrong, a few weeks ago.

As a result of this we have appointed in other similar instances our own real estate expert who must approve the appraisal before we vote for the sale of any piece of land in Boston. That is the only way I can think of to protect ourselves properly. There is an instance where I voted for something that was wrong.

There is a second reason why I would like a committee executive here, someone who is not of the system, someone who is not a career man, someone who has not been institutionalized after years of work in the schools.

I feel that this man, who has been twenty-five years in our system and also a liberal in these things, would represent our viewpoint.

Here is another illustration of why I wish a Committee representative:

Last Tuesday evening I spoke to 2,500 people at the corner of Woodrow Avenue and Blue Hill Avenue in Dorchester. It was after the polls had closed. It was a beautiful evening and there was a nice crowd.

At the end, in the back, a youngster in the group spoke up and said, "Mr. Norton, why must I eat my lunch in a room that is unsanitary?" He mentioned a certain high school. I said, "I know nothing about that. I will ask tomorrow at the School Committee meeting."

I asked and I found that two of the assistant superintendents had reported that situation. I had not heard of it except out at this public forum.

There is the second reason why I would like to have here the Committee's own representative, as a conduit between the administration of the schools and the School Committee.

We are the policy-making body. The schools are under the Board of Superintendents, which is the administrative body. There is no large corporation in America that does not have a contact man between the policy-making body and the executive body. The Army and the Navy have a liaison branch. That is all I am asking for.

As is suggested in one of these reports, it may be that this group eventually will have to go to Civil Service and ask them to name for us an executive of this Committee. I understand under the new law that can be done.

I am finding fault with nobody, whether it is this superintendent or the next one, whether it is this secretary or the next one. It is merely a question of policy whether or not an individual who is allied to the system, to his career, to the educational end, can properly represent the Committee and at the same time represent the executive.

Every survey that has been made from this survey in 1931 down to the Strayer Survey here, recommends that the Committee have its own secretary. I am finding no fault with any secretary here. This present secretary is one of the finest women that you can run into.

I might say that so far as the Superintendent and I are concerned, I have been up here for six years, and I don't think we ever had a cross word in all those years and through all these controversies, although you would think sometimes from reading the press that we were fighting up here, as Mr. Elie, one of the reporters for the Boston Herald, stated he expected to find turmoil here, and he wrote a nice article and said it was just the opposite.

I believe there are twelve folks here who do not believe what I am saying and perhaps differ with me.

I shall ask the Superintendent, when he becomes supreme in power, to assign Mr. O'Connor to this work without change in rank or salary. There can be no increases this year, for we have no money. We cut the budget $600,000 odd for the first time in history and have helped thereby to reduce the tax rate of Boston 50 cents. Those are facts.

I am one of those who hope we may be able to cut the school budget next year a million dollars.

Our school population has gone from 137,000 to 90,000 odd in a few years, the most declivitous and kaleidoscopic drop in all history. We have over 300 school buildings with classes of fifteen pupils or less in them. Walk into any school building in Boston and you will find many rooms half empty.

The story is that our pupil enrollment has been going down, and with that loss of enrollment many fundamental organic changes must be made.

I am vitally interested in carrying out the recommendations of this Strayer Report. At every meeting, as a rule, I refer to some request that this report has made, to have it put into effect. It is the best report on schools that I have seen, and I have been requesting and requesting action, with little or no results.

Business Manager: You may remember that for months I had a recommendation on the docket that a certified public accountant be assigned to my office to go over that Survey Report.

Chairman: This is Business Manager Sullivan. He can take care of this perfectly all right. His statement is correct.

I felt that the Committee's own man might help me on these matters.

For instance, I have been attempting to have every child in the Boston Schools take a bottle of penny milk each day. Nothing is finer as a nutritional food for children in the underprivileged sections. To date we have been unable to get half of the children to do that. According to our records, about 50 per cent participate in the milk program.

And the reason for that is this: Here is a school in East Boston where five out of a hundred children participate. This is an intermediate school. Here is another intermediate school where over 70 per cent of the children participate in the milk program. I do not know what the reason is. I have been led to believe it is a matter of the principal's inculcating the salesmanship idea in the teachers and the teachers selling the idea to the children. I don't know.

For months and years I have been attempting to find out what the answer is and how we can build that 45 per cent or 46 per cent up to 90 per cent. I know of no way of being of better service to the youngsters on a nutritional question than to encourage them to take that milk.

I would like to find out why 33 per cent of the tots in the Boston schools fail in the first three grades and start out life with a frustration, when out in Cleveland, they inform me, they do not grade children for the first three grades.

They believe that the first thing to do is to have the child feel that its school relations are secure and to feel that it belongs. Therefore they have worked out that system.

As an experiment I would like to see something like that tried in one school in Boston.

The Boston Traveler telephoned to Cleveland on this and had a big front page story one afternoon, and the Cleveland officials state it is no longer a matter of conjecture; it is no longer a matter of trial. I would like to know more about that method.

Why am I discussing that at this time? I want somebody on this Strayer Report and on those recommendations that will keep these problems up before the Committee week after week and month after month. The problem is gigantic. The problem is tremendous. We cut our budget $600,000 for the first time in history.

I am going to ask you folks to be polite. I am always the same. Just the moment I am impolite to you, under the most extenuating circumstances, I am not a gentleman. To me, education is in vain if you are not a gentleman. I challenge anybody to show where in all of my public life, even to the point of extraordinary circumstances, I have been otherwise than a gentleman.

The cry you are hearing over this suggestion is merely the birth cry of a new day for our schools of Boston. A big change is coming. Dr. Strayer shows that we have made mistakes. I will make mistakes. We fall down. We make egregious errors, but there is always a time to correct those errors, for nothing will be done in haste, and I challenge anybody to question my integrity or my motive. I have tried to be honest. Therefore, I fear nobody. What is best for the child, in my estimation, is the supreme objective.

There is my statement. There is what I stand for. I have been many years in politics in this city. If I stood for anything that is not so in that regard, the reporters are here.

The Finance Commission—and this is something that I have great adherence in, because Mr. Robert Cuniff is, to my mind, one of the finest informed men in this city—Mr. Robert Cuniff does not think this is the way of doing it. He does bring out in his official report of June 20, 1946. this statement (reading):

"In the three major surveys of public education in Boston conducted under Finance Commission auspices in the last 30 years, the surveyors have always found and reported that the school organization is topheavy. In fact, all of them have made the point that one of the principal reasons why the real workers of the department—the teachers—cannot be satisfied with proper salaries is that too much of the available funds is spent on needless executive and administrative positions.

"The report of the latest survey, the Strayer Survey, specifically recommended reorganization to eliminate many of these sinecures. To date, however, the School Committee has ignored this recommendation and has continued its practice of the last few years of 'adding to the pile' rather than making it over * * * "The Finance Commission feels strongly that the refusal of the School Committee to this date to accept any of the suggestions for improvement in the School System, which came out of the Strayer Survey, except to construe some point or other of it to justify the creation of a new position, is deplorable and is hurting the Boston system. It hurts the reputation of the City all over the country. It is particularly unfortunate at a time when many are working might and main to restore the City to the prominence it formerly held in commerce and industry. A reasonable tax rate is dependent on good and economical government. The propensity of the School Committee to create needless positions is not an evidence of good and economical government.

"The school officials joined with the Finance Commission in obtaining a study, recommended by the Strayer Report, to develop a method of obtaining more money from the State for public education than is now available. These needless appointments do great harm to the objective of such a study. Naturally they create the impression that more money from the State will merely mean more needless spending by the Boston School Committee."

This is the Finance Commission report, and I want to state right here that whenever Mr. Cuniff issues a report on anything having to do with the City of Boston I have always, in my experience at City Hall, taken cognizance of it, and I take cognizance of it at the present time.

There is my statement. Perhaps a mistake has been made. But I am going to make more mistakes. I want to come up here again on these problems.

I am not interested in the dozen or so folks here whose minds are perhaps made up, and I can understand the heat that has been generated. I am used to it.

I am going to ask His Honor the Mayor to discuss this at the Parkman Band Stand next Sunday. The people of Boston wish to hear a discussion of these problems. I am going to discuss it in Scollay Square any noontime and in front of South Station, in Dewey Square, any noontime.

Mr. Albert West: I would like to discuss it now, not in Scollay Square.

Chairman: I am asking you, Officer —

Mr. West: Don't try to outshout me. I can outshout you any day.

Chairman: Officer!

Mr. West: You had better not have the officer put me out. I am only one. I have just been to the Superior Court, and I am staying.

Chairman: We are going to run this in orderly fashion.

Officer, please come up here so we can have order.

A Voice: Why don't you behave like a gentleman?

Mr. West: I have the floor.

Chairman: You have not the floor. You have not been recognized. Mr. White has been recognized.

Mr. West: I will be glad to yield to Mr. White, who is one decent influence.

Mr. White: There are many things in your present statement here which might be subject to some debate, Mr. Norton.

However, in order to expedite the matter before us this morning, I suggest, in answer to your own statement, that this School Committee is topheavy with executive positions and that we should not create any more sinecures for anybody. We have one duty to perform as a School Committee, and that is to take the action that the law requires us to take, one way or the other, on this particular measure.

This has laid over for a week because under the rules—unless it is an emergency—it must lie over, because it entails a change in the rules.

As a consequence, Mr. Chairman, I now move that the Committee be polled, because there is only one thing to do, in fairness and justice,—that you either retract or approve.

I think the Committee is conscious of the necessity or lack of necessity of any such position as this. I now move that this Committee proceed to a vote.

Dr. Foley: I second that, Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Ward: Upon this matter, when this matter came up —

Dr. Foley: Could I break in first?

Mr. Ward: Yes.

Dr. Foley: I second Mr. White's motion in order that this business may be arranged here and finished once and for all, whether or not you are going to appoint. Let us act on that as quickly as possible so that we will have no more talk on the matter. I think the members are ready to vote.

Mr. Ward: On the recommendation of the Chairman, I do not believe that any good can come from holding this matter over until the Superintendent has attained full powers, because if a particular specified job is not needed in the opinion of the Committee, it is not needed in the opinion of the Superintendent.

I voted on this matter at the last meeting and, as Mr. Norton has stated, each member of this committee is aware of the great amount of business done by the School Committee and the responsibility that rests on the School Committee and not on the Superintendent, on the School Committee alone.

If a catastrophe happens in the schools, the School Committee is responsible under the law and not the Superintendent. On everything that happens in the schools, although the Superintendent represents the School Committee, the direct responsibility is always and ever on the School Committee. That is the mandate of the law and we must accept those responsibilities.

As Mr. Norton has stated, each member of this committee must go to certain men in whom he has confidence. Since my vote on this matter I consulted a man who I feel is a responsible member of our community, one in whose ability and judgment I have great confidence. That is Mr. Walter Howie, Managing Editor of the Boston American and Record. Because of my confidence in Mr. Howie's ability and judgment, I am standing before this committee and changing my vote this morning.

Mr. White: I move that you proceed and have the Secretary call the roll.

For the benefit of those listening, this takes four affirmative votes. If there are not four affirmative votes for this amendment, the amendment is licked and denied.

Dr. Foley: Three votes to amend and four votes to suspend.

Mr. White: Four votes to put it in the budget?

Chairman: Four votes to put it in the budget and three votes to amend.

The amendment would be to postpone this whole matter until the Superintendent attains his full authority under the recent statute.

My amendment is that this whole matter be referred to the Superintendent when he receives his supreme powers.

Mr. White: On the question of postponement, Mr. Ward has a different motion than we were discussing.

There is a new motion made by the Chairman to postpone this pending the report of the Superintendent. At any time the Superintendent can make a recommendation for a position such as this.

We recognize that there are many positions in the School Department, executive positions, that we have sometimes thought were unnecessary, and there has been a great difference of opinion on this School Board. But they were created.

I did not hear the Superintendent at any time request an opportunity to study this thing. Last week at the meeting I did not hear that the Superintendent was even consulted when this vote was taken. So I now suggest that this School Committee refuse postponement.

The Chairman stated the question was on the motion for postponement of action until the Superintendent shall receive full powers under the recently enacted legislation.

On roll call, the members voted as follows:

Dr. Foley: I vote No.
Mr. McDevitt: No.
Mr. Ward: No.
Mr. White: No.
Mr. Norton: Yes.

Question then came on the passage of the following order which was laid over at the meeting of June 19, 1946:

ORDERED, That the rules are hereby amended as follows:

Section 2, paragraph 1. In the third line, after the words "treasurer of the corporation" add "administration manager," so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

Sect. 2. 1. The officers of the School Committee shall consist of a chairman, secretary, treasurer of the corporation, administration manager, business manager, schoolhouse custodian, superintendent, and not more than six assistant superintendents.

Section 4, paragraph 1. In the first line, after the words "the secretary" add the words "administration manager," so that the paragraph shall read as follows:

Sect. 4. 1. The secretary, administration manager, business manager, and schoolhouse custodian, when duly elected by the School Committee, shall have a tenure of office during good behavior and efficiency.

On roll call, the order failed of passage by the following vote:

Dr. Foley: Yes.
Mr. McDevitt: No.
Mr. Ward: No.
Mr. White: No.
Mr. Norton: No.

The Committee adjourned to Wednesday, June 26, 1946, at 12 o'clock noon.

Attest:

LOUISE KANE,
Secretary.

HIGHWAY AID.

The Federal Works Agency has apportioned to the states the $500,000,000 made available for this year under the Federal Highway Aid Act of 1944. This appropriation recognizes that the major traffic problems are in and adjacent to urban centers and is therefore to be spent in large part ($125,000,000) for removing traffic bottlenecks and connecting principal cities with express highways. A total of $100,000,000 is being made immediately available for planning, surveying, engineering, acquiring rights-of-way, and for construction.

TANKERS DO DOUBLE DUTY.

American shipyards are now making it possible for our tankers to carry extra loads. A scaffold-type extra deck enables a modern tanker to carry a load of extra freight the equivalent of 10 per cent of its normal load capacity. Some tankers now carry, in addition to its load of gasoline, deck loads of ambulances, planes, jeeps and trucks.

AIRCRAFT MATERIAL PRODUCTION 41 PER CENT OF TOTAL AUTOMOTIVE WAR JOB.

Behind current attempts to knock Germany out of the war by means of airpower, stands the teamwork of the automotive industry, which has done much to get bombers in the air over Hitler's domain.

The motor industry, starting as a scrub team in the aircraft field a year before Pearl Harbor has since attained major league stature.

In the two years since December 7, 1941, the industry's output of bombers and fighters has constantly soared. Measured in dollar volume, it rose from $400,000,000 annual rate of production on the day of the Jap's assault to $4,300,000,000 on the second anniversary of that "day of infamy."

The same upward spiral took place in deliveries of all forms of war materials by automotive plants. When Pearl Harbor news struck, they had reached an annual production rate of $1,777,000,000 for all forms of military requirements: aircraft, military vehicles, tanks, guns, ammunition, marine engines and other equipment. Today the annual production rate tops the $10,000,000,000 mark.

CITY RECORD

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

VOL. 38

SATURDAY, AUGUST 10, 1946.

No. 32

MAYOR CURLEY, IN MONTHLY RADIO BROADCAST ON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS, MAKES "MONTHLY REPORT ON CITY BUSINESS"—POINTS TO HIGH FINANCIAL CREDIT RATING IN BANKING CIRCLES AS PROVEN BY EAGERNESS WITH WHICH CITY'S BONDS ARE SOUGHT AT LOW INTEREST RATES—ALSO TELLS OF CHANGES EFFECTED IN HIS ADMINISTRATION BRINGING ABOUT IMPROVEMENTS IN REVENUE PRODUCTION, FIRE PREVENTION, TUNNEL CONSTRUCTION, IMPROVEMENTS AT LONG ISLAND HOSPITAL AND OTHER DISTRICTS, ALL AIMED AT BETTER HEALTH AND GREATER SAFETY FOR CITIZENS.

His Honor the Mayor, speaking over Station WMEX on August 5, upon the occasion of his monthly talk on municipal affairs, taking as his subject, "Monthly Report on City Business," spoke in part as follows:

Financial Reputation of the City.

During my three previous administrations the city enjoyed the highest credit reputation among the great cities of the country. Under the present administration this high reputation has been maintained, as is shown by the recent experience of the city in selling $6,285,000 worth of bonds at an extremely low interest rate of slightly less than one and one-quarter per cent. These bonds, which are for various municipal purposes, are for maturities ranging from one to thirty years. Four bids were received from syndicates representing over fifty of the largest investment houses in the country. The very satisfactory rate of interest received and the great competition from the four syndicates shown by the bids indicate that Boston's credit reputation is still pre-eminent among the great cities of the country.

Additional Taxable Property — Important Decision by the Appellate Tax Board.

In my search for revenue property to be collected by the City of Boston I have today directed the Assessors to levy an assessment upon the personal property of certain corporations erroneously classified by the Tax Commissioner as manufacturing corporations.

In a study conducted soon after I took office in January, I observed that an exemption from taxation on personal property was being enjoyed by corporations so classified.

At my direction, the Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston appealed to the Appellate Tax Board from the classification made by the Tax Commissioner. As the result of this appeal, the Appellate Tax Board has rendered a decision removing certain corporations from the Commissioner's list of manufacturing corporations. As the result of this decision, only those corporations whose dominant purpose is the manufacture of some product for sale or use shall, hereafter, enjoy the exemption granted some years ago by the Legislature.

The purpose of this legislation was to provide employment in the mills and factories of the Commonwealth, which were then idle and abandoned, a silent yet convincing picture of disaster.

The Commissioner, in his interpretation of the statute, granted exemption from taxation not only to these mills and factories, but to many other corporations outside this category for which the relief was planned.

As the result of the decision, taxes shall be levied in the future upon machinery of such corporations as chain stores, gasoline companies, and other corporations whose dominant activity is something other than the manufacture of products for use or sale.

It is expected that the added revenue to the City of Boston will amount to approximately $1,000,000 a year.

Fire Department Improvements.

The deplorable conditions affecting personnel, fire fighting equipment, and the buildings of the department have had the attention of the new Fire Commissioner, and considerable progress has been made by him.

The new commissioner found that a substantial percentage of the men had not received the usual basic training; he found the work of the Fire Prevention Division was of a perfunctory nature. Within a short period of seven months the drill school has been re-established; also pump school and telegraphers' school. The Fire College for officers was opened April 8, 1946. Instruction in all phases of fire fighting will be progressively accelerated.

Great emphasis is being made on the work of the Fire Prevention Division. Qualified officers have been assigned to cover the following investigations and submit special reports: (1) homes for the aged; (2) day nurseries; (3) hotels (Fire Prevention, Electrical Inspection Division, and Building Department collaborating); (4) hospital drills.

A fire marshal and assistants are now permanently assigned to the City Hospital. The Fire Department has taken over the control of all fire protection activities at Long Island.

FINANCE COMMISSION MAKES RECOMMENDATIONS TO MAYOR CURLEY AND CITY COUNCIL FOR REDUCING FIRE HAZARDS IN BOSTON AND MAKING FIRE PROTECTION MORE EFFECTIVE—SUGGESTS ADDITIONS TO STAFF OF FIRE PREVENTION DIVISION, SECURING OF EQUIPMENT, MORE INSPECTIONS OF BUILDINGS, AND INAUGURATION OF FIRE PREVENTION CODE AS SOME OF THE WAYS BY WHICH IMPROVEMENT COULD BE MADE—ALSO REVAMPING OF FIRE PREVENTION LAWS.

The Finance Commission of the City of Boston has addressed the following communication to the Mayor and City Council:

AUGUST 2, 1946.

To the Mayor and City Council.

The Finance Commission again desires to emphasize certain points in regard to fire prevention in Boston which were discussed broadly in a staff report addressed to the Mayor and the Fire Commissioner in June. Inasmuch as cooperation is necessary from both the City Council and the Legislature in solving the present difficulties in the way of effective fire protection, the Commission deems it proper to include the City Council in this discussion.

In 1929, a commission appointed by the Mayor, which included some of the best known in fire prevention work, made an exhaustive report showing the deficiencies in the Boston way of preventing fires. It made numerous recommendations looking to an improved service. Unfortunately, little change in method resulted from this study and very little, if any, improvement.

Meanwhile, Boston has continued to have serious losses of life and property by fire, and has continued to be rated poorly in this connection in comparison with other cities. The picture has changed somewhat since the 1923-1927 period when the nearest approach to the staggering $6.30 per capita loss in Boston was Detroit's $3.12. Nevertheless, in the period beginning in 1941 and ending in 1945, Boston was still at the top of comparable cities with a per capita loss of $4.29, with Baltimore's $2.91 the nearest.

The loss of life by fire in Boston has not lessened with the years of experience. In 1936 it was 12 lives, as against 26 in 1946 to June 2.

The value of the above statistical comparisons is, however, limited. Such figures still leave unanswered the questions, "Is the city doing all it can to prevent loss of life and property by fire? Is the city doing all it can to reduce the runs of the Fire Department?" It is the number of runs of the Fire Department which makes necessary the heavy pay roll and equipment expense.

Whether the city is doing all it can may be summarized in the following conclusions. In this survey the Finance Commission has been aided by recognized experts in the field of fire prevention.

Conclusions Reached.

1. While some progress has been made in the fire prevention program of the Fire Department, there is much still to be done.
2. The present Deputy Chief in charge of the Fire Prevention Division appears to have done as much as he could within the limitations imposed on him.
3. There seems to be agreement that the addition of a few specialists to the staff of the Fire Prevention Division and the acquisition of certain equipment will aid materially in making a fire prevention program effective.
4. There are entirely too few inspections of buildings to carry out a fire prevention program; this can be remedied by using fire company personnel in this work.
5. There has been no training of the latter personnel in this work, and there are very few with special training for more technical inspections on the staff of the Fire Prevention Division.
6. Recruitment for the staff of the Fire Prevention Division does not provide for qualification by examination or some suitable process of selectivity.
7. There are obstacles in the form of legal difficulties, administrative needs and interdepartmental relationship which stand in the way of a successful program.
8. In some quarters of the Department, there is an apparent lack of enthusiasm for fire prevention activity. This can only be remedied by executive action if a program is to succeed.
9. There has been little educating and winning of cooperation of the public by a suitable public relations program.
10. The Fire Prevention Division is handicapped by the bulk of the staff time and office space allotted to the issuance of oil permits and the collection of fees therefor.
11. By uncovering more fire hazards and reducing the time lapse between complaint and correction, Boston can experience the same reduction in fires as in the case of many other cities; and needless loss of life and property as well as needless exposure of personnel to fire-fighting risks can be eliminated in fires attributable to discoverable hazards.
12. The Department does not give proper emphasis to effectiveness in fire prevention. It spreads the responsibility over too large a number of officers to be adequately effective.
13. The Department operates without a fire prevention code. It therefore has no recognized basis for its fire prevention work, outside the general statute.

PRELIMINARY PLANNING.

Some suggestions which the above criticisms inspire are broad in scope and require some preliminary planning to get started. There are others, however, which are not only essential but which may be adopted or embarked upon at once. It seems important that these few suggestions be now singled out for emphasis in order that a corrective program be undertaken at once.

Interdepartmental Relations;
Legal Gaps.

In the first place, there are several points of conflict between the Building Department and the Fire Department in the field of fire safety which have to be adjusted. The following are some illustrations:

a. Chutes.—In many apartment buildings in Boston dumbwaiter shafts have been converted to refuse chutes. The Building Code requires only a certain type of lining for safety requirements; the Fire Department insists that such a situation is a hazard unless a sprinkler is installed.

b. Incinerators.—Many apartment houses have incinerators located in stair halls close to stairways. The Fire Department considers this a fire hazard and the fire record appears to bear them out.

c. Abandoned and Dilapidated Buildings.—Scattered throughout the city are many pieces of property which have been abandoned by their owners and left to disintegrate and eventually fall into the hands of the city. The Fire Department regards many of these as fire hazards; in fact, many fires have developed from these hazards which have threatened adjoining buildings and entire neighborhoods. Yet many such structures still exist and often they are open to trespass and the elements.

d. Common Causes of Fire.—Under present law defective smoke pipe and related fire causes must be reported to the Building Department for correction. The Fire Department contends that this lengthy process permits the continuation of a prolific source of fire, particularly during the winter; whereas, if the Fire Department had authority to compel correction of the defect, a nuisance could be abated more expeditiously.

FIELD OF CONFLICT.

The above discussion indicates that there is a definite field of conflict between the two departments in the matter of fire safety. If any weight is to be given to the judgment of the officers of the Fire Department, who presumably are specialists in the nature of fire and its control, then clearly the convictions of the Fire Department in the matter of the several items enumerated above ought to be recognized.

This can be done in one of two ways: (1) reference of plans involving these items to the Fire Department for approval; (2) incorporating the judgment of the Fire Department in these matters in the basic law by supplementing the Building Code to that extent. In the interests of expedition and elimination of delay and friction, the latter method seems preferable. The accomplishment of these changes and the determination whether the Fire Department ought to have more voice in eliminating such fire hazards as defective smoke pipe and other items, should be the duty of some such group as the Building Commissioner, the Fire Commissioner, the Deputy Fire Chief in charge of Fire Prevention and a representative of the Law Department. Their deliberations ought to result in plans for:

1. Incorporating the judgment of the Fire Department into the statutory law controlling the items in question;

2. Establishing a fire code which specifically sets out the authority and responsibility of the Fire Department in controlling fire hazards and distinguishes such authority and responsibility from that of the Building Department.

Besides the need for clarifying and amending the law, there are other immediate needs which can be met now. These include:

a. Securing a trained fire protection engineer. This man will study the technical aspects of fires, analyze fire records, plan inspection work, develop fire control methods and, in general, handle the technical work;

b. Securing photographic equipment. This is essential in picturing conditions for prosecution purposes. At present, a fireman is using his own equipment;

c. Securing adequate legal aid in finding true owners of property, preparing cases for prosecution and pushing prosecution more intensively;

d. Relieving the Fire Prevention Division of a large volume of fee collecting and incidental clerical work involved in the renewal of oil permits, which presently occupies much of the floor space and staff time in the Fire Prevention Division;

e. Securing educational films and publicity services to successfully carry on a program of public education.

The establishment of the fire prevention work in Boston on a scientific basis, staffed and performed by specially trained personnel, will have many advantages. It will reduce loss of life as well as of property. It will reduce fire runs, thereby saving men and equipment. The saving in loss of life and property will far outweigh the cost to the Department, and the result will be far more satisfactory to the taxpayers. At this time, when much new fire equipment is vitally needed, but is unobtainable except in limited quantities, the importance of up-to-date fire prevention work cannot be over-emphasized.

Respectfully submitted,

ALEXANDER WHEELER,
LEO F. DUNN,
FREDERICK DEANE,

MAYOR SEEKS EXPERT ADVICE
ON VOTING MACHINES.

His Honor the Mayor on August 5 forwarded the following letter to the Dean, Engineering School, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Massachusetts avenue, Cambridge, Mass.:

DEAR SIR,—The City of Boston has voted to install 250 automatic voting machines.

I am very desirous of securing the co-operation of the Institute of Technology in determining what is the most efficient and economical machine for the city to purchase.

Trusting that you, as head of the Engineering School, will aid us, by recommending what is best, I remain

Sincerely,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR CURLEY IN RADIO BROADCAST MAKES "MONTHLY REPORT ON CITY BUSINESS."

Fire Fighting Equipment.—The city has provided $500,000 for motor vehicle equipment, and already awards for contracts have been granted for sixteen new pumps and eight hose wagons. Presently bids will be received for new aerial ladder trucks, rescue wagons, lighting plants, and miscellaneous small cars. The serious problem in connection with the new fire fighting equipment is the delay in delivering the same.

Fire Department Housing.—Many of the houses are structurally unsafe, and it becomes necessary to erect new buildings and make major alterations and repairs to existing buildings. I am submitting to the City Council an order in the sum of $450,000 for the construction of new buildings, and upon my recommendation the City Council passed an appropriation of $300,000 for repairs and alterations of buildings.

The city has purchased a boat from the federal government at a cost of $25,000, to be used as a fireboat. The cost for the construction of this boat for the federal government was approximately $350,000. It will be necessary to install fire fighting pumps, etc., on this boat, for which money is now available.

Commissioner Codman is to be congratulated on his efforts to rebuild the efficiency of the Fire Department, which the Commissioner, in the course of a few years, hopes to make pre-eminent among the large fire department forces in the country.

TRANSIT COMMISSION ACTIVITIES.

When I took office at the beginning of the year, I found that a legislative act for the extension of the Maverick Square Tunnel to Day square in East Boston had been passed last year, but the amount authorized for construction was limited to $5,000,000. Upon study and investigation by the Transit Commission and its engineer, they determined that the cost of the proposed extensions would approximate $7,500,000. The Legislature of this year has provided for a cost limit of $8,500,000, which includes an extension from Day square to Orient Heights. Preliminary surveys and investigations have been started on this project, and work will be carried forward as rapidly as possible.

Other changes of great importance have been started to ease the handling of transportation. They include the installation of escalators at the Atlantic Station of the East Boston Tunnel to take the place of elevators, the enlargement of the pump well, and the installation of new pumps under Welles avenue, Dorchester Rapid Transit, and changes in the Ashmont, Fields Corner, and Andrew Square Stations, for transfer accommodations in connection with buses and trackless trolleys.

NEW VEHICULAR TUNNEL.

Chapter 567 of the Acts of 1946 provides for the preparation of plans for a vehicular tunnel between Boston Proper and East Boston. The purpose of this act is to provide a duplicate tunnel for traffic. This tunnel is to be constructed by the State Department of Public Works, and under the provisions of the act the department shall arrange to have the Boston Transit Department perform the necessary work required in the preparation of the plans. The costs for such work are to be reimbursed to the Transit Department monthly by the state.

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

Immediately upon taking office, I ordered the Institutions Commissioner to make a survey and report to me on the conditions as found at the Long Island Hospital. The physical plant at Long Island Hospital was found to be in a deplorable condition through neglect and indifference. The Nurses' Home, that cost the city $375,000 to erect, and would cost more than $500,000 to replace, was fast becoming a structural wreck. One half of the building was abandoned as unsafe and uninhabitable. The ceilings and walls had collapsed, floors had warped, the sanitary system was fouled and unusable, and every storm drenched the interior, further adding to its deterioration. The outside walls have now been repaired and made watertight. Work is progressing on the interior and will be finished October 1.

The boat service to the island was found to be utterly demoralized, caused by the ancient boats in the service. Trips had to be cancelled, and time was no factor. The boat service to Long Island is of first importance, as it is the only link to the hospital. I succeeded in purchasing a boat, that cost the government $785,000 to build, at the bargain price of $43,200. The boat is now being altered and when completed will be the finest boat of its size in Boston Harbor.

The wharf at Long Island was literally falling into the harbor from decay. It has been patched so many times that little of the original wharf remained. I approved a contract for $107,000 to build a new wharf.

The kitchen at the hospital has been completely reorganized. Obsolete equipment has been junked and modern equipment installed. From having the highest per capita food costs in the state, today our food is better and our costs are now comparable to other institutions.

Time will not permit me to enumerate other corrections but I will say that the entire institution will be renovated.

The Institutions Department, besides administering Long Island Hospital, has the added responsibility of the Child Welfare Division of the city. This division has the care of 1,300 children, who, through unfortunate circumstances, have become wards of the city. This number represents three times the number that the State Division of Child Guardianship cares for. The City of Boston is the legal guardian of these children. We care for them from the cradle to their majority, and to a large degree we mold their futures.

In April I ordered a complete survey of the children being boarded by the city in foster homes, with the purpose of creating opportunities for vocational rehabilitation for children between the ages of 16 and 20. The State Department of Education is cooperating, and opportunities have been found for 119 children of these ages to commence their careers and detach themselves from the city's welfare rolls. Not alone will this give them more self-reliance, but it has also made a saving to the city of $10,392. A continuance of this meritorious plan will finally make a saving of $50,000 to the city.

CITY TO BUY U. S. S. MARABOUT.

The following is a copy of telegram received at the Mayor's Office on July 30: "HENRY F. BRENNAN, City Treasurer, City of Boston.

Maritime Commission has approved sale of vessel U. S. S. Marabout, AMC-50, to you as is, where it is for $25,000. Contact our agent R. H. Harris, War Shipping Administration, 40 Broad street, Boston, and arrange to accept immediate delivery of vessel.

W. C. BANISTER,
War Shipping Administration."

EQUALIZATION OF SALARIES PLANNED BY MAYOR.

To the Heads of the Departments.

It is the purpose of his Honor the Mayor in the 1947 budget to establish equalization of salaries in all City Departments. In this connection it is essential that no increases be granted in the interim which may prevent the carrying out of this program which, when adopted, will make equitable the salaries of all persons employed by the City.

Budget Commissioner.

CHARLES J. FOX,
City Auditor.

PARK DEPARTMENT RECREATION SCHEDULE FOR AUGUST.

Mayor James M. Curley, after consultation with Mr. William P. Long, Chairman of the Park Commission, and "Bob" Cusick, Supervisor of Recreation, announced the following August schedule:

Last night in all our parks, our Park League Play-offs began. They shall continue. At 10 tomorrow morning, Wednesday, August 7, the Boys' Pitching Contest under the auspices of our Park Department will start in Fens Stadium.

The Amateur Boxing Trials will be staged at the Readville Playground in Hyde Park at 8 in the evening of August 7. If you have a weight between 75 pounds and 135 pounds, get in there. It's all for love and sport.

The August schedule which our Park Department has planned includes also these worth-while events:

On Wednesday, August 14, at Franklin Park there is to be a city-sponsored picnic for girls, and when we say girls, we mean them, ages from 9 to 90.

On Sunday, August 18, there is to be the Annual Summer Swimming Meet of the girls and boys of our city (in conjunction with N. E. A. A. U) at Columbia and South Boston Yacht Clubs, which is to take off no later than 2.30 p. m.

Continuing our August picture, the boxing finals for the novice championships are being staged at 8 p. m. on Wednesday, August 21, in South Boston Stadium. The weights to be determined all of which are for the City Championships, are as follows: 75, 85, 95, 105, 115, 125 and 135 pounds.

One of the greatest of all our August attractions, sponsored by the City of Boston, will take place on Wednesday, August 28, at 8 p. m. This gala event is the 18th Annual Playground Circus on Boston Common which is given in the interest of all kids of our city. All the clowns, acrobats, freaks and whatever else you may call them will be here that night to entertain them and to bring back not only to the youngsters but to them, themselves, most of whom came from here, the wonderful thought, wherever they may be, may it be land or sea—Boston is my home town.

FEDERAL TUBERCULOSIS CONTROL PLAN STARTED AT BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL.

The following request has been approved:

BOSTON, July 1, 1946.

To JOHN J. SULLIVAN, Budget Commissioner.

From JAMES W. MANARY, M. D., Superintendent.

DEAR SIR,—At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Boston City Hospital held on November 11, 1945, the Trustees voted to accept money from the State in order that something could be done by the Hospital toward the work for which the Federal Government has furnished the money.

On January 29, 1946, a check in the amount of $14,900 was sent to the City Collector to be set up as a fund on which drafts may be drawn for payment of expenses incurred in carrying out this hospital project for control of tuberculosis which will eventually function in the Out-Patient Department of the Hospital.

The positions listed below were recommended to meet the situation: one supervising nurse, $1,920 a year; one X-ray technician, $1,920 a year; one statistical clerk, $1,920 a year; one stenographer, clerk, $1,620 a year; one Roentgenologist, part time, $1,670 a year.

These rates were recommended by Dr. Cauley and based on Federal rates paid at that time. They were inclusive of all E. C. A. benefits.

The authorization obtained from the Department of Civil Service because of the inability of that department to furnish candidates to be appointed on a temporary basis was granted in answer to a requisition for a statistical clerk at $1,800 a year and a stenographer-clerk or clerk-typist at $1,500 a year. It will be absolutely impossible to employ satisfactory clerical workers on a temporary basis at rates now established for permanent clerical workers of the city. In fact is a little difficult to obtain qualified clerical workers on a temporary basis at any salary at this particular time.

We have been able to interest one former employee of the Out-Patient Department who is familiar with all types of record work, Elizabeth T. Bergen, who is willing to accept this work on a temporary basis at a salary of $1,500, and she is being recommended to fill the position of senior clerk and typist. After all necessary approvals are obtained on the creation of these temporary positions, an effort will be made to interest some qualified worker from the ranks in the position of statistical clerk at a salary of $1,800 per year which will include E. C. A. benefits.

At this time may I respectfully request your approval of the five positions as listed above so that the actual work on this project may be started at the earliest possible date.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES W. MANARY, M. D.,
Superintendent.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with contractors, commercial houses, and supply houses for furnishing labor, supplies, etc. Communications from the heads of the departments interested were as follows:

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 25, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your permission is requested to enter into a contract with the Bethlehem Steel Company, without advertising, for the purpose of making repairs on Fireboat "Matthew J. Boyle," Engine No. 44. At the present time the fireboat is out of service for the annual inspection and overhaul required by the Steamboat Inspection Service of the United States Coast Guard. We have a contract with the Boston Marine Works, Inc., for the retubing of the after boiler in the approximate cost of $4,750. The work to be performed by the Bethlehem Steel Company includes the dry docking of the vessel, cleaning all surfaces below water line, applying two coats of anti-fouling paint over the entire hull, as well as the usual cleaning of all suction strainers, checking of propeller shaft, also the various valves to be repacked, and other work incidental to the requirements of the Steamboat Inspection Service. The cost of the work to be done by the Bethlehem Steel Company will be more than $1,000, but, presumably, will not exceed $1,500.

We have been unable to secure a bid from any firm other than the Bethlehem Steel Company. Inasmuch as it is imperative to have the fireboat returned to active duty as soon as possible, your permission is requested for the Fire Department to proceed with the Bethlehem Steel Company without advertising.

Respectfully yours,

RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.,
Fire Commissioner.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 8, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your approval is respectfully requested for the award of a contract, without advertising, to the N. L. C. Engineering and Equipment Company, in the approximate sum of $1,650; of this amount $1,147.95 is for parts and the remainder for labor, for reconditioning No. 2 Ames Vertical Una-flow Engine in Power House, Boston City Hospital.

This company is the authorized agent of the Ames Iron Works, who were the manufacturers of this engine, and are therefore the only contractors equipped to make the necessary repairs to the engine.

The trustees feel that nothing can be gained by advertising, and therefore recommend the award of the contract to the N. L. C. Engineering and Equipment Company in the approximate sum of $1,650.

Respectfully yours,

MARTIN J. ENGLISH, M. D.,
President, Board of Trustees.

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 19, 1946.

TO: HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor,
City of Boston.

FROM: G. FRANK McDONALD, Commissioner, Institutions Department.

SUBJECT: Steamer "Stephen O'Meara" Repairs.

After the annual inspection of the Steamer "Stephen O'Meara" the United States Coast Guard ordered the City of Boston to make repairs on the ship as they directed. Unless these repairs were made, a certificate would not be issued, thereby preventing the city from operating the ship. It is impossible to determine the scope of the repairs required as the United States Coast Guard inspectors progress their requirements as the ship is being repaired.

The Bethlehem Steel Company, 256 Marginal street, East Boston, has the facilities for docking the boat and is able to perform the work immediately. As this company performs nearly all the work required on the city's ships in a satisfactory manner, and as there is precedent for awarding contracts to this company for repairs to ships in this manner, I respectfully request your approval to award the contract to the Bethlehem Steel Company in the sum of nine thousand one hundred nineteen dollars ($9,119), without public advertising.

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC CELEBRATIONS.

BOSTON, June 8, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Authority is hereby requested to award a contract, without advertising, to Fitzpatrick Brothers, for Charlestown Night Before Banquet, in the amount of $3,774. This includes services, tables, chairs and Old Age Tax. Inasmuch as the price for this commodity is uniform there would be no advantage accruing to the city by advertising.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM T. SHEPARD,
Director, Public Celebrations.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, June 27, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—For the past eight years his Honor the Mayor has approved the purchase of fruits and vegetables daily, and meats, poultry, butter, fish and eggs weekly, instead of on a monthly basis as was this department's practice prior to 1938. This departure from customary departmental procedure was initiated only after thorough consideration of all factors involved and was the recommendation not only of city officials but of a committee of purchasing agents representing leading private concerns. During the prewar years from 1938 to 1941 the more frequent purchasing in this line proved its worth in the savings effected and the higher quality of perishable foods delivered to city institutions. And, in the final analysis, its practicability has evidenced itself in its adaptability to present emergency conditions. Your permission is requested, therefore, to continue the daily and weekly purchasing of the foods listed above for a period of one year from July 1, 1946.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, July 2, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is requested to purchase from the Hobart Manufacturing Company, 186 Brookline avenue, Boston, without publicly advertising for bids, the following equipment for the Long Island Hospital, Division of the Institutions Department:

One Model M-80, 4-speed Hobart mixing machine, equipped with one bowl, beater and whip, and the following attachments, \$985; one 40-quart bowl, beater, whip and adapter, \$67.25; one 9-inch vegetable slicer, \$78.50; one shredder plate, $\frac{3}{16}$ inch, \$12.50; one grater plate, \$12.50; one soup strainer and colander for 40-quart bowl, \$48.50; one 10-gallon oil dropper, \$15.50; one food chopper attachment, \$30; one Model D fruit juice extractor, \$42; one knife sharpener, \$36.50; one bowl truck, \$15.25. Total, \$1,343.50. Less: Special 10 per cent discount, \$134; net total, \$1,209.50. As the Hobart Manufacturing Company is the manufacturer of this machine, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, July 17, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of June 24, 1946, this office was prepared to receive bids on proposals for furnishing and delivering to the South End Sewer Yard of the Public Works Department, 1,000 wrought-iron manhole steps. Although more than twenty-five concerns were notified, only one bid was received. Your permission is requested, therefore, to accept the bid of the New England Bolt Company, Inc., Charlton street, Everett, at its price of 59½ cents each. The total award will be $595, less a cash discount of one half of one per cent for payment in ten days.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, July 18, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your permission is requested to award a contract without publicly advertising for bids to the Gamewell Company, 1238 Chestnut street, Newton, for furnishing to the Fire Department:

25 Gamewell, 3-fold type, fire alarm boxes with blank break wheels, complete with Gamewell, 3-fold, Hercule outside shells with quick-action door and Boston Fire Department lock; box to be arranged for telegraph sounder instead of tap bell, at $122.50 each, total, $3,062.50.

Since the City of Boston is equipped with the Gamewell fire-alarm signal system, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, July 18, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your permission is requested to award a contract without publicly advertising for bids to the Commercial Refrigeration Company, 74 Brookline avenue, Boston, for furnishing to the Boston City Hospital twelve DI-7 Frigidaire refrigerators, in accordance with specifications on file in this office, at a unit price of $186.25. These refrigerators are being purchased under the Departmental Equipment Loan to replace equipment which, because of age and general deterioration, can no longer adequately serve the needs of the Hospital Department.

The price quoted by the Commercial Refrigeration Company includes delivery, installation, one-year free service, and a five-year guarantee on the compressors.

The contractor has the refrigerators in stock and is prepared to make immediate delivery, and, since the price per unit is reasonable and refrigerating equipment is extremely difficult to obtain, I believe that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

The total amount of the contract will be $2,235.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, July 18, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your permission is requested to purchase for the Boston City Hospital, without public advertisement for bids, 245 cartons of large Chux at a unit price of $9.75, less a discount of 33½ per cent. These Chux were offered to the hospital by Johnson & Johnson, New Brunswick, New Jersey, and, as the defects in no way prevent their satisfactory use, the 33½ per cent discount from the standard price makes the purchase most advantageous to the city.

The net total of the award will be $1,592.50.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

AMENDMENTS TO TRANSFERS AND REALLOCATION OF BUDGET APPROPRIATIONS.

The Mayor has approved the requests of the heads of the various departments indicated for the transfer, amendments or reallocation of budget appropriations as follows:

AUDITING DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 17, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request your approval to make the following amendments in the 1946 budget of the Auditing Department in order to cover recent promotions within this department approved by you:

One clerk at $3,200 a year, to read, one clerk at $3,500 a year; one clerk at $2,900 a year, to read, three clerks at $2,900 a year.

Respectfully,

DANIEL J. FALVEY,
Deputy City Auditor.

BOSTON TRAFFIC COMMISSION.

BOSTON, July 19, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Kindly make the following reallocation within Group C of the budget appropriations for this department:

From C-17 to C-15, $100.

The appropriation for this department in Item C-15 has proved insufficient to cover the cost of urgently needed equipment.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

BOSTON, July 24, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—The painting of safety lines in roadways, including pedestrian crosswalks at dangerous intersections and in the vicinity of schools, churches and other points of public assembly, is a seasonal activity of this department during the period from late spring to the beginning of November. This work is done by temporary employees secured from the Civil Service Labor List.

The start of this program this year was seriously delayed by two factors; namely, the difficulty of securing suitable paint due to shortages of prime ingredients and the scarcity of men on the Civil Service Labor List who were qualified for the work and willing to accept the wages paid.

We are now employing six painters. In order to make a respectable showing on our program and in order to satisfy the most urgent demands from the Police Department, schools, churches, hospitals, social service agencies, etc., it will be necessary to continue their employment until November 5, 1946.

This department requested an appropriation for this year in Budget Item A-2, Temporary Employees, of $14,040, to cover the cost of employing ten painters for thirty-six weeks. We were allowed $6,000. It will require that this item be strengthened in the amount of $3,021.01 to continue the employment of six temporary painters until November 5, 1946.

We anticipate some surplus in Budget Item C-17, Miscellaneous Equipment, because of our inability to secure required amounts of traffic posts and signs due to the shortage in the steel market. I respectfully request your approval of the following transfer of funds within the budget appropriations of this department:

From C-17, $3,021.01, to A-2, $3,021.01.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM P. HICKEY, Commissioner.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 23, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Will you be kind enough to approve a transfer within the appropriation of this department as follows:

From the appropriation for A-1, Permanent Employees, $14,000, to the appropriation for A-2, Temporary Employees, $14,000. Provision was made in the budget for ten employees from May 3, 1946. As there was no Civil Service list, provisional persons have been employed. Take this amount from Egress Inspectors, 10 at $18,700.

Yours very truly,

JOHN J. MAHONEY,
Building Commissioner.

BOSTON, July 23, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Will you be kind enough to approve a transfer within the appropriation of this department as follows:

From appropriation for A-1, Permanent Employees, Egress Inspectors, 10, $1,000, to the appropriation for B-1, Printing and Binding, $100; B-14, Motor Vehicle Repairs, $200; D-1, Office Supplies, $700.

B-1, it was necessary to have printed the Zoning, Plumbing and Gasfitting Laws. Only the Zoning Laws was contemplated when the budget was made. All these pamphlets are sold at twenty-five cents each; so much of the price for printing will be returned to the city.

B-14, we are sadly in need of a new car. The old one has required much repairing.

D-1, the thousands of inspections, reports, licenses, etc., which have been required of this department in the enforcing of chapter 143, General Laws, has necessitated the printing of thousands of forms and all kinds of stationery supplies.

Yours very truly,

JOHN J. MAHONEY,
Building Commissioner.

COLLECTING DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 17, 1946.

To HON. JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor,
Mayor's Office.From DANIEL F. DONOVAN, City Collector,
Collecting Department.

Subject: Reallocation of Funds.

To B-3, Advertising and Posting,
$1,000, from B-10, Rentals, $1,000.

Your approval is respectfully requested to amend our departmental water budget covering the B-3, Advertising and Posting Account.

The price per inch for advertising tax sales in the City Record was increased from $2 per inch to $4 per inch after our budget had provided for an amount of $2,500 based on $2 per inch. The actual invoice from the City Record amounts to 788 inches and $3,152.

The B-10 item will show a balance since rentals were provided for the entire year and the Remington-Rand machines are to be purchased outright by the city, and therefore we use this account to make this reallocation.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN J. CONNORS,
Assistant City Collector.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 6, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Subject to your Honor's approval, the 1946 Fire Department budget will be amended under A-1, Personal Service, as follows:

Six assistant operators at $1,600, $2,100, will be changed to read eight assistant operators at $1,600, $2,100.

At the present time the operating force is shorthanded because of the fact that it has been necessary to assign two operators to teach telegraphy to members of the fire fighting force. Practically all firemen must be able to use Morse Code in communication between fire alarm boxes and the central fire alarm office.

Also Robert L. Sullivan, a non-veteran, who has been employed as a provisional assistant operator since May 2, 1945, will have to be discharged as it has been brought to our attention by the Department of Civil Service that there are two veterans who are qualified to act as provisional assistant operators. However, Mr. Sullivan is a proficient assistant operator and has had over one year's experience in the operation of our fire alarm system. We desire very much to continue his services; however, we cannot do this unless the 1946 budget is amended by adding two assistant operator positions at $1,600 a year plus $200 E. C. A.

Respectfully yours,

RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.,
Fire Commissioner.

BOSTON, July 11, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Subject to your Honor's approval, the 1946 Fire Department budget will be amended under A-1, Personal Service, as follows:

One Aide to Superintendent of Maintenance at $2,700 a year, should read two Aides to Superintendent of Maintenance at $2,700 a year.

The foregoing addition is requested in order that Hoseman William E. Coughlin of the Maintenance Division may be assigned as Aide to the Superintendent of Maintenance. At the present time the Superintendent, who is on call twenty-four hours per day, has only one Aide who works the two-platoon system on a twenty-four hour basis. One additional Aide is required to alternate with the present Aide on a twenty-four hour per day basis.

Hoseman Coughlin has been a member of the department since 1913.

Respectfully yours,

RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.,
Fire Commissioner.

BOSTON, July 16, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your Honor's approval is requested of the following transfers in the 1946 Fire Department budget:

From B-13, Communication, $1,500, to B-14, Motor Vehicle Repairs and Care, $1,500.

From B-8, Light, Heat and Power, $1,000, to B-14, Motor Vehicle Repairs and Care, $1,000.

At the present time the sum of $19,000 allowed in B-14 is exhausted and the foregoing transfer is necessary in order that repairs may be made to starters, motors, generators, radiators, water pumps, etc., by outside concerns.

Due to the fact that our overage motor fire apparatus is responding to more alarms this year than ever, mechanical breakdowns are frequent. Most of the repair work is performed by our motor mechanics but specialized work on generators, water pumps, radiators, etc., must be performed by contractors, specializing in this type of work.

Inasmuch as we may not be able to obtain new apparatus in 1946, we must have money in B-14 to pay for motor vehicle repairs.

It appears that there are sufficient funds in Items B-8 and B-13 to allow the foregoing transfers.

Respectfully yours,

RUSSELL S. CODMAN, JR.,
Fire Commissioner.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 15, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request that you alter the Park Department budget so as to allow additional appropriations on the B-16 and the D-5 Items. Additional money is needed in these two items to pay for medicine for animals and for additional medical supplies for the baths and beaches. Accordingly, the following transfer is requested:

From B-42, Miscellaneous Services, $10; D-16, Miscellaneous Supplies, $35, to B-16, Care of Animals, $10; D-5, Medical, Surgical, $35.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

BOSTON, July 18, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request your approval to alter the budget by reducing the quota of physical instructors at $2,300 a year by one and creating a position of assistant director of recreation at $2,600 a year plus $200 a year emergency compensation allotment, to which position I wish to appoint Patrick J. Ryan of 112 Woodard road, West Roxbury, who has been employed in the Park Department for the past fifteen years.

A request has been made to the Civil Service Commission for the change in rating.

The vacancy left by Mr. Ryan as physical instructor will not be filled.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

PARK DEPARTMENT (Cemetery Division).

BOSTON, June 25, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Your permission is respectfully requested to make the following transfer of funds in the budget of the Cemetery Division, Park Department:

From B-39, General Repairs, $50, to B-4, Transportation of Persons, $50.

This money is for the transportation of our employees, from one cemetery to another, in conveyances other than department vehicles, in the performance of their work.

There is no money in the B-4 Item of the budget and the money is available in the B-39 Item.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 15, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Approval is respectfully requested to amend the budget of the Water Division as follows: Decrease quota item, Civil Engineers, Grade IV, at $2,800, $3,300 a year, from six to five.

Create item, Junior Engineer, Grade III, at $2,300 a year.

This amendment is recommended in order to provide for promotion of William T. Gallivan, 18 Sunset Hill road, Roslindale, transitman, at present temporarily transferred to Junior Engineer, Grade III, at $2,300 a year plus $200 E. C. A.

Mr. Gallivan is the senior man in the Grade II Group, having been appointed to this department on September 18, 1911.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Subject: Reallocations to Sewer Division Budget.

From B-39, General Repairs, $90, to B-3, Advertising, $90.

The following was received:

To the Honorable City Council.

Gentlemen,—In condemnation proceedings in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts entitled "United States of America v. 40.8 acres of land, more or less, in Boston, Suffolk County, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Frederick E. Ordway, et al.," Misc. Civil No. 6598, the United States on December 28, 1942, acquired in fee simple certain land in the South Boston District of Boston within the area bounded by E street, West First street, East First street, Dorchester street and the United States Pierhead and Bulkhead Line. That portion of the land taken which abuts the intersection of East First street and West First street has for some time been used as if it were a part of those streets. Recently, the United States tendered to the city a deed (which is enclosed herewith) granting to the City of Boston title in fee to the land so used, to the end that it may be formally laid out as a public highway. I recommend the adoption by your Honorable Body of the accompanying order accepting the aforesaid grant from the United States.

EASEMENT FOR SEWERAGE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 22, 1946.
To the Honorable City Council.

Gentlemen,—In condemnation proceedings in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts entitled "United States of America v. 40.8 acres of land, more or less, in Boston, Suffolk County, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Frederick E. Ordway, et al.," Misc. Civil No. 6598, the United States on December 28, 1942, acquired in fee simple certain land in the South Boston District of Boston within the area bounded by E street, West First street, East First street, Dorchester street and the United States Pierhead and Bulkhead Line. At the time of the taking the City of Boston had sewerage works in certain portions of the land taken and the right to discharge sewage and drainage upon and into certain other portions of said land. In adapting the land to the use for which it was taken, the sewerage works and the discharge area were relocated at the expense of the United States to the satisfaction of the Sewer Division of the Public Works Department of the city. The United States has now tendered the city a deed (which is enclosed herewith) granting to the City of Boston a right and easement for the construction, maintenance and operation of the sewerage and drainage works as relocated, and also a right and easement to discharge sewage, drainage, storm and surface waters upon and into the new discharge area. I recommend the adoption by your Honorable Body of the accompanying order accepting the aforesaid grant from the United States.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the grant to the City of Boston by the United States of America by deed dated May 31, 1946, of the perpetual right and easement for the construction, maintenance and operation of sewerage and drainage works in, over, and upon certain lands described in said deed and also of the right and easement to discharge sewage, drainage, storm and surface waters upon and into certain other land described in said deed be, and the same hereby is, accepted.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

PURCHASE OF FIREBOAT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 22, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith an order for the appropriation of $100,000 from the account "Sales of City Property," for the purchase and equipping of a fireboat.

The boat in question is now the property of the United States Navy, and is located, for the time being, at South Boston. The boat was built some three years ago at a cost of approximately $350,000. The boat is ninety-seven feet long, has a displacement of two hundred tons, and is operated by Diesel engines.

I am informed by the Fire Commissioner, who has examined the boat in company with a shipbuilding expert, that the boat is in excellent condition and readily adaptable as a fire-fighting unit for his department. He estimates that a similar boat, properly equipped, would cost the city approximately five hundred thousand dollars.

It is essential that the city provide more adequate fire protection for its waterfront. Mr. John P. Brennan, the representative of the City of Boston at Washington, has spent considerable time and effort to locate and obtain a boat which could be adapted for municipal needs. In the opinion of all concerned, the purchase price from the Navy Department of $25,000 is insignificant. Rough estimates at the present time indicate that the installation of pumps and other fire-fighting equipment will be in the vicinity of seventy thousand dollars, hence, the necessity for raising $100,000 to purchase and place the boat in workable condition.

I respectfully request your Honorable Body to give action at today's meeting to this appropriation. In order that the City of Boston might not lose this boat to another and higher bidder, it is expedient that we take prompt action on the offer made by the United States Navy Department. Not only will this contemplated purchase provide a most necessary piece of fire-fighting equipment at a saving of several hundred thousands of dollars, but it will also be possible to salvage many thousand dollars worth of equipment now on the boat and unnecessary for fire-fighting purposes.

I recommend prompt action on the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of $100,000 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated, from the account "Sales of City Property," to be expended under the direction of the Fire Commissioner, for the purchase, furnishing and equipping of a boat from the United States Navy Department, to be used as a fire-fighting unit of the Fire Department.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

APPROPRIATION FROM PARKMAN FUND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 22, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Board of Park Commissioners requesting the appropriation of $33,000 from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Board of Park Commissioners, for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

The 1946 budget estimates of the personal service requirements of the Park Department included an estimate of the total income of $211,000 from the Parkman Fund. The budget allowances made provision for the appropriation of this income as it accrued for the purpose of defraying the cost of work actually performed on the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887.

I submit herewith an order appropriating the sum of $33,000, the accrued income now available from the Parkman Fund, and respectfully recommend its immediate passage by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the sum of $33,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund, to be expended under the direction of the Park Commissioners, for the Maintenance and Improvement of the Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and
Improvement of $33,000

City of Boston,
Park Department, July 9, 1946.
Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—By vote of the Board of Park Commissioners, you are respectfully requested to ask the City Council to transfer from the income of the George F. Parkman Fund the sum of $33,000 which is now available, to be expended under the direction of the Board of Park Commissioners, as follows:

Common and Parks in Existence on January 12, 1887, Maintenance and
Improvement of $33,000

When making up the budget estimates for the year 1946, a sum equal to the total yearly income of the George F. Parkman Fund was deducted from Item A-1, Permanent Employees, with the understanding that this deduction was to be replaced by the total yearly income of said Parkman Fund for 1946, to be transferred as it accrued from time to time during the year to the regular maintenance appropriation of the Park Department.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.
Referred to the Committee on Parkman Fund.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Sir,—For reasons explained herein I respectfully request that you approve a transfer of five hundred eighty-four dollars and eighty-two cents to Item F-7, Pensions and Annuities in the Weights and Measures Department budget from available sources.

This transfer is to take care of the amount needed for the balance of the year for the pension of Deputy Sealer Lawrence J. Lewis, whose retirement dates from July 10, 1946.

This retirement was not anticipated when the current budget was in the making and the slack allowed for veterans returning to service will not be sufficient to allow any part of it for this purpose. There is not sufficient slack in any of the budget items to meet this requirement.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN F. MCCARTHY, Sealer.

SELECTIVE SERVICE AT MUNICIPAL BUILDING.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 22, 1946.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith an order authorizing the Superintendent of Public Buildings to permit the Selective Service to occupy a portion of the Municipal Building at Columbia road, Dorchester.

The portion of the building to be used by the Selective Service is the auditorium, and such use will not interfere with the ordinary activities which take place in this building.

It is my understanding that the space in question is to be used by the Selective Service as a central location, combining the activities of several local boards.

I see no particular objection to the granting of the authorization, and I believe the service charge of $2,000 per year, as proposed by the Superintendent of Public Buildings, is a fair one under the circumstances. I, therefore, respectfully request adoption of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Public Buildings be authorized to permit the Selective Service (United States Government) to occupy a portion of the Municipal Building, Columbia road, at Bird street, on a month-to-month, tenant-at-will basis, at a service charge rate equivalent to $2,000 per year; such occupancy to terminate upon thirty days' notice given by the Superintendent of Public Buildings.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

PETITION OF MATILDA E. CHAMBERLAIN.

Petition of Matilda E. Chamberlain to be paid an annuity on account of the death of her husband, Edward G. Chamberlain, a member of the Fire Department, who died on March 14, 1946, as a result of injuries received in performance of his duty.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

1946 TAX RATE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Finance Commission, July 19, 1946.
To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

The Finance Commission submits herewith for the official record the computations of the tax rate of 1946 as disclosed by examination of the various papers pertaining thereto in the city departments. This portrayal of the official record, with brief comment by the Commission, is offered in order that taxpayers who are interested may have the opportunity to examine the development of the adopted rate.

Generally, the 1946 tax rates in municipalities are higher than in 1945. This is due, in large part, to the fact that much of the normal current expense in most municipalities had been deferred during the war years and now there is, as a result, a greater than normal need to be satisfied. Higher wages of public employees and higher costs of equipment and materials also played a large part in the making of the higher rates.

Boston is no exception in these respects. More work, more equipment, more employees, higher wages and costs had to be provided for. Added to this general condition, this year saw a new administration come into office with the usual number of political supporters to be added to the city pay roll, or provided with higher paid positions.

Naturally, therefore, there were many ominous forecasts of a higher tax rate in 1946. Spokesmen of the new administration threatened it when seeking legislative authority to borrow money for current needs. Every civic protest against a new trend or a continuation of old trends contained prophesy of another peak in tax rate figures. Increase of the 1945 rate of $42.50 to even as high as $50 was freely predicted. At one time it was even officially stated that a $55 rate could not be avoided unless the city was allowed to meet many maintenance needs by a loan.

Yet, to those who realize that the determination of the tax rate in Boston is dependent not on figures themselves but on how they are used, it was not surprising that a rate of $42 per $1,000 of property valuation, 50 cents less than in 1945, was finally and officially promulgated. To appreciate the feat, it must be realized that there was no new authority provided to obtain money from new sources. Moreover, decisions in great number still continued to come from the State Appellate Tax Board, in effect determining that many valuations were already too high. State grants were less than in previous years and, furthermore, departmental appropriations in 1946 were on a more lavish scale than ever before. How, therefore, the $42 rate was reached, it is the intention of the Finance Commission to record in this report.

The Appropriations Voted.

In view of this lower rate it is interesting to note that the total of $84,761,892.78 appropriated for city and schools, for county, and for state warrants was $3,916,596.31 greater than the 1945 total. In terms of the 1945 tax rate this increase would have meant a $2.65 higher rate in 1946.

In the table which follows containing a comparison of the principal items of the appropriations in 1945 and 1946 it can be seen how this increased spending right was distributed.

* $700,000 Loan (1945/73-10/23/45) added for comparison.

A significant feature of the above table is the revelation that appropriation for general educational purposes by the School Committee is $53,777 less in 1946 than in 1945. This is important because the public has been regaled with frequent statements from the school authorities that they had reduced expenses $605,000. The explanation is that the School Committee, by a complicated method of figuring its power to spend, arrived at a figure which is $605,000 more than the voted budget totaled. Nevertheless, the fact remains that the amount voted for general educational expense which does not include appropriation for land and new buildings and for alterations and repairs on existing buildings in 1946 is only $53,777 less than that voted in 1945.

Another striking element in this picture is that for interest on city debt and for serial debt payments, the present administration in 1946 is required to raise $1,017,089 less than was necessary in 1945. This fortunate circumstance means a difference of about 70 cents in the tax rate. This reduction is due to the conservative debt policy followed in the years 1938 to 1945, the Tobin administration, when the city net debt was reduced $30,000,000. It is unfortunate that henceforth the trend will be upward because of the large amount borrowed in 1946, which will be shown later in this report.

Warrants.

The most significant revelation of the warrants and appropriations table is the size of the increase in city maintenance requirements. In 1946 it is $6,068,704.65 greater than in 1945. Yet, as already stated, the total does not reflect the cost of many present and imminent new forms of expenditure.

In the item for overlay deficits the advantage is a dubious one. The figure used as the amount of the deficit to be provided for in the 1946 tax computations is $811,936.55 less than the corresponding item in the 1945 tax computations. This meant a saving in the rate on this one account of approximately 55 cents. Actually, however, the situation is not so hopeful. The figure used in this item is the total of abatements paid in the previous calendar year. The number of cases decided in the past year was less in proportion to recent normals, not because there were less applications for abatements, but because a combination of circumstances prevented the same volume of decisions in Boston cases. Between January 1, 1946, and June 30, 1946, a total of $831,426.37 more accumulated. (The latter figure obtained from accounts of the City Auditor.) This latter amount is the figure not included in the total provided for in the 1946 rate.

The warrants showing the actual purposes within the classifications of city, county and state appropriations are as follows:

1946 TAX RATE.

Credits and Deductions.

As against the requirements of appropriations, as shown in the foregoing pages, the assessors used certain credits and deductions which are recommended to them or certified by other official agencies.

The significant item in the list is the item of "Loans." This refers to the authority to borrow on account of municipal relief authorized most recently by chapter 73, Acts of 1945. The amount borrowed $2,900,000, in comparison with $700,000 borrowed in 1945 saved the tax rate almost $2. Later in this report there will appear further comment on this situation.

The figure used for "Estimated Receipts" (other than taxes or special revenues), the largest item in the list, $9,130,000, is barely within the legal limit allowable this year. This limit, the total amount received in the previous year, was $9,181,929. Actually, the figure used as an offset against requirements this year is $642,244 greater than the figure used in the 1945 rate computation.

The Sumner Tunnel is now operating without a deficit. Therefore, there is no state grant in the credits and deductions for Sumner Tunnel deficit such as there has been for several years past.

The fluctuations in the other items of the list are in largest part the result of estimates made by agencies other than the Assessing Department.

The two-year comparison of the figures in this category are as follows:

Tax Rate Summary.

The actual levy (the amount to be raised by taxation in real and personal property plus the $2 per head poll tax) is $1,663,409.20 greater in 1946 than in 1945. The 1946 levy has been exceeded only once in the history of the city (1932). On the basis of 1945 valuations this would mean approximately $1.10 more in the tax rate. The administration's decision to make full use of its right to borrow for welfare purposes under chapter 73, Acts of 1945, as previously stated, served to keep an additional $2 out of the rate.

The overlay, which is intended to provide a fund out of which abatements granted later may be paid was increased from the three per cent figure used in recent years to 3½ per cent. This increase is of great significance. Abatements usually result from excessive valuation. For many years the opinion has been held by many informed people that assessed valuations in Boston have been too high. Sales prices compiled by the Real Estate Exchange confirm this. The Appellate Tax Board (State Board of Appeals) has also subscribed to it through its volumes of decisions ordering abatements. In addition each year the assessors themselves grant a great volume of abatements. This combination of decisions has resulted in a deficit year after year in the overlay account, against which taxes resulting from excessive valuations are charged off. The total of abatements of taxes levied in some years has reached well above 5 per cent, yet the amount provided was, until this year, 3 per cent or less. The increase in the account this year to 3½ per cent may have even more significance later when the 1946 assessed valuations are tested by appeal procedure.

The tax rate summary follows:

RAISE IN ASSESSMENTS.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor direct the Board of Assessors to notify any owner of residential property when and if the assessment on said property is to be raised and the reason therefor.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, briefly the purpose of this order of course is to have the city play fair with property owners. I think a person is entitled to feel that the assessment is going to stay unless some major improvement is made in the property. Sometimes because a person paints his house and puts a new roof on it, it is called to our attention that the assessment is raised $100 or $1,000. I have had occasions where people have received abatements on property. No change will take place in the property but the following year the abatement will be forgotten and the assessment will be raised to its former standing. I think in justice to the property owners if any change is going to be made in the assessment, the assessors should notify them and tell them the reason for it.

1946 TAX RATE.

Valuations.

From the foregoing figures of the requirements for funds, it has plainly appeared that without certain fortuitous circumstances the tax payers were likely to have been asked to yield an all-time high total in taxes in order that the city might meet its obligations. The right to defer part of them to later years was denied when the Legislature refused to adopt the bill to permit borrowing $10,000,000 for current expenses. Thereafter, the city was forced to rely on the same authorizations allowed in previous years. These consisted, first of all, of the assessment of property, real and personal; secondly, borrowing a portion of the current welfare expense and thus postponing taxation for it for five years; thirdly, borrowing within the debt limit by special loan order for an accumulation of deferred equipment purposes. Additionally, the city had the right to use an estimate of city revenues other than taxes and estimates of yields from the state which have been shown in the section of this report headed "Credits and Deductions."

However, it was on the determination of the valuation and on the potential use of loans that the actual tax rate depended.

The assessed valuations naturally played the largest part in the result. The fact that the total of valuations, real and personal, is $57,213,600 greater in 1946 than in 1945 has been considerably publicized.

Real property figures are even higher than in 1945 since the actual increase in real property valuation, $57,306,800, was offset by a reduction of $93,200 in personal property valuation. The major increases in real property valuation were in the central business area, Ward 3; in the adjoining area to the west of the central business area, principally the Back Bay, Ward 5; in South Boston, Ward 6; in Roxbury, Ward 10, and in the Brighton-Allston section, Wards 21 and 22. Most of the increase was on property used for business purposes, including stores, newspaper plants, hotels, office buildings, and large industrial establishments.

The total real property valuation in 1946, $1,389,175,200, is $438,285,000 less than the highest real property valuation ever recorded in Boston, $1,827,460,000, in 1930.

These figures do not include the personal property valuation in which there was a reduction since 1945, as previously stated, of $93,200. Nevertheless, with the exception of the 1945 total, there has not been so high a valuation fixed on personal property in Boston since 1928.

In summation, therefore, the total 1946 valuation in real and personal property which is all the assessable property, $1,536,385,600, is $435,762,600 less than the highest total ever fixed, $1,972,148,200, in 1930. The increase over the 1945 figures meant a saving in the rate of approximately $1.62.

The official figures used in arriving at assessable valuation in both real and personal property by wards follow:

Polls.

The assessors found an increase of only 12 in the number of polls in 1946. Polls are the assessable male persons of 20 years and over. It is interesting that since 1940 the number of polls has been fairly near the present year's total.

The practice of the assessors, determined by statute, is to estimate a 100 per cent collection of poll taxes in determining the levy; yet, long experience has shown that the city can seldom collect, as a matter of performance, as much as one half of it. The Finance Commission has previously claimed that because of this well-known situation, other estimates should be shaded to make up for the annual deficit in this account. The full total assessed to polls, $511,586, is applied to reduce the levy on property by that amount. It tended to reduce the tax rate about 33 cents in 1946.

The polls by wards in comparison with 1945 figures follow:

The Use of Borrowing to Depress the Tax Rate.

Bills filed in the Legislature to permit, by new and special act, borrowing a part of this year's requirements instead of assessing them all on the taxpayers of this year were rejected by the Legislature as a result of vigorous opposition registered by many agencies. It was shown that, though borrowing to meet a part of this year's need would lower the rate in this year, it would unquestionably increase costs in subsequent years and, therefore, increase the rates in subsequent years.

Nevertheless, the administration took advantage of statutes already in effect to borrow and has borrowed heavily.

Welfare Loan.

First of all, the city, as already mentioned, borrowed to the last dollar allowable under the act which permits borrowing for municipal relief. The requirements for "Public Welfare" have been shown to be approximately $1,900,000 more in 1946 than in 1945. The city has borrowed for municipal relief $2,900,000. In contrast, the policy has been followed in recent years gradually to reduce this account. In 1944, the amount borrowed was $550,000, and in 1945 it was $700,000. At the time of tax rate determination in 1945 borrowing on this account was not included in the computations. It was not until October when a cash deficit seemed imminent that the City Council voted the loan. Insofar as the tax rate is concerned, the whole of the 1946 borrowing, $2,900,000, is an increase over last year.

Borrowing for Miscellaneous Purposes.

For many years past, because meeting the growing pay roll was taking up so much of the amount which administrators considered it prudent to raise by taxation, there has not been enough left over to keep the city plant in fair condition. For instance, the Finance Commission has shown, and the present administration has agreed, that fire equipment has been almost neglected, much of that now in service having long ago outlived its usefulness. The Commission has shown also and the present administration has agreed, that the Public Works equipment, trucks, sweepers, etc., have been similarly neglected. In fact, there has not been enough provided in the annual budget to keep up-to-date almost any kind of equipment used by the city.

For many years the city paid for most of its street renovation out of appropriations in the annual budget, which means direct taxation. This practice has definitely stopped and most street construction work now is provided for out of borrowed money. But the city is far behind its need in street work. For many years the Fire Department bought replacement equipment out of the annual budget appropriation.

There is some merit in the explanation that war priorities interfered with normal replacement of equipment and with normal performance in street construction; but the fact is that the tax rate would not stand this expense. It was noticeable that when loans were provided for street construction, there was no difficulty in obtaining construction. Also the city has obtained delivery of a normal year's purchase of fire equipment since the money has been provided by loan.

The accumulation through the years of the deficits in purchase and performance has now been used to justify substantial borrowing. Hence, loan orders have been adopted this year as follows:

City of Boston Municipal Relief

Loan.....	$2,900,000
Public Works Construction.....	1,500,000
Departmental Equipment.....	1,500,000
Sewerage Works.....	1,000,000

In addition, the budget contained the down payment (10 cents on each $1,000 of average valuation) which is required by statute for a public buildings or public works loan to come later.

The sewer loan is an annual appropriation which dates back many years. The street loan originally was for new streets, but in recent years its cognomen and purpose have been changed to include renewal of pavements as well.

In the public discussion of the equipment loan, it was said to be for such needs as a new truck and sweeper flotilla for the Public Works Department, and for new apparatus of various kinds in the Fire Department. Little else was mentioned. However, after the loan was authorized by the City Council (it needed no special legislative authorization because the borrowing is within the statutory debt limit) it was allotted among the departments to be used to provide to a great extent equipment which ordinarily is charged to regular maintenance appropriations. It is all called capital investment merely because it is claimed that the equipment intended to be purchased will have a life of more than the year of the appropriation. As an illustration, it is now intended to buy typewriters out of this loan. Always previously the purchase of a typewriter has been a maintenance charge out of the regular budget (tax rate) appropriation.

In a circular issued to department heads this fact, i. e., that the purchases intended are ordinarily charged against the regular maintenance appropriation, is plainly indicated in the opening sentence which reads:

"In the preparation of the 1946 budget, department requests for permanent equipment were disallowed, my purpose being to provide the same through loan expenditures."

The underlying purpose of the allotment of the loan is divided into the following classifications:

Motor Vehicle Equipment.....	$1,219,657 00
(Divided among 14 departments.)
Machinery.....	10,430 00
(Divided among 4 departments.)
Electrical Equipment.....	44,450 00
(Divided among 5 departments.)
Motorless Vehicle Equipment.....	10,300 00
(Divided among 2 departments.)
Furniture and Furnishings Equipment.....	1,300 00
(Law Department.)
Office Equipment.....	36,096 25
(Divided among 4 departments.)

Marine Equipment.....	$9,500 00
(Bridge Service.)
Medical, Surgical Laboratory Equip- ment.....	39,200 00
(Divided among 3 departments.)
Fire Hose Equipment.....	18,905 00
(Fire Department.)

This loan, totaling $1,500,000 for equipment, saved the tax rate about $1.

Summary.

Early in this report it was stated that a combination of fortuitous circumstances not only permitted actual reduction of the tax rate in the amount of 50 cents, but of more importance, prevented the rise of the rate to a much higher elevation. These circumstances were, briefly:

1. The determination of real property valuations at such figures as to increase the total property valuation by $57,213,600. It meant $1.62 in the rate.
2. The possibility under an existing statute to borrow $2,900,000 to meet welfare expenses. It meant close to $2 in the tax rate.
3. The use of a loan of $1,500,000 for equipment saved the tax budget an amount which would have required $1 in the tax rate.
4. The use of a figure to represent expected city income other than taxes which is practically the extreme limit possible. It is approximately $650,000 greater than the comparable figure used in 1945. This meant about 45 cents in the rate.
5. The reduction of more than $1,000,000 in the debt requirements to which the present administration fell heir meant about 75 cents in the rate.

EXTINGUISHING DUMP FIRE.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor direct the Fire Commissioner, the Public Works Commissioner, and the Health Commissioner to extinguish the fire now existing in the old dump on Old Colony avenue, between the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad tracks and Old Colony avenue, and to take necessary precautions that this fire and accompanying stench shall not break out again.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, the people of my district are good natured and long suffering about the big dump in Boston which is located in my ward. That dump is kept under pretty good control; on the other side of the street there is another dump which for a number of years has been inactive and inert. Everyone thought it was dead. But the last couple of weeks it has suddenly come to life; because of red tape and the conflicting powers of the various city departments, this dump fire has been permitted to continue. The stench is something terrible. The Public Works Commissioner went out there and tried to quiet or kill the fire but he said it was not the dump fire, it was the underbrush which was on fire. The Fire Department went out. There was no water available. Now the Board of Health is in. I am offering this order. Between the three of them I hope they can do something to put out the fire and also do something to see that it does not break out again.

LICENSING CONCESSIONAIRES.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor direct the proper authorities in the city not to issue any licenses to concessionaires at public beaches unless it be inserted as a provision of the license that no drink shall be served in a glass container.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, every year with the bathing season we are confronted with the fact that many youngsters cut their feet on the glass which is thrown about the beaches. No matter how meticulous the caretaker may be, it is impossible to remove every particle of glass from the beach. This is especially so when concessionaires are selling bottles of tonic and milk in glass containers. The youngsters drop the bottles sometimes carelessly and sometimes through negligence. Other times it is done deliberately. Over at the ball park they have stopped serving drinks in glass containers. They pour every drink in a paper cup. I do not know why we cannot adopt the same practice. It might not remove the hazard of glass cuts but it will cut them down greatly. I think this might well be made a part of any contract entered into between the city and the concessionaire that any drinks served shall be served in a paper cup and not in a bottle.

SALARY INCREASE FOR SUFFOLK COUNTY EMPLOYEES.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Whereas, The Hon. James M. Curley, Mayor of the City of Boston, has stated that, under certain conditions, an increase in the salaries of city employees would be granted in 1947; and

Whereas, The employees of Suffolk County are employees of a subdivision of the City of Boston; and

Whereas, The present day high cost of living affects the county employees as well as the city employees causing great hardship and making it a difficult task indeed to maintain "Our way of life," a cause for which we recently fought and won a war; be it

Resolved, Therefore, that any proposed increase in the salaries of city employees include also the employees of Suffolk County.

PETITION FOR CHARLES G. SULLIVAN.

Coun. CANTWELL and BRYAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Law Department be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take the necessary steps to compensate the parents of the late Charles G. Sullivan, 485 Poplar street, Roslindale, Ward 18, who died as a result of being hit by a golf ball while caddyding at the George Wright Municipal Golf Course.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

BUTLER SCHOOL MEMORIAL.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:

Ordered, That the Commissioners of School Buildings be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to preserve and improve as a memorial of historical interest the Butler School, on River street, Ward 18, which is the oldest building in Hyde Park.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PLANTING OF TREES.

Coun. BRYAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to plant trees along the sidewalks on both sides of Dwinell street, Ward 20, which are now under construction.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

LYNDE STREET PLAY AREA.

Coun. RUSSO offered the following:

Ordered, That the Traffic Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to rope off Lynde street, Ward 3, for use as a play area for small children during the remainder of the summer season.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, very briefly it has been called to my attention that several accidents occurred in the street where children are at play. I believe in order to try to eliminate these accidents the Traffic Commission might see fit to rope off the street and eliminate traffic for these few summer months. It will hold down the number of serious accidents.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

LANDSCAPING, OLD HARBOR VILLAGE.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor request the Boston Housing Authority to relandscape the Old Harbor Village Housing Project.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SHOWER AT SOUTH BOSTON HEALTH UNIT.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:

Ordered, That the Health Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to instruct the proper authorities to place in operation on all hot days the shower at the South Boston Health Unit so that the children of the district might be given some relief from the heat on these days.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

UNITED STATES SENATE BILL 1592 ON HOUSING.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:

Resolved, That the Boston City Council record itself in favor of United States Senate Bill 1592 which contains the following policy preamble: That Congress hereby declares that the general welfare and security of the Nation and the health and living standards of its people require a production of residential construction and related community development sufficient to remedy the serious cumulative housing shortage, to eliminate slums and blighted areas, to realize as soon as feasible the goal of a decent home and a suitable living environment for every American family and to develop and redevelop communities so as to advance the growth and wealth of the Nation. The Congress further declares that such production is necessary to enable the construction industry to make its full contribution toward an economy of full production and full employment. The policies to be followed in obtaining these objectives are: (1) private enterprise shall be encouraged to serve as large a part of the total need as it can; (2) governmental assistance shall be utilized where feasible to enable private enterprise to serve more of the total need; (3) governmental aid to clear slums and provide adequate housing for groups with incomes so low that they cannot otherwise be served shall be extended only to those localities which estimate their own needs and demonstrate that these needs cannot fully be met through reliance solely upon private enterprise and without such aid; and (4) in order to achieve unified and coordinated activity, and to promote efficiency and economy, the main functions of the Government in housing and related community development shall be consolidated as provided in this Act, and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to all of the members of both Houses of Congress from Massachusetts.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I realize perhaps an order of this kind should be given over to the Committee on Rules.

President KELLY—You are perfectly in order. Coun. LINEHAN—Due to the fact we are in a period of time when there is an emergency on housing, I thought that it would be best to talk on this today. If it is given to Rules, I request the members of the Council to take it out of Rules today. As many members of the Council are well aware, it has been in the newspapers the last few days, this particular bill, Senate 1592, is being considered in Congress and is getting very slow action at the present time. Due to the fact that it affects two of our particular sites, namely the one in South Boston and the one at the Cathedral Project, I thought it was the duty of the members of the Council to at least go on record that they are in favor of this bill. Now, as a result of the present law affecting projects throughout the country, not only in Boston but throughout the United States, the different housing authorities throughout the country cannot have housing units constructed at more than $5,000 each. At the present time I am informed as a result of rising costs in materials and labor, due to these new factors alone, you cannot get contractors to bid on either one of these projects for less than $6,000 a unit. It simply means that the two projects which we have been told for some time back would be constructed this year or at least started, as a result of these rising costs, will not be started unless this particular bill, Senate 1592, is enacted into law by Congress. If Congress does enact this law, it does mean we will not have any limit of $5,000. The limit will probably go to at least $6,000 and possibly more, so that projects can be built under the present wage scales and under the present prices of materials. There is no question in my mind that the prices of materials and labor are not going to go down in the next few months. The chances are that they will go up. If that is so, we will need more than a $6,000 limit. We will probably need around a $7,000 limit. I might say it is unfortunate we have heard that the projects would be started in July of this year. At the time it was mentioned the projects would be sent out under bid to the contractors. The price of materials and labor was not then as high as it is today. Of course we all know how labor has gone up and also material since about six months ago and it is going up it seems every month. For the sake of all of the veterans and all others who are not veterans in need of housing, and there are thousands of them all over the Commonwealth and many more thousands all over the nation, it seems to me that public bodies such as the City Council, and I sincerely hope all other city councils throughout the nation, should let Congress know that at least the public servants elected by the people want this particular bill enacted into law. We want it because there is a necessity for housing now and not ten years from now. We have had many veterans coming home who have been married since they have come home and others married when they went in the service. Many of them are with children and cannot find any place to live. There are many who are now living with their in-laws. Every councilor gets a request probably once a week asking for help to get these people who need housing into some of the projects. I am sorry to say as a former member of the Housing Authority that you will find it is almost impossible to get a veteran with two children in any project. You just cannot do it. Today in all the projects, whenever there is a two-bedroom vacancy, a family which started out with one child now has two. That particular family now is too big for the three-room apartment, the one-bedroom apartment. The Housing Authority naturally moves them in a four-room apartment or a two-bedroom apartment when it becomes vacant, which does not happen very often. As a public servant, it seems to me Congress is lax in one of the most important things that confront the nation today. I have heard about this problem ever since I got out of the service. I have heard how Congress was going to take care of the housing situation. I have sat here since the first of the year and also as a member of the Housing Authority. I have seen even the city officials stall the housing projects. As a member of the Housing Authority I saw public servants even object to the building of housing, particularly the Cathedral Project, because they thought they should be one-family units instead of apartment houses where we can provide for many veterans instead of a few. That objection I think has been lifted due to the fact that the gentleman who believed they should be one-family units realizes that just cannot be done, due to the fact that he is probably better informed. You can spend only $5,000 per unit and it would cost more than $5,000 for a brick one-family house in Boston. What else will this particular bill do? I have just cited one example. It will raise the limit as to how much money the federal government will be permitted to spend in the construction of an apartment. Another thing it will do, for the information of the gentleman from Ward 3 (Coun. Russo) who is fighting for housing in his district, it will give the Boston Housing Authority and other authorities throughout the nation the right to purchase the so-called high cost land such as is now in Ward 3. The Housing Authority after it buys the land with the buildings thereon, particularly in the blighted areas such as exist in Ward 3, can raze the structures that now exist there and they can sell the land with the buildings torn down. They can sell the land to private industry at a reasonable price, regardless of what the Boston Housing Authority paid for it. They might even sell it for one half of what they paid for it. Then private industry can build apartment houses on the so-called blighted sites that are now the blighted areas. I know that the gentleman from Ward 3 is very much interested in that particular subject, getting housing units placed down there in his district. At the present time we cannot do it as a result of the high cost of the land in his district. But this bill will permit it to be done. For these reasons I sincerely hope this order is passed today and sent right along to Congress.

President KELLY—The order will be referred to the Executive Committee for slight correction. Referred to the Executive Committee.

BROKEN GLASS ON BEACHES.

Coun. CAREY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take immediate steps, either through the installation of necessary penalty warning signs or in some other manner to clearly inform the public of the penalty inflicted for throwing glass bottles or broken glass on the beaches throughout the city, in the hope that this careless practice will be stopped immediately; and be it further Ordered, That the Park Commissioner take every means possible to fully enforce the regulations prohibiting the throwing of glass on the beaches.

Coun. CAREY—Mr. President, during the past ten days I have had several people complain to me about the injuries received by their children who have gone to the city beaches. In going into and coming out of the water, they have sustained severe cuts in their feet and in their legs because of the careless practice of those who will go to the beach and will take plenty of bottles with them. Rather than cart them home again, they figure the best way to dispense with them is to throw them there on the beach, very often breaking them. As a matter of fact, I understand the penalty is a $20 fine for anyone found or caught throwing broken glass on the city beaches. I do not think that the beaches have warning signs sufficient in number and conspicuous enough to warn the public against this ruthless practice. As a matter of fact, it is hard to understand the carelessness of these people who insist on throwing this broken glass on the beaches. Councilor Hannon earlier submitted an order which has brought to light of course the dangers in the injuries received by children and others because of this carelessness. It is a practice that should be stopped and must be stopped. Now of course all of this glass is not thrown on the beach. Perhaps some of it is being washed ashore with the coming in and going out of the tide. Nevertheless, there are numbers of careless people who will go to the beach for the day. Instead of carting home the empty bottles they will throw them there on the beach with the result that these youngsters who go there for a little bit of fun very often get anything but fun out of their day at the beach. It is necessary that the Park Commissioner treat this matter in the way that it should be treated. These signs must be more in number and must be much more conspicuous in the hope that this practice will be minimized. If possible it should be cut out altogether. I ask suspension of the rule and passage of the order.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I have heard most of what Councilor Carey said. I agree with what I did hear him say. The meat of the matter is one that concerns the safety of children which is threatened by this carelessness and indifference. There is absolutely nothing whatever to be said about the negligent conduct of these adults. I have spoken on the floor of the chamber about the polluted condition of the Mystic River water which precludes the possibility of any bathing. As a result, wading pool for children twelve years of age and under was built last year at the Doherty Heights Park and this year put into operation. It is obvious from the construction of the pool there is no sand there. There is just a cement floor that passes gradually to a depth of about two feet in the center. If anybody in this chamber is interested in a description of the condition of the pool and the conduct of these negligent elders, I would like to have them listen. I know what it means to me to say anything against the general public. I do not know why we ought to excuse them when they are the guilty parties. We have had women go up to that wading pool with their children and turn them loose there at almost any age at all regardless of what may possibly happen to them. If their children throw glass or bottles into the floor of the pool and the glass breaks and their children do not step on it and cut themselves, that is a cute performance on the part of the children. If somebody else's child is cut, it is too bad. A week ago or two weeks ago Friday, a little girl, four years of age, completely unattended, was allowed to wade out in the full view of other grown people who had their own children there. If it were not for the alertness of a lady passing through, the child would have been drowned. As a result, I was authorized to engage the services of two women to act as matrons for six hours a day each at $20 apiece a week for no other purpose than to do what the adults who bring their children there should do. Councilor Carey spoke about the beaches. There is this to be said for the beaches—a good deal of the glass and stones and tin cans and the like the adults discard or allow their children to discard are covered by the sand. In spite of all you can see, much is covered and therefore not injurious to the children. But there is no sand in a wading pool. I do not care what some people think of me. They are open to the severest possible criticism when they will holler out loud for bathing facilities for their children and then will not maintain them properly without a guard. What right has any person in Boston or any other place to dun us night and day for municipal improvements and then because they are public and come out of their money in part, think that they have a right to neglect them? It is a practice that I do not have to tolerate. I do not care if this appears in the headlines: I will never again ask for any improvement in Charlestown until the adults are willing to cooperate. Never will I ask any mayor to spend a dime for wading pools or swimming pools until the adults are ready to cooperate. Can you imagine anybody being so negligent of a little girl three or four years of age as to allow her to go into a wading pool alone or if she does not go alone not to exercise proper supervision when she gets there. Glass, stones, tin cans, pieces of old wood with nails in them are thrown into that pool. It is cute if my kid does it. It is unfortunate if your kid suffers. If the adults will not stop, signs will not stop them. If it costs $20 to scar or cripple a child for life, that is not completely satisfactory. There should be some way of reaching them for what I call a studied neglect. They may be the great American public but they cannot contribute to the injury of our children or anybody's children and expect us to take the fault. I will not do it no matter who else will. They do not make any bones about coming to us and talking straight from the shoulder. Here is our chance to talk back to them in the mass. While that is an excellent order, it asks only that an old law be enforced. What are we going to do about children being permitted to throw refuse and debris in wading pools which might reasonably cripple a child for life if it cuts a cord in the child's foot? Who then is culpable? Is it the councilor for having got the wading pool or the parent for failing to see that the things that her child does are just as bad as when a neighbor's kid does them?

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

On motion of Coun. BRYAN the Council voted at 3 p. m. to take a recess, subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by President KELLY at 3.30 p. m.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following: That chapter 315 of the Acts of 1946 entitled "An Act Authorizing the City of Boston to Refund to the Somerset Hotel Company of Boston a Certain Alcoholic Beverages License Fee" be, and hereby is, accepted—recommending the order ought to pass.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, in view of the fact I am counsel for the company, I would like it recorded I am not participating in any of the voting.

President KELLY—It is so recorded.

The report was accepted and the order passed. Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

On the message of the Mayor referred this date concerning transfers of appropriations within various city departments—recommending the several orders ought to be passed.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the order. The roll was called and the orders passed. Whole number of ballots 22, yeas 22.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

On petitions referred this date for driveway openings at 322-328 Albany street and 314-328 Dover street, Boston, petition of William J. Cargill and Ellen B. Cargill; at 107 Spring street, West Roxbury, petition of Eva J. McCracken; and at 557 and 559 Columbia road and 1-5 Cushing avenue, petition of the Gulf Oil Corporation—recommending that the licenses be granted.

The reports were accepted and the licenses granted.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

On the petition of the New England Transportation Company to operate a bus route from Park square, Boston, to the Dedham line; and the petition of Almeida's Bus Service to operate a bus route from Park square, Boston, to the Milton line, at Mattapan—recommending the licenses be granted.

The reports were accepted and the licenses granted.

PURCHASE OF FIREBOAT.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, I move that the order for $100,000 for a fireboat, the appropriation for a fireboat, be taken from the Executive Committee.

The question came on taking from the Executive Committee the order for the transfer of $100,000 for a fireboat. It was a vote and so ordered.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. President, while in Executive Session, I would like to have gotten some information on this boat. I understand it cost about $350,000 to build it. The city has an opportunity to buy this boat for $25,000. I wanted to find out just what this $100,000 was to be spent for. I have found that it would cost $75,000 for equipment that might go on this boat, for the fire equipment. I know that with the small amount the city is spending it will be a benefit to the City of Boston if we buy this boat for $25,000. I would also like to have information from the Commissioner. I see by the order of the Mayor if we do not pass this order today, the chances are we will not be able to buy this boat. Other municipalities are looking for it. I think it would be to our advantage if we pass this order for $100,000 today.

President KELLY—Will you make that a motion, councilor?

Coun. SCANNELL—I so make it a motion.

The question came on the passage of the order for $100,000 for the purchase of a fireboat. The clerk called the roll. Whole number of votes 22, yeas 22, and the order passed.

NEXT MEETING.

Coun. MUCHNICK—Mr. President, I move that when we adjourn, we adjourn until two weeks from today, August 5.

The motion was carried.

1946 TAX RATE.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I would like to inquire at this time whether this report of the Finance Commission has been inserted in the minutes of the City Council?

President KELLY—I am informed the report of the Finance Commission has been received and will be printed in the reports of the minutes of the meeting.

Coun. LINEHAN—I would like to comment on this report at the present time.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan asks unanimous consent.

Coun. LINEHAN—Do I need unanimous consent to speak on a report?

President KELLY—There is nothing before the Body, councilor. You have not introduced any order.

Coun. LINEHAN—I move reconsideration. Did some member of the Council incorporate it already into the minutes?

President KELLY—The Chair will state the Council takes no action on the report. It just places it on file and it is automatically printed.

Coun. LINEHAN—May I ask the secretary, through you, when is it proper for a councilor to speak?

President KELLY—When the clerk reads it at the beginning of the meeting.

Coun. LINEHAN—I ask unanimous consent to make a statement.

President KELLY—Councilor Linehan asks for unanimous consent to make a statement. Hearing no objection, Councilor Linehan, proceed.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I am very sorry I did not receive the report a little sooner so I could have gone into it in more detail than I have already. I do realize from the limited extent into which I went into it that it has some very revealing information. Now it happens one little item here is very revealing. It hits the pocketbook of a young attorney like myself and my law partner. It is a report of the gain and loss comparison in 1946 on real estate and the report submitted by the Finance Commission on the City of Boston to the Mayor and City Council dated July 19, 1946. I, like a great many other citizens in the city, thought that the tax rate would be much higher than $42. I still think it should have been if it was a real tax rate. Lo and behold, the Finance Commission submits a report to us showing us why it should have been more if we had given an honest tax rate. When I say "we," I suppose the City Council is somewhat responsible for the tax rate, plus the Mayor and the department heads. Turning to that particular item that I mentioned earlier, the gain and loss comparison in 1946 on real estate, I call the attention of the City Councilors to the item in Ward 3 where there was a gain in the assessments of $31,000,000. Also in Ward 5 there is an increase of $9,000,000. It is all right for the city officials to try to take credit for a lower tax rate. In my opinion, it is a joke. Why do I say this? It happens that I with two other young lawyers struggling for a living in these hard times hired an office at 20 Pemberton square, Boston. Since the tax rate was announced at $42 and since the assessment was raised on this particular property in 1946 from $375,000 to $425,000, an increase of $50,000 was put on that piece of property by the assessors. What has happened since then? I merely cite this incident because of the fact it is probably happening all over the city wherever we have had these so-called phony increases in valuation. They raised the assessments at 20 Pemberton square because I suppose as they said in the paper that the revenue increased. They say the increase in revenue is due to the good times. Good business has increased the valuation of the real estate.

Well, for the information of the Council my rent was not raised while I was in the service. I might say that the landlord as a matter of fact was very fair to all of us in the service. He was so fair that he just about charged storage rent for our three little rooms. He realized we would not have much income in the service. Mind you, I was an officer. You do not want to forget some lawyers were probably only privates and served a little better than some of us who were officers. I bring this out just to show that landlords are not as tough in the so-called big business sections as some people think. Since we hired the offices there which, as I said, consisted of three rooms, our rent was never raised. During the war years while one of my partners was in the service we received a substantial decrease. After we got out of the service, the rent was just put back to the original rent it was before we went in the service. Only recently my partner, who for most of his term in the Army was an enlisted man for a short while and finally promoted to a captain, has been out of the service for about two months practicing law again. Naturally he is starting at the bottom you might say, like all the young lawyers. Like most of the law firms we are splitting the expenses three ways. He has to pay one third just like I do. It is going to be a struggle on his part for the next year probably to pay the one third. It is making it a little more difficult for him and for myself since the assessments on that building were raised. We have been requested to pay about a 20 per cent increase in rent. Now you read in the newspapers that the poor old landlord is going to pay for that increase in assessments out of his own pocket. That is not so. We as young lawyers have found out that the young lawyers are going to pay for the increase in the assessment. So that his Honor the Mayor whom I have been against in many instances in this Council has the satisfaction of raising the rent of three young lawyers. One of them was a supporter of himself. The other one was in the service during the election. I was running for office myself and had enough to do to get myself elected. I got up here today on this little thing to let the councilors at least know that it is not the big landlords who are getting assessed. As a matter of fact they are getting a formality. The assessment. It is merely a formality. They just pass it along. I do not blame them. I hope it gets in the papers that it is not the big landlord that gets hit, it is the poor young fellow or the little business man who has to pay the tariff in the long run. It is going to affect business in the long run. After becoming a member of the Council, and since the first of the year, and during inauguration day I heard much about helping the businessman so that the little serviceman would get a job. They were going to lower the tax rate. Well, in this case the tax rate was not lowered. It was not lowered literally you might say. As a matter of fact, he has to pay more money to the city for taxes due to this increased assessment. But it does not cost the landlords anything more in the long run because they just pass it along to the Linehans, the Owens, and the Cappuccis. Here are three young fellows, one from Dorchester, one from East Boston, and one from Roxbury. So the gentleman in charge of our building, who lives in Newton and who did not want to raise our rent and did not when he could have and who was so very magnanimous and gave us a cut when we went in the service, gave us a cut in rent due to the fact I suppose that under Mayor Kerrigan and Mayor Tobin in all probabilities their assessments were not raised, finds he has to raise our rent. Now when it does hit your own pocketbook you generally will get up and talk. It has hit my pocketbook. I can also say that since the first of the year I have gotten up here attacking certain practices in the city government even though it did not affect my pocketbook. I also realize when I fight for something decent in government it even affects my law practice. Once in a while I used to get cases that go before Boards in the city. Because of the fact that Linehan probably fights for lower taxes in the city and against practices that are not so good in city government, the people who employ me occasionally figure I suppose that Linehan could not get anything through the Boards any more. What has happened? A Curley lawyer gets the business. How funny it would be if I gave the name of the Curley lawyer. I could talk for a long time on the tax rate and why it is not a legitimate tax rate but I sincerely hope that the members of the City Council have enough consideration for the taxpayers and their job to read the report of the Finance Commission so they will know just exactly what is going on in the City of Boston. You just read about a tax rate of $42 and you say, "Well, the Mayor certainly has done a good job in lowering the tax rate 50 cents." But when you go into how that tax rate was arrived at, if you are honest, you are not going to say a good job was done. I say that fully realizing you can blame the Legislature for not giving us ten million dollars. One of the legislators happens to have his head in the doorway now. I for one, when that bill was being considered, am glad it was killed. That is due to the fact that this year is showing an increase in loans, in bonded indebtedness and, if this year is any criterion, we are going to have increases right along under the present administration. Turning to appropriation which is just before page 9 in the report of the Finance Commission, the city indebtedness requirements dropped from 1945 to 1946 almost a million dollars. Why? I will quote page 4 of the report. I think it gives you the answer. "Another striking element in this picture is that for interest on the city debt and for serial debt payments, the present administration in 1946 is required to raise $1,017,089 less than was necessary in 1945. This fortunate circumstance means a difference of about 70 cents in the tax rate. This reduction is due to the conservative debt policy followed in the years 1938 to 1945 in the Tobin administration when the city net debt was reduced $30,000,000." I suppose all the councilors realize when the city debt is lowered it means less current revenue spent on interest. So that if the trend was kept up, it would not be too many years in the distant future when we would have very little to pay in current expenses for interest. But as I say, I am sorry to say this year it is going to show up, and beginning next year and the year after, whenever these debts which we are incurring here now as councilors, whenever the bonds fall due in payment for the loans which we are raising this year, that item will go up, payment for interest. As I said many times before in this Council, the one bright spot in the picture of the city financial structure was that of the debt situation. I am sorry to say that it is going to go bad like many of the rest of the things that go into city government. I hope I have not bored the members of the Council with just one little item that affects three young lawyers striving to make a living and to make both ends meet. But I wanted to go on record in the city government to show that in the long run when the present administration raises assessments on existing structures and land that whoever owns the land and building does not pay but get it out of the tenants. I will merely conclude by saying I hope that next year 20 Pemberton square is not raised again. If it is, I do not doubt but what our law firm will have to foot the bill again.

WELD STREET WIDENING.

Coun. BRYAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to widen Weld street, between Maple and Corey streets, Ward 20.

Coun. HURLEY submitted the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to consider the advisability of naming the square at the junction of Harrison avenue and Northampton street in memory of Sergt. Patrick Grisofulli of the United States Marine Corps, who died at Iwo Jima.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CATHEDRAL PROJECT EXTENSION.

Coun. HURLEY offered the following:
Ordered, That the Housing Authority be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to consider the extension of the proposed Cathedral Project to include the substandard area on the easterly side of Harrison avenue.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

Adjourned at 4 p. m., on motion of Coun. HURLEY, to meet on Monday, August 5, 1946, at 2 p. m.

AIDS PAID TO PUBLIC ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS FROM INCOME OF MASSACHUSETTS SCHOOL FUND.

State participation in the financing of education began with the establishment of the Massachusetts School Fund in 1834, the income from which was to be used "for the aid and encouragement of common schools," (chapter 169, Acts of 1834). The principal of this fund is now $5,000,000. The income of the fund has been distributed in many different ways. In 1835, population and the amount raised by local taxation for school support were the determining factors. Many changes followed until the present complex provisions were enacted, mostly in 1919, with some modification in later years.

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS KATHARINE C. McDONNELL MAKES REPORT ON HER VISIT TO THE SCHOOLS IN CLEVELAND — DISCUSSES THE "CLEVELAND PLAN" OF CHILD EDUCATION FOR MEMBERS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE — ALSO PRESENTS THE PRINCIPLES AND PHILOSOPHY ON WHICH CHILD PROGRESS PLAN IS FOUNDED — REPORT ALSO SHOWS APPROXIMATE TIME ALLOTMENT FOUND IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS OF CITY.

The report of my visit to Cleveland is in three parts. Part I contains excerpts from Dr. H. M. Buckley's treatise on the Child Progress Plan and outlines the principles and philosophy on which the Child Progress Plan is founded. This part contains also an approximate time allotment found in the elementary schools of the City of Cleveland.

Part II is a copy of the report made of the visit to the schools and delivered by me to the Elementary Principals at their meeting March 12, 1946.

Part III is a summary of some of the high lights of the educational system of Cleveland.

Part I reads as follows:

THE CLEVELAND PLAN — Part I.

My visit to Cleveland was a series of interesting contacts, delightful experiences, and most worthwhile educational enlightenment on the Child Progress Plan.

As Dr. H. M. Buckley states, "the plan was not the result of fiat nor did it spring up overnight." Doctor Buckley is the assistant superintendent in charge of elementary education in Cleveland, first assistant to the Superintendent, receiving the largest salary of the assistant superintendents, and the man to whom all pay tribute to the contribution his services have made to the Cleveland schools, and particularly for the organization existing in the elementary schools.

The significant steps in the plans were as follows:

1. Between 1925 and 1927 numerous conferences over the "Failures," chiefly among "Z" groups and especially in the primary division.
2. 1927, beginning of ungrading of "Z's."
3. 1928, establishment of nine Elementary Curriculum Centers, each responsible for adapting a subject or activity to the needs and interests of pupils of varying abilities, with special emphasis upon the "Z" group needs.
4. 1932, ungrading of all "Z" pupils was authorized, grades 1 to 6, inclusive. Levels of progress were substituted.
5. 1932-1938, increasingly frequent and insistent requests from teachers, principals and supervisors for the ungrading of "Y" groups.
6. 1938, unanimous approval of principals and supervisors for complete ungrading of all pupils in the primary division (kindergarten through grade 3, inclusive). The Child Progress Plan substitutes for the gross and indefinite grade or semester the more specific and limited term level, which indicates a step or unit of progress. The number of levels has been determined for each subject or activity by the supervisors and teachers on the basis of children's learning experiences.

Related Features.

Grouping of Pupils.—Thus it will be seen that for twenty years the grouping of pupils in the elementary schools of Cleveland has been related to health, aptitude, or ability and interest.

The entrance age to kindergarten is five years of age between March 1 and October 15. Therefore a child enters school between five years, six months, or four years, eleven months, at the youngest. If requests are made for younger children, such children must be referred to the Bureau of Research and Tests and must rate mentally one year beyond their chronological age.

After assignments of pupils requiring exceptional services to special schools or classes such as Braille and Sight Saving Classes, classes for mentally subnormal, crippled children and Hearing Conservation Classes, the great body of pupils have been grouped tentatively, in the absence of achievement records, on the basis of group and individual intelligence tests. Such preliminary grouping is always subject to continuous adjustment in the light of individual progress. Preliminary grouping is as follows:

Major work	I. Q. 125 and above
X group	105 to 124
Y group	85 to 104
Z group	70 to 84
Special classes	50 to 69
Excluded from school below 50

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS KATHARINE C. McDONNELL MAKES REPORT ON HER VISIT TO THE SCHOOLS OF CLEVELAND.

Following the year 1928, in all curriculum centers, demonstrations were presented to principals and teachers from all schools showing normal classroom situations (existing in the curriculum center schools) and how pupils were able to progress with growing success and confidence when the program was adapted in both quantity and quality to individual and group needs. Talks were given to parents in all schools, explaining the advantages to pupils in breaking down the crude terms "grade" and "semester" into levels of progress.

Parents and too often teachers have been indoctrinated with the theory that if pupils will only try, and teachers are efficient, then all six-year olds will become alike, and therefore can be educated in units of forty by the vigorous administration of a uniform curriculum. Thus, all six-year olds will be in the first grade, all nine-year olds in the fourth grade and all eleven-year olds in the sixth grade.

MENTALITY RANGES.

For a century the schools of America have endeavored to prove that all six-year olds are equal or alike in ability and the same for other age groups. Educational results continuously proved this false. Failures ranged from 3 per cent in one city to 37 per cent in another. Thirty-seven pupils out of a hundred tortured by uniform curriculum uniformly administered were sacrificed to the god of equality.

We as teachers know six years by the calendar are not synonymous with six mentally. We know children walk at different age levels, talk at different ages, and develop variously—strong, delicate, tall, short, timid, forward.

The Child Progress Plan proposes not only to recognize, but also to encourage individual differences, to prize and respect them. Children are accepted as physically, mentally, and socially unlike. No attempt is made to force them through a common mold.

Courage and confidence come only through a series of successes. Success must wait upon and be in proportion to capacity and interest. A perfect draft horse should not be entered in the Kentucky Derby. Every child should be educated around his strengths, not around his weaknesses. If he has a wretched singing voice, permit him to emphasize art, craft or science, not vocal music.

Grade labels have been so branded on the minds of parents and many teachers that it seems incredible that, with a total of only twelve months of schooling, Lincoln became President without ever being in a grade or having a report card. Many parents insist that grade labels are indispensable, and that they fully comprehend their child's progress when labeled "3B" even though the child reads miserably, can't sing, lacks artistic ability and refuses to play with others.

If babies are born equal after the first breath, they become unlike and grow increasingly different year by year. By the time a child enters school at five years the combined effects of heredity and environment have made him an individual, a unique personality, different from every other child whoever lived.

CHILD INDIVIDUALITY.

The recognition of individuality in children makes the problem of education difficult but interesting. We cannot treat them as stalks of corn in a row. Mass methods, mass instruction, mass promotions, and mass failures have failed to force equality or likeness in children. The essence of personality is individuality. The educational program becomes then the recognition and development of individuality, of personality.

The schools will be able to do little with the significant five pre-school years of child life. We do realize, however, that within these five years some children acquire a remarkable hearing and speaking vocabulary, a pleasing voice, a sense of rhythm and tone, an appreciation of form and color, a sense of quantity and number, knowledge and interest in the world of science, love for play and good sportsmanship, and excellent physical and social habits. Other five-year olds enter kindergarten deficient in some and all of the above characteristics, and some have acquired negative habits and attitudes analogous to weeds.

The kindergarten is becoming increasingly objective and scientific in attitude, so that it accepts five-year olds as they are without wasting time in the useless effort to place blame upon someone else for defects and inadequacies. This acceptance should be universal with all teachers.

The differences among primary children are too basic and profound to be treated in the school either superficially or arbitrarily. The first principle proclaimed in The Children's Charter is "For every child, understanding . . ."

Merely to know a child's age does not represent understanding. Yet most primary children have been introduced to reading for no other reason than that they are six years old (or in the first grade). Unfortunately, the calendar fails to reveal either readiness or the lack of readiness for reading or for any other organized schooling, commonly termed formal schooling.

Naturally, a uniform curriculum uniformly administered has always done most damage to slow moving pupils, designated in Cleveland as Z pupils with intelligence quotients between 70 and 85. A curriculum embodying both quantity and quality of content and activities will well challenge the brightest minds, will most certainly defeat the minds of Z pupils.

Because so many Z pupils were failing and repeating, and since success is the factor without which sound education is impossible, in 1932 the Cleveland schools completed a program of alleviation. For Z pupils, grades 1 to 6, the artificial grade barriers were eliminated, and both the quantity and the quality of the curriculum were modified so that these pupils could progress at their own rate with success.

PROBLEMS INVOLVED.

These changes involved many problems, the first of which was to organize the reading program on the basis of levels or steps of progress in place of cumbersome and ill-fitting years and semesters. The problem was not to lower so-called standards, but to set up standards possible for Z pupils in place of impossible ones. This made possible the enrichment of the program for bright pupils. Though some parents insist that Z pupils should be compelled to compete with X pupils, 14 years of experience with the reorganized Z program has seen a depression lifted from Z groups so that they go to school happily and are developing wholesome attitudes and cheerful personalities. In 1938, the elementary principals voted unanimously to extend the program based upon levels of progress to the entire primary division, kindergarten to the third grade, inclusive, under the appellation "The Child Progress Plan."

The plan does not neglect, much less abandon, the so-called fundamentals. The three R's are as significant today as ever in the history of education and promise to be even more serviceable to children in the future. But these skills can and should be developed in meaningful situations. Furthermore, they can and should be adjusted to the needs, capacities, and interests of the child.

The plan includes in its list of fundamentals the fine arts, handcraft, physical and health education, social studies, and the rich field of elementary science. The basic requirement is that these subjects shall be so taught and learned that every one shall promote mental and physical health, wholesome play and recreation, social understandings, character, citizenship, as well as knowledge and culture. The entire primary program requires simplification and unification.

It is difficult to develop a primary program consisting of a related and meaningful series of activities in which it is unnecessary to teach some reading as reading, some music as music, and, on the other hand, it is not necessary to teach any subject in an unrelated, formal, meaningless manner.

The Child Progress Plan extends the spirit and point of view of the ideal kindergarten to the whole primary division, including the kindergarten itself. For more than one hundred years the kindergarten has stood for that type of education which is suited to the needs of the child before he is sufficiently mature for more formal school work. Its basic principles have been sound. The kindergarten has been the pioneer in emphasizing the growth of the individual as a basic aim in education. Educators today shift their attention from the traditional school subject matter as an end in itself to subject matter as it affects the growing child. This constitutes one of the present modern trends in education with its accompanying changes in curriculum, teaching methods, and materials.

TESTING NEW WAYS.

Testing new ways of working with children, the discovery of new facts relative to nutrition and to physical and mental hygiene, a renewed emphasis upon the value of play, new findings relative to the factors affecting the emotional life and stability of children, and a better understanding of the effects of failure, strain, fatigue, and overstimulation are bringing about many changes in practice, not only in the kindergarten, but throughout the school.

While the Child Progress Plan rejects a standard program for children who are all different, it does not swing to the opposite extreme by abandoning all system and order. The progress from level to level is natural, orderly, and systematic. The plan is built for the child but does not assume that children are so radically different that group work is unprofitable. It does assume that competition between the most brilliant and the dullest is unfair and forces the slow child to discount the ability which he does possess.

What physician would prescribe a uniform treatment through a year to 40 patients with varying illnesses merely because they were all six years of age? It requires more than a calendar or even a standardized test to diagnose the physical, mental, and social needs of children. Mass prescriptions in doses of years or grades or even semesters or half-grades have been refined and clarified in the form of levels, steps, or units of progress more definite and comprehensible to the child as well as the teacher.

The Child Progress Plan makes no claim to perfection. It represents an orderly program not only in reading but in all other subjects and activities for organized education of primary children. We adults have imposed too much marking, failing, and passing, all in the interest of grade labels. The grade labels are for adults, not primary pupils. Individual differences have been proclaimed loudly in theory but ignored in practice.

APPROXIMATE TIME ALLOTMENT.

If one is to consider individual needs and differences of children and plan a program of reading based upon the progress of individual children, it is impossible to say definitely in advance just how long a child should remain upon one level or how rapidly he will progress from one level to another. However, experience and analysis have shown that, in general, children in the Z, Y, and X ability groups need different periods of time at the various levels. The following chart, showing the approximate time required for the completion of a particular section of levels, is merely a suggestive guide and should not be followed literally at any time.

The dotted lines are used to indicate the flexibility of the organization. A child in the Z group may move through the levels in less time than that indicated by these lines. Also, he may be able to move into the Y group and continue with that group. This flexible assignment holds true, too, for the Y and X groups.

In the final analysis, the child and his needs should be the factors which determine his progress from level to level. This is the philosophy of the Child Progress Plan and also of the organization of the reading levels. The careful study of individual children and their needs will determine the time required to complete any level or group of levels. The standards of attainment, check lists, evaluation levels, and reading tests should be helpful guides for the teacher in determining when a child is ready for the next level. The words suggestive and approximate, contained in the title of the chart, emphasize the fact that the time allotment should be adapted to meet the needs of individual children.

JAP SURRENDER PROCLAMATION.A PROCLAMATION.

Wednesday, August 14, 1946, is the first anniversary of the unconditional surrender of Japan, which, in the words of Harry S. Truman, President of the United States, "terminated a conflict world-wide in scope and freed the people of the world from the threat of enslavement of body and spirit."

Without Federal or State legislative enactment, the day cannot be a legal holiday. It is a day, however, which should be observed by the flying of our National colors—the Stars and Stripes—and by prayerful thanks to Almighty God for His divine help in bringing a glorious victory to us, in the cause of justice, righteousness and freedom.

In commemoration of the devotion of the men and women by whose sacrifices our victory was achieved, I am asking, as the Mayor of Boston, that all of the inhabitants of our beloved city join in fitting observance of this important anniversary—one of the greatest milestones along the pathway of human progress which history in all probability will ever record.

JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

PLANS TO MAKE FIRE DEPARTMENT AERIAL LADDER SERVICE PERFECT.

Mayor Curley, on August 13, made public the following letter:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—Knowing your special interest in the method devised by Chief Boutillier for the testing of our aerial ladder trucks, I beg to inform you that we have completed our inspection of all aerials.

The following is the report of the number of aerial ladders in the department and a tabulation of the result of the tests held during the past month.

There are twenty wooden aerial ladders in service and seven spare, making a total of twenty-seven.

There are also three metal aerial ladders, namely, Ladder Companies 11, 19 and 26.

Of the active twenty aerial ladder companies, thirteen passed the test satisfactorily, five aerials showed evident indication of weakness, requiring new rungs and general tightening up. The work has been completed on two of this group. Two ladders, namely, those of Ladder 5 and Ladder 10, broke under test and will require new main ladders. The work on Ladder 5 has nearly been completed.

With respect to the seven spare trucks, two broke under the strain and will require new main ladders. Four spare ladders passed the test satisfactorily. The remaining reserve ladder was not tested as it has been out of service for some time. It requires a new motor and new wheel before it can be tested.

Much credit should be given to Chief Boutillier for the method which he devised for determining the dependability and strength of our aerials. It is very obvious as a result of these tests that the department urgently needs new aerial equipment.

It is gratifying to realize that your Honor has begun a program of replacements and that you are now contracting for six new aerials. It is unfortunate, however, that a period of better than a year will elapse before delivery of the new equipment can be made. I can see the necessity of replacing most of our aerials during the next two years in order to bring this section of the department up to standard.

The purchase of these aerials will represent a considerable investment for the city. In order to protect this investment it is necessary that continual maintenance be carried out to keep the aerials safely in service. It is my recommendation that a position be established in the Maintenance Division of Master Ladder Builder together with an assistant at a proper remuneration of pay.

In view of the apprehension which exists in certain quarters regarding the unreliability of our aerials, due to unfavorable press notices, it might be advisable for your Honor to consider giving this report some publicity.

Respectfully yours,

RUSSELL S. CODMAN,
Fire Commissioner.

Although it was presumed that the work could be performed for less than one thousand dollars, nevertheless, the proposals submitted follow:

John F. Rooney, $1,195; P. F. Russo, $1,240; L. H. Jacobs, $1,340; J. P. O'Hearn & Co., $1,365; Frank T. McDonald, $1,395; J. M. McCusker Company, $1,410.

In view of the foregoing, I respectfully request your Honor's approval to incur an expenditure in the sum of $1,195, without advertising, payable to John F. Rooney, 16 Pingree street, Hyde Park, the lowest informal bidder, upon completion of the work specified in paragraph one.

In so doing, I feel that the best interests of the city are being served.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, August 1, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Three separate service orders were issued for work performed at the hospital: One on the accident floor, repairing damaged plaster; one on the Mary Curley Building, reconditioning and painting utility rooms; and one for painting of cribs and walls in the South Department, Ward FF.

These were all separate jobs and were done at the request of the Plant Superintendent who informs me that the city has nothing to gain by advertising these small jobs, and I am asking permission to award without advertising.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES W. MANARY, M. D.,
Superintendent.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 31, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under an oral agreement with this department, the Elk Laundry, Inc., has been furnishing hand towels to all the offices in City Hall Annex and to the auditor's office in City Hall. Said agreement calls for the delivery of approximately 1,000 towels a week.

The service already rendered by this company has been eminently satisfactory and it is my opinion that nothing would be gained by considering a change in companies or advertising for bids for this service.

In consideration of the above, I respectfully request permission to issue orders to the Elk Laundry, Inc., in a sum not in excess of $1,575, without the usual form of advertising.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES E. SULLIVAN,
Superintendent.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 29, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Columbus avenue, Roxbury, from Northampton street to Station street, is now being reconstructed by this department. The existing roadway is being widened to relieve traffic, thereby reducing the width of the existing sidewalks. The change in the line of the roadway and sidewalks makes it necessary to relocate four (4) traffic signals at Ruggles street and four (4) at Whittier street at a cost of $1,148.

I respectfully request the authority of your Honor to issue a service order to the Boston Edison Company to relocate these lamps at a cost of $1,148, and to have the cost of this work charged to the appropriation "Public Ways, Construction of."

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

TRANSFERS OF APPROPRIATIONS AND BUDGET REALLOCATIONS.

The Mayor has approved the requests of the heads of the departments interested to be allowed to reallocate, or transfer appropriations according to the following letters:

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 29, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—The item in A-1, Permanent Employees, entitled one Appraisal Engineer at $4,500 a year, is now vacant, due to an anticipated resignation of that employee since January 1; and the similarly unanticipated—at least as to date—retirement due to physical disability of the employee designated in this group as one of five clerks-stenographers at $2,100 a year, results in a present surplus of approximately $4,000.

It is vitally necessary at the present time to expedite the preparation and mailing of real and personal tax bills for the year 1946, and the Board of Assessors has concluded that the utilization of expert typists of this and other departments, upon an employment program outside of regular office hours, will attain the desired result.

It is desired, therefore, to amend the budget by transferring the sum of $4,000 from Item A-1, Permanent Employees, generally, to Item A-3, Overtime, generally, for the purposes outlined here, and your Honor's approval of this amendment and transfer of funds is respectfully requested.

Very truly yours,

PETER J. ALLEN, Chairman.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 31, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request your approval of the following reallocation of $1,340, from E-17, Care of Persons, to Item B-28, Expert, to provide for the payment to Thomas P. McDermott for services as a consultant for mechanical sanitation in this department.

Yours respectfully,

FREDERICK J. BAILEY, M. D.,
Health Commissioner.

BOSTON, August 1, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Your approval is requested to amend the Personnel schedule of the Health Department budget in the Communicable Disease Division by eliminating the position of one Deputy Commissioner at $5,000 and inserting in place thereof one Deputy Commissioner at $6,000.

Yours respectfully,

FREDERICK J. BAILEY, M. D.,
Health Commissioner.

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 29, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Authority is requested to reallocate funds as follows:

Long Island Hospital.

From B-39, General Repairs, $200, to B-5, Express Charges, $200.

To provide funds for express charges for goods purchased from the War Assets Administration.

Respectfully,

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

BOSTON, July 30, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Authority is requested to transfer funds as follows:

Central Office.

From A-1, Permanent Employees, $575, to B-14, Motor Vehicles Repair and Care, $575.

To provide funds to repair damages to Mercury sedan.

Compensation awarded by insurance company to be turned over to the City Treasurer.

Respectfully,

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 24, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request that you alter the budget of the Park Department by allowing the following transfer of funds:

From B-42, Miscellaneous Services, $12, to B-37, Photographs and Blueprinting, $12.

This transfer is needed to cover cost of blueprints for the engineers' office.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

BOSTON, July 30, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I respectfully request your permission to alter the budget by allowing the transfer of the sum of $10 from the B-42 item, Miscellaneous, to the B-37 item, Blue Printing, to cover the cost of blue prints for the engineers' office.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

BOSTON, August 1, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—It is necessary that we make an immediate purchase of 100 galvanized waste barrels to be used on the beaches, parks and playgrounds.

As there are no available funds in the C-7 item, I respectfully request that you alter our budget by allowing the following transfer:

From D-8, Laundry, $110; D-9, Educational, $100, to C-7, Furnishings, $210.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Chairman.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 24, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Approval is respectfully requested for reallocation of Water Division funds as follows:

$100, from B-4, Transportation of Persons, to B-5, Express Charges.

This money is needed to pay bill to New York Central Railroad for delivery of one hundred dozen picks and handles from Albany, New York. Government surplus commodities.

Very respectfully,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 8, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is requested to amend the A-1 budget item of this department to provide for the permanent appointment of one clerk-typist at $1,560 yearly plus $200 E. C. A.

At the present time there are three employees of this department on leaves of absence, without pay, and two employees on sick leave, all for extended periods. Because of these leaves of absence and the added burden imposed by vacation schedules, this office is in urgent need of more typists to effectively carry on the department routine.

As approved by your Honor, two temporary clerk-typists will be employed for a period of three months to alleviate to some extent the existing situation.

A former employee of this office, thoroughly familiar with the practices and work of the Supply Department, is available for transfer from the State service. Since it is reasonably safe to assume that one, if not all, of the three employees now on leave of absence, without pay, will resign at the expiration of his leave, it is recommended that the A-1 budget item be amended to provide for her transfer with the understanding that on the resignation of one of the employees on leave of absence, without pay, such position will be eliminated from the budget.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON JUVENILE COURT.

BOSTON, July 25, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MAYOR CURLEY,—This court requests that it be allowed to amend its budget of the year 1946 by transferring from Item C-17, Miscellaneous Equipment, $4, to C-9, Office Equipment, $4.

When the budget was submitted the estimated cost of a new Smith typewriter was $100.49, but since that time the Office of Price Administration granted to the Office Appliance Industry an increase of 12 per cent over the prices they had formerly quoted. This makes a difference of $4 in the amount of their bill and our budget estimate.

Will you therefore kindly allow the above transfer.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN T. LANE, Clerk.

SUFFOLK COUNTY JAIL.

BOSTON, July 26, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Will you kindly make the following reallocations within the appropriations for the Suffolk County Jail:

From B-39, $120, to B-5, $15, B-28, $100, B-35, $5.

From C-4, $58, to C-9, $6, C-13, $52.

These reallocations are requested that sufficient funds may be provided to cover payments of outstanding obligations: B-5, Express Charges; B-28, Inspections of Meats; B-35, Notary Fee; C-9, Notary Stamp; C-13, Tools, Hopper Brushes, etc.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK R. SULLIVAN, Sheriff.

AIRCRAFT MATERIAL PRODUCTION 41 PER CENT OF TOTAL AUTOMOTIVE WAR JOB.

Behind current attempts to knock Germany out of the war by means of airpower, stands the teamwork of the automotive industry, which has done much to get bombers in the air over Hitler's domain.

The motor industry, starting as a scrub team in the aircraft field a year before Pearl Harbor has since attained major league stature.

In the two years since December 7, 1941, the industry's output of bombers and fighters has constantly soared. Measured in dollar volume, it rose from $400,000,000 annual rate of production on the day of the Jap's assault to $4,300,000,000 on the second anniversary of that "day of infamy."

The same upward spiral took place in deliveries of all forms of war materials by automotive plants. When Pearl Harbor news struck, they had reached an annual production rate of $1,777,000,000 for all forms of military requirements: aircraft, military vehicles, tanks, guns, ammunition, marine engines and other equipment. Today the annual production rate tops the $10,000,000,000 mark.

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS KATHARINE C. McDONNELL RENDERS REPORT TO SCHOOL COMMITTEE ON VISIT TO SCHOOLS OF CLEVELAND DISCUSSING AND OUTLINING "CLEVELAND PLAN" FOR ELEMENTARY PUPILS — DISCUSSES MAJOR WORK CLASSES AND OTHER FEATURES, INCLUDING GENERAL SCIENCE CURRICULA AND STUDIES IN SOCIAL SCIENCE, ARITHMETIC, THRIFT AND OTHER FEATURES.

In Parts II and III of the report of Assistant Superintendent of Schools Katharine C. McDonnell to the School Committee, on her visit to the schools of Cleveland, where she studied the so-called "Cleveland System," she reported as follows:

On the "Four-Fifty" Sunday, March 3, I left Boston and was conscious during the night that the train was motionless many times. Instead of reaching Cleveland at seven, we were three hours late and were informed that a serious freight train wreck at Ashtabula had made necessary many stops throughout the night. The wreck was a horrible thing to behold—freight cars broken to splinters and piled mountainously on the tracks while the engines were turned prone alongside. One death was reported, but what a different story had our train met the same fate.

As Doctor Buckley had wisely secured reservations for me at the Hotel Hollenden, which is one short block from the Board of Education Building, I reached his office shortly after eleven.

Major Work Curriculum Center.

Mrs. Dorothy E. Norris, in charge of Major Work classes, was introduced to me and after a short conference we were on our way to the Major Work Curriculum Center in the Hazeldell School. In this building, which is an elementary school, is a perfectly equipped library of thousands of volumes, a librarian, Miss Dillon, and two assistants. A class which would correspond to our third year in school was using the facilities of the library. Each child had a card and some were taking out books. Several took three—they may take four. Everything was reduced to children's size. The shelves arranged for their inspection and selection. The books were catalogued and the pupils had been trained to understand the letters and numbers. Captions indicated the sections—jackets were artistically arranged near the captions. One I recall, "Mischief and Fun," another "Adventure," still another "Pioneer Life." When the children found for themselves the books they needed they sat at low round tables. Another group of children of the same class gathered around the junior librarian to listen to a story she had been reading them from a large book.

Some children not members of the class came in at intervals for reference work in their studies. The teacher and chief librarian aided children who found difficulty in locating desired books. Each class in the school has a library period. May I remind you that this school is the Major Work Curriculum Center and the I. Q.'s are 125 and above.

The Kindergarten.

Children more mature. Over 55 children, two teachers, beautiful room, table, science table. A Mason jar on table for each child with result of tapping maple trees in yard. In far distant corner a big kettle over fire with sap boiling.

First Primary Groups Visited—Three Levels.

First Level.—Six weeks out of kindergarten—in small chairs around teacher talking of transportation methods. What is meaning of word? Types of transportation: Airplanes, trains, boats—pictures shown. Words developed—also ride—children tested on words—no formal reading. Vocabulary developed.

Other groups absolutely oblivious of what was going on in room. I remarked the concentration. Another level more advanced was questioned; they were making shadows. A chart of the morning lesson was held up, and a child read—

"When the sun cannot shine through anything it casts a shadow.
Whatever the thing does the shadow does.
When the sun can shine through anything no shadow is cast.
For example the glass in the window does not cast a shadow."

"What part of the window does cast a shadow?" asked the teacher. "The frame."

The best shadow pictures would be collected for a new frieze for the room. All children of this level held up the pictures they were making.

May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

Your further favor to the American Legion does not come as a surprise, for we know that Mayor James M. Curley is a great and true friend of the veteran and your splendid cooperation in this worthy cause will be outstanding in the matter of life or death for the hospitalized veteran.

With thanks from over 100,000 Legionnaires, we are,

Very truly yours,

S. CHARLES E. NEILAN, Chairman,
Department Blood Donor Committee.

MAYOR INVITES PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO BOSTON FOR VETERANS' ENCAMPMENT AND TO WITNESS WORLD SERIES GAMES.

The following telegram was sent on August 16 to Harry S. Truman, President of the United States, by James M. Curley, Mayor of Boston:

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT,—During the early part of September there will be two events of national importance taking place in Boston. One will be the forty-seventh National Encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the first postwar encampment to be held, and the other will be the World Series, in which we look forward to the winning team being the Boston Red Sox.

The City of Boston would be singularly honored to have you as her guest for these events during your stay in the Massachusetts Bay area.

Looking forward to your reply, which I hope will be affirmative, I am always,

Very sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

MAYOR ANNOUNCES RELEASE OF APPROXIMATELY 100 APARTMENTS TO VETERANS AT CAMP McKAY PROJECT.

Mayor Curley announced, on August 16, that approximately 100 apartments have been released at Camp McKay Project, known as Columbia Village, of the Veterans Emergency Housing Project. These apartments have been awarded to the cases that were considered the most distressed. There are approximately 25,000 applications for apartments in Boston. The Mayor is making every effort to get more funds and is still striving to obtain more money from the Government, in order to alleviate the present housing emergency.

Mr. Jerry Sullivan, Superintendent of Construction of the Boston Housing Authority, is cooperating to the extent of working day and night to solve this problem. As more apartments are available, they will be given out to the most urgent cases as quickly as possible.

CITY TO PAY MORE FOR CHILDREN BOARDING IN FOSTER HOMES.

His Honor, the Mayor, on August 21, received the following communication from G. Frank McDonald, Institutions Commissioner:

Subject: Increase of rates in Foster Homes.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, under legislative act, will increase the rate of board for children under its care who are in foster homes, effective September 1, 1946.

The rates now paid by the City of Boston for children in these homes, for one week, are as follows:

Children up to 3 years of age, $6.50; children over 3 years of age, $6.

The rates the State proposes to pay are as follows:

Children up to 2 years of age, $10; children between 2 and 4 years of age, $8; children over 4 years of age, $7.

The City of Boston's rate for board in foster homes for the children under its care has consistently been the same as the State's. As these rates have been given public notice, we are faced with the possible loss of a great number of our homes, if our rates are not made commensurate with the State's, and this loss would cause us a hardship.

To increase the board of our children on a par with the State would involve an annual increase of expenditure of $62,650. Based on the present number being boarded (1,006), the additional expense for four months beginning September 1, 1946, would be $20,883. We are able to absorb this increase of $20,883 in our budget this year without requiring an additional appropriation. Our ability to do this is for the reason that we have been able to effect considerable savings this year in habilitating children for positions and starting them on their careers. These children remain under our supervision but cause no expense for board and care.

I respectfully request your permission to grant this increase which is deemed by me to be justifiable, and to notify the foster homes that the City intends to increase its rates to equal the Commonwealth's rates.

G. FRANK McDONALD,
Commissioner.

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS KATHARINE C. McDONNELL MAKES SECOND REPORT ON HER VISIT TO THE SCHOOLS OF CLEVELAND.

Miss Patrick's Class—Four Levels.

Groups.—Each one eager to tell what his group was reading. "Jerry Jingles," "Around Town," "Streets and Roads." Getting ready for pageant—Indian life—Americana. Explain Indian suits—also tom-toms made by pupils.

Music.—"Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," demonstration of "Donkey Serenade."

Last Group.

Groups discuss books read on negro question. Contributions to American life. Play the class has in process of planning for Americana.

French teacher not present—children ask if they can give a rehearsal of it. These Major Work pupils take French for enrichment from grade one.

Outside a church—statue of Jeanne D'Arc. Character taken by a young girl. French children kneel in prayer and lay flowers at the foot of the statue. A weary American soldier comes to rest near the statue. Conversation takes place between young French boy and American. Finally both fall asleep and dream. The statue comes to life and blesses both. They awake and look at the statue and invoke her aid in uniting both countries.

It surely was thrilling to see this work by a group of sixth-year pupils with no assistance from a teacher.

Miss Peters was principal of this school. This school is used as an elementary training school. One brilliant negro teacher in this Major Work school.

MEETING OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The offices of the Board of Education are in the Administrative Building at 1380 East 6th street, occupying an entire city block. At its main entrance is a massive statue of Abraham Lincoln, the gift of the school children.

The basement of this building is a garage, with an attendant for the cars of the officers of the Board. The entrance on one street and the exit on the other. As we drove in, Mrs. Norris said that history was to be made that evening at the meeting of the Board of Education and wondered if I would enjoy attending the meeting.

The Board of Education corresponds to our School Committee. There are seven members elected by the people, four of whose terms expire in four years and three in two years. A woman is the President of the Board, and one member is a negro.

The building, its offices, its conference rooms and its equipment are very fine—you might say sumptuous. There is dignity expressed in every hue of the setting of the Board of Education room. It looks like a directors' room in a prosperous banking institution.

The members sit at a very large round mahogany table. At the table are twelve chairs. The Superintendent is present, the Director, the Cleveland Director of Law, the Superintendent of Buildings, and the Clerk Treasurer.

Minutes of previous meeting distributed. Roll call on approval of minutes.

Miss McCarthy, Director of Personnel, asked to explain. Answer given—matter of experience. Questioned about non-appointment of temporary teachers who have served some time. Superintendent Lake explains he is putting in appointments for all regularly qualified. Mr. McDermott knew one who had served three years. Why not appointed? Answer—could not be qualified. President said if she is not qualified for appointment how can she be qualified for temporary appointment? Why keep her? Answer—shortage of teachers and some are serving for teachers on leave of absence. There are no more open positions.

SCIENCE CURRICULUM CENTER.

At nine o'clock Tuesday, I met Miss Anne E. Burgess, Directing Supervisor of Science, with whom I drove to the Science Curriculum Center in the Miles Standish School.

This school occupies two city blocks, grounds beautifully landscaped, and is built in the form of two hollow capital T's with the stems joined. The classrooms are around two long courts and an assembly hall. One court ninety feet long is a gymnasium; adjoining that is the assembly hall and on the other side of the assembly hall is another court ninety feet long used as a science hall. In the latter are many specimens, cases filled with science equipment, and a low platform of blue with various constellations of the heavens made by the children.

Miss Neuman is principal of this extraordinary school. All demonstrations were centered around science from kindergarten to grade six. There was also a fine library but no librarian or assistants in this school. The pupils use the library with their classroom teacher.

The children who had come from the kindergarten six weeks previous were developing vocabulary and preparing for reading readiness. The class had seen a movie of a farm. These little children were sitting in small chairs, and the teacher questioned on the animals seen in the movie. The children gave many answers. Then the teacher told them they were to play a new game. Pictures were on the rail turned towards the blackboard. The first child counted the pictures (5). Selection was made, and the child turned the picture around and gave its name. Four other children selected the remaining pictures—each naming the animal pictured. The little group was asked questions on each animal. Then a cover was taken from the board and there were displayed two rows of pictures of animals. The lower row was similar to previous pictures—rabbit, pig, cow, horse, dog; the upper row had more pictures than the lower and contained bunnies, little pigs, calves, ponies, puppies, sheep, hens, chickens. Children were called to draw lines from those animals in the upper row that had a relation to the animal in the lower—bunnies to rabbit, puppies to dog, etc.

Two higher levels were working at their desks. One higher level group was called to the teacher. They were working on sentences with regard to care of a dog. On a chart was a long list of questions. How to keep a dog clean? What to give a dog to eat? As a result three reading charts were made. The best pictures made by three of the group were used as the pictures of the three charts.

Another class visited was working on the movements of the earth. A girl stood as the sun; a boy turned himself around, showing the rotation of the earth on its axis, and at the same time walked around the girl, showing the revolution of the earth around the sun. Another pupil with a globe showed the motions. A group of children with a lantern and a globe illustrated day and night. This group talked of the planets, and the frieze in this room showed the various constellations as worked out by the members of the class.

In another class a delightful lesson was given on the planting of lima beans and nasturtiums. They talked of the effects of moisture and warmth on the seed. The swelling of the seed, the discovery of the small plant, the conclusion that all seeds, no matter what size, contain small plants, that the seeds come from the flower. At a previous time seeds had been planted. One pot was placed in the window with light and sunshine, the other had been placed in the dressing room in the dark. Both flower pots were examined, and joyously they saw the little plant breaking through the soil in the bright pot and nothing doing in the other. The effects of light and sunshine on growing things were explained. The children carried on conversations and were eager to explain all facts to four visitors as though we were friends.

The higher level group had made charts showing the progress of germination and read them to us.

In a third-year class a splendid lesson was given on the thermometer. A home-made chart was constructed and fastened to the board; two large sheets of manila paper—the outer one cut—and a red piece inserted for bulb and tube. This red piece could be moved up and down. Beside the red strip the manila piece was marked with lines and numbers. This chart had been covered when the lesson began; questions on heat in the room led to its disclosure. Children watched the red strip move up and down and read the numbers.

Three regular thermometers were found in the room and brought to a small table on which was a hidden experiment. Finally two small tins were uncovered, one with hot water, another with ice water. Several tested with their fingers the water in each tin. The children then inserted the thermometers, and the group clustered around each to see the effect. One little boy was dressed and sent outside with a thermometer to see what effect the temperature outside had on the thermometer. All explanations by children were made in sentences, and language as well as science was stressed.

In other rooms the science of light was evident and a frieze showing the striking of light from a spark, the tallow candle, the kerosene, gas and electricity.

There were aquariums, terrariums and all kinds of scientific apparatus. The children made slides of their experiments. There were a turtle, a guinea pig and a rabbit living in the school. In fact, the children had a list of names of the children who had the privilege of taking the guinea pig home over week ends. It was a living temple of science, and all subject matter involved as much scientific data as possible.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CURRICULUM CENTER.

With Miss Burgess I went to the Hough School, the Social Science Center, where I was met by Mr. F. Leslie Spier, the supervisor from headquarters. Mrs. Ruth Mills Robinson is the principal of the Hough School.

Every fifteen minutes we visited a different class of varying levels. As usual, we began with the kindergarten with sixty children present with two teachers. It was a free activity period from 1.30 to 2. Groups were engaged in painting—one youngster, Patsy, was remarkable even to painting her name—clay modeling, building with blocks, a group stringing beads, another at the piano and still another under the guidance of a teacher using an apparatus called the merry-climber. This contrivance I found in many kindergartens and always under strict guidance of a teacher. It permits children to climb on rods, to swing, and to twist as on a trapeze.

From 2 to 2.15, levels 6, 7, 10 were visited, where a large group was working or talking on a movie they had seen of a farm. The discussion and vocabulary development led to the reading booklet made by the children, entitled "Shep, the Farm Dog."

2.15-2.30, levels 10X, Y, Z. The group I saw work here developed history. Previewed two charts made previously—one on George Washington, first President of the United States; another on Abraham Lincoln. Both charts were read. A new lesson developed the name of the present President of the United States. The name obtained by questioning the class. It took some time to have a little girl think the first name was Harry. Similar sentences were developed to make a chart parallel to the first two. Pictures of President Truman and his family were shown and many illustrations from magazines. It was interesting to see the little girls sitting in the chairs and the boys on boards on the floor in front of the girls.

2.30-2.45, levels 15, 16, 18. A lesson on community helpers. It was a continuation of a progressive series on the subject. The group had made puppets from paper bags and painted them to represent firemen, policemen, nurse, doctor, teacher, etc. They had the puppets set up. The lesson consisted of one child selecting a community helper which she held on the puppet stage, and the group were to find the name in the index (page 251). After index was explained to them, they were to select the number of the page which would tell them something about the helper being shown. The first one to find the paragraph read it to the class. If there was more than one page dealing with the helper, that was also read. We had time for four demonstrations and much reading. Excellent work.

2.45-3, levels 14, 14+, 15. The unit here was transportation. Discussion on engines and types—steam, oil, coal, electric, Diesel—engineer, fireman, conductor. List of phrases uncovered on the board: In the railroad yard, compare watches, watch inspector, on the bulletin board, into the roundhouse, and many others. Then the class was given a new book on railroads. The pictures were examined, the phrases on the board found by questioning, and the reading began.

3-3.15, levels 8, 9. Here I saw one of the finest history lessons I have ever seen. A class of 42 children. They sat in movable desks—two groups facing each other with a wide center aisle. A pupil arose and said their problems of the day were written on the board: (1) the settlement of Texas; (2) the trouble with Mexico and two others. She further stated the books we shall use are four, and gave the names—two by Miss Kely. Then followed discussion. Any member of the class could take part, but after each contribution had to pick up one of the four books, tell the author and give the page to authenticate the discussion. Austin, Houston, Crockett, James Bowie, Colonel Travis and Santa Anna were names written on the board whose part in Texas history was mentioned. The minutes in this room flew too quickly.

3.15-3.30, levels 5, 7, 8. Art room—a history lesson in progress, but the art was so impressive I could not focus too much attention on the recitation. The friezes, the curtains, the murals in this school were made in this room and they were impressive and beautiful and filled the school with color, inspiration and atmosphere.

CURRICULUM CENTER OF SAFETY AND CHARACTER EDUCATION.

Wednesday morning, accompanied by Mr. McFarland, Supervisor of Safety, I visited the Kentucky School, which is the Curriculum Center of Safety and Character Education, with Miss Esther Hildebrand as principal. The visits to various classrooms were similar to other schools, but emphasis was on safety and character, which is a full-time program.

Miss Berenson's class gave a room demonstration of a socialized recitation period conducted by president, vice-president and secretary. First the reading of the secretary's report, its criticism and acceptance. A discussion was started by a young girl which was to consist of two parts introduced by two students. This was carried on well by general participation of the class. Several complaints were made of interference in filing and jay-walking. The miscreants were criticized and promised to amend their ways. The teacher of this class was one chosen to attend the Workshop on Brotherhood conducted in New York this past summer, and the class gave a playlet ending with the song "Americans All."

The next period was spent at a Safety Council meeting in the assembly hall. Representatives were present from all classes from the kindergarten through class six. The president, vice-president and secretary conducted a splendid assembly. The poise of each one was perfect, and the meeting moved perfectly. First the pledge to the Flag and then the safety pledge. The secretary called the roll, and the leader from each class reported the number present and the amount of money contributed to a fund. It was remarkable how well each leader spoke her part—each voice in the assembly was heard distinctly and sweetly. A group told what was accomplished for the Junior Red Cross; specimens of the work were exhibited. A group from the kindergarten had sung for the soldiers at a hospital and repeated their songs for the group. The service group of the school reported on the condition of the school and the need of cooperation on the part of pupils to pick up papers and keep the school a happy place to live in. (It was a Z pupil who made the service report.)

Two excellent charts made by one class were exhibited to show accidents in Cleveland and its schools. Up to March 1945 there had been 13. Up to March 1946 there had been 27. The need for more safety was evident. The other chart in three rows in silhouette showed the type of accident to children—in the home, in the school, in traffic. Explanations were made by the children.

New business was called for and an active period continued. The president noticed Mr. McFarland in the audience and called on him for a speech; he introduced me to the group and after my few words the President graciously thanked me, and the motion for adjournment followed. It was an enthusiastic, normal exhibition of safety and character building.

The morning closed with a class meeting conducted by an able committee of sixth class pupils. Courtesy was evident in their attitude to each other, to visitors and particularly to me.

CURRICULUM CENTER FOR ARITHMETIC AND THRIFT.

Dr. Herschel E. Grime met me at Kentucky School, accompanied me to lunch and took me to Almira School, which is the Curriculum Center for Arithmetic and Thrift. At this point I must pay tribute to Doctor Grime, who has the stupendous task of all the arithmetic from kindergarten through all twelve grades. He devoted the afternoon to my visit, and I found him a very scholarly, courteous gentleman with much, too much, to do. He was a silent type, but thoughtful, and so generous of his time and anxious to answer all my questions.

Miss Lightell, the principal, took us first to see arithmetic readiness, which starts in the kindergarten. A beautiful room with a lovely flower-like girl of a teacher and 37 children. Alone she managed in a masterly manner these children. At first they formed a large circle. She had very large three-foot card boards and developed circle, triangle, rectangle, square. Next she played a game with three bright colored cones: yellow, red, blue. The children compared them to big ice cream cones, counted them together and individually. The cones were placed in a row—three children stood opposite them. The game proceeded as three was impressed on them in various ways. I was sorry to leave this room.

One of the rooms I enjoyed immensely in this school was one in which at least twelve activities were going on at one time. Each took the form of a game, and was allowed to be carried on twice a week: a ring toss game, a game similar to Beano, a fishing game, a game of banking, a game similar to ninepins, and many others. At a check of the teacher the players explained the games, their purpose, their scores and the arithmetical value.

The last class visited was also interesting—where a group was being taught fractions in a concrete way. A great variety of objects were being used to impress the addition of fractions.

Doctor Grime has furnished me with two charts of the objectives of arithmetic and various tests for the different levels.

ENGLISH CURRICULUM CENTER.

Thursday I had not expected to visit, but at 8.45 A. M. I met the genius of the English Child Progress Plan, Margaret L. White. She is an exceptional woman, a Texan by birth, who had taught in her native state, had gone to Columbia, and there Mr. Jones, the then Superintendent of Schools of Cleveland, at the completion of her work offered her a position in the Cleveland schools, but she refused as she desired to return to her own state, which she did. However, Mr. Jones again invited her to come to Cleveland, and she did 23 years ago. The first year she studied the situation and then was allowed by Dr. Buckley to initiate some of her ideas. She began with a few teachers who worked with her on the course of study in English and started the theories in their classrooms. It was my happy privilege on Thursday to visit two of these pioneers in the method—now principals.

The first was Mrs. Skelly, principal at the Robert Fulton. In class one a group which had just entered from the kindergarten was having a lively vocabulary lesson. This was similar to others I have described, only the teacher allowed the children to discuss very freely.

PART III.

There are 15 senior high schools, 22 junior high schools, and 123 elementary schools in Cleveland.

Twelve elementary schools have been designated as curriculum centers. These centers serve as laboratories for all elementary schools in the city. They are as follows: Arithmetic and Thrift, Art, Elementary Science, English, Handcraft, Handwriting, Library, Music, Physical Training and Health, Safety and Character Education, Social Studies. In each, all instruction centers around the subject designated. My visit emphasizes how this is done in the centers I was privileged to visit.

All elementary schools are administered by women principals. Each principal has an assistant principal and a secretary. Their offices are artistically furnished and most attractively appointed.

The schools reflect the work of the pupils in art. A great amount of color is in evidence. Each classroom has a frieze designed by the pupils which portrays the subject taught. Pupils supply their own pens, pencils and stationery. The city-wide class average is 39.5.

Teachers qualify by taking the state examination to teach, and no eligible lists are kept. Therefore, there is no department corresponding to our Practice and Training Department. There is a substitute department headquarters and four elementary substitute centers located in four sections of the city. The elementary school principal telephones to her particular center for the necessary assistants in time of need. The elementary principal and her assistant principal supervise and develop the morale of her group. There is a Personnel Bureau, of which Anne G. McCarthy is chief. There are also supervisors of subjects, four Assistant Superintendents, a Superintendent and an Executive Secretary to the Superintendent.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with firms, commercial houses and contractors for furnishing labor, supplies, etc. Communications from the heads of the several departments were as follows:

AUDITING DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 15, 1946.

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

DEAR SIR,—In the light of reports submitted to me by staff members attached to the Central Pay Roll Division, it appears that the work of this division can be expedited and simplified by replacing present rented equipment with Remington-Rand tabulating machines. It is estimated that by the outright purchase of this latter equipment the city will save approximately $180,000 over the life of the machines. I request, therefore, that the eleven machines and five wiring units listed in the attached agreement be purchased from Remington Rand, Inc., at a total cost of $96,850. Since the company is the manufacturer of the equipment and is the only tabulating company at present offering such machines for purchase, I feel nothing would be gained by public advertising.

In order to safeguard the interests of the city, I have secured an agreement from local officials of Remington Rand, Inc., that payment of the purchase price may be deferred until the pay roll installation has been completed. These officials have agreed to inclusion in the purchase contract of the following stipulation:

"No payments under this contract will become due and payable until January 15, 1947, at which time the full amount will become due and payable—it being anticipated that on this date the pay roll installation will be completed."

As indicated in the attached purchase agreement Remington Rand, Inc., also agrees to enter into a machine service contract at the time the machines are installed, calling for an annual payment by the city of 3 per cent of the purchase price of the equipment.

Very truly yours,

CHARLES J. FOX,
City Auditor.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, July 25, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

MY DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Under date of July 23, 1946, I received informal proposals for furnishing and erecting a 250-gallon Massachusetts Standard 250-pound test copper hot water tank and all work incidental thereto in the lunchroom of the Boston Technical High School. Although it was presumed that the work could be performed for less than one thousand dollars, nevertheless the proposals submitted follow:

John F. Rooney, $1,195; P. F. Russo, $1,240; L. H. Jacobs, $1,240; J. P. O'Hearn & Co., $1,365; Frank T. McDonald, $1,395; J. M. McCusker Company, $1,410.

In view of the foregoing, I respectfully request your Honor's approval to incur an expenditure in the sum of $1,195, without advertising, payable to John F. Rooney, 16 Pingree street, Hyde Park, the lowest informal bidder, upon completion of the work specified in paragraph one.

In so doing, I feel that the best interests of the city are being served,

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, August 1, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—On May 29, 1946, your Honor approved a contract for collecting and removing garbage and refuse in the Brighton district, without publicly advertising for bids, for the period from April 1 to June 30, 1946, to Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., 942 Washington street, Dorchester, for the following reason:

"The city is required, as a health measure, to remove and dispose of the garbage and rubbish produced by its inhabitants, and any failure to do so would have a very serious effect on the health and well-being of the community. In order that there would be no interruption of this very essential service, and because of the emergency which arose, I made arrangements with this firm to continue collecting and disposing of the garbage and refuse from this district until such time as it would be possible to obtain a suitable dumping location."

During the period of the above-mentioned contract, this department endeavored to secure a suitable dumping location contiguous to the Brighton district without success; and the contractor has been required, under the terms of his contract, to haul all refuse, ashes, store dirt and house dirt to the Mt. Vernon street, Dorchester, dump.

Under all the circumstances, the contractor will be compelled to haul from Brighton to the Dorchester dump for the remainder of the current year.

Because of the necessity of maintaining the type of service now rendered in the Brighton area for the collecting and removing of garbage and refuse, and as a result of the situation which confronts us, no advantage would be gained by advertising for bids for this work under these circumstances.

I, therefore, respectfully request the permission of your Honor to dispense with advertising and to the award of a contract to Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., for the collecting and removing of garbage and refuse in the Brighton district for the period from July 1 to December 31, 1946, at the agreed price in the previous contract for this work of seventeen thousand (17,000) dollars per month.

The Anthony J. Ryan, Inc., firm has collected and removed garbage and refuse in the Brighton district from 1941 to date, and its work has always been satisfactory.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

BOSTON, August 7, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—On June 8, 1946, you approved a contract which this department made with Ward General Contracting Company for replacing artificial stone sidewalks in certain portions of the city where the Water Division had made openings for the purpose of repairing its underground structures. This contract covered the replacement of 10,000 square feet of sidewalks, at an estimated cost of $4,000.

The above-mentioned firm has practically completed the work called for by this contract and has performed it very satisfactorily. However, there is still a large amount of work to be done in the replacement of additional areas of sidewalks of this type opened by the Water Division. I consider that, under the circumstances, it will be to the city's interest to make another contract with this firm. Under this arrangement the city can have this work done at substantial savings, and the probability of suits and claims against the city because of the defective condition of these sidewalks may be removed.

Many of the street and sidewalk areas in District 4-A are at present being restored by Ward General Contracting Company, under the provisions of section 9 of chapter 27 of the Revised Ordinances of 1925, insofar as the surfaces were removed or damaged by public service corporations in the performance of work for which permits had been issued by this department. Because of this situation, the city is able to have the necessary work done by the same contractor at substantial savings to the city.

I do not consider, under the circumstances, that there would be any advantage in advertising for bids, and because of that fact, I respectfully request the approval of your Honor to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Ward General Contracting Company for replacement of 10,000 feet of artificial stone sidewalks, at an estimated cost of $4,000 in the patching district known as District 4-A.

Respectfully yours,

ROBERT P. CURLEY,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 31, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—Permission is respectfully requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising for bids, to Remington Rand, Inc., for furnishing to the Auditing Department the following tabulating machine equipment:

One Type 305 Alphabetical Punch, $5,400.

One Type 221 Counting Sorter, $2,700.

One Type 220 Sorter, $2,160.

One Type 312 Interpreter, $4,590.

One Type 3100 Alphabetical Tabulator, equipped with: 100 Alphabetical Sectors; 160 Adding Counters; 1 Universal Carriage, $28,485.

One Type 3100 Alphabetical Tabulator, equipped with: 100 Alphabetical Sectors; 100 D/S Counters; 1 Universal Carriage; 1 two (2) Cycle Multi-Stage Selector, $29,025.

One Type 275 Numerical Tabulator, equipped with: 5 D/S Type 10 Sector Units; Grand Total Mechanism for 25 Sector Unit; 1 Direct Subtraction Summary Card Punch Designating Mechanism D/S Type Unit (25 Sector); 2 Multiple Unit Selector (Wiring Unit Type) Series 58, $14,310.

One Type 310 Multi-Control Reproducing Punch with 8 Functions and Interfiler, $7,290.

Five Additional Standard Wiring Units for Model 3100 Tabulator, $1,000.

One Type 211 Summary Card Punch, $1,890.

Total amount of contract, $96,850.

This equipment is being purchased to replace rented equipment now in use in the Central Pay Roll Division of the Auditing Department, and it is my opinion that the work of this division can be expedited and simplified by replacing the present rented equipment with Remington-Rand duplicating machines.

It is also my conviction that the outright purchase of this Remington-Rand equipment will save the city a very large sum of money during the life of the machines. No payments under the contract will become due and payable until January 15, 1947, at which time the full amount will become due and payable, it being anticipated that by this time the pay roll installation will be completed.

I am attaching copy of a letter of recommendation from the City Auditor regarding this purchase.

Since Remington Rand, Inc., is the manufacturer, no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, August 2, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—Permission is requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising for bids, to the George A. Hamlin Company, 26 Warrenton street, Boston, for furnishing to the Boston Traffic Commission:

7,500 feet of 2½-inch standard black steel pipe; each piece 21 feet long without couplings or points and plain on both ends, for use as traffic sign posts, at $28.54 per hundred feet, $2,140.50, 2 per cent, ten days.

The requisitions covering this purchase were of an emergency nature in that the pipe was needed immediately to complete the installation of new traffic signs throughout the city. Because of the stipulated delivery date, it was necessary to dispense with public advertisement and the entire field was canvassed through the medium of informal quotations.

Since the Hamlin Company was the only concern prepared to submit a bid and deliver immediately, your approval of this purchase is requested.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

BOSTON, August 6, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR.—Permission is requested to award a contract, without publicly advertising for bids, to the William J. Troy Company, 6 Glenville terrace, Boston, for furnishing to the Public Buildings Department the following:

One 75-46421, 1946 Meteor-Cadillac ambulance, $4,271. Standard Equipment: Cot, cot hooks, mattress, medicine cabinet, electric fan, grab rail, four dome lights, linoleum floor, leather interior, 1946 Cadillac paint colors, front and rear heaters. Freight to Boston, $100. Extras: Front turret roof lights, flashing, $75; rear roof lights, $15; spot light, $17.50; rear step, $35; siren under hood, $40; emergency cot and attendant seats for extra patient (exchanged), $88.50—$271. Total, $4,642.

The William J. Troy Company is sole distributor in New England for this ambulance which is the type desired for the purposes of the Public Buildings Department.

Efforts were made to obtain an ambulance through the War Assets Administration. However, this office was informed that in the entire New England area there is only one ambulance available—condition unknown. Moreover, ambulances have been classified in the automotive category and all motor vehicle equipment has been frozen for veterans.

The ambulance now in use should be replaced without undue delay and the Troy Company has guaranteed delivery within ninety days after receipt of the purchase order. In view of the unsettled automotive market, I believe that no advantage would be gained by publicly advertising for bids and recommend your approval of this award.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Permission is respectfully requested to reallocate Sanitary Division funds as follows:

$1,500 from B-19, Removal of Waste, to B-4, Transportation of Persons, to cover estimated deficit in the B-4 item to the end of the year 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Approval is respectfully requested to amend the budget of the Sanitary Division as follows:

Decrease item, chauffeur-laborer at $6.50 a day, from two to one.

Add item, one carpenter-chauffeur-laborer at $6.50-$5.50 a day.

This request is made in order to provide for change in rating of Edmund Currie, 15 Marshfield street, Roxbury, from chauffeur-laborer at $6-$5.50 a day to $6.50-$6-$5.50 a day as carpenter-chauffeur-laborer.

Mr. Currie has been in the employ of the Sanitary Division for the past twenty-five years and is the senior man in point of service in that division, qualified and willing to accept this position.

RETIREMENT BOARD.

BOSTON, August 2, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—Due to a delay in placing the order for an addressograph machine for this department, the cost of which has been included in the Office Equipment Loan, there has been an interim price rise of $151.

Your approval, therefore, is requested for an increase of $151, making our total charge to this loan $1,624.25 instead of $1,473.25.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM D. KENNEY,
Executive Officer.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 8, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Permission is requested to amend the A-1 budget item of this department to provide for the permanent appointment of one clerk-typist at $1,560 yearly plus $200 E. C. A.

At the present time, there are three employees of this department on leave of absence without pay and two employees on sick leave—all for extended periods. Because of these leaves of absence and the added burden imposed by vacation schedules, this office is in urgent need of more typists to effectively carry on the department routine.

As approved by your Honor, two temporary clerk-typists will be employed for a period of three months to alleviate to some extent the existing situation.

A former employee of this office, thoroughly familiar with the practices and work of the Supply Department, is available for transfer from the State service. Since it is reasonably safe to assume that one, if not all, of the three employees now on leave of absence without pay will resign at the expiration of his leave, it is recommended that the A-1 budget item be amended to provide for her transfer with the understanding that on the resignation of one of the employees on leave of absence without pay such position will be eliminated from the budget.

Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM I. ROSE,
Superintendent of Supplies.

COURT HOUSE COMMISSION.

BOSTON, August 6, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR,—I hereby request transfer of $6 from E-1 to F-11. There is no appropriation in the budget for F-11, and there is a hospital bill to pay for an accident to one of the employees. The small amount of $6 will not jeopardize E-1.

Respectfully yours,

COURT HOUSE COMMISSION,
ARNO I. DREW, Chairman.

PROBATE COURT.

BOSTON, August 6, 1946.

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—Will you please amend the budget of the Probate Court for 1946 to read as follows:

Kindly add $80 to Item B-39 (General Repairs) and deduct $80 from Item B-29 (Stenographic and Copying).

The sum of $80 more is needed in Item B-39 in order that outstanding and future bills for repairs on typewriters, seal presses, etc., may be paid. B-29 is always an uncertain item and at this writing it is probable that $80 can be spared from this item.

Respectfully yours,

ARTHUR W. SULLIVAN, Register.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith two proposed amendments to the Revised Ordinances of 1925, concerning the Market Division of the Public Buildings Department.

These amendments are made necessary by the abolition of the Market Department and the creation of the position of Director of Markets by the Acts of 1943, chapter 78.

I recommend adoption of the accompanying ordinances.

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

CONCERNING THE MARKET DIVISION OF THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

Chapter twenty-one of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 is hereby repealed. Chapter twenty-five of the Revised Ordinances of 1925 is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sections:

Section 7. The market division shall be under the charge of the director of markets, who, under the supervision and direction of the Superintendent of Public Buildings, shall have the charge and control of Faneuil-hall market and Faneuil-hall market limits; shall preserve order therein; shall

The director or either of his deputies may assign stands within such market limits for the sale of provisions and other articles, and may, at the expense of the owner thereof, remove from one place or stand to another within such limits, or to, and to be kept in, a proper storage place until the expense is paid, any merchandise, vehicle, or animal, not under the charge of any person, or not immediately so removed on the direction of the director or either of his deputies.

Sect. 8. The Superintendent of Public Buildings shall, on the expiration of leases of stalls and cellars and second floor in Faneuil-hall market, lease them for a term of no less than three years from the day of such expiration, at rents not less than those which shall be established by vote of the city council therefor; shall, after the establishment of such rents, notify the lessees then occupying said stalls and cellars and second floor of the rents to be paid therefor; shall give a new lease at such rents to such of said lessees as in writing notify him that they desire to retain at such rents their respective holdings; and shall lease to suitable persons, for the remainder of any existing term, all stalls and cellars and second floor which become vacant, or the leases of which shall be cancelled, at not less than the rents previously paid therefor. 2. The lessee shall, at his own expense, keep the demised premises in good repair and condition.
3. The lessee shall not place, or suffer to be placed or kept, any article in any passageway of said market, or within the demised premises, so as to project into any such passageway, unless with the consent of the director of markets, or one of his deputies.

12. The lessee shall quit and deliver up the demised premises peaceably and quietly at the end of the term, in as good order and condition as the same are at the beginning of the term, or may be put into during the term.

The lessee shall also agree that on the violation of any of the foregoing conditions, the city by the Superintendent of Public Buildings or the director or his deputies may, without notice, and forcibly if necessary, enter upon and take possession of the demised premises, and expel the lessee and his assigns, and that by such violation the lease shall be cancelled.

CONCERNING THE MARKET DIVISION OF THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

LEASES, FANEUIL HALL AND QUINCY MARKETS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 5, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I submit herewith an order relative to the leasing of stalls, cellars, and space in the Faneuil Hall and Quincy Market buildings, and the sub-sidewalk space adjacent thereto.

Under the provisions of this order, the present rentals of space in and adjacent to both buildings will be increased twenty-five per cent over the present rates. The order also provides that leases be made by the Superintendent of Public Buildings for a period of five years. At the present time, all lessees in these buildings are tenants-at-will.

The accompanying communication from the Superintendent of Public Buildings furnishes considerable information concerning the recent history of the rental situation at the Faneuil Hall and Quincy Markets, and also furnishes sufficient reason, in my opinion, to increase the present rentals.

I respectfully recommend adoption of the accompanying order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Public Buildings Department,
July 30, 1946.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor,—For over eleven (11) years the tenants of both Quincy and Faneuil Hall Markets have been tenants-at-will. This condition is due to the failure of the city to negotiate leases satisfactory to the City Council. As a result of this a situation now exists which makes it hard to determine just where either the tenants' or the city's responsibility begins or ends.

This letter is prompted to clarify this situation and further to adjust rentals to an equitable basis in order to justify the capital expenditures and the maintenance cost of the Markets to the City of Boston.

The principal revenue source of the Market Department is rentals received for the use of stalls, cellars, sidewalks and area occupied by the Boston Fruit and Produce Exchange. Under the provisions of section 2, chapter 21, of the Revised Ordinances rentals for areas in the Market Buildings are established by the City Council with the approval of the Mayor. Up to 1929 it was customary for the City Council to establish leases on a ten-year basis. In the latter years despite the Mayor's recommendation that new leases be executed for a ten-year period the City Council saw fit to establish the renewals on a five (5) year basis. These leases were the last to be established in accordance with ordinance provisions with the result that since October 1934 areas in the two (2) Market Buildings have been rented on a tenant-at-will basis.

Under the date of February 12, 1935, the Corporation Counsel advised the City Collector that pending the establishment of terms and rentals of the new Market leases, the old leases having expired on October 1, 1934, "I am of the opinion that your Department should continue to collect the rent from the various tenants in the Market and that these rents should be on the same basis as the rents established by the prior leases for the respective premises."

Under the provisions of section 2, lessees of the Market are required to comply with thirteen conditions. These requirements cover such important items as maintenance and repair of premises, subletting of areas, payment of rentals and water rates, employment of subordinates, hours for conduct of business, etc. Since no leases have been in effect during the past eleven (11) years and nine (9) months there is a serious question whether the occupants of areas have been or are subject to the lease regulations provided by the ordinance.

Prior to 1943 the Market Division was a separate department. In this year by Act of the Legislature adopted by the City Council and approved by the Mayor the Market Department as such was abolished and placed under the jurisdiction of the Public Buildings Department.

The buildings and lands of the Quincy Markets are assessed at $1,400,000, that of Faneuil Hall at $800,000. The annual income from both Markets is $93,844 when fully occupied. This year's budget for Quincy Market is $19,860. Repairs and maintenance will approximate for this year $15,000. If the additional sum of approximately $1,000,000 spent during the last twenty-five (25) years for major reconstruction be prorated it will be realized that no private corporation could stay long in business paying taxes on above valuations with such an annual income. The second floor of the Quincy Market is occupied by the Boston Fruit and Produce Exchange. Up to January 1, 1933, their annual rental per year was $13,350. In that year their rental was reduced to $10,000, and again in 1944 it was reduced to $7,500.

I recommend that the rental of cellars, stalls, and sidewalk including quarters occupied by the Boston Fruit and Produce Exchange on the second floor of the Quincy Market be leased for a period of not less than three (3) years at a 25 per cent yearly increase of the present rentals. Attached find a schedule of present occupants with quarterly rental amounts.

At present the consumption of water in the Market is divided into two classes; one class of tenants is served by a general meter and the other by individual meters. Consumption indicated by the general meter is assessed according to the reading on each meter and the tenants involved are billed quarterly. The water bill for the general meter is sent to the Superintendent of Markets; this water bill will approximate $600. It is our intention to have every service metered at the earliest possible moment, but as there are approximately 100 services and a shortage of meters this will of necessity take time.

I recommend during this period that the Superintendent of Public Buildings be given authority to levy a charge not to exceed $5 for the first faucet and $2 for each faucet thereafter.

In view of the 1943 Act of the Legislature which abolished the Market Department as such and desirous of approaching this new problem of the Public Buildings Department on a business basis, I suggest to your Honor the above recommendations be incorporated in an order and presented to the City Council.

Respectfully,
JAMES E. SULLIVAN,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

Ordered, That the Superintendent of Public Buildings be authorized, with the approval of the Mayor, to lease for a term of five years from October 1, 1946, the stalls, cellars and space in the Quincy and Faneuil Hall Market Buildings, and the sub-sidewalk space adjacent thereto, at an annual rental of twenty-five per cent more than the present rental, to such of the present occupants of such stalls, cellars and space as shall notify the Superintendent in writing that they desire to retain their respective holdings, and otherwise shall give such leases to such suitable persons as shall be approved by the Mayor; said leases to be on the terms and conditions set forth in the ordinances of the city relative thereto; and on the additional condition that such tenants not furnished water on metered service shall pay, until such time as meters are installed, five dollars per annum for the first faucet and two dollars more per annum for each additional faucet.

Referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

SALE OF COMMERCIAL STREET LAND.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 5, 1946.
To the Honorable the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I present herewith an order for the sale of a certain parcel of city-owned land containing approximately four thousand eight hundred forty-seven (4,847) square feet, situated on the westerly side of Commercial street, between Battery street and Salutation street, Boston Proper. The proposed sale of this parcel of land is to be held at public auction at an upset price of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

The City of Boston acquired this parcel of land by purchase in the year 1866 for the purpose of erecting thereon a station house for the harbor police. The station house building erected thereon has been razed for more than twenty-five years and the land has remained unoccupied and unproductive.

The Board of Street Commissioners have the care and maintenance of the parcel of vacant land and they inform me that this land is not in use by the City and they know of no future use for same. The Board further inform me that they have received a bona fide offer for the purchase of said parcel of property and suggest that this property be put up for sale at public auction, with an upset price of $5,000.

I am of the opinion that it would be advantageous to the city if this parcel of vacant, nonproductive and nontaxable land was sold. Therefore, I recommend that this parcel of land be sold at public auction at an upset price of $5,000, and your consideration and passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Street Laying-Out Department,
August 2, 1946.

Hon. James M. Curley,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—We have received a written offer for the purchase of land owned by the city and in control of this department, situated on Commercial street at the corner of Battery street, containing approximately 5,000 square feet of land, more or less, from Louis A. Zwick, of 1017 Columbus avenue. His offer to purchase is at a price of $5,000, and he has submitted with the offer a certified check for $500 as evidence of good faith, with the request that early action be taken.

Inasmuch as this land is not in use by the city, and this Board knows of no future use for same, it is our suggestion that this property be put up for sale at public auction, with an upset price of $5,000 and we submit the same for your consideration. If this suggestion meets with your approval it is also necessary to obtain the approval of the City Council before proceeding with the sale.

Very truly yours,
RICHARD L. CASEY, Chairman.

Whereas, The City of Boston is the owner of a certain parcel of land containing approximately four thousand eight hundred forty-seven (4,847) square feet of land situated on the westerly side of Commercial street, between Battery street and Salutation street, Boston Proper. This parcel of land was purchased by the City of Boston in 1866 and the deed thereto is recorded with Suffolk Deeds, Book 878, page 215; and

Whereas, This parcel of land is no longer needed for public purposes; now, therefore, it is hereby Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners of the City of Boston be, and they hereby are, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to sell at public auction at an upset price of five thousand dollars ($5,000) all the City of Boston's right, title and interest in and to the said parcel of land hereinafter described; and it is hereby further

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor of the City of Boston be and he hereby is, authorized in the name and behalf of the City of Boston to execute and deliver to a purchaser at said public auction a written instrument satisfactory in form to the Law Department of the City of Boston, conveying all the City of Boston's right, title and interest in and to said parcel of land, bounded and described as follows:

Northerly by the southerly side line of Battery street, ninety-six and 35-100 (96.35) feet; easterly by the westerly side line of Commercial street as established under a resolve and order of the Board of Street Commissioners of the City of Boston passed October 17, 1944, and approved October 23, 1944, by two measurements, thirteen and 24-100 (13.24) feet in a curve of ten (10) feet radius and thirty-eight and 58-100 (38.58) feet respectively; southerly by the northerly side line of Salutation street, one hundred seventeen and 44-100 (117.44) feet; westerly by land now or formerly of Jennie E. Wooley, forty-two and 76-100 (42.76) feet; containing four thousand eight hundred forty-seven (4,847) square feet of land, more or less. The above described parcel of land and all of said measurements are shown on a plan marked "City of Boston, Battery Street, Salutation Street, Commercial Street, Boston Proper, October 19, 1944, William J. Sullivan, Chief Engineer, Street Laying-Out Department," on file in the office of said department, City Hall, Boston, Mass.

REPAIRS TO SUMNER TRAFFIC TUNNEL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 5, 1946.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am submitting herewith an appropriation order for $30,100, to be expended by the Commissioner of Public Works for necessary repairs to the Sumner Traffic Tunnel. The most important repair is in connection with the cable system which is used to operate the ventilating apparatus in the Tunnel, and which has deteriorated beyond repair, and must be replaced. As this expenditure is necessary for the proper ventilation of the Tunnel, and as the estimated revenue for the year will amply provide for this appropriation, I respectfully recommend the passage of the accompanying order.

Respectfully,
JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That to meet the current expenses payable during the financial year beginning with the first day of January, 1946, an additional sum of thirty thousand one hundred dollars ($30,100) be, and the same hereby is, appropriated from the income of the Sumner Traffic Tunnel, to be expended by the Commissioner of Public Works. Any excess of expenditures over income shall be met by taxes.

I respectfully request passage of the accompanying order.

FIRE PREVENTION.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Finance Commission, August 2, 1946.
To the Mayor and City Council.

The Finance Commission again desires to emphasize certain points in regard to fire prevention in Boston which were discussed broadly in a staff report addressed to the Mayor and the Fire Commissioner in June. Inasmuch as cooperation is necessary from both the City Council and the Legislature in solving the present difficulties in the way of effective fire protection, the Commission deems it proper to include the City Council in this discussion.

In 1929, a commission appointed by the Mayor, which included some of the best known in fire prevention work, made an exhaustive report showing the deficiencies in the Boston way of preventing fires. It made numerous recommendations looking to an improved service. Unfortunately little change in method resulted from this study and very little, if any, improvement.

Meanwhile, Boston has continued to have serious losses of life and property by fire, and has continued to be rated poorly in this connection in comparison with other cities. The picture has changed somewhat since the 1923-1927 period when the nearest approach to the staggering $6.30 per capita loss in Boston was Detroit's $3.12. Nevertheless, in the period beginning in 1941 and ending in 1945, Boston was still at the top of comparable cities with a per capita loss of $4.29, with Baltimore's $2.91 the nearest.

The loss of life by fire in Boston has not lessened with the years of experience. In 1936, it was 12 lives as against 26 in 1946 to June 2.

The value of the above statistical comparisons is however limited. Such figures still leave unanswered the questions, "Is the city doing all it can to prevent loss of life and property by fire? Is the city doing all it can to reduce the runs of the Fire Department?" It is the number of runs of the Fire Department which makes necessary the heavy pay roll and equipment expense.

Whether the city is doing all it can may be summarized in the following conclusions. In this survey the Finance Commission has been aided by recognized experts in the field of fire prevention.

Conclusions.

1. While some progress has been made in the fire prevention program of the Fire Department, there is much still to be done.

2. The present Deputy Chief in charge of the Fire Prevention Division appears to have done as much as he could within the limitations imposed on him.

3. There seems to be agreement that the addition of a few specialists to the staff of the Fire Prevention Division and the acquisition of certain equipment will aid materially in making a fire prevention program effective.

4. There are entirely too few inspections of buildings to carry out a fire prevention program; this can be remedied by using fire company personnel in this work.

5. There has been no training of the latter personnel in this work and there are very few with special training for more technical inspections in the staff of the Fire Prevention Division.

6. Recruitment for the staff of the Fire Prevention Division does not provide for qualification by examination or some suitable process of selectivity.

7. There are obstacles in the form of legal difficulties, administrative needs and interdepartmental relationship which stand in the way of a successful program.

8. In some quarters of the Department, there is an apparent lack of enthusiasm for fire prevention activity. This can only be remedied by executive action if a program is to succeed.

9. There has been little educating and winning of cooperation of the public by a suitable public relations program.

10. The Fire Prevention Division is handicapped by the bulk of the staff time and office space allotted to and the issuance of oil permits and the collection of fees therefor.

11. By uncovering more fire hazards and reducing the time lapse between complaint and correction, Boston can experience the same reduction in fires as in the case of many other cities; and needless loss of life and property as well as needless exposure of personnel to fire-fighting risks can be eliminated in fires attributable to discoverable hazards.

12. The Department does not give proper emphasis to effectiveness in fire prevention. It spreads the responsibility over too large a number of officers to be adequately effective.

13. The Department operates without a fire prevention code. It therefore has no recognized basis for its fire prevention work, outside the general statute.

Some suggestions which the above criticisms inspire are broad in scope and require some preliminary planning to get started. There are others, however, which are not only essential but which may be adopted or embarked upon at once. It seems important that these few suggestions be now singled out for emphasis in order that a corrective program be undertaken at once.

Interdepartmental Relations: Legal Gaps.

In the first place, there are several points of conflict between the Building Department and the Fire Department in the field of fire safety which have to be adjusted. The following are some illustrations:

a. Chutes.—In many apartment buildings in Boston dumbwaiter shafts have been converted to refuse chutes. The Building Code requires only a certain type of lining for safety requirements; the Fire Department insists that such a situation is a hazard unless a sprinkler is installed.

b. Incinerators. Many apartment houses have incinerators located in stair halls close to stairways. The Fire Department considers this a fire hazard and the fire record appears to bear them out.

c. Abandoned and Dilapidated Buildings.—Scattered throughout the city are many pieces of property which have been abandoned by their owners and left to disintegrate and eventually fall into the hands of the city. The Fire Department regards many of these as fire hazards; in fact, many fires have developed from these hazards which have threatened adjoining buildings and entire neighborhoods. Yet many such structures still exist and often they are open to trespass and the elements.

d. Common Causes of Fire.—Under present law defective smoke pipes and related fire causes must be reported to the Building Department for correction. The Fire Department contends that this lengthy process permits the continuation of a prolific source of fire, particularly during the winter; whereas, if the Fire Department had authority to compel correction of the defect, a nuisance could be abated more expeditiously.

The above discussion indicates that there is a definite field of conflict between the two departments in the matter of fire safety. If any weight is to be given to the judgment of the officers of the Fire Department who presumably are specialists in the nature of fire and its control, then clearly the convictions of the Fire Department in the matter of the several items enumerated above ought to be recognized.

This can be done in one of two ways: (1) reference of plans involving these items to the Fire Department for approval; (2) incorporating the judgment of the Fire Department in these matters in the basic law by supplementing the Building Code to that extent. In the interests of expedition and elimination of delay and friction, the latter method seems preferable. The accomplishment of these changes and the determination whether the Fire Department ought to have more voice in eliminating such fire hazards as defective smoke pipe and other items, should be the duty of some such group as the Building Commissioner, the Fire Commissioner, the Deputy Fire Chief in charge of Fire Prevention and a representative of the Law Department. Their deliberations ought to result in plans for:

1. Incorporating the judgment of the Fire Department into the statutory law controlling the items in question;

2. Establishing a fire code which specifically sets out the authority and responsibility of the Fire Department in controlling fire hazards and distinguishes such authority and responsibility from that of the Building Department.

Besides the need for clarifying and amending the law, there are other immediate needs which can be met now. These include:

a. Securing a trained fire protection engineer. This man will study the technical aspects of fires, analyze fire records, plan inspection work, develop fire control methods and, in general, handle the technical work;

b. Securing photographic equipment. This is essential in picturing conditions for prosecution purposes. At present, a fireman is using his own equipment;

c. Securing adequate legal aid in finding true owners of property, preparing cases for prosecution and pushing prosecution more intensively;

d. Relieving the Fire Prevention Division of a large volume of fee collecting and incidental clerical work involved in the renewal of oil permits, which presently occupies much of the floor space and staff time in the Fire Prevention Division;

e. Securing educational films and publicity services to successfully carry on a program of public education.

The establishment of the fire prevention work in Boston on a scientific basis, staffed and performed by specially trained personnel, will have many advantages. It will reduce loss of life as well as of property. It will reduce fire runs, thereby saving men and equipment. The saving in loss of life and property will far outweigh the cost to the Department, and the results will be far more satisfactory to the taxpayers. At this time, when much new fire equipment is vitally needed, but is unobtainable except in limited quantities, the importance of up-to-date fire prevention work cannot be overemphasized.

Respectfully submitted,
EDWARD F. MULLEN, Chairman,
ALEXANDER WHEELER,
LEO F. DUNN,

CLINTON PLACE PLAY AREA.

Coun. KINSELLA offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor consider the suggestion contained in a City Council order of July 1 referring to the development and enlargement by the acquisition of privately owned land, of the city's property in Clinton place, Ward 2, Charlestown, for the purpose of establishing a play area in one of the most badly neglected sections of the city.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, on July 1 I offered a similar order asking that the Mayor purchase a piece of privately owned land that abuts the city-owned property at Clinton place, Charlestown, for the purpose of establishing a play area. I have looked through subsequent copies of the City Record since that date. I have found no answer has come back to us on what I wrote and suggested. A week ago yesterday, on July 28, I had occasion to feel thoroughly ashamed of the City of Boston when I picked up the rotogravure section of the Boston Globe. I find here in a place of great prominence a half dozen pictures taken by a Globe photographer dealing with the attempt of residents of Charlestown in this isolated, overcrowded section of Charlestown to make up for the deficiencies of the city. I will read the article. It is headed "Charlestown's 40 by 60 Backyard Playground. Eleven years ago Rudolph H. St. Louis of 26 Parker street, Charlestown, had an idea. He would build a backyard playground and a good one, one that would provide a safe and pleasant recreation spot for children so they could keep off the streets in that congested neighborhood. So he put it up to his wife. Mr. and Mrs. St. Louis love children. They have four of their own, two girls and two boys. So Mrs. St. Louis' answer was, 'Yes, go ahead.' With her cooperation Mr. St. Louis started his project, slowly at first, but in the last five years in dead earnest. Now the St. Louis backyard is the joy of every youngster in the neighborhood." Here is a series of pictures showing the work Mr. St. Louis did in an area 40 by 60, which the City of Boston should have done long ago. About a year ago the then chairman of the Board of Recreation came over to Clinton place with me. He agreed it was an ideal spot for a tot play area provided the city would acquire property along the railroad right of way. A reasonably high wall could be built there to keep the children from the railroad tracks and give them some of the facilities lacking at Ryan Field, commonly known as the Sullivan Square Playground. If you are familiar with the area you will realize that this neighborhood is close to the Somerville line. In order to go to Sullivan Square Playground, now the Ryan Playground, children of all ages and descriptions would have to cross through the rotary traffic at Rutherford avenue, Main and Cambridge streets. It is enough for an adult to get through with his life without asking children to do the same. Now the Boston Globe in my opinion performed a public service in exposing this—and that is just about what this amounts to, an exposure of the deficiency of the city. Councilor Coffey tells me for some years past some public-spirited gentleman from East Boston has done the same thing and has done it because of the failure of the city to provide recreational facilities. We are in here day after day. We are asked to pass on bond issues and loan orders close to twenty million dollars in value now since the first of the year. Without any whimpering we have given them to the present Mayor. Yet you cannot get action on something that might cost the city $10,000. I might add this point before the record closes. It is time the Council began to think of the people of Boston and not just a few lieutenants.

ACCEPTANCE OF EUTAW PLACE.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Board of Street Commissioners be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to lay out and accept as a public way Eutaw place, Ward 1.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

MUNICIPAL BUILDING FOR EAST BOSTON.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Public Buildings Department be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take the necessary steps to establish a Municipal Building in East Boston.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

BATHING BEACH AT EAST BOSTON.

Coun. COFFEY offered the following:

Ordered, That the State Public Works Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to inform the Boston City Council when the bathing beach and playground which was taken in the extension of the East Boston Airport will be restored to the residents of East Boston.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. Chairman, I for one and I suppose every other person in East Boston would like to know whether we are going to get some action from the state in regard to the bathing beaches and playgrounds taken away from the people of East Boston by the expansion of the East Boston Airport. I do not intend to make this a political issue. I think both parties are responsible. I think the biggest responsibility lies on the shoulders of the then Governor of Massachusetts, Leverett Saltonstall, when Wood Island Park was taken. I suppose some of you members are sick and tired of hearing me explain what it means to the people of East Boston. It is an area for a playground that could not be surpassed by any other playground in the United States. Even Franklin Field cannot compare with Wood Island Park in East Boston. It is now known as World War Memorial Park. We have had eight natural playgrounds there where there could be eight ball games playing at the same time. We have four tennis courts. We have an indoor gymnasium. We have an outdoor gymnasium. We have a quarter-mile track. Besides that we have natural bathing beaches which we have lost and which the state has taken away to expand the airport. I have always been anti-airport. I always will be. The reason I am anti-airport is they have hurt us and hit us hard in our district. They even built hangars right out in the streets of East Boston, whereas they had made a promise to me personally that the only hangars they would build would be out toward the harbor. Lo and behold, we have a hangar built by the Eastern Air Lines at the expense of $230,000 right on Maverick street in East Boston. The American Air Lines contemplate building another hangar alongside of that one. The Northeastern made a hangar. Before we get through over there we will have hangars over all the streets of East Boston. We know what the trucks have done to the streets of East Boston when they come from Peabody, operating twenty-four hours a day. It is a disgrace and a shame. All we are asking now of the Public Works Commission of the state is when, if at any time, they are going to give us the bathing beaches they have promised us. It is not only the bathing beaches, but they have also promised us a play section, a ball park in the vicinity where they have taken Wood Island Park and other beaches away from us. It is high time some action was taken. It is over three years since the airport has taken Wood Island Park. They have not done anything with Wood Island Park yet. They have not torn down the old shacks which they intended to do. They have not taken the houses on Prescott street or the right of way of the old Narrow Gauge Railway. All I am asking is, when do we in East Boston get something which was promised to us by the Republican Legislature, something promised to us over two years ago? Only last year we had a bill passed in the Legislature. The legislators themselves went on record stating they favor an appropriation by the State Public Works Commissioner to give us a bathing beach and a ball park in that vicinity, where they have taken Wood Island Park. If we do not get some action on it some of the people there are going to get up in arms over it and rightfully so. We have the biggest population in the entire City of Boston, close to 70,000 people. We have not got a bathing beach in the town. Something should be done. I think it should be done by the state.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. Chairman, I think I remember some time ago reading in the newspaper that the present Governor of the Commonwealth, Maurice J. Tobin, did recommend to the Legislature an appropriation of a considerable amount of money to construct a playground and also give the beaches back to East Boston. I do not know if the gentleman from East Boston is aware of the fact but it is certainly a fact the money is already appropriated this year. I would like to know in going along with the gentleman from East Boston (Coun. Coffey) if that money will be spent this year or next year. I sincerely hope this order gets some action for the gentleman. I think it might come under M.D.C. I am not sure. Anyhow, I sincerely hope some action is secured from the department heads under the Governor, who as I said before has already requested and received the O.K. of the Legislature in regard to a huge appropriation.

Coun. COFFEY—May I add I am aware of the fact, Mr. Chairman, that the Governor did sign a bill introducing this matter to the Legislature. It was introduced by two local representatives and myself. All we are waiting for is some action. Another summer is almost gone and no action has been taken as yet. Every day at least a thousand trucks run over the streets of East Boston from Peabody with fill from the Peabody quarry for the East Boston Airport. They are making sure that the airport gets everything they want in the expansion. Nothing has been done up to now for any playground or ball park which they promised us and which the Governor has signed for.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SMOKE NUISANCE FROM DUMP FIRE.

Coun. LINEHAN and HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That the Health Commissioner be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take immediate steps to abate the smoke nuisance caused by the burning of rubbish on a dump off the Old Colony Boulevard, near Columbia Circle, which creates a health menace to persons using the South Boston beaches during hot days.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

CLEANING SOUTH BOSTON BEACHES.

Coun. LINEHAN and SCANNELL offered the following:

Ordered, That the Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to take immediate steps to clean the South Boston bathing beaches and to arrange to put on additional help in order to keep them clean for the remainder of the summer season; also to place more rubbish containers on the beaches and to install warning signs instructing the public to deposit waste paper, rubbish, etc., in said containers.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. Chairman, I think as time goes on we will finally run into a situation where the Boston City Councilors will be asking the M. D. C. to take over our beaches due to the poor condition in which they have been kept in recent months. Up to this year I have not favored the M. D. C. taking over our beaches. I am beginning to believe probably it would be a good thing. It will be a saving to the taxpayers of the City of Boston. At the same time we might get some good service from the M. D. C. In talking in regard to this particular order I would like to quote from the South Boston Gazette, our leading newspaper in South Boston. "Project Association demands conditions at bathing beaches be improved. Once again the annual squawk about the neglect at the L Street baths and the Strandway beaches is being heard. This year if possible the noise and demands that something be done to improve conditions are perhaps a little louder than usual. How effective it will be is something that time and the Park Commission and its many assistants and the Police Department will determine. Last week a delegation of patrons followed through on previous complaints and demanded that Mayor James M. Curley do something about increasing personnel at the L Street bath and also order that lockers unused for lack of repairs be put into serviceable shape. On the heels of these demands to City Hall, local residents feel that not only should L street get some attention but something should be done about remedying a bad situation that prevails all along the Strandway from Columbia Station over to Castle Island bridge. Armed with figures of objectionable features obtained through personal investigations, members of the Old Harbor Village Parents' Association, one of the better known organizations in the Housing Project, Monday night went and held a well-attended meeting. The members and some of the invited guests pulled no punches in telling what they thought was wrong with conditions along the Strandway. They ended up by demanding that those responsible for this serious situation do something about it before the ice skating season sets in and Columbus Park is flooded for winter sport use. They appealed to their duly elected officials for action. The members of the Association demanded among many things that the city officials help educate the public to dispose of the rubbish by putting it into suitable containers to be furnished by the Park Department. They also want a campaign to prevent breaking glass on the beaches and also the removal of this dangerous menace which causes hundreds of beach accidents each season. Going all the way down the line they want clam digging stopped at low tide. This they insist must stop as youngsters fall into the unfilled holes left by unlicensed clammers and drowning may result." I quote this particular item in the newspaper just to show that these complaints are not as a result of what the councilor from Ward 6, or rather Ward 7, (Coun. Linehan) says. They are the complaints of many residents of the district. I am also filing another order in regard to a smoke nuisance which exists at the present time out near Columbia Circle. I think the gentleman from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon) is going along with me on that. It is just one of those things where this particular group, the Old Harbor Village Club, have voiced their opinions to the city through his Honor the Mayor. I do not know whether it is a fact or not—I am assuming it is so—up to now no action has resulted. Of course that is nothing unusual for me to find, because I have filed quite a few orders since the first of year requesting this or that. I do not believe I have had an answer to one of my orders since the first of the year. I do not know what the other councilors are getting for answers in regard to their orders. That is the situation in which I find myself. That is to say, it seems to me the so-called head of the city government, his Honor the Mayor, elected by almost a majority of those voting in the last election, pays absolutely almost no attention to most of the councilors' orders and no attention to the orders of the gentleman from Ward 7 (Coun. Linehan). I do not know if it is due to the fact that the gentleman downstairs does not like the gentleman from Ward 7. But after all I only represent many voters and many citizens in Ward 7. I am not really speaking for myself. You get kind of sick and tired after a while of at least not getting an answer back so that you can tell the citizens of Boston, particularly in my ward and Ward 7, where many people did vote for Mayor Curley for mayor. But he still does not seem to give very much attention over to South Boston. That is nothing new.

We have asked the present Mayor some years back to construct a gymnasium. It was not done until we had a very conservative man, former Mayor Maurice J. Tobin, appropriate the money. Just now we finally get around to the construction of the gymnasium which is going on, thanks to the cooperation of the present Council and the now Governor, Maurice J. Tobin. I hope before the year is out we can finally have one monument in South Boston to Maurice J. Tobin, along with another monument, the overhead ramp at Old Harbor Village which Governor Tobin gave us. We have only about one month or little more to go for the summer season. I sincerely hope his Honor the Mayor wakes up for a while and gets something done on these particular beaches. We have the gentleman from Charlestown complaining about playgrounds. I think we are going to have complaints from the gentleman from Brighton and the gentleman from East Boston in regard to playgrounds. Last year, and I think I remember correctly even though I was not in the Council, a step was taken in the right direction. Money was appropriated I think to try to diminish the amount of juvenile delinquency that exists in Boston. I think all would agree and all did agree last year that the appropriation is for a good thing. Give the boys and girls the recreation they deserve. Since last year we all remember his Honor the Mayor, as one of his first moves when he became Mayor, abolished the Recreational Department. At least he got rid of all of the help that was trying to give a good recreational program for the children of Boston. It not only benefited the children but many of the grownups. It seems to me about the only thing we are getting in recreation now for the City of Boston is the use of the playgrounds. Some of them are in good condition and some of them are not in such good condition. As I said here only a few weeks ago, most of the recreation was due to fellows like myself who take funds out of their own kit and put a ball team on the field and give recreation to the citizens of Boston. Of course the Park Department which is under the control of his Honor the Mayor gets credit for putting on the show which we pay for. That is about all I can see right now that the children are getting out of the City of Boston for recreational purposes. As to the beaches, well, as I say, this article speaks for itself. I think it is quoting facts. These people are very zealous. They say the beaches are not being kept properly. I do not know if his Honor the Mayor is going to do anything in the next few months or if anything will be done this year. It should be done in the next week. As I said before, the beach season will end about the 15th of September. I hope that unlike all my other orders we might get an answer back from his Honor the Mayor telling us additional help will be put on the beaches and in addition more containers for rubbish plus signs warning the children and grownups using the beaches to put the rubbish in certain containers. I sincerely hope the Council will go down the line and vote for this worthy object.

Coun. SCANNELL—Mr. Chairman, speaking on the order of Councilor Linehan and myself, it seems to me that this administration here in Boston cares nothing for the children or the beaches in especially the South Boston area. They wonder why the beaches are littered with bottles and with ice cream boxes and spoons and everything else. First of all, the Park Department does not care about this. Secondly, there is someone somewhere who has put a number of ice cream boxes on the beaches at South Boston. You will find probably 100 or 125 boys selling ice cream on the beaches of South Boston. I do not know where the permit comes from. I am going to find out about it. The City Point section at one time was usually a nice place to go. Today it looks like a honky-tonk such as Revere Beach. You find fried clam spots in South Boston and concessions that have been extended, during this administration, under Mayor Curley, not letting the councilor from the district know something about it. Maybe some of the Mayor's lieutenants know something about it. I am going to find out by next week who got permission to put ice cream trucks all over the beaches of South Boston and extended all the concessions in the South Boston section. I say if these concessions are extended and are littering our beaches with debris, let them double the concession price on the South Boston concessions such as on this mysterious man who comes along with two or three loads of ice cream in the South Boston section, especially at City Point. There is something rotten in Denmark. There is something fishy in this administration. I have gone along with it far enough. When this administration represented by attorneys comes in and drops something in my district, not only ice cream to litter our beaches but ice cream boxes, tonic in large concessions and charge the same amount each year, I want to find out about it. I have just started today. I am going to find out who some of these lieutenants are, operating under this administration. When they come into my district they are not going to put anything in there unless the people of my district know about it. I am going to find out whether they want it or do not want it. I do not want to criticize the Mayor personally. I do not know if he knows what is going on. In the next week if I do not get satisfaction and see that our beaches are clean and our streets are clean, I will be on this floor from now until the time I leave here criticizing the administration department heads under the Mayor of the City of Boston who truthfully does not know what is going on in the city. You can find more mayors of the City of Boston on School street and City Hall avenue than I have ever seen in my last six years as a member of the City Council. I am giving them fair warning today. They had better get on to themselves or they will find me on the floor exposing some of the conditions in this city.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. Chairman, I am very glad to find that things are coming out as a result of this small, trifling order. I sincerely hope if there are any serious things in this administration that any of us know about, we will realize it is our duty as City Councilors to bring them out. If there are any matters I know about I think should not exist in the management of the city I know I would get up and speak about them. As a matter of fact, I think the City Council is sick and tired of listening to me here. I am just getting to be like the gentleman from East Boston used to be under Mayor Maurice J. Tobin. I am now the gentleman from East Boston (Coun. Coffey) from South Boston. But I sincerely hope as I said before, if there are any matters which should be brought forth for the benefit of the public, I hope in the next few weeks some of them will come forth. If they do I will gladly go down the line one hundred per cent on any one of them.

Coun. COFFEY—Mr. Chairman, I could not let this order go by without saying a word. It is a good order. Beaches should be clean. But you know, it is funny, you run into somebody on the streets of East Boston and they will say, How is it you cannot get this or that? I think it is a credit and not a reflection on the two councilors from South Boston (Coun. Linehan and Coun. Scannell) when I say they always end up with, why is it South Boston gets everything? That is right. Of course Dorchester is included, South Boston and Dorchester. But South Boston has done all right. I am not going to compare the other wards of Boston. We have not any municipal building in East Boston. We have no bathing beaches. The people from East Boston go to South Boston. They cannot get a locker. Why? There is a big list of people over there who have lockers and have keys. They take the keys home with them. If they do not use the locker it is too bad for anybody else, who might want to use it. While it is not in use, they cannot use it. I am asking the Old Harbor Village Association to look into that matter. There are quite a few in South Boston who hold keys for lockers. On a day like today when some poor workman from East Boston might not have work in the shipyard, he has no bathing beach to go to. He takes a trolley line to South Boston or he takes his automobile and goes to South Boston. They say to him, "We are sorry, there are no more lockers." The reason is that some of the South Boston people who are "in" have the keys for the lockers in their pockets. When they go there, that locker is waiting for them. If they do not, you or I, strangers, are out of luck. You cannot use them. They have L street, which is beautiful. They have a solarium. If we had a solarium in East Boston we would think it would be for animals. We would not know what to do with it. We have nothing in East Boston. I do not blame the administration. It goes back all the way as far as you want to go. We have not any beautiful bathing beach like South Boston. South Boston, if I am not mistaken, is a peninsula. We were an island up until we got the Sumner Tunnel. We have not a bathing beach in East Boston. It is entirely surrounded by natural beaches and still we have not one bathing beach. L street is beautiful. So is Dorchester. You have a bathing beach now in Dorchester. We have not any. If we had any we would clean our own glass up and be glad to do it. We would get a body of men each day and clean it up for the sake of having a beach. More than once we attempted to rake out a beach in East Boston. I do not want to blame this administration too strongly. When it comes time to hit this administration, I will. What is the use of kidding ourselves? I would not care who got a concession in East Boston if they gave us a bathing beach. Let them go to anybody. If there are any bag men in this administration, it is no different from any administration. Every administration has bag men. What is the use of kidding ourselves? We appropriated $144,000 for a board of recreation. For what? What could we in East Boston do with a board of recreation? We have not any place to put it. There is no work for them over there. The only thing operating over there is privately owned, a good will house which has come in and taken over a couple of buildings. They are operating in the heart of the section and the people in the section resent their coming in from New York. What are we going to do? Somebody has to take over and give our children some place to go. I do not want to knock South Boston. Good luck to them. Let them get their cake. When I want to ask for something in my district, I never voted against anything anybody ever wanted for his district. I never will. If they can get it, good luck to them. It is a tribute to South Boston and not a knock. There is so much in South Boston. There is the Strandway there. In East Boston we have oil tanks and an airport. They have a beautiful L street bathhouse with a solarium. We have nothing. If the kids go in swimming from the wharf they come out covered with oil and slime. The bathing beaches they anticipate building will be loaded with mud and debris from tearing down for the airport and the new construction that is going on there. I know that water will be polluted for the next ten years. All of Winthrop Bay is polluted. Still we in East Boston have to suffer that and take it on the chin. I am asking the state to do something. It is not up to the city. The state took Wood Island Park and the bathing beaches away from the people of East Boston. They are expanding the airport for the benefit of the officials of the airport. They promised us an appropriation to give us a bathing beach and a playground in return for what they have taken away from us. Up to now, and this is August, nothing has been done. Let the state do their share and then maybe the city will step in and do its share too.

Coun. SCANNELL—In answer to the councilor from Ward 1 (Coun. Coffey) I say we have bathing beaches in South Boston. Our main interest is to protect these people from anybody going in there and selling anything that is going to litter the beaches. The purpose of this order is to see if we can get the beaches cleaned up. How are you going to clean them if you have concessionaires selling everything they want and not paying for it. Those who are selling tonics and sandwiches and so forth in there are littering our beaches. They do not care anything about that. The only thing we are here to protect is the people. As Councilor Coffey said, the L Street bath is beautiful. A lot of people in South Boston do not use it. That is not a fair thing to say. Most of the people using L Street are strangers from outside South Boston. We do not lock the gates in South Boston. Anybody can come to L Street. Each member of this Body knows most of the people that use L Street do not come from South Boston. They have other beaches they can go to. I want to correct Councilor Coffey on that.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. Chairman, may I tell the gentleman from East Boston not only is L Street used by many people other than South Bostonians but as a matter of fact it is safe to say there are not more than one out of every five who go to L Street who come from South Boston. This means that other people come from the rest of the sections of Boston and probably often from outside Boston. Some of the members here in the Council who have used L Street can verify it. It does not apply only to L Street, in regard to the number of people using the beaches in South Boston, it goes for all of the beaches. If you want to find out who goes to Carson Beach, go to the Columbia Station and see the people getting off the trains on a hot day. Go up around L Street and see the people getting off the buses. They are not the people of South Boston. One out of every four using the beach at L Street comes from South Boston. This is a Boston project and not a South Boston project. For the benefit of the gentleman from East Boston or any other councilor I feel sure that the gentlemen from Wards 6 and 7 (Coun. Scannell and Coun. Linehan) will at any time vote for any appropriation which will provide recreation for any of the citizens of Boston. I think my record in the City Council will show that any project that came in here for the benefit of children has been voted for by both the gentlemen from Wards 6 and 7. If the gentleman from Ward 1 has anything in regard to playgrounds you can rest assured he can always count on the two votes from South Boston. That goes for any other councilor in this Body.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. Chairman, I believe now that the gentleman from South Boston has spoken and the gentleman from East Boston has spoken, perhaps I could help give some solution on the L Street situation. I would like to bring to the attention of his Honor the Mayor that there is money in the George Robert White Fund which is available. The Corporation Counsel some time ago brought in a decision that a solarium and bathhouse could be erected in the West End section of Boston. The people of the West End and the North End have been waiting patiently. It is due first of all to the fact that we have gone through a terrible war which we have seen brought to an end, thank God. I am wondering why the project has not started as yet. I would like to say to his Honor the Mayor that regardless of his feeling in so far as I am concerned I believe he has a moral obligation to the people of Boston and in particular the people of my district whom I represent. They are entitled to some recreation. That has been agreed. I believe at one time it was ready for contract. Why hasn't this contract been given out yet? I would like to ask his Honor the Mayor, is it because he is waiting for some of his pets? I do not believe that the people of the City of Boston should be made the goat. We must bear in mind that in these two sections ninety-five per cent of the people have no bathing facilities or shower baths in their homes. They must depend upon whatever little water we have here at the harbor or the North End Park or the Charles River at the Esplanade. I believe it is a very good thing which has been agreed upon. It is proposed to expend in the vicinity of $200,000. If that was undertaken it would help the situation that now exists in South Boston on account of the use of the solarium by so many people. We would be glad to have people come to us. I can assure you we will not close the doors to anyone, if that solarium was erected in the West End section of Boston. It is vitally needed at the present time. I believe his Honor the Mayor made that an issue at one time. He wanted to get another opinion of the Corporation Counsel. He told a certain committee that waited on him some time ago that he would immediately put that project up for bids. Up to this time I have not heard of any bids. I do hope his Honor the Mayor will immediately instruct the trustees of the George Robert White Fund to put that out for bids and to start work immediately so that at least by next summer we might be able to use those facilities.

Chairman BRYAN—I have just received word from the Mayor's Office, if any councilors wish to see him, he is ready now at the present time to see them.

SIDEWALKS ON TELEGRAPH STREET.

Coun. LINEHAN offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to install granolithic sidewalks on both sides of Telegraph street, in Ward 7.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PAVING ALBANO AND ROSECLIFF STREETS.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be directed, by his Honor the Mayor, to resurface with smooth paving the following streets in Ward 18: Albano street, from Washington street to Kittredge street; Rosecliff street.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

PAVING MILTON STREET.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:
Ordered, That the Commissioner of Public Works be directed, by his Honor the Mayor, to resurface with smooth paving Milton street, Hyde Park, from Summit street to Prospect street.

AMBULANCE SERVICE, CITY HOSPITAL.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to consider the advisability of providing additional ambulance service at the Boston City Hospital.

Coun. CANTWELL—Mr. President, I believe I put that order through last Saturday. I got a call from one of my constituents who had called the City Hospital for an ambulance. Her husband was in agony and very sick. She was told that only one ambulance was available and that particular ambulance was in Brighton so that there was no way of getting out there. I called the City Hospital and asked for the ambulance department. I was politely told the same story and that if they had more money they would have more men work there. I went to the police station. Imagine one ambulance in the City of Boston with a population of 800,000 people. I went from my home to Station 18 and I got very good cooperation there. They sent a patrol wagon and I went up myself. We took the man out and we went into the City Hospital. I rode in the ambulance with the patient. I would be better off if I put the man on the floor of a truck, he would not have got as much jarring or suffered so much agony on that trip. It was no fault of the police department because the patrol wagons are not used for sick people. I then went over to the ambulance department after I got the gentleman in the hospital. It was across the street. I talked to some man over there. I asked him if all they had was one ambulance running that night. He said they generally have three. They have only one orderly who goes out on the ambulance so they can run only one ambulance. Here we have an institution in Boston which is one of the finest. There is everything in it. There is a lack of help. They are undermanned on account of the money they receive. They have men working in there for $22 a week. The nurses there are doing a wonderful job. They have one or two nurses on a ward. I have been there. They are lacking nurses due to the lack of money they receive. I do think it is a shame the City of Boston would let an institution like that which has everything lack the one thing, money, to get help. That is one place where people should be given service. Our people go in there sick. They need comfort. They need medical care. They ought to get it regardless of cost. I hope his Honor the Mayor will take this in hand and see what can be done about this situation.

ESTABLISHMENT OF EMERGENCY HOSPITAL.

Coun. CANTWELL offered the following:
Ordered, That the Trustees of the George Robert White Fund be requested, by his Honor the Mayor, to investigate and report the possibility of establishing a clinic, or emergency hospital, on the site of the property known as the Current Events Club, now the property of the City of Boston by reason of tax title possession.

Coun. CANTWELL—Mr. Chairman, in some sections of my ward they are eight or ten miles from the Boston City Hospital. We have a clinic in the municipal building in a room used by the Legion and other things. Mothers come in there and undress their babies on their laps. They are exposed to everything. The city owns a building right across the street. It was known as the Current Events Club. The city owns it now for nonpayment of taxes and has owned it for the last eight or ten years. Here is a building which would not cost much to put in shape for a hospital or emergency hospital. They could set up a clinic for babies. They could also set up a clinic which would relieve the Out-Patient Department of the City of Boston on minor injuries. The patients go all the way to the City of Boston. This would help to care for patients discharged from the City of Boston who have to go back for dressing. This building could be well made into an emergency hospital. I think Ward 18 is entitled to it. There is an assessed valuation of $50,000,000 revenue coming into the city. A great distance is involved from that section to the City Hospital. By setting it up it would take off a burden on the Out-Patient Department. Also, we have a dental office on the fourth floor of the municipal building. That could be put in so we would have all of this in one building. It would be an advantage and a benefit to Ward 18.

CORPORAL JOSEPH A. DONOVAN TENNIS COURTS.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor direct the Park Commissioner to designate the tennis courts on Grampan way, Dorchester, as the Corporal Joseph A. MEDICAL AID UNDER OLD AGE ASSISTANCE.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:
Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor direct the Overseers of Public Welfare to obtain an interpretation from the Law Department of the recently enacted legislation providing medical aid to recipients of Old Age Assistance, so that uniform rules may be established pertaining to payment of the medical bills of these recipients.

Coun. HANNON—The Legislature in the last sitting passed legislation to provide that the recipients of old age assistance shall likewise receive their medical bills in addition to their monthly allotments. Evidently how this is to be interpreted has caused confusion because in my particular district I have run into the case of a man receiving old age assistance who suffers from diabetes. It is necessary for him to go to the hospital. In the course of his treatment one leg was removed. When he came out of the hospital because of the removal of his leg it was necessary that he receive further visits from a physician. These bills were presented to the Old Age Assistance Bureau and were readily paid. Shortly thereafter the man received another attack of his illness. The question now is the removal of the other leg. The doctor's bills amounting to $48 have already been run up. The Welfare Department when informed of this have ruled that these bills need not be paid. Where the line of distinction is drawn, I do not know. I do not think anybody in the Board of Welfare knows. I have looked at the statutes. As I take it, the statute specifically says all medical bills of the recipients of old age assistance shall be paid by the Bureau of Old Age Assistance in the respective cities and towns. I went down to the visitor on this particular case. The visitor was frank enough to state that he did not know what the rule was. In certain cases these bills were paid and in other cases they were not paid. This is something that should not be left to the whim or fancy of the visitor. Likewise it is something that should be guarded against because undoubtedly unscrupulous doctors, if they find out the City is liable for these bills will run up all sorts of needless bills in treating the recipients of old age assistance. This is a big problem. I think perhaps the Overseers of Public Welfare might well designate one doctor in each district or two or three doctors in a district. But the problem before me is the recipient in my district who has honestly contracted these bills and has some of them paid for him and the others refused. I would like the Law Department to notify the Board of Public Welfare where the line of demarcation comes in, what bills are to be paid and what bills are not to be paid. Let us be honest in the interpretation of this law but at the same time let us guard against any unscrupulous physician making capital out of the wording of this statute.

REINSTATEMENT OF PAINTERS.

Coun. HANNON submitted the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to direct the members of the Boston Housing Authority to reinstate painters recently discharged, in order that these properties, in which the City of Boston has a great financial interest, might be maintained in proper condition.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. Chairman, one of the perplexing problems nowadays is unemployment. There is no doubt about it, the various agencies of government have to take on their share of the relief on this problem. For the life of me I cannot understand why the Navy Yard is dropping everyone all of a sudden. I cannot understand why certain public service corporations are not offering salaries which are commensurate with the ability they demand in the employees. The result is that we are getting unemployment because of people being relieved of their positions by the government and likewise more unemployment because public service corporations are laying off people or offering such menial salaries that returned veterans would sooner get $20 a week on the 9-20 Club than go to work for $24 and $25 a week for some big corporation. Down here in the Housing Authority recently as many as thirty-seven painters, I think, were dropped because by some whim or fancy of some of the directors of the Housing Authority they believe that the tenants, the householders, can do their own painting inside the properties. Anybody who owns property knows full well they cannot do it properly or that you cannot depend upon tenants to do the painting. We have an investment in these housing projects. It is our money really that is in there. These projects should not be permitted to run down. Any painter who went to work there had to be well qualified. He had to be in the union. His record and ability were looked into. Now all of a sudden when we should be maintaining employment at a steady or level basis we find out the Housing Authority have decided they do not need so many painters because the people can do their own inside painting. That is our property down there. We are giving the Housing Authority a pretty good break. We are not getting much return from them. Yet when they have men working there in the midst of this unemployment caused by the discharge from the Navy Yard and other public agencies they are going to add to it by dropping off men who have been there, some of them, for years. If these men were needed during the war, during the time when there was plenty of work outside, there certainly is at least a moral obligation that they should be kept there now when there is no employment on the outside. These properties should be kept up. They will not be kept up if we are going to depend upon those who live there to maintain them. Now if they drop the painters the next thing they will be doing will be dropping the maintenance men because certainly if the tenants can paint the inside of their homes and maintain that much, they can take care of the grass and the lawns outside the property too. Instead of discharging men, we had ought to be putting men to work. These men worked through the war. They worked through the years when they could have made much more money outside. They find as their reward they are being discharged. I think we should raise our voices in protest. We should let the Housing Authority know that competent men were needed last year and the year before and we still believe that competent men are needed there now. Our money is invested in those projects. We want those properties to be maintained at their best.

Coun. KINSELLA—I think there is a good deal to be said for the order Councilor Hannon just introduced. I was made aware of their difficulty six or seven years ago when I tried to get someone a painting job. I was told the budget had been cut $150,000. The State Board of Housing felt they were spending too much money for maintenance cost. On the theory that Councilor Hannon's order would result in the restoration of jobs, I suppose it is safe to say it would mean an increase in rents. However, the Boston Housing Authority has done a lot of things in a slipshod way. Now they are adding unemployment to their list of doubtful achievements. There are 39 men, all painters, getting around $2,000 a year, who I believe are affected by the recent discharge order. That is roughly $80,000 a year of the $150,000 that the State Board says they have for expenses. There are 5,900 individual apartments in the Housing Authority control. Everybody in this Chamber knows how difficult it is to get an apartment for even a worthy case. On the matter of occupancy, they are receiving back dollar for dollar for shelter and the utilities they provide. It seems to me this is an artificially created condition that will result in an increase in rents if these men are restored but whether it does or not, these men in turn have families to support. I think if the Housing Authority wants to be guided by such a preliminary suggestion they will forthwith cancel that order of discharge and re-employ those men. We know it is a practice to take in tenants to a flat they are going to occupy before they make their deposit. If a tenant has just painted his flat and gets out and has done a botch job of painting, who is going to correct it before the new tenant moves in? The walls are just plain bare walls painted over. You can do a terrific job on them if you do not know how to paint. The painters in addition to painting used to set glass and fix small objects of great daily use around the habitation that get out of order by the abuse of children and so forth. Who is going to do that work? As a matter of fact, every tenant pays for the first ten months of occupancy one dollar per month over the cost of the rent, which ten dollars is returned to them when they leave the apartment provided no damage has been done. They are paying extra for the work and asked to do it themselves. Ordinarily in the private household if the landlord says, "I will provide the paint and you paint it," there might be something to that. This is in effect a public service corporation. This is not private housing. In view of the fact I think they ought to increase rather than deplete their force of maintenance, I am heartily in accord with the order. I hope for this one order at least the Housing Authority will become cognizant of its merit. I hope the order passes.

ELECTRIC FANS IN SUBWAY TRAINS.

Coun. HANNON offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor direct the Trustees of the Boston Elevated Railway to install electric fans in their subway trains to provide much needed ventilation on hot and rainy days.

Coun. HANNON—The only purpose of this order, of course, is to see if we cannot do something to provide some circulation of air, some sort of fresh air treatment of the subway trains and elevated trains on hot and sultry days. In other cities, for instance, New York, they have electric fans circulating the air and at least providing some sort of ventilation. I was in a train the other day when it was hot and a rainstorm came up. The one or two windows that were opened were immediately closed. Everybody got out of there more wet with perspiration than they would be if they had been in the rain. I think for a few dollars investment you could really provide a bit of fresh air and comfort for the many people who use the Boston Elevated.

Office of the Mayor, August 5, 1946.

To the City Council.

Gentlemen,—I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Penal Institutions Commissioner in which he sets forth a serious problem with relation to the cables and distribution lines making up the electrical system at Deer Island. It is clear from the Commissioner's letter that an emergency condition exists affecting the security of inmates at the Institution as well as the refrigeration and preservation of foodstuffs. In my opinion, the condition is such that immediate steps should be taken to provide for the necessary repairs and improvements to the electrical system. I, consequently, submit herewith an order providing for the transfer of seventy-five thousand dollars from the appropriation for Snow Removal to the special appropriation, House of Correction, Special Improvements and Repairs. I respectfully request approval of this transfer order by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

Ordered, That in accordance with the provisions of section 3B of chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909, as amended by chapter 604 of the Acts of 1941, the City Auditor be, and hereby is, authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Snow Removal, $75,000, to the appropriation for House of Correction, Special Improvements and Repairs, $75,000.

City of Boston,

Penal Institutions Department,

August 1, 1946.

Hon. James M. Curley,

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,—Enclosed please find bids dated July 30, 1946, covering proposed electrical work at the House of Correction, Deer Island.

A problem has arisen in connection with the main existing underground duct lines, with manholes, now running between the Hill Prison Building and the New Prison Building. This duct line has running through it 9-400,000 CM lead-covered cables which constitute the main feeder lines carrying power and light to the following group of buildings, namely: New Prison, Bakery, Poultry Houses, Garages, Fire House, Commissary, Administration Building, Commissioner's House, Residences, Old Power House, Pump House, Master's House, Cow Barn, Receiving Office, Guard House.

Some time ago, in the performance of certain excavation work to obtain fill, a large portion of the hill section of the Colony, adjacent to the main duct line, was cut away by the United States Army and consequently the section of earth which the main duct line passes through was left standing so as to support both the manholes and the duct line, with their respective cables. This small section of earth is giving away with the constant deterioration and damage to electric manholes and duct lines and now constitutes an emergency.

Since January 7, 1946, on ten occasions, the entire electrical system has failed to function properly, which left the institution and Deer Island completely without light and without refrigeration. Within the last two weeks alone, on three different occasions, the island has been without electricity, and on last Thursday from midnight until ten o'clock Friday morning the institution and the island were absolutely without lights. This, Mr. Mayor, constitutes a grave emergency, both from the viewpoint of security for the inmates and the proper refrigeration and preservation of foodstuff.

On the basis of awarding these bids to the lowest bidder, the amount would be $79,477. I respectfully request that payment for this work be provided by a recommendation to the Council, by your Honor, for a special appropriation in the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000); to provide for the electrical wiring and engineer's fees. The balance of $4,477 will be drawn against the Special Loan Appropriation, House of Correction.

Very truly yours,

MAXWELL P. GROSSMAN,

Penal Institutions Commissioner.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

INVESTIGATION OF PERMITS.

Coun. FISH offered the following:

Ordered, That the Executive Committee of the Boston City Council make a city-wide investigation of all permits issued and privileges granted by the city to individuals, partnerships and corporations for the purpose of taking necessary action against those who are found to be violating the terms of such permits and privileges.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

RESURFACING MARCELLA STREET PLAYGROUND.

Coun. MORIARTY offered the following:

Ordered, That the Boston Park Commission be requested, through his Honor the Mayor, to comb and level off approximately six inches of the surface at the Marcella Street Playground, and replace same with six inches of loam. Said work to start at the termination of the baseball season.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

BRIGHTON-ALLSTON SEWER DIVISION.

Coun. LANE and MADDEN offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to confer with the Commissioner of Public Works with a view to establishing a separate Sewer Division in the Brighton-Allston district of Boston.

Coun. MADDEN—Mr. Chairman, as you know, this past week we have had two rainstorms. I had sixteen complaints from people living in sections where the sewers were flooded. I went down to the local city yards and I find out in the City of Boston we have one sewer-cleaning machine. We have two or three others and they are all in need of repairs. We have a lot of other equipment, so called, of the Public Works Department but it is all apparently in need of repair, quite badly. They take parts from this one and put them on that. As a consequence they let out the work to private contractors, who get enough money each month to buy a machine. Maybe that is a good way to do it. I would hate to have to run my golf range that way.

BIDS ON COLLECTION OF GARBAGE IN BRIGHTON.

Coun. MADDEN and LANE offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to notify the Commissioner of Public Works not to award any contract for the collection of garbage in District 4, Brighton, until such time as bids are advertised in the City Record and the award is made to the lowest bidder.

Coun. MADDEN—Mr. Chairman, the section of Boston known as Brighton-Allston has long been a forgotten part of the city. I have listened with great interest to the sad story told by Councilor Coffey. I can add to that and say we, in Brighton, have also been forgotten. We are forgotten by all except one of the city departments. Here this past month the residents of Brighton were informed their taxes will be increased, their property assessments have been jacked up some two million dollars.

All right, I suppose the Mayor has to get the money some place. However, we can probably save some money. I would hate to run my golf business as slipshod as some of the city departments run the various branches of the city government. It has come to my attention that one of the official licensed robbers in the City of Boston, I guess you would call them that, have persuaded the Commissioner of Public Works to give him a recent gravel contract. Up to a few years ago they used to take the ashes and garbage in District 4 which comprises Brighton and Allston for the sum of $10,000. Now we find certain city officials, probably the same bagnmen Councilor Coffey previously referred to, have suggested that ten grand is not enough, you cannot get rich fast enough, make it seventeen and we will give you a private contract. If seventeen was an honest contract, why slip it under the table? If it cost $17,000 to remove the ashes from Brighton-Allston, it should be handled the way they all are handled, it should be advertised. I went to the trouble of doing a little checking. I find that the man who has the contract there on which he bases his $17,000 figure says he had forty men working. Those who are doing the checking cannot find but thirty. He says forty. Those men are supposed to work on an average of about forty hours a week. The rate in the contract is $10 an hour. For a month that would come to about $7,000. Supposing all the men worked forty hours or more, it would come to $7,000. Now he also says he has eight trucks on the job. He is the only one who can find the eight trucks. He said there are eight trucks. Let it go. We note by the contract that the average rate of payment for trucks is $3 an hour. Taking him at his own figures of eight trucks and giving him the top average of $3 an hour, over the months, that would come to $4,800 for truck hire plus $7,000 for man hire, which comes to about $11,800, between $11,000 and $12,000. That leaves a leeway of $5,000 which nobody can explain except the contractor, a mysterious bagnman for somebody. I took an oath, Mr. President, the first of the year that I would represent my district to the best of my ability. I strenuously protest the granting of this and any other gravel contract. Under the law we must remove the ashes. We must remove the garbage. But when it reaches the stage that certain particular contractors are getting this work for $5,000 to $10,000 over the actual normal cost, then I say it stinks. It is a singular thing that this particular contractor who I am informed was one of the bagnmen for one of the present Mayor's opponents last fall is one of the hangers-on of bureaucracy, whom we have here running the various departments. I do not know how they got in. They must have the Mayor's approval. Some of them apparently were not with him last fall. They are doing a grand job in running these various contracts, as far as this contract goes that certainly should be looked into.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

SOUNDINGS OF CHANDLER'S POND.

Coun. MADDEN and LANE offered the following:

Ordered, That the sum of $5,000 be, and hereby is, appropriated to be expended under the direction of the Park Commission, for the purpose of making soundings and a survey of Chandler's Pond in Gallagher Park, Ward 22, Brighton, and that the City Treasurer be authorized to issue, from time to time, upon the request of the Mayor, bonds or certificates of indebtedness to said amount.

Coun. MADDEN—Mr. Chairman, apparently East Boston, South Boston and Charlestown and other sections are not the only sections that have not any bathing beaches for the children. I think it is a crying shame that the City of Boston can find nine million dollars for a new tunnel for the horse track people and can get millions for off street parking but they cannot dig up a few thousand dollars for bathing beaches in East Boston or a couple of thousand dollars to fix up the beaches in South Boston. They cannot give them anything in Charlestown. We have nothing in Brighton. Gentlemen, it is about time that some of these city heads get on the ball and make recommendations to the Mayor on things that should be done. We would probably have a great deal less juvenile delinquency if the children in the various sections of the city had a place to go swimming, a place to burn up their energy. No wonder we have so much juvenile delinquency. I think that the gentleman is right in the description of those of us ostensibly running the City of Boston. I know in that respect maybe some of the older councilors get along much easier than I do. I have a lot of trouble going to some of these departments. I am responsible to the people in Brighton. We have not got a single thing out there except an old fire barn that they painted over and called the municipal building. We have not a thing in the municipal building except half a dozen shower baths. Fortunately, most of the people out there do not need shower baths. They have bathing facilities in their homes where they can take a bath. That is all we have in the municipal building in Brighton, a couple of showers. I think, gentlemen, it is about time some of us get up on our heels and say, "Mr. Mayor, let us call in a few department heads and let us get acquainted; let them meet some of the City Councilors who have constituents on their necks all the time, constituents who think we are big shots, when, as a matter of fact, we are just errand boys." Do not kid yourself, we are nothing but errand boys. When you go to department heads, they say, "Hello, Sonny, what are you looking for?"

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I have to admire the councilor from Ward 22 (Coun. Madden). I sat back here this afternoon and listened to the councilors from Wards 1, 6, 7, 2, and then the councilor from Ward 22 was speaking. It is practically seven months since the first of the year which have gone by. I have been practically three years in the City Council. I had the honor of serving under practically three mayors, Mayor Tobin, Mayor Kerrigan, and now Mayor Curley. I did not always agree with Mayor Tobin, who is now the Governor of the Commonwealth. Neither did I always agree with Mayor Kerrigan. The same holds true. I will not always agree with his Honor the Mayor downstairs. It is a shame when a member of the City Council refers to us, and it was truthfully said by the councilor from Ward 22, that we were nothing but errand boys. When you go to the heads of the departments and intercede for a friend or constituent in your ward and ask for a favor or something which is needed to be done in the line of improvement, you have to wait week after week trying to get an answer one way or the other. You do not get it. You get telephone calls. A person looking for something will tell you there is a certain man in the city now running for state office who is close to the administration, the bagnman. You have to take care of the department heads in order to get something done. I am sick and tired, Mr. Chairman, of trying to get something done in my ward. I am going to say something for Ward 17 for a change. I introduced an order under Maurice J. Tobin asking for the improvement of Roberts Playground in Ward 17. It was the only playground there. Maurice J. Tobin was kind enough to come out one afternoon with Commissioner Long and his engineer, Mr. Murphy. We made a survey of the ward. He truthfully said Ward 17 should be entitled to at least one good playground. We got $23,000 for fixing up Roberts Playground. We gave it to a contractor on Court street. He is one of the same boys we think of as being in with this administration. He was supposed to fix the playground. We started off and got three or four contracts under that administration. As I understand it, we had to go back and do it over, the Roberts Playground—had to do a part of it over. There is a certain amount of money left from that contract of $23,000 in the Park Commissioners' office, no doubt for the contractor to fix the botch he started at the Roberts Playground. He has not done it. We have spoken to the Commissioner and he has been promising us he will do something. We have spoken to him about another playground. He has not done anything in regard to that. I spoke with the Street Commissioner's office about a favor and asked them for at least an answer. They should turn the constituent down or grant the favor. I would like to know what they are holding up that request for. There is talk around the city that you have to see certain men. If we have to see them, let us know who they are. I know a couple. If there are more than two, let us know. If we do not have to see these boys around the City Hall, on the second floor, on School street, on the side alleys, if we do not have to see them let the heads of the departments tell us that the request will be taken care of or that they are going to turn it down. That is all I want to know.

INCREASE, SEWER YARD FORCE.

Coun. COFFEY and KINSELLA offered the following:

Ordered, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to authorize the addition of at least two laborers and one sewer cleaner to the force of the Sewer Yard of the Public Works Department in the East Boston district of Boston and to assign one more truck to the equipment of this yard, for the purpose of offering better service by this yard to the people of East Boston and Charlestown, which comprise this sewer district.

Passed under suspension of the rule.

RECESS.

On motion of Coun. COFFEY the Council voted at 4.15 p. m. to take a recess, subject to the call of the Chair. The members reassembled and were called to order by President KELLY at 8 p. m.

President KELLY in the chair.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

1. On the message of the Mayor, order referred July 22, 1946, leasing a portion of the Municipal Building, Columbia road at Bird street to Selective Service, the Executive Committee submitted a report recommending the order ought to pass.

The report was accepted and the order passed.

2. On the message of the Mayor, ordered referred this date, authorizing the City Clerk to revise and have printed the Boston Directory, expense to be paid from the Contingent Fund, the Executive Committee submitted a report recommending the order ought to pass.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the order. The roll was called and the order passed. Whole number of ballots 16, yeas 16.

3. On the message of the Mayor, order referred this date, on the appropriation from the income of the Summer Traffic Tunnel of $30,000 to be expended by the Commissioner of Public Works, the Executive Committee submitted a report recommending the order ought to pass.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the order. The roll was called and the order passed. Whole number of ballots 16, yeas 16.

Coun. FISH, for the Executive Committee, submitted the following:

4. On the message of the Mayor, order referred this date, for the transfer of $75,000 from Snow Removal Appropriations to the Appropriation for the House of Correction, Public Improvements and Repairs, the Executive Committee submitted a report recommending the order ought to pass.

The report was accepted and the question came on the passage of the order.

Coun. KEENAN—Mr. President, a point of information. Am I correct that this money is the money for Deer Island?

President KELLY—That is correct, councilor.

Coun. KEENAN—Didn't we make a motion in the Executive Session to lay it on the table?

President KELLY—No. It was reported back it ought to pass. The clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called and the order passed, yeas, 13, nays, 1.

Yeas—Coun. Bayley, Bryan, Chase, Coffey, Cook, Fish, Hannon, Kelly, Kinsella, Linehan, McCormack, Moriarty, Russo.

Nay—Coun. Scannell.

5. On the message of the Mayor, order referred July 1, 1946, for loan of five million dollars for off-street parking facilities, the Executive Committee submitted a report the order ought not to pass.

The question came on the acceptance of the report of the committee. The report was accepted and the question came on the rejection of the order.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I move that this loan order be reduced by four million dollars, in other words, that we grant to his Honor the Mayor one million dollars. I make this motion, Mr. President, having in mind, sir, that his Honor the Mayor is practically desiring the expenditure of these five million dollars. The Boston Street Commission and the Boston Real Estate Commission is composed of men appointed by the Mayor. They will abide by his dictates. I see no way that the Mayor can be checked in any possible wrongful move on his part. When I say wrongful move, I have in mind that when the Sumner Tunnel was built there was a large site of land down there where a land speculator made about $100,000 on an option that he had to pay $50,000 for, an option for as I remember it, ninety days, to buy at about $180,000. Lo and behold, within ninety days the city came in and took that very site of land for around $280,000. The land speculator who put in $50,000 cleaned up $100,000. Now, Mr. President, we will assume that land speculators throughout the city average the same percentage of profits on this five million dollars. You can readily see what a hosing the taxpayers will take. So, Mr. President, I have this in mind, that if we give his Honor the Mayor one million dollars to take up by eminent domain certain sites in Boston for parking with the promise that if he sells the proper sites that will actually relieve traffic conditions, he can come back to the Council and get the other four million dollars piecemeal, that we will be acting in a manner in which we are expected to act, namely, to be on the alert to protect the city treasury. If his Honor the Mayor for some reason does not spend the one million dollars the way it should be expended then the City Council is in a position to refuse the balance of the four million dollars or any part of the four million dollars. I realize, sir, that many organizations throughout the city are sponsoring and backing this plan but I have a mind of my own. The good people of my district elected me to this office. Five million dollars is an awful chunk of the taxpayers' money, especially when we have had in this administration and other administrations criticisms afterwards because of the large expenditure by the moving powers. In other words, there has been a waste of the taxpayers' money. I do not see why we should give his Honor the Mayor five million dollars outright so that he can turn around and sell any site in Boston irrespective of what the Planning Board or any other commission suggests. For one million dollars he can select certain spots. If he acts properly in the selection of those spots later we can grant him another one million dollars and so on until the five million dollars has been granted. Now many people think that probably I take this attitude because they brand me as an anti-administration man. I am not against the administration in any matter which will be carried out properly and which will be for the benefit of the city. I fully realize we have had traffic conditions in Boston and that we have to do something to relieve those conditions but I do not believe in having anything rammed down my throat nor do I believe in following the suggestions of organizations throughout the city when my better judgment tells me that the past performances by his Honor the Mayor says that it would be wise on my part and on our part if we granted him the five million dollars piecemeal, namely, one million dollars now; if he acts rightly and selects the right spots and there is no scandal involved, then we can give him another one million dollars and so forth until five million dollars worth of land sites are taken to relieve traffic conditions. I hope, sir, that the Council will adopt my motion.

President KELLY—The question is on the amendment cutting the original order from five million dollars to one million dollars.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, I think today we have seen the heights of hypocrisy. Some of us have sat in here all afternoon from two o'clock on. We have suffered the heat of the day. We have suffered the heat of expressions of each other's ideas. Now we find a gentleman who was not here during the afternoon, a gentleman who has availed himself of the opportunity of eating well, come in here and try to prolong this debate when we have already discussed the subject for more than an hour. Not only that, but we find the gentleman who espouses the cause of cheapness, the cause of being penny wise, the cause apparently of protecting the dollar, we find him now in a position where we recommend not spending a penny and he who calls himself the watchdog of the treasury gets up here and recommends that we burden the poor taxpayer with a million dollars. I wonder what he had for supper. Certainly it was not usual diet, for generally he is the one who recommends not spending a cent. But now he wants to give somebody one million dollars. I do not believe in that. I am the watchdog of the treasury. I do not believe in spending a penny until we know how the money is going to be spent and where it is going to be spent. My idea is that the Legislature had more faith in the Chief Executive of this city than one of the councilors has in him. Sometimes I wonder how much pressure is exerted on the councilor up at the State House. Here is an order that goes through there permitting the Mayor to spend five million dollars. Most of us here who are interested in protecting the people who sent us here do not want to spend a penny until we know how this money is going to be spent and where it is going to be spent. Yet the gentleman from the Back Bay who does not believe in spending money freely wants to spend one million dollars. He does not know where it is going to be spent unless he has some inside dope that it is going to be spent in his backyard. Well, I want to know what is going to be spent in mine. That is why I am against it, whether you are making it one million dollars or ten million dollars. I will still be against it. I think that the gentleman who comes in here now with his stomach well nourished while the rest of us are suffering from hunger should express his opinions in the State House and not down here. He has a tremendous advantage over the rest of us. He gets two shots at it, he takes the reaction up there and comes down here and jumps on the popular side of the question. Today he is trying to straddle. He does not dare be against it because his campaign over there is for it and most of the people in the Back Bay are for it. So he cannot be against it. Yet he tries to cover himself by heaping abuse on the Mayor, saying let us cut it down. Why not be on the up and up? We are either for it or we are against it. If it is worth one million dollars it is worth five million dollars. If it is worth anything, let us give it a chance, but before we give it a chance let us find out where and when it is going to work.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, the councilor from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon) has expressed my ideas. While I do not feel like going into personalities, it seems to me that a Legislature which we all know is not friendly to the present administration saw fit to pass an act giving the Mayor this power to spend five million dollars for off-street parking. He has practically all of the power. Now I think most of the city realizes that the parking problem in the City of Boston is a very difficult one. Evidently the Legislature which has over 200 members in the House and 40 in the Senate in a measure signed by the Governor, all agree to that and they all thought that the minimum to relieve the parking problem in a satisfactory manner was five million dollars. Now if the Council sees fit to look into it further to find out in advance what plans the Planning Board, the Mayor and the Street Commissioner have, I can go along with that. To put it on the basis they are going to give one million dollars to the man who has the most power and watch what he does with it because in the past there have been scandals and stealing and then give him another one million dollars if he behaves himself until we get down to the last one million dollars. I wonder whether we are going to cut it down to one thousand dollars apiece as we go along the line. That is the most ridiculous way of putting a proposition that I have ever heard. We had either ought to say the Legislature was right and the City of Boston needs five million dollars for off-street parking and we had ought to go ahead with it right away or we had ought to say No, we want to look into it further. I think the motion to cut this down to one million dollars for the first time and not to know what the next motion is going to be is ridiculous. It is an insult to the intelligence of the Legislature and an insult to the intelligence of the Council and an insult to the intelligence of the Chief Executive of this city. I do not think we had ought to pass that order. I think we had ought to take the committee's report as sent in.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, I would like to raise a point of order and ask the clerk to clarify the point of order which is this, while we have under the charter the right to reduce a loan order, can we then keep adding to that amount to reach subsequently the original amount contained in the original legislative act?

President KELLY—I am informed by the City Clerk if this is reduced to one million dollars the Mayor can keep sending in loan orders to the Council up to the amount of another four million dollars.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, a point of information. Do we understand that is within the terms of the five million dollars and that each one would then take a separate reading within fourteen days, two separate readings for fourteen days?

President KELLY—Each one would have to have a separate reading.

Coun. KINSELLA—On the motion, Mr. President, I do not like to be too critical of the opinion expressed by Councilor Chase because it might be construed to border on the personal and it is not intended ever to be personal. I cannot understand how we expect the good behavior of the Mayor or anybody else while we are reducing the bond issues. I know while some things go by in the Legislature because they, like the sponsors of this matter, when it comes to the City of Boston spending money, it is examined carefully, much more carefully than we examine our conscience. To say he had to give us one million dollars' worth of proof of efficiency each time before we give him another million dollars is just ridiculous, as for the people of our wards to say we can draw so much of our salaries while we do certain things which they say is correct. We have to allow for a margin of error in things of that nature. We cannot predicate it on the idea that those things are going to be perfect. Mr. Chase in winding up his remarks made a statement which I will try to quote verbatim, that until the Mayor shows that the proper sites are selected and so forth. I would like to ask the councilor now if he will attempt to answer this question, who is going to be the final authority on the Mayor's judgment if we give him one million dollars and he uses it for the construction of a number of off-street garages. Who is the final authority who is going to pass judgment on the wisdom of his selection?

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, I will have to qualify my answer, if you will accept the qualification.

Coun. KINSELLA—Yes, by all means.

Coun. CHASE—I do not think you understand exactly what I am driving at. I have in mind giving his Honor the Mayor one million dollars to select sites in Boston to the extent of one million dollars' worth. If the Council and the public at large with the various organizations which seem to be sponsoring this idea is satisfied with the manner in which his Honor the Mayor acted, then we can give him or grant him another one million dollars and so on until he has been given five million dollars. I see no necessity of giving him five million dollars and telling him to go ahead.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, then Councilor Chase would suggest to the twenty-one members of the Body besides himself that we honor the Mayor's wisdom in this matter and accept the judgment of those we do not even know. We do not know. We have never seen anybody in here representing himself as an expert on the problem, giving us an idea of the proper location. We do not know how much available city-owned land can be used in strategic parts of the city. We know nothing about it. We do not know anything about the people who are going to build them, whether they are going to be farmed out to people to do this as private investments or at least to hire them afterwards and rent them. There is nothing we know about it. I think we either give Mayor Curley five million dollars today or give him nothing.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, it is with regret that I find myself in a position of getting up to answer the remarks made by one of my colleagues. I again reiterate I have been branded as an anti-administration man. I supposedly am against his Honor the Mayor in all of his undertakings, right or wrong. I will have to state that is not so. Frankly, sir, I shall never enter into any deal with his Honor the Mayor, nor shall he solicit my support for any proposition nor will I wrongfully enter into a bargain with him whereby he can get my vote on any matter in return for some favor. I take great pride in saying to you that I have not visited the office of his Honor the Mayor once since he was elected Mayor nor shall I. I do not care to have any dealings with the gentleman whatever.

Coun. FISH—Mr. President.

President KELLY—For what purpose does the gentleman rise?

Coun. FISH—He is straying from the point and getting into personalities that have no bearing on the subject.

President KELLY—The point is well taken. Kindly confine your remarks to the motion.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, a point of personal privilege. I sat here patiently, sir, and listened to the gentleman from Dorchester engage in personalities. No one rose to my defense. I gave him open wing. Now, sir, I shall enjoy freedom of speech and I shall call the cards as I see them. I repeat, sir, I shall not in any way at any time enter into any bargain with his Honor the Mayor.

President KELLY—Councilor, I am sorry. You will have to confine your remarks to the order before us, reducing the amount of money from five million dollars.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, if I think his Honor the Mayor is right and if I think he should enjoy our confidence I shall vote that way. But when I think that his Honor the Mayor is wrong I shall vote No. In this case I am guided in voting the way I shall simply because of the past performance of his Honor the Mayor. Surely I am justified in being suspicious that his Honor the Mayor will not expend the five million dollars the way some other honest chief executive of the city will. I stand here and I challenge any member of the Council to say that I am voting or that I am talking the way I am because I want to bargain with his Honor the Mayor. I challenge any member here, sir, to say that Councilor Chase is willing to vote for the five million dollars provided his Honor the Mayor will deal with him.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President. I will say that I accept the challenge.

President KELLY—Does Councilor Chase yield?

Coun. CHASE—I do not yield.

President KELLY—Councilor Chase, continue.

Coun. CHASE—I have been a member of the Council for eight years. During those eight years I have never wrongfully held up any chief executive for anything nor have I endeavored to bargain with any chief executive of this city.

Coun. HANNON—Mr. President, a point of order.

Coun. CHASE—On any proposition.

Coun. HANNON—Is the gentleman implying other members of the Council have done things wrongfully?

President KELLY—The point is well taken. Councilor Chase, you will kindly confine your remarks to the motion before us. You cannot impugn the motives of any other member of the Council. You have to talk on this motion to amend this order from five million dollars to one million dollars.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, a point of order. The Chair has twice ruled that the points of order raised against Councilor Chase were well taken. Is it the custom now to rule the gentleman out of order and let him appeal?

President KELLY—I am going to recognize Councilor Chase. If he strays off the path again, I am going to rule him out of order.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, a point of information. While we stay here on city business we submit ourselves to implications that our conduct has been dishonest because of the support we have given the Mayor's propositions in the past?

President KELLY—The Chair believes the councilor will confine his remarks to the order. If he strays again he is going to rule him out of order.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, a point of information. Will the Chair state for the benefit of the councilors present, including Councilor Chase, as to the number of times the gentleman is going to be allowed to stray?

President KELLY—He is not going to be allowed to stray at all. I have warned him. He is going to talk on the motion he made to amend the order from five to one million dollars. If he strays again I will rule him out of order.

Coun. KINSELLA—Mr. President, a point of information. Will that statement have to come from a member on the floor?

President KELLY—I will rule him out of order. I have warned him finally.

Coun. CHASE—May I ask, sir, to have the City Clerk inform the Council when his Honor the Mayor first sent this order to us.

President KELLY—July 1, 1946.

Coun. CHASE—Mr. President, from the very beginning I was not in favor of this loan order, even in the House of Representatives. I warned my colleagues despite the fact that I had considerable Republican proponents for the measure that this matter involved five million dollars in a blank check for his Honor the Mayor, to spend in any way he sees fit in the selection of land sites for the supposed purpose of relieving traffic.

I repeat, sir, five million dollars is a lot of money. We have known under more than one administration misuse of public funds in land takings. It is one of the easiest ways to steal the taxpayers' money. May I warn my colleagues, sir, that there was considerable Republican pressure for the passage of this loan order, for the passage of this loan. I am not making it an issue because I am supposedly anti-administration. I talked the same way then as I am talking now. I have other reasons why we should go easy in giving his Honor the Mayor a blank check of five million dollars. Do you realize, sir, there are many institutions in this city, powerful institutions that are only too glad to sell to the city a lot of worthless land for five million dollars? It is a lot of money. There is many a man in this city that is willing to deal with his Honor the Mayor on a five-million dollar proposition. It is with regret that I listened to my colleague from Dorchester engage in personalities. I made this motion because I felt that we should act the way I suggested. I was not guided by any selfish instinct nor was I guided by any animus on the part of myself toward the Mayor. I was guided solely by the same instincts that caused me to fight this motion at the beginning. I trust, sir, the Council will give serious consideration to my motion to reduce the loan order to one million dollars.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President, of course I had no intention of getting up here and delaying this meeting. It is now half past eight. We have spoken so much here about the wisdom of the Legislature. I wonder what wisdom the Legislature put into operation when they allow a private concern to build a garage on Boston Common and then in another breath allow the Mayor of the City of Boston to spend up to five million dollars for off-street parking. I am wondering how fair they were. Do you believe, Mr. President, any private concern will undertake a huge undertaking such as the garage under the Boston Common knowing full well that the City of Boston is going to give to the administration five million dollars without knowing where the locations are going to be, how many locations are going to be picked out and how much we are going to spend in the various locations? If you give one million dollars you are giving it just the same as you are giving five million dollars. It is a blank check no matter how you do it. I say if we want to eliminate traffic congestion, let us try to widen the streets of our city which are just cow paths. Start out widening the streets of Boston. Then you will get reduced traffic congestion. Take a leaf from the city of New York. The reason why they have not got congestion out there as you have in Boston is because of your streets and the overhead viaducts. Now are we going to give this to his Honor the Mayor to be spent under his supervision, because after all these individuals, the various heads of departments are appointed by him. You and I know each of the various department heads if they do not heed to the request of his Honor the Mayor they will get their necks chopped off. That means no bread and butter for their family. There is a natural instinct to do what the Mayor says. I believe that this needs a thorough study. Unless something constructive is given to this Body, I do not believe and, I for one, will not vote for one dime. I told his Honor the Mayor from the beginning of the year I owe him nothing. He owes me nothing. He owes a great deal to the city who elected him. He is the Chief Executive. It is the people who made it possible. We, as representatives of the various districts representing those districts, seek to represent people within those confines. What constructive argument has the administration for us to give them this five million dollars? Not a single argument. We do not know whether or not this will be the solution of traffic congestion in the City of Boston. I, for one, do not believe it will. I say that the Legislature in its wisdom was wrong when they allowed the bill to be passed and become a law that a private concern could undertake the building of a garage on Boston Common. If we pass this order now, isn't that a direct killing of that particular law? Would you or I, as businessmen, undertake such a project if we knew that the City of Boston was going to undertake a similar project throughout the city in direct competition? Let us realize what we are about to do. I, for one, have not had the information I would like to have. I am not convinced, Mr. President, if it came to a vote on the passage of five million dollars or one million dollars whether I should vote for it or against it. Not knowing fully enough where it is going to be, I will have to vote against it in order to safeguard my own opinion not to vote upon something I do not know a thing about. I say a study must be undertaken on the traffic situation. I believe that we had ought to start a program of widening our streets. That is our main problem. Therefore, Mr. President, in so far as so stealing is concerned, the word has been used here so freely today and I do not know if there is any stealing, but if you are going to steal five million dollars you are going to steal one million dollars. It may take a little bit longer to collect it but they are going to get to it. I say, let us kill it. If his Honor the Mayor still insists upon it, let him give the Council the information necessary, the constructive information on how and where and when the projects will be undertaken. Give us sufficient time in order to study their proposal to make up our decision honestly and sincerely and give the people of the City of Boston also an opportunity, by holding public meetings, to give their expressions. It is their money. Until such steps are taken, I feel we ought to kill this entire order either of one million dollars or five million dollars, the original amount.

Coun. SULLIVAN—Mr. President, I hope that the amendment does not prevail. Going back a few weeks when we had the loan order in here for eight and a half million dollars, for the East Boston Tunnel, it was stated then that the Republicans wanted to assist the outside cities and towns and not the City of Boston. The councilor from Ward 13 (Coun. Hannon) was justified—if the councilor from Ward 4 (Coun. Chase) wants to take it as a personal attack—in making the attack upon him. He was absent all afternoon. He came in here at the last minute to grab the publicity by asking for one million dollars when there was a majority in the Executive Committee who wished that this be rejected today and another order come in here at a later date, so that the members of this Body would have an opportunity to study the matter. The councilor from Ward 4 admitted that there was a strong Republican backing for this off-street parking. Do these Republicans live in Boston? Was it a move on his part this afternoon in wanting to appropriate one million dollars so that those who want to take over the underground garage under the Common would be discouraged by the appropriation of one million dollars this afternoon? Is this another trick of the Republicans to hinder Boston? If the Republicans are so sincere in wanting to help the taxpayers of Boston, why don't they take out of the committee the bill that has been there for the last fifteen or twenty years for the removal of the Elevated structure on Washington street, from Forest Hills to Sullivan square? You never hear the Republicans making any move in that direction. That is something that will really help the City of Boston. But no, the Republicans, the majority of them come from outside Boston. They want to build up their own towns and tear down Boston. There is no member in this Body here except the member of the Legislature from Ward 4 who knows anything about this five million dollars. Without a committee meeting, he wants to appropriate one million dollars. He is the watchdog of the treasury. What is his purpose in not even having a committee meeting and with no other member knowing what the five million dollars is for, to come in here to grab at the publicity and ask that it be reduced to one million dollars? Did he, when this was before the Legislature make any move to have an amendment that it be passed by the City Council in piecemeal fashion instead of five million dollars outright? What positive action that would help the City of Boston has the Legislature taken; and I refer to the Republican members, to definitely help Boston? What they are trying to do is help the big business interests. They are doing nothing to help the other sections of the city in remedying conditions. Then there is the white elephant we have in the Elevated structure. It was only one or two weeks ago after we passed eight and a half million dollars and I stated at that time it was only to help the residents of the North Shore, and not to help the City of Boston, that an article appeared in the newspaper that they were to extend the subway to Lynn at a cost of one million dollars. That is perfectly all right; the state will pay for that. Let the taxpayers of Boston bear the half-mile tunnel at the expense of eight and a half million dollars. I am going to move now, Mr. President, that the amendment to reduce this to one million dollars be laid on the table and that the order be rejected as recommended by the Executive Committee, without prejudice.

Coun. COOK—Mr. President, a point of order. Is that motion in order? It includes two motions. One part of it is debatable and the other is not.

President KELLY—The Chair is going to put one part of the motion on the order to the Council, to lay the amendment on the table.

The question came on laying the amendment on the table and the motion carried. The question then came on the passage or rejection of the order.

Coun. RUSSO—Mr. President. President KELLY—I will clarify it. A Yes vote is to pass it and a No vote is to defeat the five million dollars.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Am I right in assuming when an amendment is made to a loan order like this, we have to act on that first?

President KELLY—We have acted on the amendment. The amendment has been laid on the table.

Coun. LINEHAN—Mr. President, I would like to ask the clerk if you can have such a motion on an amendment.

President KELLY—It is perfectly in order. The clerk will call the roll and the councilors will please respond.

The question came on the passage or rejection of the order. The roll was called and the order rejected, yeas, none, nays, 9, present 5.

Nays—Coun. Bryan, Chase, Hannon, Keenan, Kinsella, Moriarty, Russo, Scannell and Sullivan.

Voting present—Coun. Bayley, Cook, Kelly, Linehan, McCormack.

During the year 1944 five cities of more than 10,000 population were placed in a better fire insurance classification, and five other cities were put into a poorer class as the result of new surveys made by the National Board of Fire Underwriters or by state rating organizations.

At the end of 1944 a total of 28 cities over 25,000 population were in class 2, 104 cities in class 3, 128 in class 4, and the remaining cities in classes 5 and 6, with none in class 1.

The fire insurance classification of a city is determined through the use of the grading schedule of the National Board of Fire Underwriters in making an engineering appraisal of fire protection facilities.

MODEL FOR BLACKOUT ORDINANCES.

The National Institute of Municipal Law Officers has prepared a blackout ordinance, approved by the Office of Civilian Defense; it delegates reasonable administrative powers to the proper executive officer and contemplates both actual air raid conditions and those of practice blackouts. Several state leagues of municipalities have also prepared model ordinances.

The first city to enact a blackout ordinance was Seattle, Washington, early last year. Many others have done so more recently, the ordinances ranging in character from the type that delegates all authority to the mayor or city manager to those providing no delegation of power but outlining completely the rules for civilian conduct during blackouts. In some cases, at least, the city is declared not liable for damage to persons or property resulting from an authorized blackout.—Municipal Review.

TO PROTECT MINORS.

Buffalo is considering an ordinance, similar to the one in effect in New York City, for the protection of minors in theaters. It permits children, unaccompanied by adults, only in theaters licensed as to adequate sanitary and safety provisions, sets aside a certain section for them and requires the presence of a licensed matron.

MAYOR CURLEY ANNOUNCES ESTABLISHMENT OF LOCAL HOUSING REFERRAL SERVICE FOR BENEFIT OF VETERANS OF WORLD WAR II — HOPE EXPRESSED THAT THROUGH THIS SERVICE ACUTE HOUSING PROBLEM FOR VETERANS WILL BE ALLEVIATED — PLAN DESIGNED TO MAKE AVAILABLE TO THEM BIGGER SHARE OF APARTMENTS AND ROOMS VACANT THROUGH TURNS — MAYOR DEEMS EASING OF PROBLEM ONE OF MAJOR JOBS OF COMMUNITY FOR THE MONTHS IMMEDIATELY AHEAD.

Establishment of a local housing referral service for the benefit of veterans of World War II was announced today by Mayor James M. Curley, Chairman of the Veterans Emergency Housing Committee.

Through the facilities of the housing referral service, local sponsors hope the acute housing problem for veterans faced by Boston will be greatly alleviated. It is designed to make available to veterans the lion's share of apartments and rooms that become vacant through turnover.

"Easing the housing problem in Boston ranks as one of the important jobs of this community in the months ahead," said Mayor Curley. "It can be worked out only with the full cooperation of public officials, business, and labor, assisted by the active support of every patriotic and public-spirited citizen.

"We are face to face with the necessity of positive action — right now. Veterans, returning to civilian life after years in the armed services, want homes in which they can rejoin their families. They want homes now. Certainly the men who went through the hell of battle in the steaming jungles and searing winter snows for all of us have every right to expect decent living accommodations for themselves and their families.

"Everything possible must be done to provide living quarters especially for these men — and for everyone who needs shelter. Home building must be encouraged, but more immediate measures also must be undertaken. One of these can be the conversion and remodeling of existing buildings to make additional homes."

Cooperation of All Needed.

Mayor Curley pointed out that it would take complete cooperation on the part of real estate interests, property owners, and individuals with spare rooms to let, if the veterans housing service were to achieve its objective of making it as easy as possible for the veteran to find out what housing is available.

"We are making a general request to the people of good will in Boston to send their listings as soon as possible to Veterans Housing Center, 209 Washington street, Boston, Massachusetts," Mayor Curley said. "For those who want to phone in their listings, the number is CAPitol 0100."

Mayor Curley said he didn't think there was any doubt but that the overwhelming majority of sentiment in Boston favored giving veterans first chance at accommodations that became vacant. "Even if we overlook entirely the contribution these people made in the war," he said, "it is only fair to give them preference for homes that those of us who did our job back here have had chances for right along.

Available Apartments.

"Many homes and apartments in Boston become available every year as a result of people moving out of town, the dissolution of families through death or divorce, and for other reasons. These are the vacancies the local housing referral service will seek to uncover for the benefit of veterans."

Mayor Curley pointed out that vacancies also occurred as a result of people moving to take better quarters. Such moves, he warned, would defeat the whole purpose of the program to make accommodations available to veterans, because the "mover" would be going into a home to which a veteran's family might have been given preference.

"The entire country," he said, "is faced with the necessity of finding places to live for 3,000,000 families, most of them veterans, and Boston must see that its quota is filled. The only way we can accomplish this is to have everyone list vacant houses, apartments or rooms with the Veterans Housing Center at 209 Washington street."

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean,
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion!"

NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

MAYOR HALTS CHARLESBANK BATHING BECAUSE OF WATER POLLUTION.

The Mayor, on August 26, received the following letter from Park Commissioner William P. Long:

HON. JAMES M. CURLEY,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR,—I am respectfully submitting a copy of communication received from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Department of Public Health, regarding the Charlesbank Beach, in which it states "that an examination made by this department on August 24, 1946, shows that the waters of the Charlesbank Beach in Boston are not being chlorinated, although an understanding made with the Metropolitan District Commission was that the water at these beaches would be chlorinated.—V. A. GETTING, Commissioner."

While the action of this department at this time might appear to be drastic, I believe you will agree with us that every effort should be made by the Park Department to prevent bathing in sewage-polluted waters, in view of the possibility of the transmission of infantile paralysis and other infectious diseases by such practice.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM P. LONG, Commissioner.

MAYOR CURLEY PROTESTS BRITISH ACTION ON PALESTINE JEWS.

His Honor the Mayor, on August 22, sent the following cablegram:

"CLEMENT R. ATTLEE, Prime Minister, Great Britain.

The people of the City of Boston are shocked beyond belief by the action of your government in Palestine, in condemning eighteen young Jewish patriots to death. We decry this action as a deliberate violation of international law, as a callous disregard of the provisions of the Geneva Convention of 1929 and as an insidious attempt by British authorities in Palestine to transfer responsibility for their own crimes to the victims. We join with the Political Action Committee for Palestine in protesting British action as a threat to democracy everywhere. In the name of the City of Boston, we call upon you to alter this gross violation of law and international agreement so that it does not become a heinous blot on the escutcheon of your government.

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor."

MAYOR PRAISES WORK OF FORMER MANAGER OF BOYS' CLUB OF SOUTH BOSTON ON DEPARTURE FOR NEW FIELD OF LABORS.

His Honor the Mayor has forwarded the following letter to Mr. Louis H. Zeramby, General Manager of the Boys' Club of South Boston, upon his departure for Laredo, Texas, to assume his new duties as Director of the Boys' Club in that city:

LOUIS H. ZERAMBY, General Manager, Boys' Club of South Boston.

DEAR MR. ZERAMBY,—Permit me, as Mayor of Boston, to congratulate you upon your recent selection as Executive Director of the Boys' Club of Laredo, Texas. It is my understanding that you are leaving your work as Manager of the Boys' Club of South Boston on September 1, 1946, to take up your new duties.

We here in Boston are most sorry to see you go, for you have been a great success in your work among the boys during the past seventeen years. For the past eight years, you have been the managing genius directing the work of the Boys' Club of South Boston. As you probably know, I have a very soft spot in my heart for "dear old Southie," and appreciate probably better than most people just what recreational and vocational direction can do to benefit a given community.

In my various terms as Mayor of Boston, I have always tried to give the people of our city opportunities for sport, play and recreation, and South Boston has not been overlooked—as one may see by the Strandway, Columbus Park, L Street Bathhouse and the Solarium.

Your work here at the Boys' Club of South Boston has been most valuable in teaching the boys of South Boston how to get the most out of life and at the same time contribute something in return. Your outstanding job here merits your promotion. The loss which the people of Boston will suffer upon your departure will be a gain for the thousands of boys in Laredo.

So, God be with you in your new field of work, and may you return at a later date to dear old Boston, and again help us with your personality and painstaking effort.

With every good wish, I am

Most sincerely yours,

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.

NATIONAL SERVICE LIFE INSURANCE WEEK STATEMENT BY THE MAYOR.

The first week in September has been designated by the governors of the New England states as National Service Life Insurance Week.

As Mayor of the City of Boston, the present and future welfare of veterans and their families is always uppermost in my mind. It is a well known fact that National Service Life Insurance provides the maximum of protection at the minimum of cost to the veteran, and that the various policies permit him the opportunity to follow an insurance program suited to his individual needs. The endorsement policies offered by the Veterans' Administration afford him security for old age and assure educational facilities for his children.

It is my sincere hope that all veterans who are residents of the City of Boston will invest in National Service Life Insurance in order to attain the maximum protection for themselves and for their children.

JAMES M. CURLEY, Mayor.
